ALL HAIL LODI HIGH

OWEN NETTLE, '26

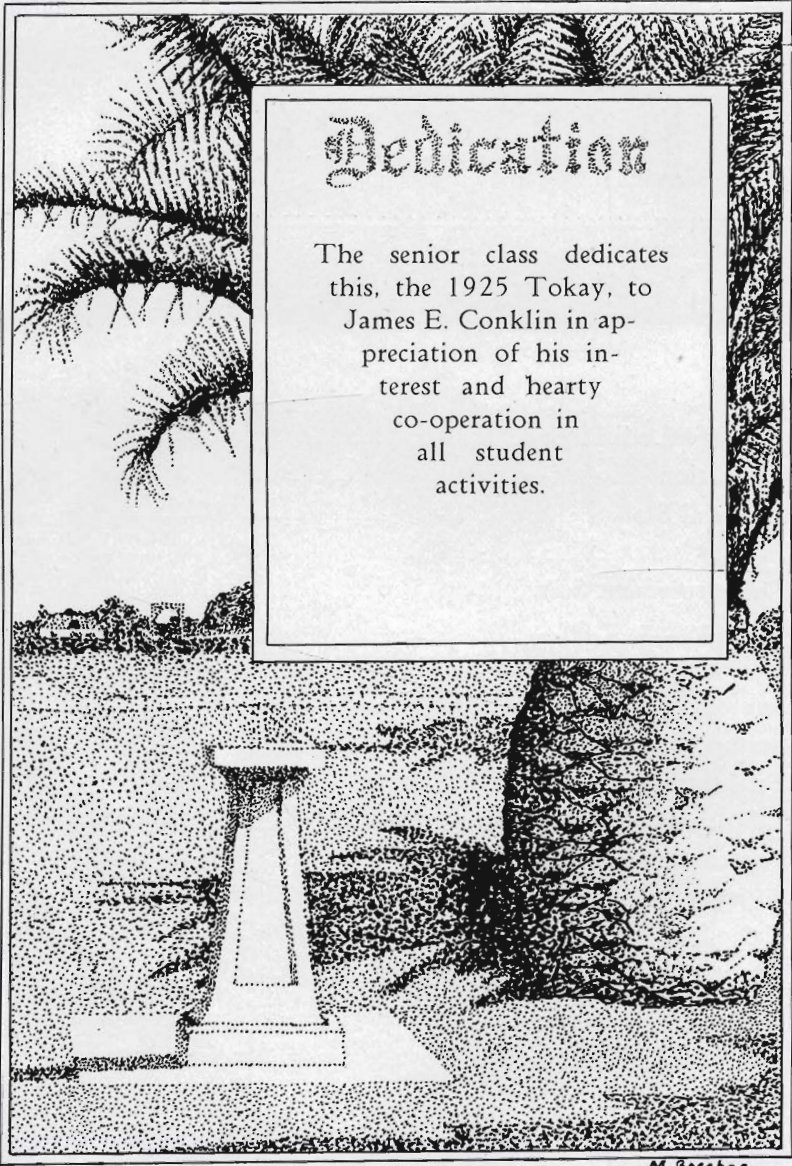

To the years that were spent 'neath thy collonades,
In the school that lies midst the valley,
That lies favored with honor and glory,
The peer of all schools in the land;
To thee our praises rise and swell;
We exult in thy splendor bright
Lodi High school's praises still are sung,
Yea, sung for e'er and e'er.

Oh, the sun shines bright o'er the valley,
While the clouds lie white in the sky,
The echoes around us keep ringing
Of our love for dear Lodi High,
And the valley shall falt'ringly tremble
And burst e'er our love shall fail
Let all voices now re-echo the cry
Hail, Lodi, Hail! Hail! All Hail!

This year few changes were made in the faculty. Of the two teachers who have left, Miss Marzian is teaching in the San Fernando Union High School; and Mr. Patterson is in the school supply business in Los Angeles.

Of the new teachers, Miss Sharp comes here from Reedly, California; Miss Hurst from Mountain View, California; and Miss Murray from Sebastopol, California. Owing to the number of students who entered at the beginning of the second semester, three more teachers were added to the faculty. Of these Miss Graham is from The Dalles, Oregon; Miss Briggs from Woodland, California; and Miss Gilliland from Turlock, California.

COMMENCEMENT SONG

ALICE PATTERSON

I

We are starting on our journey,
Our life's work begins anew,
We're to leave our Alma Mater
And to fight on with life's crew.
We can see the sun just rising
O'er the distant hills of fame,
And we hope it will keep shining,
And make success our aim.

II

Our four short years are over,
Our dreams will soon come true;
The clouds might never gather
While the sky keeps clear and blue.
Some may fail in life, while others
Reach their goal through work;
May Lodi's loyal children
From these things never shirk.

III

To thee, our Alma Mater,
To thee, school of our youth,
We give to thee our promise,
Our promise told in truth.
When we leave thee far behind us,
As we journey life's rough way,
We'll remember all thou gave us,
All that made life brave and gay.
