WITH BEST FRIENDS AT HIGH SCHOOL., JOANNA & HELEN

Mrs. Thompson has had a variety of different jobs, but found her calling teaching here at Hillview for the past 14 years. Her spunky personality makes being around her an enjoyable time for everyone.

She has dedicated a lot of her time and effort into making the yearbook perfect for the past ten years! The yearbook staff and many others have been so lucky to have such a great woman and teacher guiding us through the years.

In 7th and 8th grades, students get to choose between taking Spanish or taking other electives. Some electives are woodshop, art, and robotics.

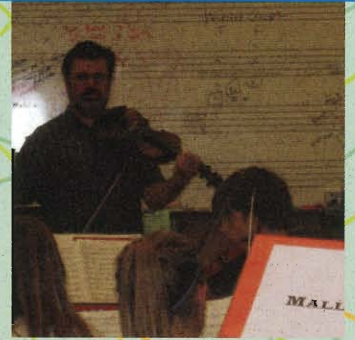

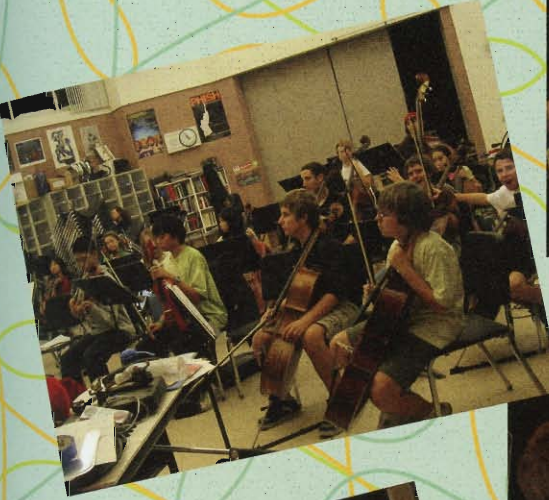

DRAMA

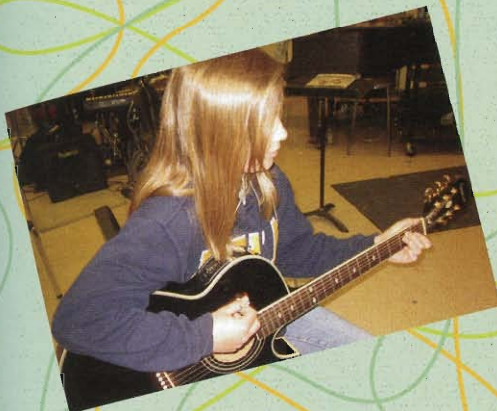

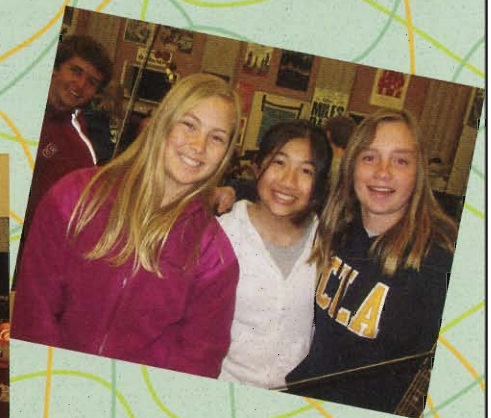

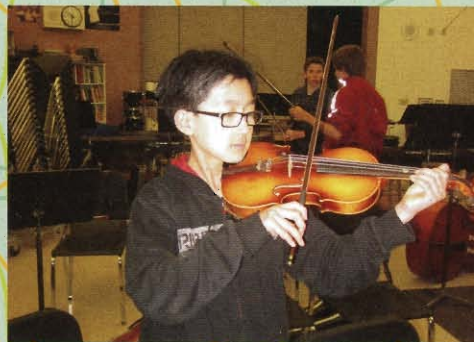

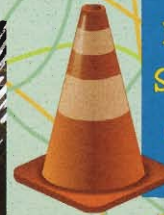

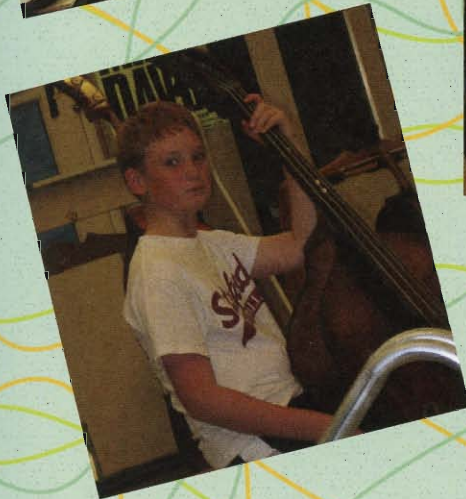

The new drama teacher, Mr. Hunsaker, brought together new students to perform the Winter play, The Giver and the Spring Musical. He also taught Chorus to 7th and 8th graders.

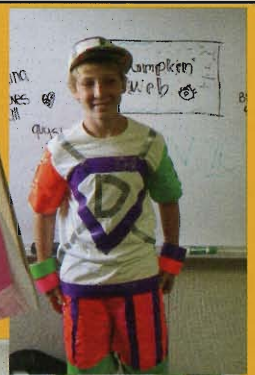

MUSIC

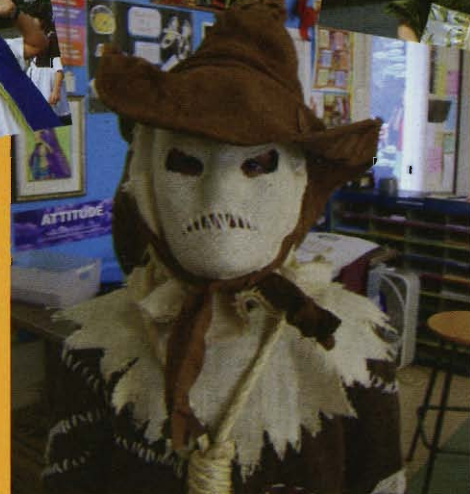

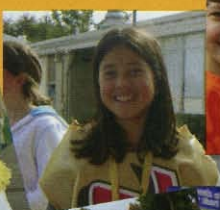

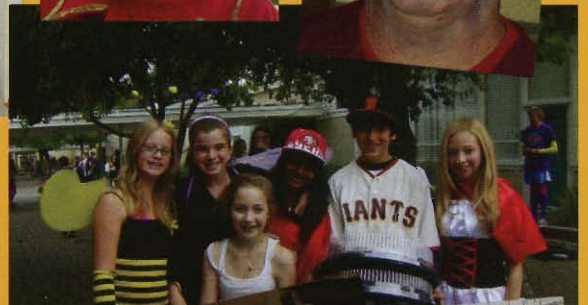

Mr. Vaughan works hard to make sure Hillview students have valuable music instruction. He teaches Band, Jazz Band, Orchestra, and Strings! He also holds concerts throughout the school year.

2011 RETIRING FACULTY & STAFF

MR. IMURA

Mr. Imura (Mr. I) has taught PE at Hillview for 22 years. He says that it has been "Way too long." Everyone's favorite character at school, Mr. I will be missed by all. Who will consume food left in the faculty room or teach us the tree pose now? Keep those twinkies away from him! Congratulations Mr. I.

Ms. Walsh has been the Hillview School secretary for 15 years. Her actual retirement is not until September, but we wanted to include her in this yearbook. Working with Mr. Melton and Mr. Moore before him, Ms. Walsh has dedicated endless hours to helping students, teachers, and parents navigate their way through Hillview. Congratulations!

MS. WALSH

MS. ROSENTHAL

Ms. Rosenthal teaches English and social studies in the Amazon academy. She previously taught 7th grade core for 5 years. Before that, Ms. Rosenthal taught 5th grade at Encinal for 6 years. We wish her relaxing reading time and a happy retirement.
