

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 8—School starts! Happy greetings, teachers, studes, and frosh!
- 9—Vacation on Admission Day. Hurray!
- 11—Ponderous and heavy books distributed to eager (?) students.
- 12—Lessons assigned. Groans echo through halls.
- 15—Beautiful new curtains in the auditorium.
- 17—"Pay attention to the detention list." Three culprits submit to first dose.
- 19—Miss Pilkington is asked to join the Shakespeare Club of Stratford-on-Avon.
- 22—Splendid new library opens. Swinging doors 'n everything.
- 29—Lodi decisively defeats Chico in opening game of football season.

OCTOBER

- 3—Girls' basket ball captains chosen. Great enthusiasm was shown.
- 6—Flames defeat Marysville to the tune of 26 to 0.
- 12—Tokays lose fiery football game with College of Pacific seconds.
- 15—Shop boys at work on new gymnasium.
- 17—Judges choose worthy cast for play "Rose O'Plymouth Town."
- 18—Girls' basket ball schedule announced.
- 20—Modesto 7, Lodi 19. 'Ray for our first league victory!
- 25—Lodi Flames win easy victory from Grass Valley.
- 30—Russian quartet sings beautifully for first lyceum program. Exciting junior-senior basket ball game is won by seniors.

NOVEMBER

- 6—Basket ball game. Freshmen vs. sophomores. Lively tussle—ending in 15-7 score in favor of the frosh.
- 7—A big moment in the life of a freshie! The annual soph-frosh reception held in the gym tonight. Clever stunts by upperclassmen take babes by storm.

- 8—Lodi Hi's class "B" football team added another victory to its name by defeating Jackson Hi by a score of 19-6.
- 17—The fatal day! Report cards kindly presented by our dear teachers. Pleasant surprise to some, and a rather—surprise to others.
- 22—'Ray! No more school until December 1. Be sure to take all your books home, students.
- 24—Teachers' institute begins today. Not wishing anyone bad luck, but it is the secret hope of all that they have to take one good examination!
- 30—Biggest day of the school-year! The Flaming Tokays give Stockton Tarzans a walloping to the tune of 25-0. Largest crowd on record.

DECEMBER

- 1—Students return to school weary-eyed after a restful (?) vacation.
- 3—Football training-table established this week in the cafeteria. Wonder what the huskies eat?
- 4—Construction of the new shop is progressing rapidly. Much was accomplished during vacation.
- 6—"Ain't we got fun?" Everyone who went to the football game at Oroville had a great time—special train 'n everything. Championship game results in a score of 20-6 in favor of Lodi. 'Dja ever see such a muddy field?
- 16—Latin class gives an interesting class play called "Saturnali," commemorating the Roman Christmas festival.
- 19—Merry Christmas! No more school until next year.

JANUARY

- 1—Dan Cupid got into action today, when Miss Shirley Schnoor, one of the faculty members, was married to Mr. Raymond Johns of Lodi. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Johns!
- 7—"Hippo" Michels has been elected captain of the 1925 gridders. Good luck to you, cap'n!
- 9—"A Rose O'Plymouth Town" was presented this evening in the new auditorium by an able cast.
- 10—Flames defeat Oakdale basket ball team in the last practice game of the season.
- 14—First 1925 edition of "The Tokay" comes out today.
- 17—Sparkling Flames going good; defeated Woodland Wolves in first league basket ball game.

- 22—Fourth year English classes present clever scenes in costume from Shakespeare's "As You Like It."
- 23—End of the first semester, with report cards coming thick and fast.
- 24—Galt Hi defeats Lodi team in fast game because of a partial referee.
- 26—Such excitement! Seventy-five perfectly green freshmen are ushered into the mysteries of high school life.
- 28—Faculty increased with three new members, Misses Gilliland, Graham, and Briggs.
- 29—Edmund Vance Cooke, well-known poet, appeared this evening in an interesting lecture, as the fourth number of the Lyceum program.
- 30—Stockton Hi defeats the Reds in a slow game where "stalling" tactics are used by the former team.

FEBRUARY

- 2—Why all the sprouting upper lips? It's only some of our boys trying to make believe they're grown up.

- 12—Lincoln's Birthday. Gettysburg Address recited for us. Edmund Vance Cooke, noted poet, gives a delightful and humorous recital of his own works.
- 16—Tarzans defeat Red basket ball quintet.
- 20—Twenty Aggies journey to Davis Farm to see the cows. (At least, that's what we think.)
- 23—We have a football rally. Sweaters, stars, big L's, and circle L's distributed to eager boys. Girl athletes also receive letter and star awards.
- 27—Indian cantata and other musical numbers effectively rendered by Glee Club.
- 28—Spring football practice. Usual soreness, broken legs, black eyes, etc.

MARCH

- 1—Prizes offered for the best annual contributions. Authors, poets, and artists busily write down sudden inspirations.

- 4—We hear President Coolidge's inaugural address by radio.
- 13—Hilton Ira Jones, noted chemist, lectures on interesting scientific subjects.
- 17—Green, green, green! No, it's not freshmen. 'Tis St. Patrick's day!
- 20—"King Swat" reigns again now baseball season has begun.
- 22—Senior class appoints committees to prepare horoscope, prophecy, and class song.
- 24—Sophomores defeat freshmen girls in baseball game.

APRIL

- 1—April Fools' Day celebrated by dedicating a surprise issue of the "Tokay" to all fools.
- 6—Snap-shot week begins with cloudy weather.
- 8—Senior meetings in preparation for Commencement begin.
- 10—Easter vacation!
- 20—Back at work after a week's rest.
- 30—May Day. Girls show their ability in gym. Stunts and dances.

MAY

- 16—"The Love Pirates of Hawaii" presented by the music department. The operetta was a successful entertainment.
- 21—Faculty banquet to the seniors.
- 22—Senior Day. An afternoon of fun.
- 29—Junior-senior reception. Seniors report a fine time.

JUNE

- 5—Class Night! The "Romantic Age" is well given by a carefully chosen cast of seniors.
- 11—Commencement! The final goal is reached by one hundred students.
- 12—Hurray! School is out for the year.

Music and Plays

F. WOODS

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Under the able direction of Miss Mary Elizabeth Murray, supervisor of music, the music department has had a very successful year. An early call for volunteers in the orchestra was answered by seventeen willing members, who have taken a great deal of interest in their work, participating at entertainments, luncheons, football games, and at the annual Girls' May Day exhibition. The orchestra consists of nine violins, a piano, two saxophones, three clarinets, and two cornets. The Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs are other active branches of this department. The former consists of thirty-six voices, and the work is chiefly the study of two and three-part choruses. The Boys' Glee Club is composed of fifteen voices. Unison songs and three-part choruses are the principal study of this group. The following program was presented as a recital by the music department on the evening of February 28:

"Homeless" (a romance)..... Charles Arthur
High School Orchestra

"Calm is the Night"..... Carl Bohren

"The Moon and the Children"..... Franz Abt

"Pilgrim's Chorus" from "Tannhauser"..... Wagner

Girls' Glee Club

"Goodbye, My Lover, Goodbye"..... College Song

"Sweet and Low"..... Joseph Barnby

"Southern Memories"..... Negro Melodies

Boys' Glee Club

Venetian Suite..... Ethelbert Nevin

- a. Dawn.
- b. Gondoliers.
- c. Venetian Love Song.
- d. Good Night.

High School Orchestra

“The Mound Builders” (American Indian Cantata by Paul Bliss)
(For Soprano, Alto, and Baritone)
Boys' and Girls' Clubs

“LOVE PIRATES OF HAWAII”

The clever operetta, “Love Pirates of Hawaii,” was given in the high school auditorium on May 16. It was very well given and showed long practice, especially the leading roles, played by Dorothy Blakesley and Orlin Woodson, who did excellent work. A colorful array was presented by the cast in native Hawaiian costumes. The plot was interesting and afforded much amusement to the audience. The substance of the operetta dealt with the adventures of a pirate band, which invaded a girls' seminary in the Hawaiian Islands, and took over its management. The funny circumstances in which these romantic pirates found themselves was certainly laugh-provoking.

Miss Murray, as coach, and Miss Sharp, as assistant director, deserve well-earned praise for their patient work in making the operetta a success.

THE CAST

Dorothy Dear, daughter of plantation manager.....	Dorothy Blakesley
Miss Primer, teacher of private school for girls.....	Eloise Brown
Lehua.....	Winifred Woods
Karlanani.....	Helen Jorz
Lilinoe.....	Georgia Peek
Maile.....	Gertrude Vallem
Kohala.....	Melida Haas
Billy Wood, Lieutenant, U. S. Cruiser, Tennessee.....	Orlin Woodson
Pirate Chief, heartless pirate maybe.....	Lowell Barnes
Chief Cook.....	Gerard Myers
Scary, a pirate.....	Martin Durfey

Chorus of 12 Hawaiian girls and 8 pirates

“ROSE O' PLYMOUTH TOWN”

It was all like a lovely dream-picture of pre-Revolutionary days, and the characters seemed to be living portraits; or, at least that was the impression gained by those who were fortunate enough to see “Rose O' Plymouth Town,” the well-acted play, given by the students on January 9. It was an historical play, based on the struggle of early settlers in America with Indians and other hardships. The element of romance predominated the whole and formed a most delightful plot.

The cast was well-chosen and fully measured up to everyone's expectations.

Dorothy Rich, in the title role of Rose De La Noye, did splendid work in her difficult part of a dainty Puritan lass, who was a clever coquette.

Worth Hatch, as Garret Foster, the hero, was always having hard luck until the end, when he won the hand of his sweetheart, Rose.

Sydney Couper played the part of a meddling and pious villain to perfection.

Cedric Madison, the stern Captain Miles Standish, was unrelenting enough to strike fear into almost any heart.

Louise Jahant was the typical Puritan maiden, Miriam, whose character was just the opposite of the vivacious Rose. She sustained her part well.

Floyd Clouse, as Philippe De La Noye, admirer of the shy Miriam, portrayed the sturdy Huguenot lad in a creditable manner.

Emily White, in the jolly role of Aunt Resolute, the thrill-seeker, was the real comedian of the cast.

Maxine Nyhoff was complimented on her successful portrayal of Barbara Standish, the calm and industrious housewife of the Captain.

Credit for the fine outcome of the play goes to Miss Rinn, dramatic director, whose work was untiring.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Rose De La Noye.....	Dorothy Rich
Garret Foster.....	Worth Hatch
John Margeson.....	Sydney Couper
Captain Miles Standish.....	Cedric Madison
Philippe De La Noye.....	Floyd Clouse
Miriam Chillingsley.....	Louise Jahant
Aunt Resolute.....	Emily White
Barbara Standish.....	Maxine Nyhoff

“THE ROMANTIC AGE”

“The Romantic Age,” the Class Night play presented June 5, certainly lived up to its title. Every minute was filled with romance and adventure. Clever character portrayal marked this year’s play as a success. No one who saw the play will be able to forget dreamy Melisande and her “gallant knight.” The comedy introduced through the medium of make-believe was well received.

The cast was carefully chosen and exhibited real talent along the difficult line of character development.

Emily White, in the leading role of Melisande, won all hearts by her romantic actions.

Vernon Hurd, as Gervase, the hero, had the audience as well as the heroine guessing for a while.

Sibyl Durfey, as Mrs. Knowle, played the part of the extremely careful old mother in a very creditable manner.

George Emde, with his clever remarks, made everyone like Mr. Knowle.

Winifred Beckman, as the very “common-sensical” niece Jane, sustained her part well.

Floyd Clouse, as Bobby, the pleading suitor, received many laughs.

Thirsa Hunt was very clever in her role of Alice, the maid.

Delwyn Allen, as Gentleman Susan, carried his part off well.

Jesse Thompson was very good as the typical English country lad, Ern.
Much credit is due the cast and the directors, who gave unsparingly of their time to make the play a success.

THE CAST

Mr. Knowle.....	George Emde
Gervase.....	Vernon Hurd
Bobby.....	Floyd Clouse
Gentleman Susan.....	Delwyn Allen
Ern.....	Jesse Thompson
Mrs. Knowle.....	Sibyl Durfey
Melisande.....	Emily White
Jane.....	Winifred Beckman
Alice.....	Thirsa Hunt