Senior Calendar

---

- Sept. 10—School starts. George Moore turns up missing.
- Sept. 11-12-13—Search for Moore by students and faculty.
- Sept. 14—Moore is found in library reading Quad.
- Oct. 3—Executive committee holds meeting. Bennett and Lange discuss "As hasn't, and if not, why?"
- Oct. 16—Football enthusiasm reaches such a dizzy height that the roof was blown off of the auditorium when "Hippo" made a speech.
- Nov. 6—Elsie Neumann stays out of school to pose for Palm Olive ad.
- Nov. 20—Mysterious numerals and essays appear all over Lodi High campus.
- Nov. 22-23—"Pinkerton" Corda matches paint with that sold by W. P. Fuller Co. thus proving that paint was used by the culprits.
- Dec. 6—As Christmas approaches, Edward Vert wonders whether it is better to be old and bent or young and broke.
- Dec. 10—Actors and actresses come to school with make-up on that they used the night before at dress rehearsals of "Come from the Pantry."
- Jan. 30—Students who heard Elton Wallis looking for his tie at the Stockton basketball game decided that he was a loud dresser.
- Feb. 6—Miss Taylor discards her curls and decides to become a young lady.
- Feb. 12—Lincoln's birthday. Eldred Lane arrives with trousers appropriately hung at half mast.
- Feb. 13—Students and faculty cannot be distinguished, now that bobbed hair is raging.
- Feb. 19—Art Bennett goes a courtin' Frances Scott in his open Ford. Finds two bikes there, belonging to "Arrow collar" boys, George Moore and Hugh Paddleford. Arthur flivvers home.
- Mar. 9—It is rumored that Jake Fetzer has his Dodge fixed up for the summer. He will probably have to tell it ghost stories to make it run. This goes to prove that we need a new drinking fountain.
- April 15—Art Bennett thrills natives by appearing in knickers and Stacomb headdress.

April 16—Joe Pitto, our orating fullback, talks the debate judges into giving his side the debate decision.

April 17—Pitto disappears. Matrimony feared.

June 1—We exchange pictures, so that we may never forget those endearing faces. Janitor threatens to resign when personal cards are passed around.

June 4—I ax you, wasn't the senior play good?

June 11—Board of education finds it profitable to dismiss school because of the lack of attendance which generally occurs at this time of year.

June 11—Now that we have managed to come into possession of our diplomas, by foul means or fair, it is with much regret that we say farewell to Lodi High.

A Vineyard in Winter

---

Laura Lange, '26

I think that a vineyard in winter
Is a very gloomy sight.
Crumbly leaves lie rotting in dirty brown heaps;
The crusty ground is bare and colorless;
The vines are colorless, too.
One day,
As I ran through the vineyard
An old gnarled vine stuck out a long, forked prong,
And tripped me;
Now I regard the winter vineyard as my foe;
Indeed, the long rows
Resemble a petrified army
In regular battle array,
With bayonets ready to stab.
So I don't like the vineyard in winter
