

HILLVIEW

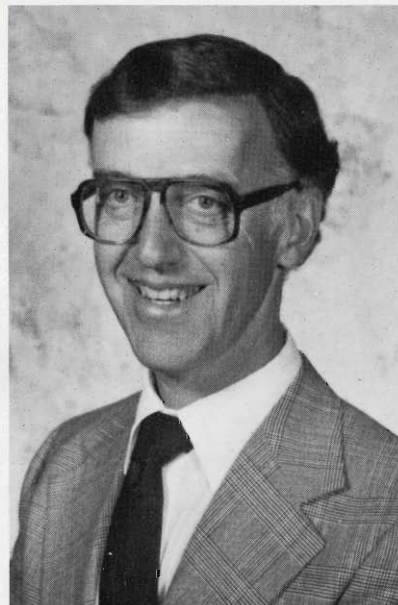

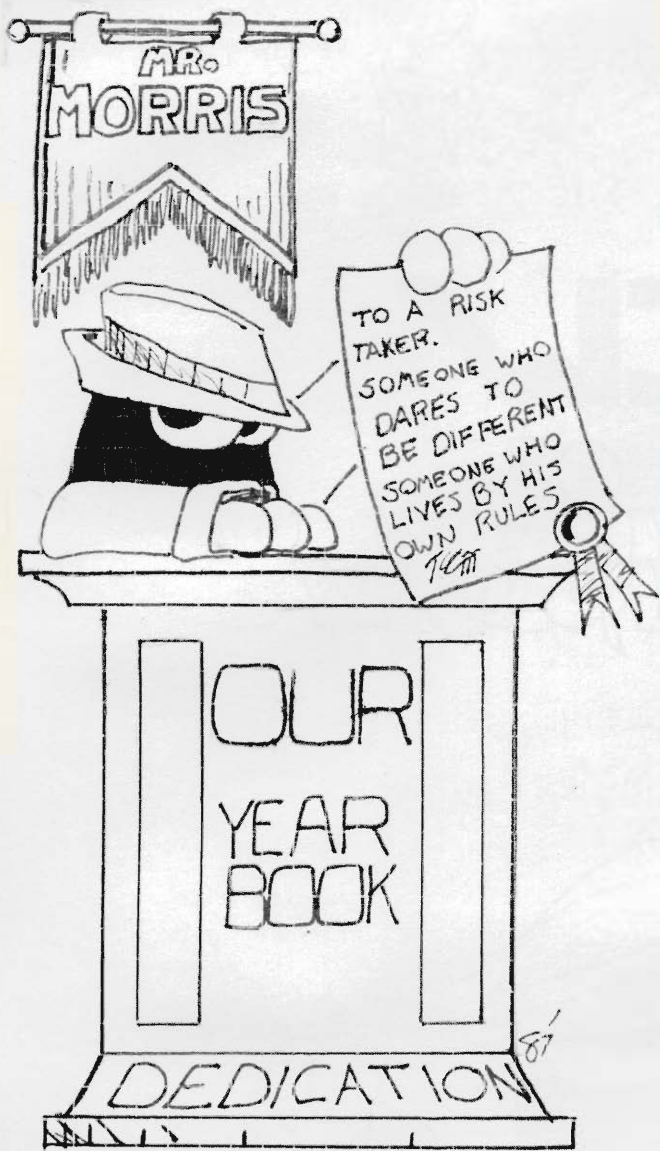

VIEW

The YEAR OF LIVING
DANGEROUSLY!

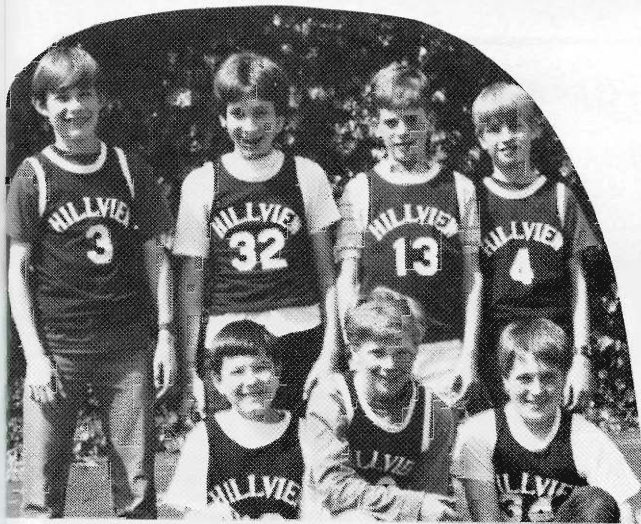

Jimmy
Cannon
7/21/87

Last year, in 1986, Mr. Harold Morris retired after many dedicated years of teaching at Hillview. He departed quietly, leaving all the fanfare to Mr. Key. Kids remember him as a tough teacher, but one who really cared. His dry sense of humor always filled the classroom, usually with no reply, but an occasional faint chuckle. Although he is no longer at Hillview we will remember him and feel lucky to have had him in his last year at Hillview.

OUR MEMORY
Jeff
Sorrells

Bravest kid I know. He has been through more than any kid can say - Alex Tsavaler

Most fun-loving guy I know - Phillip Allen

He's fun to be around. Clown in classroom but energetic on the playground - Amy Apple

He was a great person, outgoing, nice guy, very humorous - Becca Mehl

A very nice and considerable person - Joe Miller

Jeff was courageous and he fought to the very end - Mr. Moore

Too bad, he would have been a real scientist - Mr. Lotz

Really fun to do things with - Matt Kline

The most daring person I knew - Bryan Clum

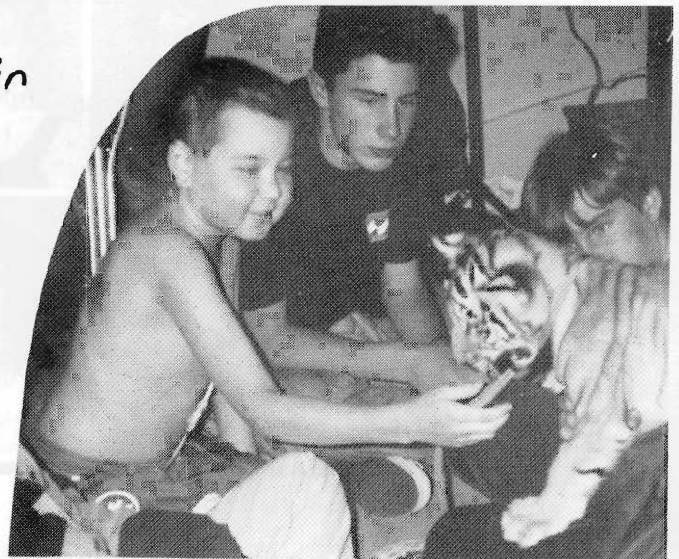

He was very generous and a nice guy - Sean-Paul Sursock

Fun to be around - Joe Martin

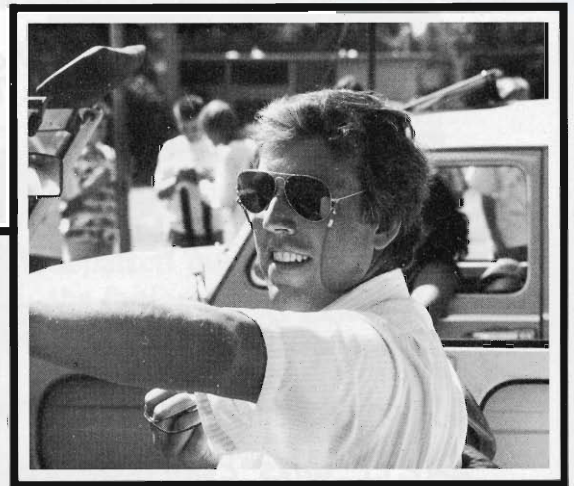

Very generous - Ryan Baker

He was very friendly - Emily Fitzloff

He loved everyone - Alex Turner

- Mrs. Krumbein

The class of '87 is a special group of students to me. We started out with me being their P.E. teacher in 5th grade. I've been lucky enough to have almost all of you in 6th, 7th or 8th grade. You are a creative, lively, fun-loving, intelligent group of great kids.
-Mrs. C.P.

As I look back on my four year association with the Hillview graduating class I will remember them as Cute little 5th graders with bright shiny faces
Lively & loving, not always in their places
Actually trying to become all they could Sure that someday they certainly would
So they progressed through 5th, 6th,
7th & 8th
And now are ready to conquer the great Carry with you the knowledge that here's where you're from There's a teacher who cares about whom you become!
-Ms. Devoto

I, SHANNON BURTON, will my plentiful book of excuses to a future student to bug Joan. I, SARAH LUM, will my teachers all the misery of late night homework. I, KIM S., will Katy G, all my private notes because she ends up reading them anyway. I, TOMMY CANNON, will to Forest W. my lungs, brain and heart because I won't need them. I, RAMSEY PHIPPS, will nothing to anybody because everything I own is too rad to give away. I, BILL MARTORANA, will singing lessons to Forest so he can be a soprano. I, DAVID ANDEEN, will a McDonald's to Susan Rider so she can eat all the junk food she wants. I, MR. BARRY YEN, will nothing to no one because I am greedy. I, MICHAEL DALLAS, will my locker combination to next years 8th grade. I, ASHLEIGH ADAMS, will all my pencils to Nathan Kahn so he has a pencil for all his classes. I, CARA BAKUN, will people who don't have fun a fly curtain, Jeep and stub to see "Tough Guys". I, BRIANNA BESEN, will a better laugh to Shannon and Rebecca Burton so people won't want to strangle them. I, TYLER FROST, will my remaining years of school to my sister Tammy Frost. She needs them. I, CATHERINE GAUL, will my curly hair to Lydia who for some crazy reason wants curly hair. I, WALTER GRIEVES, will Mike Sheehan brown hair so he does not have to be red. I, NATHAN KAHN, will my coffee mug to Mr. Colasanti. I, MARC LYMAN, will my pen sets to Mrs. Dianda so she can keep them to herself. I, MALACHI MELVILLE, will Susan Rider my excess fat so she can stop eating 81 scoop sundaes.

CLASS OF 1987 WILLS

I, LYDIA MILLER, will a “two by four” at Ken’s to all who dare to eat it. I, LANCE PAGE, will Krista M. a better voice so she can sing without disturbing anyone. I, MYLES PEKELSMA, will my body to Mr. Capie to dissect in front of his science class. I, ZOE RAWSON, will Nathan K. my bible for his future holy life. I, BRYAN RIDEOUT, will my pencils to Forest because he always needs them. I, SUSAN RIDER, will my gorgeous blonde hair to Ashleigh who has none in the first place. I, PETER SANTOS, will my fishing pole to Katy G. so she can catch bigger fish. I, MICHAEL SHEEHAN, will Walter G. 10 cases of Jolt so he will never run out of energy. I, SUSAN SHELDON, will Jenny M. my riding ability so she may become famous. I, DARREN SU, will my artistic ability to Mrs. Molder so she doesn’t have to put up with me. I, BILLY WATSON, will my record collection to the Smithsonian. I, SHAWN SHERROD, give my books to Mrs. Dianda, my desk to Mr. Moore. I, STEPHANIE VAN HORN, will Mr. C. a magic wand so he can put all the school’s garbage in the student’s backyards. I, BOBBY SPENCER, will Paul G. some scissors so he can cut his hair. I, TONY CANNON, will ask that all my possessions be sold to the highest bidder. I, MARGO UCEDA, will my sister Aurora the ability to lie to teachers because she needs it. I, KALINA MASTERSON, will Margot U. at least one good day because she never has one. I, MONICA MOTLOCH, will my height to Alex T. so he won’t have to look up at me anymore. I, KOSTA PETRAKIS, will Hillview to all the unfortunate kids coming up. I, FOREST WALCOFF, will my skateboard to Steve B. so he can pursue his career. I, HUMBERTO ORMENO, will my schoolbooks to Hillview. I, MARSHALL WHITE, will my microphone to Forest so he can be a singer. I, TRACY SCHEIDTMANN, will Shannon B. a library of the books she loves to read. I, STEVE BROYLES, will this school to all the underclassmen and women happily. I, DAVID BARKHURST, will my pencils to Forest so he won’t have to borrow any. I, JAMES DAVIS, will my computer to Andres M. and my VCR to Michael D. I, AMY WILLIAMS, will Mark N. my sister’s “Sears Special” skateboard so he can skate. I, ANNE NILE, will all my trash to Mr. Colasanti — pretty explainable. I, BRIAN MORAN, will my locker to Alex T. so that he will not have to bend down anymore. I, SARAH RINGOLD, will Tracy a bottle of hair dye so people won’t call her “Red” anymore. I, JODI OLSON, will Amy Ann Hughes a lifetime supply of garden hoses. I, PAUL GERBER, will my warm blood to Mrs. Rosenberg because she is always cold. I, ALLISON LOWER, will my ten speed to Ashleigh A. for the heck of it. I, JOE KSANDER, will the Cannon family a real big earthquake to remember Calif. by.
