FOREWORD

We are endeavoring to take you on a voyage through the school year. Leave your cares and sail with us through familiar ports of call. Meet and renew old friendships. Remember that this little trip is only part of the long voyage to come. Sail on, surmount all your difficulties—at journey's end there will be a happy landing!

. . . The Editor.

We dedicate the second volume of the Blue and White to our first adviser of the new annual, T. E. Connolly, Jr., for his efforts in creating this new yearbook for us.
