children were divided according to where they lived, and sent to two different houses, one called Washington and the other, Jefferson. Perhaps, if you recall, names like Mrs. Finley, Miss Walters, Miss Shepherd, Miss Patmore, Mrs. Bruno, and Miss Johnson will sound vaguely familiar, and you will remember them as some of your earliest instructors.

Yes, seniors, that was quite a while ago, wasn't it? And now, even the final sale is over and we've left the dear old school and all its affiliations, in which we've had so much fun, and for which we'll always hold fond thoughts.

Do you remember Miss Baker, who really poured on the English, and Mr. Anderson, who twisted our brains with spelling words? Yes, while in the suburban branch of our warehouse, those and names like Mrs. Burnell, Mrs. Prizer, Mr. Warner, Mr. Butterbaugh, and Miss Gordon were very common, as they were our supervisors before we were graduated to the main store. Weren't we proud of Barbara Longacre when she was elected Jeep Queen? Peggy Ferry was Lincoln Log editor, remember? And Dean Jessup was our student body president. Phyllis Woodward was Mary in the annual "First Noel," and we'll never forget the green and white banquet when the girls wore their first heels and stockings and the fella's bought corsages for the first time. What a night that was! No doubt you can easily remember, also, how we had manners drilled into us by Mrs. Merchant. Finally we were promoted to the main division, and on that memorable occasion, we sang, said our speeches, received our diplomas, and had our first important dance afterwards at the hotel.

Subsequently, the following fall, we entered the final phase of our department store career. The first year, though we were the youngest class of workers, we soon proved our superiority. All through high school our class has led the scholarship and honor rolls.

Remember when Cathleen Taylor was elected Victory Queen and the two years that Richard Webb was Echoing L editor? How could we forget the many happy hours we had together? Remember the cafeteria dash at noon, how we yelled and cheered at games, that Soloman-Aristotle had a hard life with us as his masters, the perfect time we had white washing the "L," and going to the snow on "Senior Ditch Day," how Phyllis used to announce the assemblies, how Howard kept the books as our treasurer, how wonderful it was to be young and carefree, and how much we'd give if only we could relive a few of those happy moments. But memories are all that are left, and bidding farewell to our department store, its managers and employees, we journey our various ways.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class council consists of president, D. Todd; vice-president, L. McQueen; secretary, Jean Owen; treasurer, N. Mohnike and two assistant advisers, Mrs. E. Delano, Mr. J. McFadzen.

Below: Mohnike, Dietrich, Richey, junior captains.

The junior salesmen of our department store have begun at the bottom and taken enough steps up the ladder of accomplishment to place them two-thirds of the way toward final retirement.

They have shown their salesmanship ability in many ways during the last two years.

As apprentice salesmen, they brightened the Elephant's Back advertising sign of our store and labored hard that all should know of our pride in the store.

They also gave our personnel relaxing entertainment by displaying their talents in the annual Sophomore Amateur Hour.

Dick Dietrich and Bob Depew were sophomore runners-up in the annual Lions' Club speaking contest, bowing to the experienced oratory of their senior, Richard Webb. Again in their second year they outnumbered all opposition two to one with Bob Depew bringing home the final win.

The juniors also have reason to be proud of their second year's accomplishments. Susan Bandy was at the end of her Sophomore year chosen as a representative of the future Junior Class to participate in collective bargaining with the executive board of the department store. She holds the position of Secretary of Staff.

Dick Dietrich lead the California Scholarship Federation through its first semester and was presiding host at the valley C. S. F. convention held in Lindsay. Other junior officers were Bob Depew, vice president and June Landers, secretary.

John Garabedian was chosen by this year's "A" class football squad to lead next year's team as captain. John was a tribute to the juniors this year for being the only one of the Junior Class on the starting lineup.

Members of the Junior Class who lead the lightweight football team through seven games with only one loss were Bob Richey, Bob Depew, Doug Fox, Dick Dietrich, Bob Thomson, Jack Creamer, and Lon McQueen. All these boys will be back next year to complete the varsity roster.

Four junior boys, Bob Depew, Doug Fox, Lon McQueen, and Captain Dick Dietrich, were on the starting lineup of our department store "B" class basketball team and lead it to championship with valuable help from juniors Bob Richey, David Vasquez, and Albert Mathews.

Yes, the juniors have had many good times in their two years of high school, but the best is just ahead.

B. Depew points out the best seats to D. Fox for the junior play. B. Vetter and B. Depew receive some instructions for junior-senior banquet and prom from Miss Hostetter, class adviser.

THE KIDDY

The able representatives of sophomore cabinet are: Mr. Snazdell, S. Depew, B. Nesbit, S. Harth, O. Adams, Mr. Hanigan.

Jack Verfurth seems to be having a good time setting targets at the Girl Reserve's Carnival.

Sitting: N. Duncan, M. Bruce, M. Burgin, J. Gannaway, N. Dehaenen, M. Blue, B. Campbell, F. Fevinger, D. Ccsmey, M. Davis, L. Alexander, T. Anderson, E. George. Third row: L. Chapman, M. Canada, A. Anderson, M. Engelking, O. Fox, E. Guierrez, B. Burgin, S. Depew. Fourth row: E. Gamble, G. Comstock, N. Davis, J. Gordon.

DEPARTMENT

one you love (sniff)*

Bob D. Aitch

Our department is proud of the pretested, proven fashions we have styled for the future L. H. S. kiddies. Among the outstanding contributions of our department are the following articles made especially for sophomores:

Whitewash repellent overalls with matching brooms and buckets, guaranteed to withstand hill climbing.

A fine assortment of football apparel proven thru actual field tests by Burgin and Adams. Basketball, baseball, tennis, and track equipment, all field tested, are also for sale.

Toy horns are in our stock, although we were short on them for a while. Many of the Kiddy Department's staff were blowing these horns after the department's Annual Amateur Hour which went over with the usual Kiddy Department success.

We have a wonderful toy automobile guaranteed to carry you over your goal for the Red Cross drive, and a similar one for the March of Dimes campaign. Of course this, like all the rest of our merchandise, has been test proven.

A brand new line of robes and crowns, styled exclusively for "Queens For A Night," is being carried for the first time by this department.

Our Quiz-Kids Corner is small at the present time; however, those who have visited it assure us it was well worth the effort.

Although the present staff will not be in the Kiddy Department next year, we are sure that our proven styles will lead the field until the new staff will have had the opportunity to prove also the fashions it designs.

Sitting: J. Roberts, L. Reed, J. Snyder, E. J. Peck, L. Wells, J. Harrison, B. Schreiber, J. Scott, Ruth Sanders, Ruby Sanders. Second row: N. Kight, J. McClure, B. Turnage, N. Worthington, R.
