A DEDICATED MAN

Our Friend

Gail Halford

There is a man in this school of ours,
who's helped us through the years.
He's honest, kind, and helps us out.
To him we owe three cheers.

Mr. R. is such a help,
for our troubles he does mend.
He's not just there to help us out.
To us Mr. R.'s as friend.

He runs some clubs, he helps us all.
He covers a lot of ground.
He always knows where he should be.
He's great to have around.

So, Mr. R., what can we say?
You've helped us all come through.
There is one word, that we owe.
To Mr. R., THANK-YOU.

THE GRADUATES

TEACHER TESTAMENTS

I, Mr. Muhlestein, will COURAGE to face the future and UNDERSTANDING to interpret correctly what they find, an a SENSE OF HUMOR to accept the results.

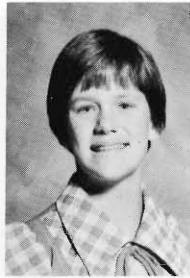

To the class of '75 I, Mr. Capie, will all those thousands of pieces of broken glass from the dropped test tubes etc... to be recycled to streghen our economy.

I, Leon Johnson, will all my matching outfits to 8-5.

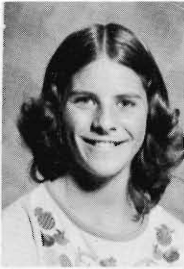

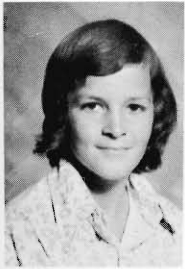

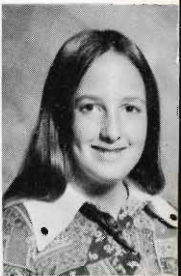

I, Harold Morris, will my deluxe set of Bulging Biceps Builders to those students who wish to emulate my Charles Atlas physique.

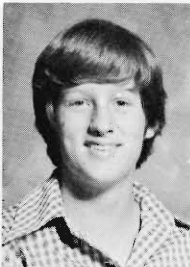

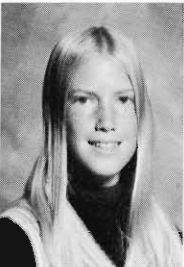

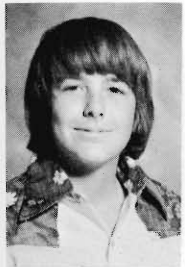

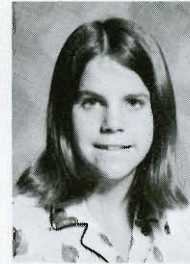

I, Don Halvorsen will all of my colorful neckties to George Liddle to brighten his drab life. To the Class, I will the answer to the question, "What are we going to do today?"

OUR NEW RESOURCE CENTER

Mrs. Alexander

Three classrooms plus outside hallways were remodeled into the center during Summer, 1974. The resource center, which is approximately 4300 square feet, features study carrels, three small study rooms and a sliding door to form an extra room. Plans for the project were developed by Librarian Mary Alexander and Principal Walter Key.
