SENIORS

FOR the Fall Semester, the chair was occupied by Clarence Ruth, and the office of Secretary-Treasurer by Laurence Hamann. Lawrence Hamann was elected President at the beginning of the Spring term, and Helen Hassel, Secretary-Treasurer. Harold Cook and Adele Marty were Senior delegates to the Executive committee for the fall term.

The Seniors gave the first dance of the season, shortly after school opened in the fall.

At the May Day holiday and fete near the end of the school year the Senior girls' baseball team was dragged down to defeat by the Juniors; but the class redeemed itself later in the day with a clever bit of burlesque. An imitation Faculty meeting was staged successfully to the delight of the students.

Perhaps the most interesting development for the year was the tentative organization of a Chapter of a national honor society, the Kappa Delta Pi. A requirement for membership of twice as many credits as units has been suggested, and about twenty graduating Seniors with such standing have been listed. The Kappa Delta Pi was first organized at the University of Illinois and is confined to Teachers Colleges which offer a four-year Baccalaureate course. Chapters have been organized in many states. Such a society would be a splendid thing for students and school, and hopes of a shining future for it are entertained.

JUNIOR CLASS

With "athletics will win the school" as their slogan, the Junior Class entered in the games of 1924 with spirit. The majority of the stars on the football field and basketball court, being Juniors as follows: College, Elliott, Payne, Bankhead, Carmack, Caywood, Harrison, Butts and Palmer.

Two dances were also sponsored during the year; one a unique affair at Christmas time and the other in occasion of St. Patricks' day. (A large delegation of Seniors were present at both.)

In addition, the Juniors entered freely in the Senior vs. Junior Tug-o'-war, which resulted in a tie.

The last act of the first year classmen took place in a skit on Field day, called a "Mock Wedding."

The officers of the year were as follows

THE RECORD STAFF

UNFORTUNATELY we have had some difficulties this year with the pictures for the Record. This may make the book late in coming off the press, nevertheless every effort has been made by the staff and the printer to complete the annual and have it distributed before the close of school.

The Editorial and Business Staff of the 1924 Record is composed of Joe McVay, Editor; Helen Kelly, Assistant Editor; J. W. Hamilton, Business Manager; Mr. Cole, Business Advisor.

Department contributors are:

Organizations—Louise Brown, Orville Patterson, Virginia Allen, Catherine Allen, Dorothy Bornholdt, Bee Scoggins, Mary Carlin, Doris Leffler, Laura DeMaris, Catherine Waters.

Activities—J. W. Hamilton, Louise Brown, Helen Hassel, Ena Davis, Robert Meade, Frank Cooley.

Men's Athletics—Dee McCroskey.

Girls' Athletics—Adelle Marty.

Calendar—Katharine Waters.

Jokes—Maxon Mellinger.

Snaps—Margaret Balaban.

Alumni—Mary Carlin.

Student Directory—Anita McGregor.

We take this opportunity to express our appreciation to those members of the faculty who have assisted us in revision work and to Miss Deering and Miss Protzel who so kindly assisted in collecting the detailed data necessary for the publication of the Record.

EDITORIAL

CHICO has failed to develop to its fullest capacity a resource which is potentially one of its greatest. It has encouraged the Diamond Match Co. and its expansion of the lumber resources. Its surrounding farm land has been so much improved that today these farms bring directly and indirectly an enormous amount of business to the town. The Bidwell Park has been and is being made into an excellent drawing-card for both tourists and home makers. Anyone of these three may well be considered a resource the loss of which would mean the loss of thousands of dollars to Chico. But there is one resource which, though just as important as any one of these three, has not as yet been developed to one sixth of its possibilities. This resource is the Chico State Teachers and Junior College.

This College is the nearest Teachers College, Junior College or degree granting institution to nineteen counties of Northern California, half of Nevada and parts of Oregon and Montana. In the nineteen counties of Northern California the high schools will this year graduate more than two thousand four hundred students. About two hundred new students have enrolled at the Chico College during the year 1923-24. This means that only one out of every twelve students graduating from these high schools is coming to this school. There are two thousand two hundred graduates either going to other colleges or staying at home. They are the resource which is not developed.

To persuade these students to come to Chico two things are necessary; first, there must be a better understanding by these high school graduates of the opportunities in education at this College; second, the town of Chico and the College must provide means of handling this greater number of students.

There are two methods of selling the idea of coming to this College to the high school graduates. One method is through the personal advertising by the students and the other is through the advertising of the business men, not only in the local and out of town papers, but also through other instrumentalities.

There are students here from a great many of the high schools of Northern California.

If each of these students should at some time go back for a visit to his high school, as most of them will do, and should carefully explain to as many of the students as he can the subjects that can be taken here, the time necessary to complete the various courses, what kind of room and board they can expect and all the other little things and big things that are so important to prospective students; we would certainly have a greater number of students here next year from each of these schools. One of the things that should be highly emphasized is the fact that there is here a Junior College in which the student can get the first two years of regular collegiate work, full credit for which will be given at either Stanford or the University of California.

Now for the business men of Chico and the means that they have of assisting us. Almost all of them advertise in the local papers and many of them advertise in the papers of the surrounding towns. Let each business man who does advertise put something in his ad referring to the Chico College. For instance "When you go to the Chico College next fall, buy your athletic goods from 'Smith's Sporting Goods Store' and make the first team," or "Drop into Jones' soda fountain and try our Teachers College Special." Such advertising as this would continually keep some thought of the school in the minds of thousands of readers.

The one other condition necessary to growth is the provision of some means by which to handle more students in both the school and the town. Chico is growing we know, but if its College is to grow to its fullest possibilities, Chico must furnish more rooming houses. A few of our women students are staying at the Bidwell Hall Dormitory, many are rooming and boarding, some are keeping apartments, and no few are living in private homes, helping with the housework, and so earning part of their expenses. Nevertheless the rooming and boarding houses are about full and if very many more students come, there will be far from enough room.

The College itself will also have to expand and obtain more assistant instructors. The instructors we have now are capable of handling the work if they have a few assistants to take care of the greater bulk of detail work and the correcting of papers. The number of classrooms may have to be increased and a better gymnasium should be provided. This work we will leave up to our Governor and the State Board of Education whom we know will see the pressing need of these improvements and additions.

If the town of Chico and the State Department bring about these conditions the results will be amazing. Business conditions will be helped a great deal for there will be all these new students living here in Chico, buying their food and clothes and returning to Chico after they leave school, to trade because they know the town. The standard of education of this section of the state will be raised tremendously. Last, but of equal importance, within two years there ought to be at least one thousand students enrolled at the Chico State Teachers and Junior College.

AFTER several unsuccessful attempts to establish a school paper in this college, The Collegian, a three column printed newspaper made its appearance in the halls one Wednesday noon last fall.

The Collegian was started through the efforts of several students who realized the necessity of a student journal to this institution. After the permission of the faculty had been secured, it was decided to print the first issue financed by an appropriation from the emergency fund. It was decided to let the students see the paper and then ask their support.

It need not be said that they supported the paper and subscriptions were soon raised to finance the Collegian until the close of the fall semester. Only a few days were required for the staff to secure subscriptions at the opening of the spring semester, but the printing costs were too much and the funds were exhausted early in April, and publication was suspended.

When the budget was made up, enough money was voted by the students to support the Collegian during the coming year. It is hoped that the business department will be allowed to solicit ads during the coming year and increase the size of the paper.

It must be borne in mind that the staff of the paper worked without pay or school credit in an effort to get the Collegian firmly established, and it is the greatest desire of the staff to see the Collegian continue as one of the most essential organizations in the school.

ASSEMBLY NOTES

NOV. 1. The students and faculty enjoyed an informal talk on Washington, D. C., by Mr. Johns. Mr. Johns has visited many of the places in and about Washington, thus the personal touches added much interest to the discussion. The program was in charge of Miss Whitmore.

Nov. 8. Mr. Powers had charge of the second assembly program. The first number was a song by Miss Mary Myrtle Steele. Her superb soprano voice was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Following this Miss Barney's dramatic class presented "The Boy Comes Home" to a highly enthusiastic audience. Members of the cast were:

Roland King.....	Philip
Virginia Allen.....	The Maid
Maxon Mellinger.....	The Uncle
Eliza Riordan.....	The Cook

Nov. 22. The third program of the year was in charge of Miss Burfield. She gave a most interesting talk on manners and how we often slight them in the rush of our everyday life.

Dec. 6. Mr. E. T. Williamson, first vice-president of the Bank of Italy, spoke to the students on the subject of the American Banking System. It was a unique topic and proved to be of much interest to the students. Miss Stark was in charge of the program.

Dec. 20. Miss Barbour was in charge of the Christmas program. In keeping with the Christmas spirit Miss Lennon arranged for a number of Christmas songs which were sung by some of the lower grades of the Training School. Following this a very inspiring miracle play called "The Traveling Man" was given under Miss Barbour's directions. The cast included:

Maxon Mellinger as.....	The Traveling Man
Helen Krikac as.....	The Mother
Ronald Mulkey as.....	The Little Boy

Feb. 17. Mr. Iloff gave us an interesting as well as instructive talk on electrons and recent scientific discoveries concerning them. He illustrated his talk with a number of diagrams and drawings.

Mar. 6. Misses Monterey Linn, Alvera Wood and Winona Heuburger delighted the students and faculty with a number of dances given under the direction of Miss Covey. Miss Irene Snow, talented classic dancer, treated us with a charming toe dance in costume. The college orchestra rendered several well selected numbers at the beginning of the period. The program was in charge of Miss Covey.

Mar. 20. Miss Doyle introduced Joe Murphy, former student of this school, who entertained most admirably with a group of songs, several of which were original. His excellent voice and accompaniment, which he played himself, were a real treat to the students.

April 3. "Los Pantalones," a delightful Spanish farce, was presented by Mr. Echeverria's Spanish classes. Mr. Echeverria interpreted the play for our benefit before its presentation. The cast included the following: Robert Meade, Joe McVay, Dorothy Jared, Mary Carlin, Esther Anderson, Ava Baldock.

April 17. An unusually successful program in charge of Miss Garber was arranged for this week. The college orchestra rendered two selections at the beginning of the period, after which Miss Barney's dramatic class presented a play entitled "The Faraway Princess." The different parts were excellently carried out by the following cast.

Edith Mitchell.....	Princess
Maxon Mellinger.....	Poet
Katherine Swain.....	Maid of Honor
Nellie Critchfield.....	Maid
Virginia Allen.....	Frau Lindermann
Katharine Ware.....	Rosa the Maid
Helen Krikac.....	Frau von Brooke
Gladys Meline.....	Liddy
Anna Keenan.....	Milly

May 8. Mr. Studley gave us a pleasant surprise by singing a group of Irish songs accompanied by Miss Lennon. Following this Miss Barney's class in dramatics gave a play called "Two Blind Men and a Donkey." The play was presented admirably by the following cast.

First Blind Man.....	Ena Davis
Second Blind Man.....	Gladys Meline
Comedian.....	Helen Hassel
Proprietor of the Inn.....	Anna Keenan
Donkey Driver.....	Nellie Critchfield

May 22. An interesting lecture was given by Dr. Miller on the topic of Congressional taxation. He gave a detailed explanation of the various causes of the present state of high taxes.

SOCIAL NOTES

DANCING still reigns supreme in Chico State Teachers College. The Seniors gave it an early start by inviting the Juniors to a very informal reception the second week of school. The hall was prettily decorated with Japanese parasols and lanterns. The two little Japanese girls who served the delicious punch were kept very busy both in filling cups and in warding off admirers.

On the evening of October 20, the Student Body entertained its members at a harvest dance. Orange and black was the color scheme with pumpkins and cornstalks in the corners suggesting the harvest time. Everyone appeared in "country garb," and entered into the spirit of the dance with much enthusiasm. Music was furnished by the Melody Four.

The Stanford Glee Club dance came up to all anticipations. The hall was cleverly decorated in red and white, the colors of both Stanford and C. S. T. C.

The Juniors gave their annual dance December 14. The hall was beautifully (and appropriately, shall we say) decorated with evergreens. In the center stood a gay little Christmas tree all dressed up to meet Santa Claus. Before the evening was over, "old St. Nick" himself did appear and gave all the Seniors toys. Another surprise of the evening was an elimination dance. The winners were to be congratulated on their luck, or might we say endurance, for the prize was an immense box of candy.

The "Block C" gave their annual dance on Friday evening, February 15. The hall was artistically decorated with red and white "Cs," characteristic of the club. A very pleasing effect was produced by suspending an immense white "C" from the ceiling. Subdued lights and the lilting strains of Dick Terrill's orchestra finished the plan of decoration. Remarks from the girls and a satisfied smile seen on the faces of the boys proved the complete success of the dance.

The social hall was the scene of a charming dance given by the Junior College on the evening of March 11. A very lovely effect was produced by the lighting and the orchid and white decorations. As the evening was warm the excellent punch which was served was enjoyed very much. The Junior College organization had only been installed a few weeks when this dance was given. An organization with such enthusiasm is certainly going to flourish.

St. Patrick's Day was the incentive for a very attractive dance given by the Juniors on March 17. Harps and shamrocks were used to produce an Irish atmosphere which certainly seemed to cause the spirits of all those present to become carefree and ready to enjoy the dance.

The afternoon dances have been very popular this year. Besides being informal and an excellent opportunity for a "get-together" they were given as benefits to secure money for the school pennants. The Candle Light, Lantern Light, Kindergarten, Primary and Search Light organizations were quick to follow the lead given them by the Student Body.

DRAMATICS

UNDER the direction of Miss Barney, Dramatics has taken quite a stride forward during the year just past. Last fall it was given the standing of a regular college subject for which two units of credit were allowed. This spring it was placed on a laboratory basis in order to provide time within school hours for the necessary practice of plays.

Many plays have been studied by the class, and some knowledge of the modern one-act play has been acquired.

From the plays studied in class, several have been, from time to time, selected for presentation before the assembly. During the first semester two such plays were read: "The Boy Comes Home," a brief account of the change made in the life of our boys by the war and "The Traveling Man," an Irish mystery play. During the second semester "The Far Away Princess," "Rehearsal" and "Two Blind Men and a Donkey" were presented. This play was of the mediaeval fabliau type. The plot is of the regular fabliau sort and the situations amusing. The parts were all taken by girls, though intended for men, and this fact made the presentation of this play by far the most difficult task attempted by the class during the year.

These plays do not represent all the work done during the year as many plays were studied and presented before the class itself, either in whole or in part. One of the most interesting of these studies was the presentation of a short play called "Masks" which was written by Miss Katharine Waters, a member of the senior class. The central idea of the skit is that one is never herself save when alone and the dropping of one's mask before others may prove unnecessarily embarrassing to the person who so far forgets herself as to be natural.

The new curtains, purchased with a dramatic fund which has been slowly accumulating for the last three years, and made by the Home Economics Club, are to be hung by the men in the mechanical department and will make possible the presentation of many more kinds of plays than could be given on our simple, unadorned platform. We are hoping for the installation of special lights of the more modern type used in the little theaters of the country. With all these improvements, dramatics should advance even more next year than it has done during the past semester.

ORCHESTRA

THE orchestra has been an active organization in the school this season. It has appeared numerous times at assemblies and for programs. The latest venture of the orchestra is furnishing the accompaniment for the sing on Tuesday morning. Miss Lennon, the director, has secured a full presentation for the "Community Chorus Book Number One."

The members of the orchestra are:

Violins—Mrs. Alberta Jackey, Lester Skelley, Leota Hurberger, Cornelia Burt.

Clarinet—Lance Drane.

Cornets—Winona Heuberger, Frank Cooley.

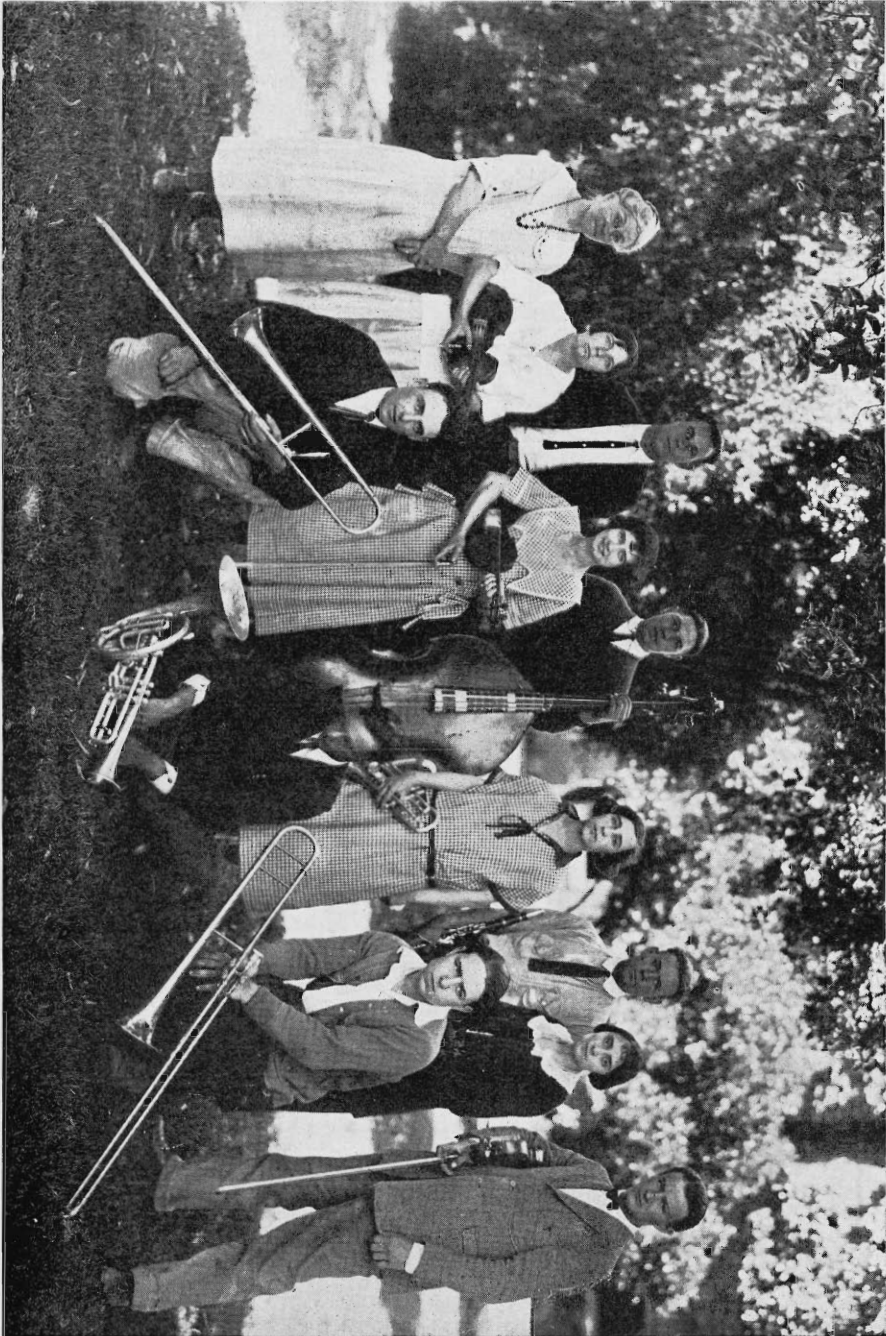

Trombones—Maxon Mellinger, Charles Sellick.

Bass Viol—Clyde Bowman.

Drums—Harold Whitlock.

Piano—Miss Lennon.

ORCHESTRA

Mt. Shasta Summer Session

COULD you enjoy six weeks of school in June and July, with classes under towering pines at the foot of glorious Mt. Shasta? Such is the Summer Session of the Chico State Teachers College, which is held yearly at their camp near the little town of Mt. Shasta.

Classes start at eight in the morning and continue until twelve o'clock. Recitations are held out of doors for the most part. The cool morning breezes and health-giving sunshine are great incentives to effective work and study. After twelve o'clock the remainder of the day is left for adventure and study. Hard work and efficient study guarantee a perfect summer at Mt. Shasta.

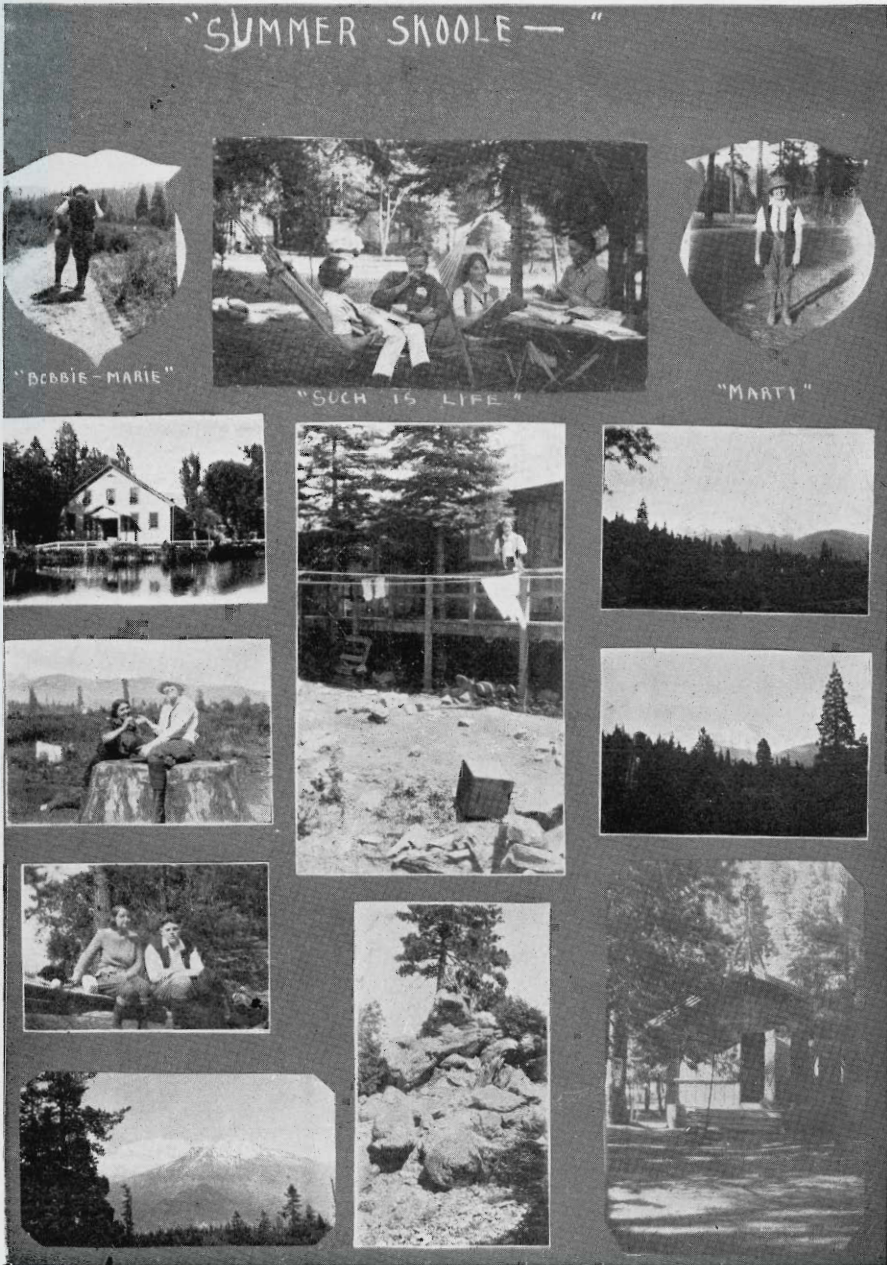

Hiking is the most favored sport. Every afternoon finds parties starting for some well known place such as Spring Hill, Abram's Lake or the Fish Hatchery. A hike to Spring Hill before breakfast is a very good remedy for persons suffering from digestive disorders.

A great many daring youths go horseback riding. They are people with little foresight or—but, no, we will not warn you; try it yourself, it's worth any price to gallop down the valley to Dunsmuir or Shasta Springs or, better yet, to take the inspiring ride to Castle Craigs by moonlight.

Swimming and boating at Abram's Lake is another popular form of amusement. In the Lodge, an excellent dance floor provides ample space for dancing and amateur entertainments usually carried on by the Student Body.

Sporting youth and ambitious elders, alike, respond to Shasta's mysterious call. The most attractive, happiest, healthiest and most profitable six weeks anyone ever spent will be at Mt. Shasta Summer Session of the Chico State Teachers College.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT BODY

HIGHLY successful in every way was the verdict of Teacher's College students in regard to Student Body activities. When we think of the seventh period on Thursday we involuntarily think of pleasure in some unexpected form. The assembly hall has been the scene of numerous rallies, yell practices, plays and entertainments as well as business meetings.

Amendments to the constitution, new laws, financial affairs, election of officers and athletics comprise the real work of the Student Body. Some unusually exciting meetings have resulted from discussions pro and con concerning these matters. Student Body elections always cause much enthusiasm, but this year's election proved to arouse more interest among students than is usually manifested.

Athletics have held a prominent place in meetings this year. Upon numerous occasions speeches have been made by captains and members of the various teams. Rallies and yell practices have been anything but minor events in the Student Body program.

The crowning event of the year was the big field day instituted by the student body for the first time. Sports, dancing, and a picnic lunch on the front lawn made a full afternoon and evening for the participants. In the evening the different organizations provided a program of stunts which kept the audience in a constant uproar. Talent of the most unexpected nature was displayed for the enjoyment of those present. The last thing on the day's program was a Student Body dance held in the social hall.

Taking all in all this has been a big and profitable year for the Student Body. Any number of changes and improvements have been made which cannot help but give a boost for the success of the organization next year.

The officers this year were:

JUNIOR COLLEGE

THE Chico Junior College is at last a reality. The need has been felt for some time that a distinct Junior College Student Body should be organized and the demand became so insistent that, last March, the Junior College Student Body was created. This now ranks Chico as the leading educational center of Northern California, for with her splendid High School, her Teachers College and the Junior College, Chico can offer the modern student almost any course of study he wishes to take up.

The Junior College department has existed in the Chico State Teachers College for some time but no definite organization was created until this year. The increasing size of college expenses has brought more students to Chico than ever before and we feel that within a short time, the Chico Junior College will grow into one of the largest Student Bodies of Northern California.

The Chico Junior College offers the first two years of college preparatory work, complete and thorough in every detail. We are very fortunate in having a most unusual staff of competent instructors and we know no school can offer any more than Chico can give.

Many students have completed two years of Junior College work here and have then entered a large university. In every case, full recognition was accorded their work here and they were admitted with a junior standing. Thus, we see that no fear need be felt that any time spent here will not be recognized by the universities.

An extensive campaign, advertising the Chico Junior College is being carried out by the Chico Chamber of Commerce. This body has recognized the value of the organization and accordingly has undertaken to see that every high school student in Northern California is given full details concerning it. We owe much to the Chamber of Commerce and only hope it succeeds in its undertaking. As a means of further advertising the organization, the Junior College gave a charming dance, with the entire school as its guest, on April 11. The affair was the social event of the season and firmly imbedded a most pleasing memory in the minds of all those who attended.

We will hear more of the Junior College in the future, and some day, no doubt, it will be the center of attraction that will draw hosts of people to Chico.

LANTERN LIGHT CLUB

A YEAR ago the students of the General Professional Course teaching in the Kindergarten Primary Department organized the Lantern Light Club. Service, loyalty and co-operation in carrying and spreading the light of education was their aim. As a symbol to signify this they chose the lantern, a light which is easily carried and ever ready. This club has continued its work through the year.

Last June the larger part of this group was launched on its way to service. But the club has kept in touch with its members in the field through the Round-Robin letter. This letter started from the college according to schedule. Each member visited added a letter so that all Lantern Lighters were heard from when the letter finally returned to the college. From these letters, we gather that the girls are doing their best to make their lanterns shine.

At home this year the organization has been growing and working. It conducted successfully two fortune-telling booths at the Health Center Carnival. It operated a hot-dog booth at the bazaar, the proceeds of which went toward a pennant for the Student Body. It also held a successful Easter Sale.

Work of an interesting character is being planned for next year. The officers of the club are President, Dorothy Bornholdt; Secretary-Treasurer, Dora Hansen.

KINDERGARTEN-PRIMARY

The fourth active year for the Kindergarten Primary association started with a bang at a regular meeting and reception for the juniors, the first Friday after school started in September. At this meeting it was voted to continue membership in the International Kindergarten Union. The Chico Association has been a branch club of this union for three years.

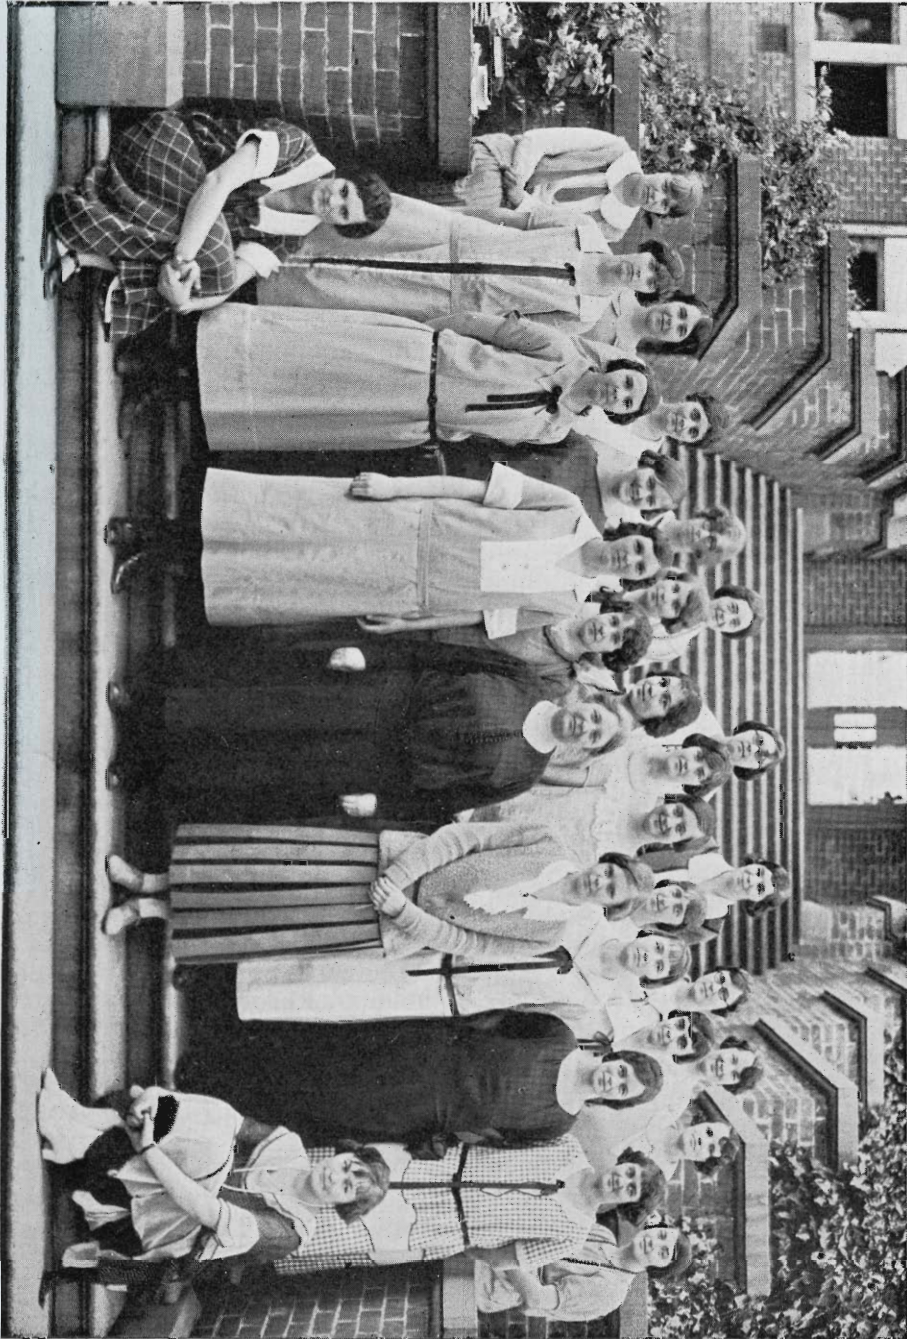

At the regular meetings reviews of the latest books dealing with kindergarten-primary problems are given by the members. Songs and kindergarten games are also demonstrated by the students.

The president was sent by the association to Fresno to represent the club. At this conference a California Kindergarten-Primary Association was formed of which the Chico Association is the Northern California branch.

A picnic was given May 17 at which the officers for next semester were chosen. Swimming fetes and a luncheon in honor of three girls whose birthdays came during the month made the picnic very enjoyable.

Officers for the year were:

VIRGINIA ALLEN.....	President
KATHRYN WARE.....	Vice-President
EVELYN MURPHY.....	Secretary
EUNICE BENDER.....	Treasurer

LANTERN LIGHT CLUB

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

THE past year has been a particularly interesting one in the life of the Home Economics Club. Although it is a student club we are affiliated with the National Home Economics Association and the Northern California Home Economics Association. We have tried to keep in touch with the above organizations by sending delegates to their meetings. In November Pearl Walters represented the club at a meeting of the Northern Section of Home Economics, and in February Catherine Allen represented us at a similar one. In March, Miss Stark, Mrs. Martin, Pearl Walters, Miss Bicknell and Evelyn Bronough attended a banquet given at Hotel Sacramento in honor of Miss Lita Bane, executive secretary of the National Home Economics Association. Our club members came back with a new impetus for their chosen work.

There have been several social functions during the past year. A "kids" party was given in October, when we all became youngsters again. At this time new members were welcomed. A very enjoyable evening was spent early in February when Miss Stark and Miss Doyle gave accounts of their trip to New Orleans during the Christmas holidays. Miss Stark, head of the Home Economics Department, represented California at the National Home Economics Convention, and presided over the textile section at the convention. In March, Miss Barney and Miss Reed entertained the club at a lovely St. Patrick's party. One of the most delightful events of the year was a surprise birthday dinner party given in honor of Miss Gail Burfield, by Miss Stark; and the nicest thing about it was that we did manage to keep the secret so that it was a complete surprise to Miss Burfield. The last event of importance was a picnic luncheon in Bidwell Park, given for the Northern Section Home Economics Association at its meeting in Chico May 17. Mrs. B. Wray and Mrs. E. Gunby had charge of luncheon. A number of teachers and outside speakers from Sacramento and Northern California were present.

Lest one should think that the club has stood only for pleasure, it might be interesting to know that it has also accomplished much in the way of school and community service. Last fall we raised fifty dollars for the Health Center by selling "vegetables," each vegetable which proved to be a surprise package. In December we assisted the Iota Sigma Fraternity boys in raising money which was used for school pennants. We also raised fifteen dollars to assist students of U. C. who were victims of the Berkeley fire. In April, under the supervision of Miss Garber, we made new curtains for the assembly hall stage. At the school festival on May fourteenth, we conducted a fashion show and a lemonade sale, both of which were a great success.

The total membership is thirty-six. The officers for the fall semester were, Pearl Waters, president; Hazel Barr, vice-president; Thelma Bobbitt, secretary; and Catharine Allen, treasurer. The officers for the spring semester are, Catharine Allen, president; Evelyn Bronough, vice-president; Ardis Gill, treasurer; and Elizabeth White, secretary.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

THE CANDLE LIGHT CLUB

THE CANDLE LIGHT CLUB is one of the two clubs in the Kindergarten-Primary Department. Any girl in this department is eligible to membership. The Candle Light was the first of the lights to be organized. It has as its motto, "Service, Loyalty and Co-operation."

This year has been the most successful year the club has had. The club has been active in the College life. The following are some of its activities:

During the football season it raised money by selling popcorn balls at several games. This money with an equal amount raised by the Lantern Light Club went to buy a pennant for the college.

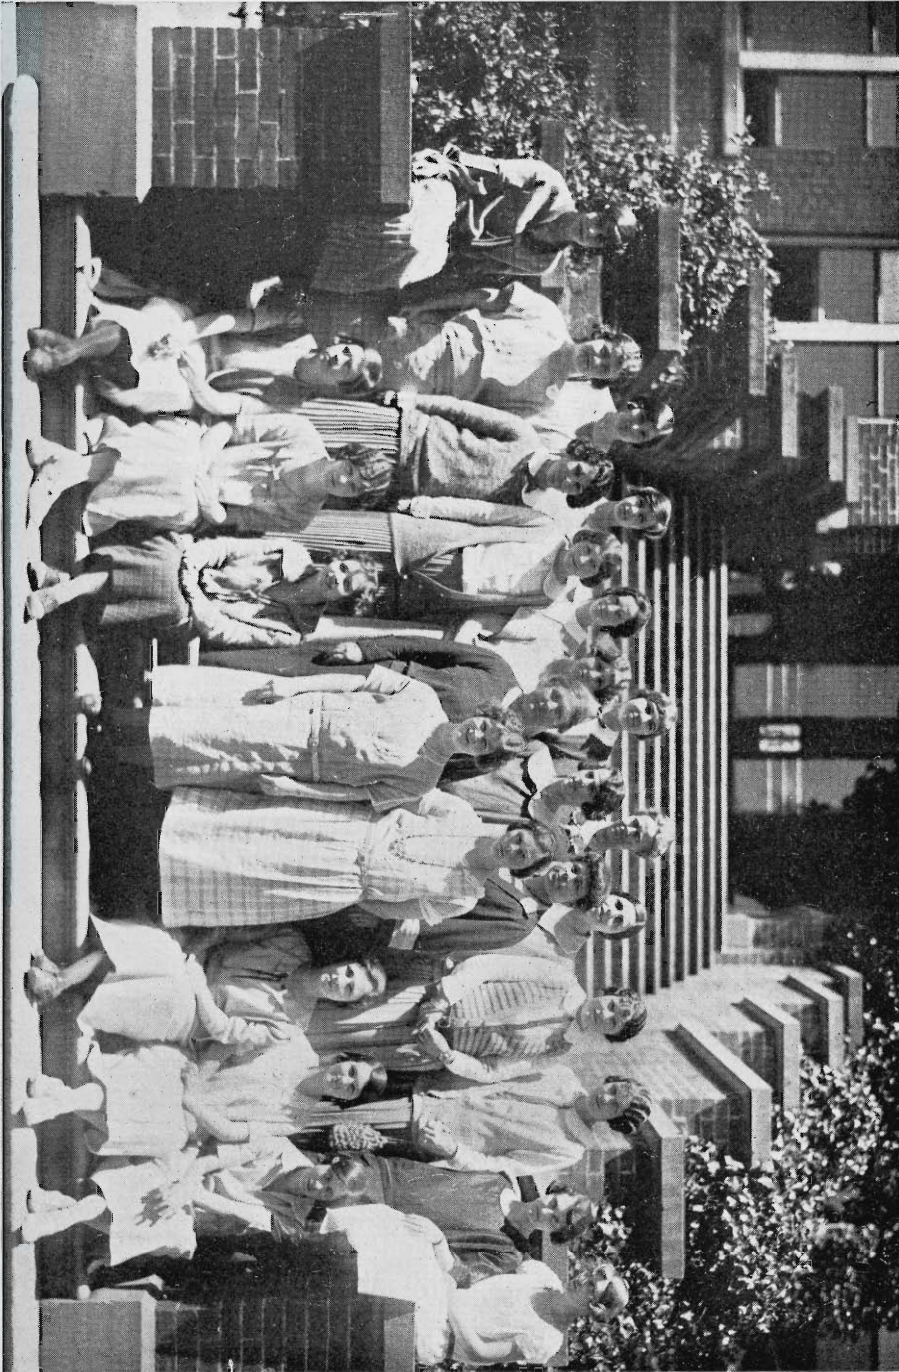

"The Shepherd in the Distance" a pantomime was put on by the club as its "stunt" for May Day.

Candle Light pins also appeared for the first time this year. The club wishes to extend its thanks to Miss Whitmore for the designing of the pin.

There are three regular club events during the year. The Christmas carol sing was given as usual, but this year the Candle Light Club was hostess to the Lantern Light Club and representatives of the Search Light Club.

The Candle Glow party was given at the Golden Poppy and was enjoyed by all who attended. The last event of the year was launching of the seniors. This was held at Bidwell Hall. The Good Fellowship Candle was lighted for the last time this year and the graduating seniors were launched with a very beautiful ceremony. Officers for the year: President, Bee Scoggins; Secretary-Treasurer, Evelyn Murphy.

CANDLE LIGHT CLUB

THE SEARCHLIGHT CLUB

THE SEARCHLIGHT CLUB is a new organization in the school and has not, as yet, a very long history or large membership.

The club was started just before Christmas vacation and became well-organized shortly after the first of the new year. The members of the club are girls teaching in the upper grades of the training school. Its purpose is to promote good fellowship and co-operation with fellow members and other students for the welfare of the training school and our college.

The emblem is the searchlight standing for the light of education with which the members are ever ready to help the children.

During the short life of this club an active part has been taken in several phases of school life. At High Jinks a stunt was given by the organization. When the supervisors Convention was held here the girls served refreshments several times after the meetings.

On April 9 an initiation party was held. The membership was increased and an enjoyable time was had by both new and old members.

It is to be expected that in the next year the club will continue to increase its membership and activity until it has succeeded in reaching its goal which is "Real Service to the School."

PI PHI BETA

PI PHI BETA was established in 1898. About ten years ago, when the school ordered all secret societies to disorganize, Pi Phi Beta withdrew from the school, and it was not until last year that the sorority re-entered the institution.

Though scholarship is neither a requirement nor an aim of the sorority, Margaret Poage and Margorie Foss received the Oakland Appointment in 1922, Rose Teutshel in 1923, and Alice Camper in 1924. There were no appointments in 1919 or 1920.

Pi Phi Beta has been active in welfare work, having assisted at the Health Center, Community Shop, and Health Center Carnivals, in the Red Cross and Christmas Seal drives, and the Opal McNaughton benefit.

This year a writing desk has been given to the Alumni Lodge at Summer School. The only public function of the sorority is the annual ball, which was given May 3 at the Hotel Oaks.

While Pi Phi Beta is twenty-six years old the total enrollment is two hundred. Included in the town alumni are: Miss Angeline Stansbury, Mrs. Ed Williamson, Mrs. Sherman Reynolds, Mrs. Harry Roth, Mrs. Samuel Severance, Mrs. John Craig, Mrs. Joe Bratton, Mrs. Warren Robbie, Mrs. Rex Curtis, Mrs. Helen Sommer Gage, Mrs. Vivian Johnston, Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Graham Cameron, Misses Helen and Lois Stansell, Nancy Ellen White, Aimmeé Abraham, Alberta Currier, Kathryn Kelly, Helen Bond, Margaret Harkness, Ethel Mullen, Dorothy Tripp, Dorothy Taber, and Virginia Webb.

THE ALPHA CHI

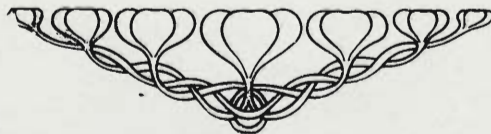

THE ALPHA CHI Sorority dates its origin back to the year 1917. It was organized for the purpose of engaging in social and charitable activities. Each Saturday two members of Alpha Chi give their morning hours to the Chico Health clinic for the poor of Chico.

During the past semester Alpha Chi has been active socially. It opened the season with two informal dances at Enloe hall. The annual formal dance at the beautiful Richardson Springs hotel closed the season's social affairs. Four new members were the motiff for this dance. Alpha Chi sorority has twenty-five active members and over one hundred inactive members who are teaching or living in the vicinity of Northern California.

Officers are: President, Laura DeMarais, vice-president, Inez Applegate; secretary, Mary Flint; treasurer, Helen Wells; sergeant-at-arms, Ruth Slade.

MEN'S ATHLETICS

By DEE McCROSKEY

FOOTBALL

OUR football season was unusually successful this year and our grid warriors won a name for themselves throughout the state. We did not win the state championship in the California Coast Conference, as we had hoped to do, but we tied for second honors. With the exception of two or three players, the entire team was composed of first-year men, and, although they came from good high school teams in this section of the state, they were inexperienced in college football. Considering this fact, our record in the C. C. C. was noteworthy and gives us a good outlook for next season when the team will be more experienced.

Taking the material that we had in the opening of the season, and molding it into a team that defeated all but one of our conference opponents, was an accomplishment that won undying praise for Coach Arthur Acker. He knows football and he knows how to coach. And any Chico citizen will say that the college team knows how to play, a thing that very few outside the school would say at the beginning of the season. It takes two seasons to build up a good football machine and what Coach Acker accomplished in his first season was far beyond our expectations. If he is with us next year we are bound to have a winner.

Our team remained undefeated in both conference and practice games throughout the season until we played the Pacific at San Jose for the championship of the division of the C. C. C. After a hotly contested game we tasted defeat for the first time, the Methodist school winning by a score of 7 to 0. The Cardinals were in no way outclassed by the southern team, but the breaks went the wrong way. During the third quarter, a Pacific man completed a ten-yard pass and ran another ten before he could be downed. This placed the ball within a few inches of the line and gave Pacific four downs to make it in. At this point in the contest, one of the best illustrations of a stonewall defense ever known in the annals of football was shown by the Cardinal eleven. The Pacific Tiger was held in his tracks for three downs. A fourth time the teams clashed, the referee blew his whistle, the players untangled, and the ball was not over! Then a thing happened that caused considerable comment after the game. After the referee's whistle had blown and the players had taken their positions, the head linesman discovered an offside on both teams. Pacific bucked the line again and on the fifth attempt, carried it over for the winning touchdown.

Two of our hardest fought games were with the American Legion team, one on Armistice Day and the other on New Year's Day. Both games ended in a 7 to 7 tie and the trophy cup, that has been the much-sought-for prize for the last three years, will have to be played for again next year. In the last contest, the college outplayed the soldiers in every department of the game and the one touchdown that the latter made was a New Year's gift, caused by a fumble and a penalty, which placed the ball on the goal line.

Following is the line-up of the players who won their letter in football this year: le, Lee; lt, Cheney; lg, McAtee, Deering; c, Mellinger; rg, Kiolstad; rt, Caywood; re, Payne, Bankhead; l. half, Johnson, Capt.; r. half, College; full, Butts, Capt.-elect; quarter, Spicer; substitutes, line-men, McVay, Whitlock; backfield, Albright Milligan.

Following are the games, both practice and conference, which the college played this season:

- Oct. 13, at Chico, Chico 27, Preston 0.
- Oct. 20, at Chico, Chico 38, Davis Farm 0.
- Oct. 27, at Chico, Chico 26, Sacramento J. C. 0.
- Nov. 3, at Chico, Chico 26, San Mateo J. C. 7.
- Nov. 12, at Chico, Chico 7, American Legion 7.
- Nov. 17, at Chico, Chico 53, San Jose 3.
- Nov. 23, at San Jose, C. O. P. 7, Chico 0.
- Nov. 29, at Chico, Marines 17, Chico 7.
- Jan. 7, at Chico, Chico 7, American Legion 7.

BASKETBALL

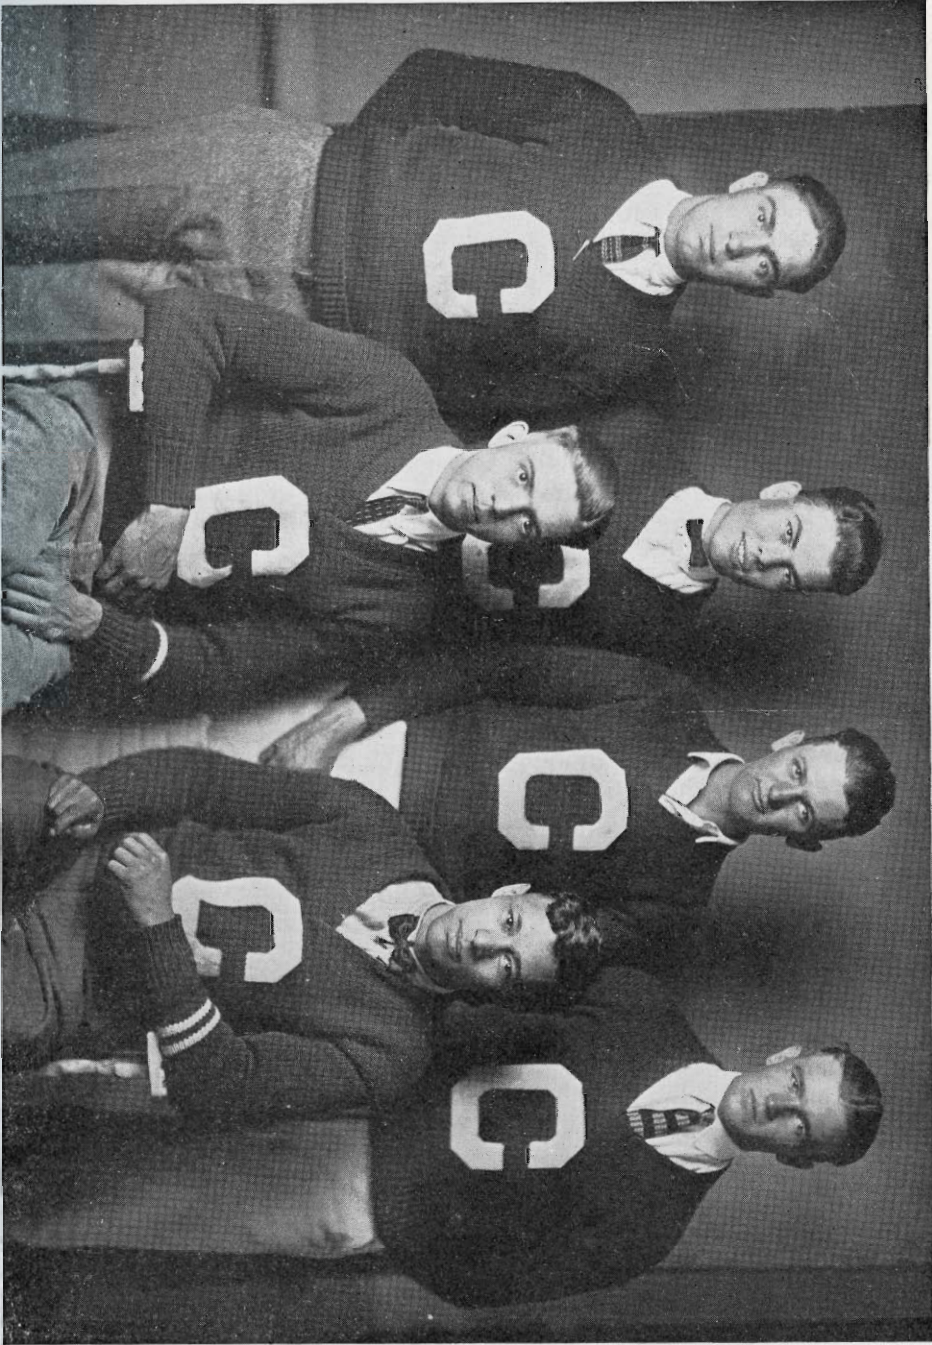

CHICO started the basketball season right by defeating the College of the Pacific five in the first game of the season by a 19 to 14 score. The victory was one of the biggest surprises in the conference, since Pacific had held the championship for two years. The game was played on January 26, on the Orland High school court, Chico not having a gymnasium in town that measures up to regulation.

Our other conference games were played away from home, at San Mateo on February 1, and at San Jose the following night. The San Mateo game was a battle from start to finish and was anybody's game until the last whistle blew, leaving the score: Chico 15, San Mateo 13. This victory was well earned but in winning we sacrificed one of our regulars, Captain Art Johnson, who was injured. Had he been in the game the next day, the story would have been different and the conference title would have been ours. In spite of the handicap, however, the Cardinals maintained the lead against San Jose until the last minute of play, when the southerners threw two long goals, leaving the final score: San Jose 13, Chico 9.

Pacific then defeated San Jose, leaving the conference in a triangular tie, Chico, Pacific, and San Jose. As it was late in the season, the tie was not played off.

Coach Acker showed as much ability in basketball as in football, and the showing made by his team fully bears out his reputation as an expert coach. Colledge was the point getter for the Cardinal aggregation, playing running guard and forward. Lee used his height to good advantage at center and also did good shooting. Captain Art Johnson played forward and showed himself to be expert at gaining possession of the ball. Butts and Bankhead worked the defense positions like Waltham Vanguards. Elliott also proved equal to the task when put in as guard. Harrison, Whitlock, and Powers were substitutes.

BASKETBALL TEAM

BASEBALL

BASEBALL material in Chico State Teachers College this year was of as high a caliber as were the football and basketball men, but were unable to take part in the conference schedule because of lack of finances.

Besides a number of contests against local teams, all of which the college nine easily won, we played three intercollegiate games, winning one. The first big game of the year was played here on Monday, March 31, against Davis State Farm, the aggies winning by a score of 3 to 2.

On Friday, April 11, the team went to Davis for the return game. Coach Acker put Lee in as hurler for the Cards, saving Colledge for the game with Sacramento the following day. The game was easily won by Davis, score: 9 to 4. The following day the Sacramento Junior College aggregation came to Chico and was defeated by the Cardinals, the score being 9 to 2.

On Saturday, May 10, the Cardinal nine again played the Sacramento Junior College aggregation on the Capital City diamond and won by the very one-sided score of 28 to 2. Harrison, our second string hurler, pitched the entire game, and even though there were several other second team players in the line-up, the Sacramento lads were no match for the locals.

The seasons line-up was:

Leftfield, Lee; centerfield, Carmack, captain elect; right field, C. Bruce, captain; third base, Skelly; shortstop, Butts; second base, Caywood; first base, Palmer; pitchers, Colledge, Harrison; catcher Cheney.

A post-season intra-college game was played on the afternoon of our May Day meet between the boys of the Junior College and those taking the regular teachers course. The Junior College aggregation waltzed away with the game giving the pedagogues the small end of a 9 to 2 score in the five innings of play.

BOYS' JAZZ PARTY

THE stellar event of the year for the boys was the "Jazz Party," held Friday night, March 7. The program included six lively bouts, a pillow fight on the athletic horse, a "footketball" game, and a banquet.

The first feature of the evening was the pillow fight series. This event produced a huge mirthquake among the spectators and also brought to light some real wild west riders.

Next came the big feature of the party, the bouts. The best match was between Bill Hamilton, champion of the school, and Hal Caywood, challenger. Other bouts were: Burrows and Cheney; Harrison and Davis; Bruce and Streeter; Sellick and McCroskey; Pillsbury and Major Butts. All six matches ended in draws.

Eddie Butts and Carl Kiolstad were the last ones in the ring in the free-for-all contest and staged a short bout after the others had been eliminated. Others participating in the free-for-all were: Payne, Melinger, Lombard, Boyles, Marcott, Johnson and Hamilton.

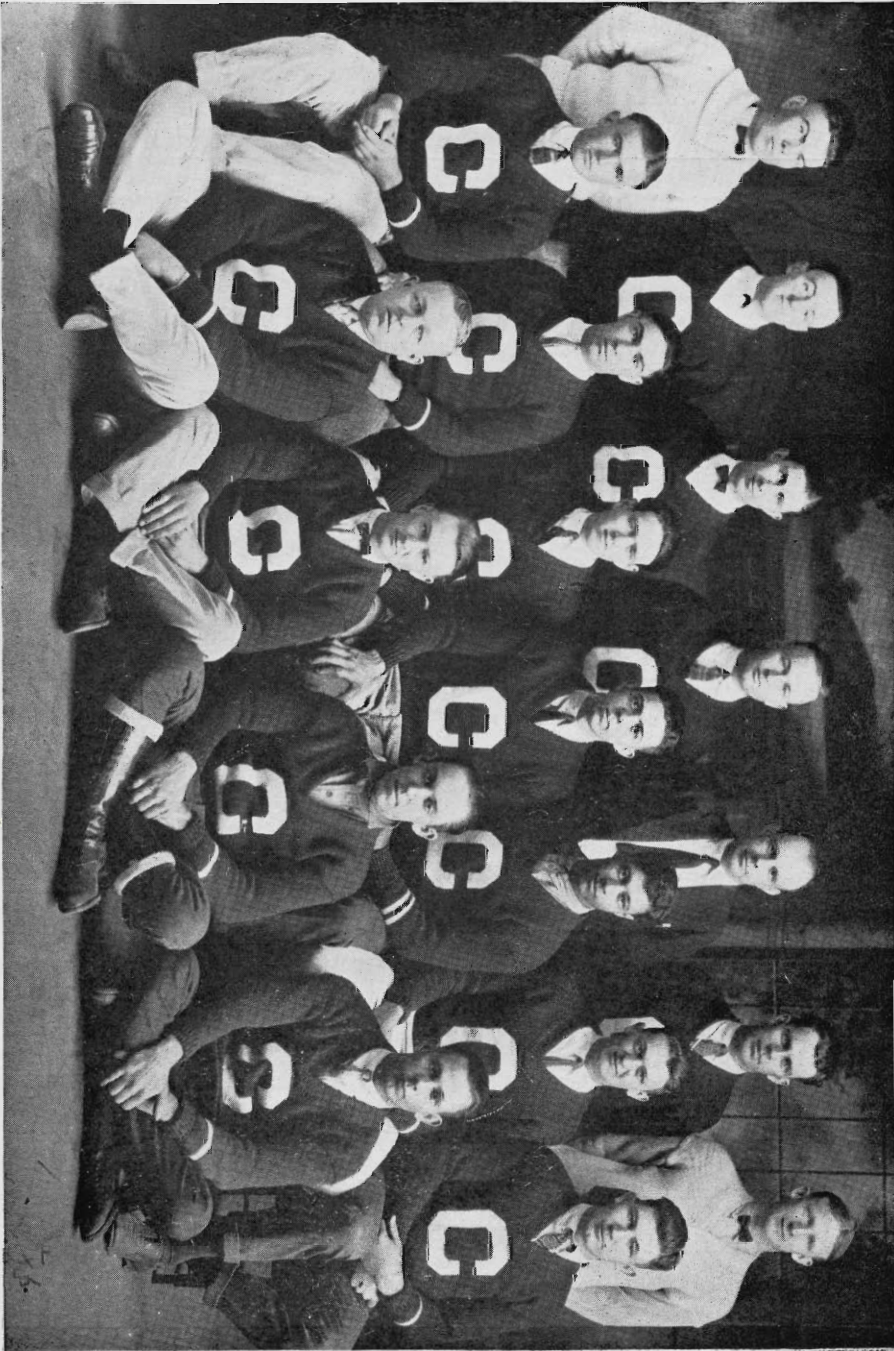

After the "footketball" game, in which all rules of basketball were dispensed with, neither side getting any points, the boys all gathered in the dining room and the banquet was served. The jazz party will be an annual event in the college hereafter.

BLOCK "C"

Among the stellar events of the year were the Block "C" entertainments, the big annual dance and two banquets. Besides these the club put on several noon luncheons. All the events were well attended by the students of the school and the Block "C" Club became one of the liveliest organizations in the school.

Euland Payne as president played a very active part in the functions of the organization. Carl Kiolstadt was secretary of the club.

One of the accomplishments this year was the issuing of certificates to the letter men during one of our student body assemblies. The certificates were given for letters won in basketball and baseball.

GIRL'S ATHLETICS

By ADELLE MARTY

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

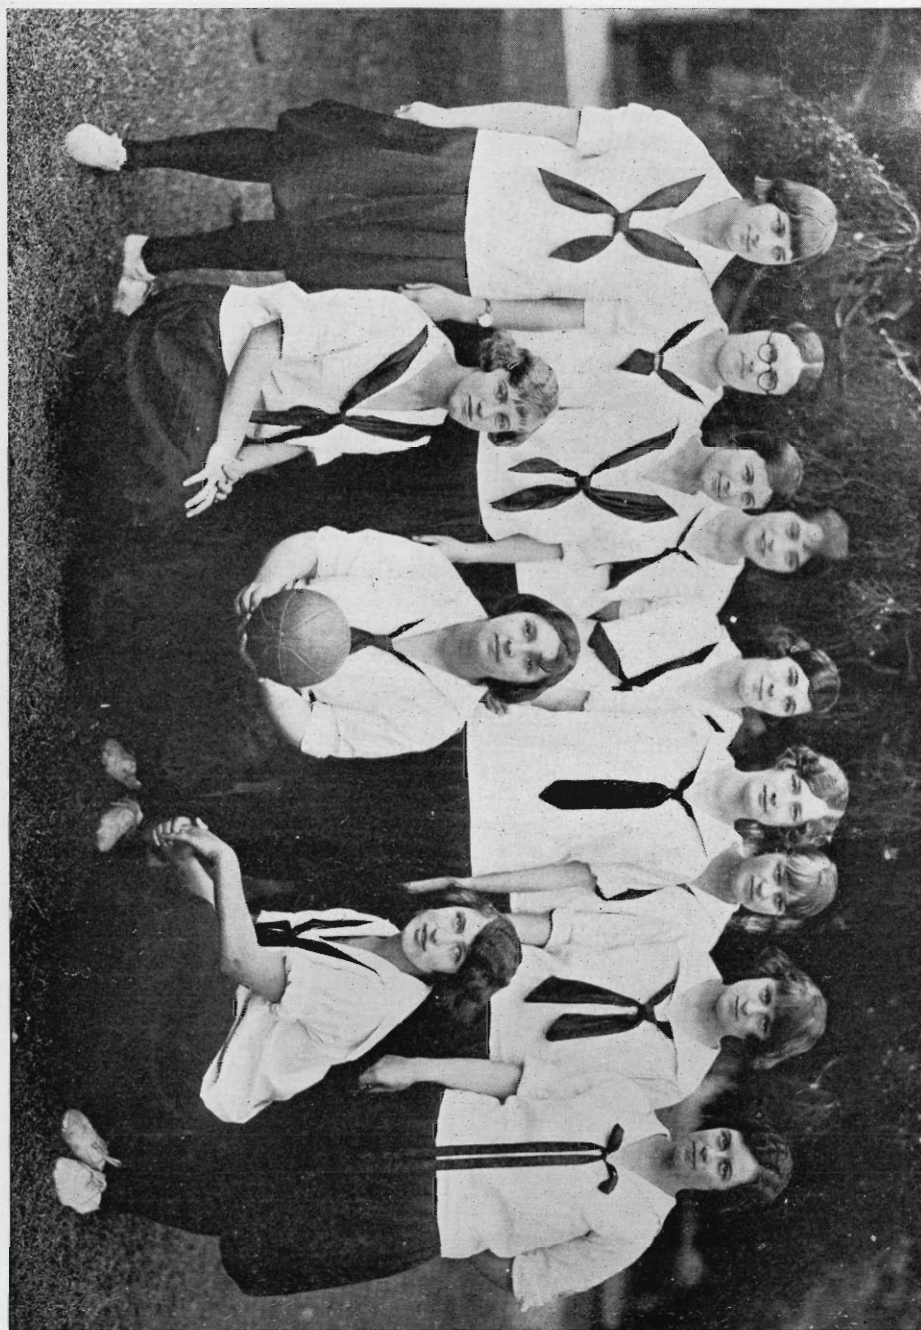

FROM some reports people on the outside would think the boys of Chico State Teachers College occupied the whole stage when it comes to physical education, but those who know realize that the girls' physical education department of our school is second to none.

Under the able teaching of Miss Covey the fancy and folk dancing, gymnastics, swimming, volley ball and baseball are taught the girls so they may coach or teach any of these activities during their work as teachers. That folk dancing and fancy dancing has been well taught and learned has been shown by several excellent programs put on by the girls during assemblies. Our school boasts a fine swimming tank and classes twice a week are taught the rudiments of good swimming, as well as the more advanced work such as racing and fancy diving.

In baseball we feel we are second to nobody when it comes to girls. In all, about one hundred girls have been practicing baseball this term and their work shows how proficient they have become in that sport. Double plays, stealing bases, hit and run plays, good catches, and above all girls who can throw, make an aggregation some big league scout would do well to look over. So far interclass and picked teams have furnished all the competition, but this is only because Chico is further along in this sport than the other schools.

In volley ball—but oh! just listen. This is the only sport the girls had outside games or competition in this year and they are still wondering if they are world beaters or just happened to catch another school on an off day. Anhow, they defeated the Sacramento Junior College girls in two games with a score of 21 to 3 and 21 to 5. It was a long way to come to be so badly defeated, but the Sacramento girls were good sports even though they were outclassed.

Next year we hope to carry on the good work. Many of our best girls graduate but the majority remain. In the words of the great Hiram Johnson "You can't keep a good man down" and we know that before very long people will see that the girls of the Chico State Teachers College are good teachers themselves of all girl athletics and our school will have to be enlarged to accommodate the new comers our fame has brought us. LET THEM COME!

SEPTEMBER

15. Thisky registrationovitch on Saturdaysky is enuffeloff to make Bolsheviksky uvusalovitch.

16. Goody, goody! Miss Reed's bobbed her hair! Umgonna bob mine too!

17. Official day for sizing them up—total 331.

18. After all, there are some things one simply can't help missing by not going to a big university—take the Berkeley fire, for instance.

19. Elections suggest fire—Payne as president of Junior Class, and President Deering's hair.

20. First afternoon assembly—Junior's warned to have many happy returns—Seniors start thinking of good excuses.

21. Kgn.-Primary reception to Junior members. How unprecedented to have a reception at the first of the year!

22. It is reported that geography teachers in Training School contributed heavily to the Japanese Relief fund, saying that is was worth that much to them in good, durable, World News.

23. Acker and his men receive a pretty compliment from the press already. Just wait till we get started!

24. Miss Wilson's home given over to entertaining teachers. How do they find time to frivol? we wail.

25. Miss Barney's poetry class proves popular. Evidently our budding sentimentalists don't need Spring and the Violet to inspire them.

27. We manage to take in the Orland Fair, tho we do dislike long rides after a dance.

28. Hooray! Three cheers for Mr. Studley's return. We hope nothing of this sort ever happens again.

29. Juanita Tovee moves up the alphabet to the B's. School is getting to be quite a match-box.

30. Sorority and fraternity benefit dance for Berkeley. Cookies and iced tea consumed extensively—behind scenes.

OCTOBER

1. Home Economics girls give dinner. Rather a "survival of the fittest" affair.

2. Kgn.-Primary girls have afternoon dance.

3. Oh yes, we were one of the fifty per-cent that passed the English "A" Ex. What's that? Certainly.

4. "More pupils needed at Training School."—headline. Gracious, we can't imagine handling more—we have ten now.

5. Julian Eltinge masquerading as a woman at the Majestic. What we suggest is a few of our girls supplying the need for boys around here.

6. Health Center Carnival. Miss Reed, as fortune teller, informed us that we were going to loose all our money, which was absurd, considering that we had just spent our last dime on confetti, serpentine, caps, candy, peanuts, pop-corn, paper vegetables, hot dogs, etc, etc.

8. Paradise dances will continue. Of course we never have gone, but they do say the third girl from the left in the blue dress and her man have been seen there—yes, Girdner's the name—
10. "Deck" made into new offices. Unoccupied—no heat.
11. How'd they ever happen to ask her to be in the Fashion Show! Perfectly vacant—yea, they ast us, but we don't believe in commercializing our beauty—Huh? Yea—beauty's what we said.
13. Faculty smoked out of new offices.
14. Weather remains cold, and faculty out of offices.
15. Miss Barney appears with kerosene stove and big coat, others follow. All serene.
16. We're coming up in the world. The Collegian appears. 'Ray for Bill.
17. Lantern Lighter's first meeting, large attendance. Well, yes. there were refreshments.
18. Poor Davis didn't have a show. Score.
19. New bungalows inspected by home-planning class. Haven't we enough newlyweds without this sort of propaganda? An innocent, defenseless, man isn't safe any more.
20. Hope for a good annual were revived when Joe pocketed the editor's job.
21. Elko girl survives shock of 11,000 volt current. Just the hardy sort of girl we need to take hold of Bidwell Hall.
22. Governor's budget criticized in teacher's meeting. "And so they took the $5,000 and bought paper for lesson plans."
23. Teacher's convention at Sacramento—Yes, a very instructive lecture—did you see the dress across from me? No, I don't seem to remember what was said—I was watching this dress. It was made like this
24. At Miss Lennon's urging we go to the Queena Mario concert. To hear her sing? Nay, nay, to see whether she makes the lining of her nose smaller, and wiggles her mouth.
25. Mellinger gets his hand broken in football practice. A thought for those who can't catch the flu or poison oak just before an ex.
26. Seniors give dance. Helen works overtime trying to collect dues
27. Sororities indulge hectically in rush parties and taxes.
28. Exhibit of leather and binding art in Miss Whitmore's room.
29. College sheiks organize. This makes it easier for the girls to identify the wicked things, tho it is as hard as ever to see why the fellows consider themselves so.
30. Junior and Senior girls almost work up a little spirit over basketball, lockers, and speeches in assembly.
31. Mr. Van Kirk spoke to us on World Peace. The only piece most of us seem to be interested in is the one that was left over this noon, and that may be gone before we get home.

NOVEMBER

1. Miss Reed and Miss Barney hold a house-warming. Since "Bless-Your-Heart" and a dozen new hair nets were saved, we suppose the damage was not great. Why couldn't our test papers have been burned?
2. Kay Waters blossoms out with the first shingle.
3. College boys slightly mussed after giving San Mateo a 26-7 score to think about on the way home.

5. Sudden hunting for books and searching for notes as time for cinches draws near.
6. Too hoarse to write. Sore throat from yelling at College-Legion game, score 7-7.
7. Library full. We study.
8. Ena Davis wins the $7.50 for prize yell. We are encouraged, just missed us by one row.
9. Cinches. What a relief. No more work for another eight weeks.
10. The 53-3 score "we" took from San Jose was just the stimulus needed to bring out our keenest and wittiest remarks.
11. Crazy week, nothing as usual:
12. Joe McVay didn't slide down the banisters.
13. Jimmy Milligan and Clarence Ruth didn't make the crowd-at-the-foot-of-the-stairs laugh.
14. Kay W. didn't open one window.
15. Euland Payne didn't object to anything in meeting.
16. Hear! Hear! Twelve fellows wealthy enough to buy "Chico State" belt buckles.
17. Helen Hassell in quandry as to how to make successful dances with $25. She contemplates eliminating decorations, punch—our suggestion (unsolicited, alas) is that she economize on lights.
18. Mr. Williamson returns to his Alma Mater to explain the banking system. Maybe perhaps someday Goof will return and explain "The Passing System, of How to Get By on Good Looks."
19. Dorothy Smith is Queen Olive at Oroville. Adalyn said she could have qualified as Queen of the—well, you finish it.
20. Education Week. This is the way we like to get an education. Bring on the next program.
21. As the hours before eight a. m. grow shorter, the shingles increase as regularly as Eddie appears at her door step.
22. Off to San Jose to play with C. O. P. Nearly ran over a black cat, had two punctures, and missed the last ferry from Vallejo.
23. We arrive. We know they been waiting for us by the way they shout as we cross to our section. We lose our voice, our compact and a bet, and are extremely proud of our team.
24. Rent two ten cent (10c) twigs to view the Big Game. Mr. Johns hired only one, but we always play safe, considering weight and all. See all our friends in similar positions.
25. Ann and Miss Deering explain to everyone how Mr. Johns sat on the pie coming home.
26. Bill introduces "Defeat," the mascot accumulated at San Jose. Evidently the pup isn't so used to Bill's actions as we.
27. A word that means a great many things—"vacation."
29. We conquer an impulse to offer the team our umbrella. The navy seemed to enjoy the wet, tho.

DECEMBER

1. We decide what to wear in time to get to the Stanford Glee Club concert.
3. School again. What a distressing day to write anything about.
4. If we'd had a nickel more we could have afforded indigestion

25. Oh, Trammel, you dear thing. It's just what I wanted!

JANUARY

1. "—and always to have our School Law, and never to cut conferences and to be on time to assemblies. So help me, Faculty and Osenbaugh. Amen."

7. Fellows ready to declare the casualest encounters leap year advances. All profess to be terrified.

8. Miss Doyle returns from trip full of good material for geography classes.

9. Much discussion in assembly on 7-7 College-Legion football score.

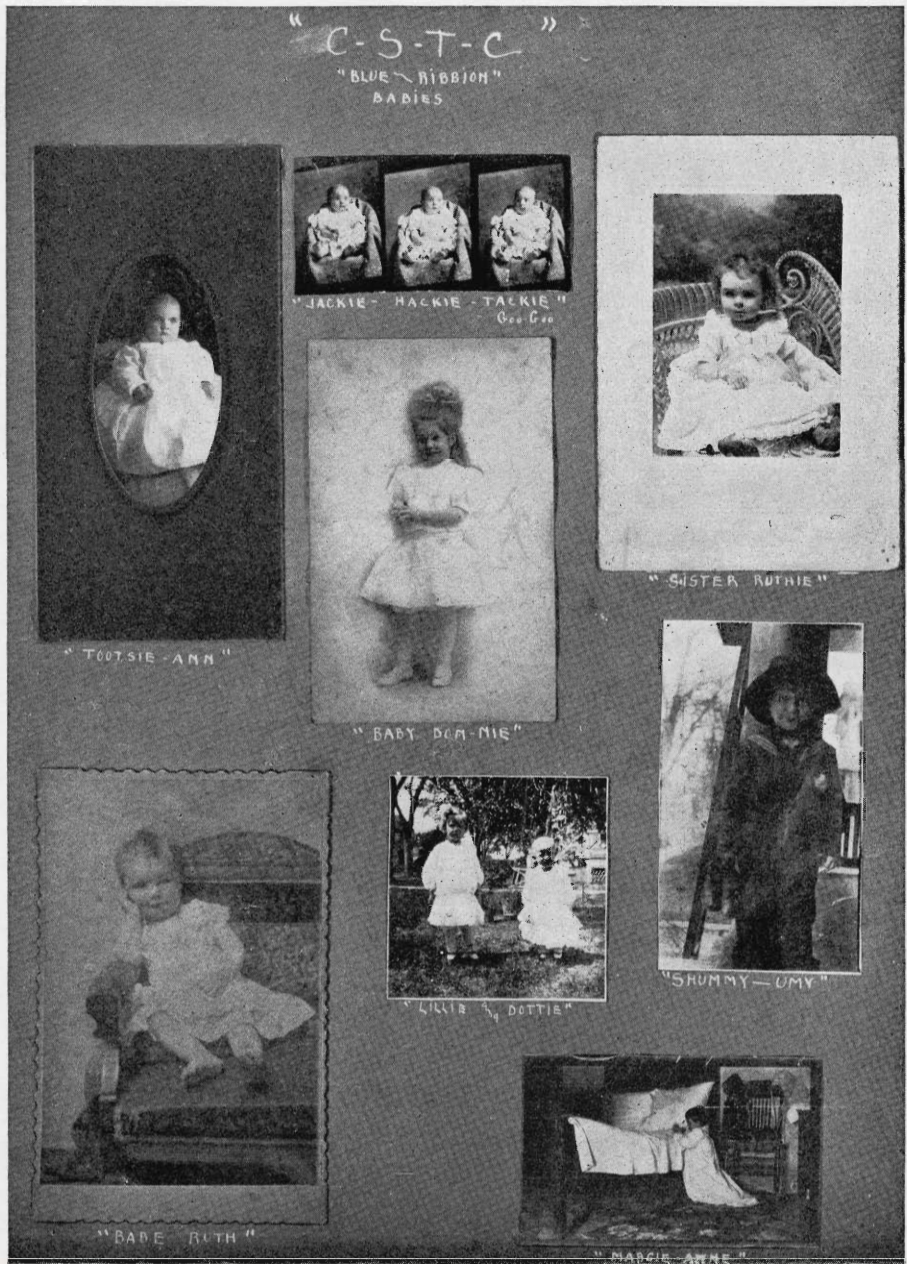

10. Student teachers in great suspense over teaching assignments. Frances Macoun afraid she will get her first choice. She tried the system of reversing her choices, since nine times out of ten last choice is drawn.

11. Nominees for Student Body try to put off voting on amendment concerning Block C Letters to avoid making speeches.

12. Helen Kelly elected Student Body president. Boys decline to lose gracefully. Make wild charges.

13. Acker's basketball teams make the trip to Biggs and back.

14. Lucky Seniors getting ready to graduate. Idea for an explanation of Mona Lisa's smile.

15. Miss Lennon, Alice Camper, Fern Houston and Elizabeth Yank attend music conference in Sacramento, and report exceptionally fine programs at theaters.

16. Ruth Slade sports a bobbed head.

17. Oath of office adopted. Faint murmurs of the well known march from "Lohengrin" accompany fair officer's promises of "I do."

18. Dee McCrosky tackles job of raising funds for school paper.

20. College and Colledge surprise C. O. P. a trifle in basketball.

21. Acker almost speaks in assembly.

22. Virginia Allen hasn't any announcements to make.

23. Fern Houston decides to let her hair grow out.

24. Basketball men trying out effects of half or three-quarter socks.

25. Fern gets her hair cut again.

26. Congratulations showered on graduates.

27. Mystery of Grace Goin's running up and down stairs all soapy explained by absence of water upstairs and of towels down. It's a hard life us girls lead.

30. Bill's last Collegian. Many compliments are in order.

FEBRUARY

1. Chamber of Commerce devoted $100 to Collegian fund. Why not use this money for cuts of famous events like the following: Frances Quigley really getting a C in a test. Tough Bruce singing in Assembly, or Angie being angelic?

2. Those who supervisors did awe now fat welcome pay checks smugly draw.

3. Dee has beautiful plan for saving money by printing paper in Corning.

4. Thirty-five new students restore our self confidence.

5. Thirty-six if you really do the new sheik justice. What did you say, Ava?

6. Local papers deeply wounded at Dee's plan. Being naturally considerate of other's feelings, he decides to print in Chico.

7. With Hal Caywood as president and Velma Harris as secretary, the Junior class should make a happy family.

8. Faculty give Wilson memorial program.

9. Reporter for Collegian bravely faces indignation and repulses in the name of Greater Enlightenment. Discovers twice as many girls with bobbed hair as with hair pins.

10. Miss White's class becomes popular in spite of eight o'clock handicap.

11. Girls in the forward end of the supper line declare Hi Jinks huge success, others inclined to be skeptical.

12. The spectre of the English A Ex. rises to haunt us.

13. Basketball team leaves without farewells which marked departure of football team to San Jose; in spite of which,

14. San Mateo admits defeat of 15-13, tho

15. San Jose somehow or other was more lucky.

16. Block C men prove they have varied talents by giving big dance.

19. New Cardinal sweaters conspicuous in halls.

20. Home Economics and Iota Sigmas display new C. S. T. C. banner.

21. Four assistant coaches appointed for spring athletics. This is almost individual instruction.

22. Collegian staff moves into new office. Evidently the staff are only ones to take the "keep out" sign seriously.

24. Swimming season opens. Suits and umbrellas hang side by side over radiators.

24. Duncan Dancers arrive at last. We were disappointed at small number of fellow students there till we realized there might be some downstairs.

26. Much delight among students as faculty members sign up for U. S. Government.

28. Junior College elects Pat president.

29. This day reminds us that we haven't had any Leap Year proposals yet. What can be the matter with the girls?

MARCH

1. Training school has its first "sing" in gym.

2. Leap Year notes. Acker starts a class in boxing for men who are "interested in the art of self-defense." and

3. Harold Whitlock introduces "a mouse tied to the hand" as "man's only protection." What chance do the poor girls have?

4. College drops in at Orland for basketball, and brings home the rather neat score of 20-12.

5. Many college maidens and Maxon Mellinger insure the success of "Tam O'Shanter" by accepting parts.

6. Ruth starts hot discussion over C. C. C. basketball title.

7. Boys try to make the girls envious by having Jazz Party. We couldn't find Silver's songs for sale anyplace?

10. Karrer displays damaged knee. (Boy's party?) Perhaps the evening was rather interesting after all.

11. Baseball. We quote "Colledge and Lee are working the artillery end. The other position on the team are being filled by men of ability."

12. Duncan Dancers are given a little competition at Miss Covey's program.

13. Prospective teachers view with wide eyes and much misgiving the supervisors attending conference. "Do you suppose that in fifteen years—"

14. We promise Mr. Osenbaugh to be good and always to come to assemblies and never to get our names on such a list again.

15. Juniors make noble sacrifice and give dance.

16. Absence of many men explained by top-spinning contest in park. Truman in lead.

17. Katherine Ware declines buying senior announcements. "My mother makes me write 'no presents' on them, so what's the use?"

18. Colledge heads College team.

21. No more matinees at Majestic. It begins to look as if we will go to assemblies.

22. Teachers for Summer School announced. What we want to know is, how many of them are going to have flashlights to wake us up with?

23. On second thought, how many with flashlights won't find us there to be waked?

24. Auto show. Fashion show. Monday, wraps; Tuesday, dresses; Wednesday, lingerie. We didn't go Thursday.

25. The House of Health and House of Woe on display. "So educative," murmured Clara Hunaeus, as she ate another gumdrop.

26. Boy's Leap Year defense reported shaky since co-eds (was it) receive ringside instructions at Rotunda.
27. Ah! Mystery, romance, thrills. We feel sure those British sailors with rugs were smugglers.
28. How dare you suggest they were scared on account of all the girls?
29. Miss Burfield yields to the influence of Bidwell Hall. Oh Times! Oh Manners!

APRIL

1. Sacramento challenges Chico co-eds. Every night you see the girls practicing on some good, durable, tough little fellers.
1. If anyone is so foolish as to make New Years resolutions, this is the day to do it. He will have a ready sop to his conscience.
2. Leap Year Defense—Johnny Colledge wrecks car to avert proposal.
3. Baseball game with Davis.
4. Bee Scoggins takes comfort in Brita Beckman's height. "Here is one woman beside whom I would not appear tall."
5. Announce longer Teachers College course. This should be the last Thursday in November.
6. Road to Orland improved. Now Eunice Mapes don't have any excuse for taking so long to get back to Chico.
7. Prisoners at Marysville become intoxicated on liquid soap. Perhaps this explains the habitual disappearance of the soap in the girl's locker rooms.
8. A new way to miss school. All those who have overdone sore throats, bad heads and rheumatism, consult Helen Wells on "What to Wear and Say in the Courtroom."
11. Hot weather. Corinne McReynolds in spring clothes.
12. Spanish Play, Thru the mirror; Mr. Echeverria prompting, Ava arguing with her mantilla—Bob and Mary holding hands.
13. Sacramento comes out rather the worse with a ten to five score.
14. Leap Year Notes—Marguerite Gurley puts another mark on the girl's score.
15. We approve vociferously of "The Princess."
16. Girl's folk dancing classes deeply indebted to Junior College for changing decorations in social hall.
17. Old timers unofficial week. Much dignity and new clothes. However "we" beat 'em in baseball.
18. If we can only hold out till vacation.
19. Hooray! No time to write today!
28. Oi wey. What a day.
29. We start to do the work we took home for vacation.
30. Bob Meade cleans the erasers in his room at Training School!

MAY

1. Exactly thirty more school days.
2. Vote to raise S. B. dues. Seniors approve gleefully.
3. Miss Reed, Miss Protzel, Miss Burfield and now Miss Garber. Who next? Miss Spruill? Miss Doyle? Mrs. McQuade?
4. Alice Camper congratulated on receiving Oakland appointment.
5. Man makes trip in car from Kansas sans motor. Not a word, Mr. Powers.

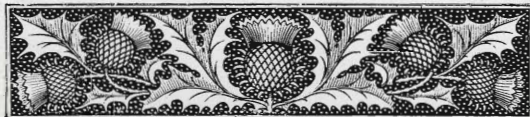

6. Bill Hamilton, "How fortunate that I wasn't in my car when it was stolen!"
8. Dwight Carmack elected baseball captain for 1925.
9. In spite of the fact that there will be many, many lights on the ground at Summer School, ninety-two have signed.
10. Notorious trial in public speaking ends. Nefarious attempt of Dee McCrosky to blacken Mellinger's character averted. Court decides the lawyers for defense must give dinner.
11. Many inquiries as to requirements for entrance to public speaking class.
13. Isn't my picture simply horrible? Oh, do you think so? Cat!
14. May Day impressions. Ants in the sandwich. The shepherd's "goat," "Pres. Osenbaugh" calling on—Mr. Ruth! Arden Anderson's legs. Boyd's shoes. The rope. Pearl's red beads.
15. Junior College entertains us with irresistable music, and Don Honodel with pictures on the glass partition.
16. Chorus for graduation starts rehearsals.
17. Record goes to press.
19. Leap Year notes. Krieger and Cook start series of lectures on "How I Was Caught." Many girls in attendance.
30. Public Speaking class has banquet.

JUNE

1. Seniors become feverish.
4. Books in at Training School.
6. Seniors hover near Bulletin Board.
7. Mad rush to make up work.
8. More bobbed hair.
10. Graduates cool and snug.
11. Not so cool and smug.
12. Gowns without caps. Three lone males. The pile of diplomas. "—and members of the graduating class, it is indeed a pleasure to be with you and an honor to be asked to deliver the address this morning." Much noise, much heat, much ringing of hands.
13. Great silence and peace.

FOR SOME OF US.

21. Off to Sisson.
22. Bedding fails to arrive.
23. Sawdust, backless benches, and the cafeteria line.

Beauty Secrets

Of course a girl will not believe this, but she can get a beautiful complexion by steaming her face over a washtub; wringing out clothes makes the arms plump; hanging them out on the line increases the bust measurement, and carrying them to and from the yard makes the waist line smaller and the limbs more shapely, Try it, girls.

Prof. Studley—"What is a spark gap?"

Wilkie—"Why, that's when a girl yawns just as you start to kiss her."

Esther—"I see by the paper that Claudia left town after a short stop."

Bernice—"No wonder; she always was crazy about athletes."

Edith M.—"Why do cigarettes have oriental names?"

Kiolstad—"Because they have good shapes and thin wrappers."

Shumway—"I have a chance for the track team."

Donna—"Why, are they going to raffle it off?"

Narcissus—"Looky here, Black man, whut's yo call gwine gimme for my birthday present?"

Black Man—"Close yo eyes, honey." (She does as he says) "Now, whut yo see?"

Narcissus—"Nuthin'."

Black Man—"Well, dat's whut yo all gwine get."

Without consulting any of the authorities on etiquette, we will answer the question, "When is the proper time for a man to remove or lift his hat?" for the benefit of our readers. At the following times and on all following occasions, respectively, the hat should be removed or lifted as circumstances indicate: When mopping the brow; when taking a bath; when eating; when going to bed; when taking up a collection; when having the hair trimmed; when being shampooed; and when standing on the head.

Studley—You know more than I do.

Osenbaugh—Of course.

Studley—You know me, and I know you.

Joe Henderson—I've discovered why a girl is always late for a date.

Scoop Harrison—Verily, thou art a sage. And why, forsooth?

Joe—She's been looking for her invisible hair net.

Judge—Guilty or not guilty?

Dick Bruce—I'll have to hear the evidence first.

One absent-minded professor was ideal, from the student view.

"Jones, when was the treaty of——" he began.

"Why professor, I'm absent today," Jones interrupted.

"Ah, pardon me. Miss Jones, will you answer the question?"

Milligan—What are you doing?

C. Ruth—Reading the want ads.

Milligan—But you are looking in the female column.

C. Ruth—Well, ain't my wife a female?

Little Girl—I know something that I won't tell—

Mr. Jackey—You'll get over that when you get a little older.

Heard from Monterey Lynn at the Masquerade Ball:

"When you asked me for a dance, I took you for Dwight; when you held me so tight I thought you were Jack; and when you kissed me I could have sworn that it was Charley, but when you stepped on my foot I knew very well that it was you, George."

"What is a debutante party, nigger?"

"Dat's a likkor party. It means 'coming out' or 'going under,' I disremember which."

Bill Hamilton—Claudia asked me to kiss her on either cheek.

E. Payne—Which one did you kiss?

Bill Hamilton—I hesitated a long time between them.

The watchman of the graveyard approached a figure lying in the grass of the cemetery. He kicked the tramp, who woke up with an injured air.

"What are you doing?" yelled the guardian of the dead.

"Playing dead" answered the weary traveler. "When in Rome I do as the Romans do."

Helen H.—My alarm clock went off at eighty-thirty this morning.

Harold W.—Hasn't it come back yet?

The next number on the program, Ladies and Gentlemen, will be a Lullaby in Asia Minor entitled, "If I were only a little boulder I would knock them all dead."

Wilkie—I was over to see her last night, when some one threw a rock through the window and hit the poor girl in the ribs.

Butts—Did it hurt her?

Wilkie—No, but it broke three of my fingers.

Marte—I heard something nice about you today.

Carlin—Yes?

Marte—Yes, a friend of mine said you resembled me.

Mr. Studley—I got Cuba last night on my one tube set.

Mr. Johns—That's nothing, I got Greece on my vest.

Hal. Caywood—I was out with Velma last night and she fell down and sprained her ankle.

Knotts—Did you carry her back home?

Hal.—I carried all of her home.

A young man with a pretty but flirtatious fiance wrote to a rival: "I hear that you have been kissing my girl: Come to my office at eleven on Saturday; I want to have this out."

His reply was: "I have received your circular letter, and will be at the meeting."

Girls and billiard balls kiss each other with about the same amount of real feeling.

Hi—Say, Si, come to my house for the meetin'. We gotta whole durn gallon.

Si—Can't Hi, gotta case o'tonsillitis over our house.

Hi.—Fine, let's hold the meetin' over to your house.

Life In Four Parts

Act 1—Their eyes met.

Act 2—Their lips met.

Act 3—Their souls met.

Act 4—Their lawyers met.

"Ever hear the one about the Jew going off and leaving his change on the counter?"

"Never heard about it."

"Neither have I."

Mrs. Smith—You say that you flunked in French? Why, I can't understand it.

Dorothy—Same here. That's why I flunked.

Ex Libris A Question

She sat at a library table
A student, sedate and gray,
The librarian stopped beside her
As she happened to pass that way.

The librarian reached 'neath the table
And help up 'twixt finger and thumb,
With a horrified look on her count'nance
A huge wad of chewing gum.

Could this have been Mrs. H———?

E. H.

Eddie—May I have the next dance?

Bernice—Sure, I don't want it.

Miss Barney—What do you know about Fielding?

Payne—Not much, you see I didn't make the team.

We were driving together,
 She and I, through the
 Cold, drear night, and I
 Noticed that she seemed
 Rather uncomfortable. Now I am
 Kind of a slow chap, but I
 Know opportunity when I see
 It. And so I said, "Are you
 Cold, dear?"
 And she said
 She was very cold. Then I
 Asked her what she thought
 She needed to keep
 Her warm. And she said she thought it would take
 A little oven
 So
 Next time, I took along
 an oil stove. I
 Wonder why she won't go
 Out with me any more?

Flappers do what old maids think.

"Pray, jester, what is a Knight of the Garter?"
 "A royal supporter, my lord."

Steamboat Captain (who had just fallen overboard) Don't stand there like a dumb-bell. Give a yell, can't you?

Bill Hamilton (the new deck-hand) Certainly, sir. Captain, Rah, Rah, Rah, Captain.

"Black man, you don't mean et cetera; you mean vice versa.

Maynard—I went to a dinner party last night.
 Helen K.—What did the girls have on?
 Maynard—I didn't look under the table.

BEAUTY QUEEN.

To Mother
from Lawrence

IF YOUR BEAUTY IS ALL THAT IT SEEMS,
WHY USE ALL THOSE LOTIONS AND CREAMS
WITHOUT YOUR LIPSTICK, POWDER AND PAINT.
YOUR FACE WOULD KNOCK
ALL THE BOYS IN A FAINT!
