E INNERSCHOOL ACTIVITIES

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND INTERSCHOOL COUNCIL

Social Activities Committee was charged with the responsibility of arranging and carrying through all the necessary preparations for the various sports banquets.

The committee's job, while small, was carried out to the fullest detail as they performed their important tasks.

One of the greatest lacks in interschool relations has been the loss of communication among school governments. To breach this gap, the Interschool Council was created. Fall chairman Leslie Parsons stood up for McClatchy while our own Student Body President Chuck Ryan presided over the interschool meetings as President.

SERVICE COMMITTEE

Existing as tangible proof of the concern for others which high school students feel, the McClatchy Service Committee offered aid to many areas of need existing in the community. The organization was made up of ambitious young students equipped with a willingness to donate their services wherever they were needed.

In an attempt to alleviate the lonely-lost feeling of a student's first days at a new school McClatchy organized a special group just for the purpose of welcoming new students and putting them at ease in their new surroundings.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Headed by the student body officers, the House of Representatives is a body of students representing the many McClatchy homerooms. Elected by the students in their homerooms to represent the members of these homerooms at the monthly meetings, the representatives have an obligation to the students of McClatchy. This year, through parliamentary procedure, the representatives raised questions and offered ideas to be discussed and decided upon by the House. In this way, many important issues were decided upon, and the students were informed of the results of the meetings when the representatives gave their reports at special homeroom sessions.

The Spring House of Representatives, presided over by George Relles, provided an excellent opportunity for students to participate in McClatchy's student body government and profit from this experience.

SPRING WHERE FALL

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Coordinating the many and varied activities which are offered by McClatchy is a vital and time-consuming task for the Board of Directors. For this reason, these students in charge of the various committees, the foreign exchange student, the industrious editors of the Nugget and Prospector, and class presidents met together monthly to discuss problems and exchange ideas.

This spring the Board worked together planning the Spring Carnival, the June commencement exercises, the after-graduating party and other activities which require cooperation and mutual endeavor among the various groups. The smooth running of McClatchy government depended upon their interdependence and cooperation.

YELL LEADERS ROUND

"... but when you're up against McClatchy you're upside down!"

"Please make one more."

"Hey Joe, Johnson High says it can't be done!"

"Push 'em back!"

That's what Lions call spirit.

UP ROOTERS' TROPHY

YELL LEADERS

Not to be outdone by this year's fall Yell Leaders, our Spring voice of spirit captured a Spirit Trophy of their own. This magnificent feat took place at the Camellia City Tourney. In creating the necessary atmosphere for a big trophy round-up, Joyce Hiyama and her two cute assistants worked extensively with our Song Leaders and Rally Committee on new routines, the attainment of camellias suitable for wearing, and electrifying rallies.

In review, our varsity Yell Leaders and Junior Varsity Yell Leaders rate an "A+" for their award winning abilities.

SPRIT

SONG LEADERS

Year after year McClatchy's rooters are spurred on by the enthusiastic bouncing and cheering of the Song Leaders. Spring Song Leaders, led by Nancy Hicks, did an especially fine job. In their brightly colored outfits of red and white and flowing pom-poms, they made up a large part of the spirit which is so great at McClatchy.

"You win some, you lose some."

"What a keen way to do the Can-Can!"

RALLY COMMITTEE

The Rally Committee's goal this spring was to build school spirit to an unprecedented high. Thus, organized by spring chairman Joan Waddock, the members faced a semester filled with the fun and excitement of a winning basketball season, winning in both sport and spirit. The Rally Committee planned and produced some history making rallies which delighted all audiences. These rallies proved extremely beneficial to the spirit at all our spring games.

PEP CAT CENTRAL COMMITTEE

The Pep Cats, under Chairman Penny, played a vital part in McClatchy's sports and school government. The members of this committee during the spring semester helped at track meets by staying long hours to keep score and to cheer their boys on to victory. They also worked diligently to spruce up the rooting sections at the Camellia Tourney and other basketball games with red and white coverings and flowery camellias.

DISPLAY AND PRODUCTIVE ADVERTISING

An important area of student high school life is the communication between administration and student body. This is the duty allotted to the Display and Productive Advertising Committees.

Display under Jennifer Fujimoto, spring chairman, had control over the display cases distributed variously throughout the buildings. Using either current campaigns or subject matter of special interest to the students as themes the committee provided constantly changing decoration for the halls.

Charged with constantly updating the school's bulletin boards the Productive Advertising group, directed by Jennifer Juka, this spring, has produced excellence in art. Without the constant efforts of this committee, many school activities would go unnoticed.

It is an awesome responsibility to stage all major elections in as large a school as McClatchy Senior High. One of the board of directors major committees is the Election Committee headed by election happy Cindy Frame. This eight student committee had charge of choosing the dates for and conducting the elections of Student Body officers, class councils and class officers, and House of Representatives members.
