At the beginning of the year three cheer leaders were elected. Bill Bailey, cheer leader, Jimmy Sanquinetti and Bill Spooner assistants were chosen.

During the many rallies and games, these boys did their best to extract triumphant cheers from the throats of the student body. Many a rally ended with raw tonsils for all the Flame cohorts.

Believe it or not, the cheer leaders worked harder and perspired more than many a second string man during the games.

Song leaders also were appointed by the student council at the beginning of the year. Their efforts in leading the singing "at the half" lent color and enthusiasm to the rooting section. Leona McLachlan and Laura Perrin were the girls chosen.

Football—that most famous and most highly encouraged sport in Lodi High and the vicinity of Lodi, had a very good season last year.

Suffering only two-defeats, one to the Sacramento Dragons, champions of the Central C. I. F. and the other to the powerful Bakersfield Drillers, the Fighting Flames emblazoned their names upon Lodi High's Hall of Fame by searing the Stockton Tarzans on November 16, by a score of seven to nothing.

Coach Bill Mudra, ably assisted by Coach Verne Hoffman and Athletic Director, Jim Conklin, put a team on the field this season of which Lodi could well be proud. During all the season the fellows kept on plugging, fighting, and striving for one aim. That was to defeat Stockton on Baxter Field. They did it, so all glory to them.

Captain "Biff" Strobridge, although hampered by an injured knee, played in every game and his heady and brilliant playing added materially to Lodi's victories. Too much cannot be said of Lodi's two all-sectional men, Captain-elect Leon Mettler and Ruben Burgstahler. These men played stellar ball all season in each of their respective departments. Mettler's defense work was said to be the best in the state. Harry B. Smith, editor of the San Francisco Chronicle's Sporting Green, placed Mettler on the all-northern California prep school team this year.

Here follow the names of the players on the first squad, truly a wonderful football team:

Ruben Burgstahler
Arthur Struckman
Marion Lasell
Lloyd Engel
Leon Mettler, captain-elect
Henry Blewett
Russell Burnett
Ernie Werner

Ed. Oberlander
Gerald Strobridge, captain
Minor Pruitt
Otto Vossler
Masuo Okazaki
Marvin Mettler
Paul McClure

John Thorp, senior manager.

In the two pre-league games this season, the Fighting Flames swamped the Preston School of Industry, 26—0, on the Flame Field. On October 12, the Flames took the measure of the Turlock Melon Pickers to the tune of a 19—0 score. It was in this game that Captain "Biff" Strobridge hurt his knee, which hampered him constantly throughout the season.

Sacramento 19, Lodi 0.

October 19—Lodi.

For the first time in eight years the Sacramento Dragons beat the Flames. Playing marvelous ball, the Purples completely swept the bewildered Flames off their feet. Smith, colored flash of Sacramento, was the outstanding star of the visitors. L. Mettler and Burgstahler stood out for Lodi.

Modesto 0, Lodi 26.

October 26—Lodi.

Smarting under their defeat at the hands of the Sacramento Dragons, the Flames took revenge on the Modesto Panthers. The Flames never were in danger and continually played an offensive game. Although this was a non-league game, quite a few fans witnessed the struggle. The touchdowns were made by Strobridge (2), Burnett, and Burgstahler.

Richmond 6, Lodi 32.

September 2—Lodi.

Turning back the Richmond Oilmen, the Flames played spectacular ball and by running up a huge score on the visitors, certainly looked like a championship team. Everything functioning perfectly: one-two-three, like that, the Flames made quite an impression on the natives.

The touchdowns were made by Wallior, Strobridge (2), Mettler, and Pruitt.

Cal. Aggie Seconds 0, Lodi 0.

September 9—Lodi.

After their terrific comeback against Richmond, the Flames took the usual slump against the California Aggie Reserves. Although at times the going was good and it looked like a touchdown for the Flames, the Farmers stubbornly "sat down on their haunches" and held.

This game served as a good tapering off game against the Tarzans and it was just what the Flames needed to get them going.

Stockton 0, Lodi 7.

September 16—Stockton.

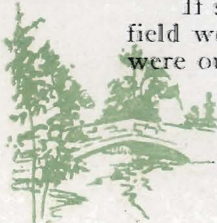

The Flames turned on the heat and scorched the Tarzans seven to nothing. Playing an almost wholly offensive game the Flames punched the Stockton forward wall down to the two-yard line three times. The first two attempts were stopped because there was not enough weight in the Lodi backfield. The last time, however, a bullet pass from Oberlander to Burnett did the trick. The stands went berserk (the Lodi stands). From then on the Flames held the Tarzans down to snatch another Lodi victory and to break the jinx of Baxter Field.

Bakersfield 25, Lodi 0.

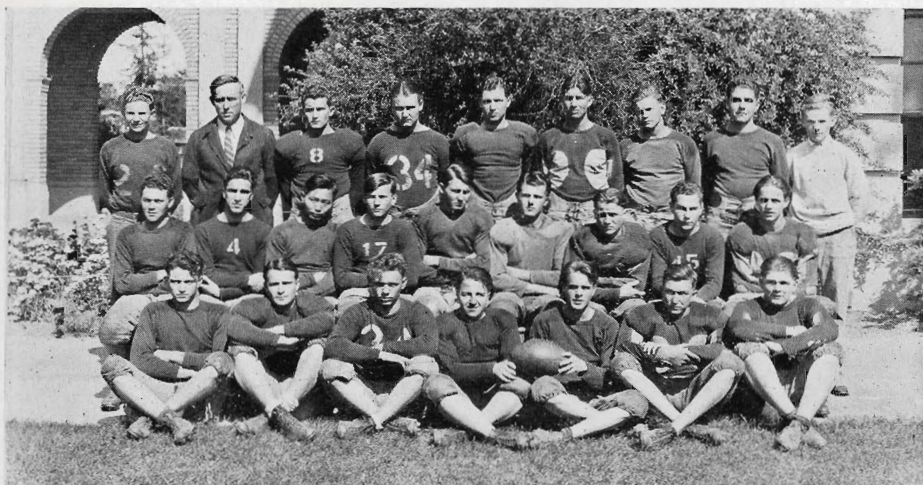

November 22—Lodi.

Bucking up against a far superior team, the Flames were handed a neat 25—0 lacing by the Drillers. The work of Lum, the Chinese halfback, for Bakersfield was outstanding.

If state championships were still in vogue, there is no doubt that Bakersfield would have won the championship. The Flames played hard ball, but were outplayed, not outfought.

Under the tutorship of Coach "Biff" Hoffman, the Flamelets won all their league games except one, that to the Saint Mary's Irish eleven from Stockton. During the season, Galt came down for weekly trouncings by the Flamelets.

"These boys," as Coach Mudra said when he presented their letters, "are responsible for the first team's string of victories for they were the boys who bore the brunt of mid-week scrimmages with the first string."

Here they are:

Basketball

First Basketball Team

Bailey, Oberlander, Vallem, Engel, Burnett, Gatzert, Coe, Seiferling, Mudra.

Although the Fighting Flames failed to win any of their league games, they fought gamely as true sons of Lodi High.

Warren Coe, flashy forward, was placed on an all section quintet by Coach Jannssen of Sacramento. This was the only mark of recognition the Flames received this season.

The following boys were members of the first squad

Lloyd Engel	Russell Burnett	Warren Coe
Eddie Seiferling	Clifford Gatzert	Eddie Oberlander
Louie Vallem	Emory Longmire	Paul Fry

Howard Bailey, manager.

The record of the first squad:

December 10—	Pacific Frosh, 26—Lodi, 18.

The second edition of the Flame quintet seemed to have more luck than the first. They trounced the Dragon five in the auditorium at Sacramento, and also on their home court. By losing two games to Stockton, the Flamelets broke even on league games. The boys were on edge all season and proved themselves worthy of being called basketball players of Lodi High.

The fellows included in second squad were:

Although this year's track squad was not a first place winning team as a whole, individual members of it shone like the washed place on a boy's neck.

The Class B squad composed of Perrin, Hieb, Crete, Thomas, Jacobsen, Watther, Porter, Mettler, Jory, Hopkins, Okasaki, Ehrhardt, Heisler, Menzel, Gatzert, and Hawley looks very promising for next year, especially Elton Perrin in the quarter mile.

In a practice meet in the earlier part of the season, the Pacific Frosh Thinclass trounced the Flames by a huge score. The next week, however, the squad managed to get a second place in a triangle meet including Oakdale, Modesto, and Lodi. Even though a fifth place in the 20-30 relays in Sacramento doesn't look so good for the A squad, nevertheless it is a very good score considering the competition including the State champions, the Sacramento Dragons. The class B squad took a second place in this meet.

This year Kerr's tracksters from Stockton whitewashed the Flames by the one-sided score of 90-32. Making almost a clean sweep of the weight division and various other events, enabled the Tarzans to run up such a huge score. Captain Lawrence Hatch defeated his rival, Captain Harper, in the mile. Young tied with Briones from Stockton for first in the high jump.

Track

Track B

Seibel, Thomas, Heisler, Perrin, Hopkins, Ehrhardt, Walther, Mudra, Jacobsen, Mettler, Okasaki, Jory, Crete, Menzel, Porter.

In the sub-sectional meet held in Lodi, the Flames took fourth. Hatch took the mile run; Morrison, the high sticks and Young, second in the high jump. Coach Don McKay's Panthers took the meet.

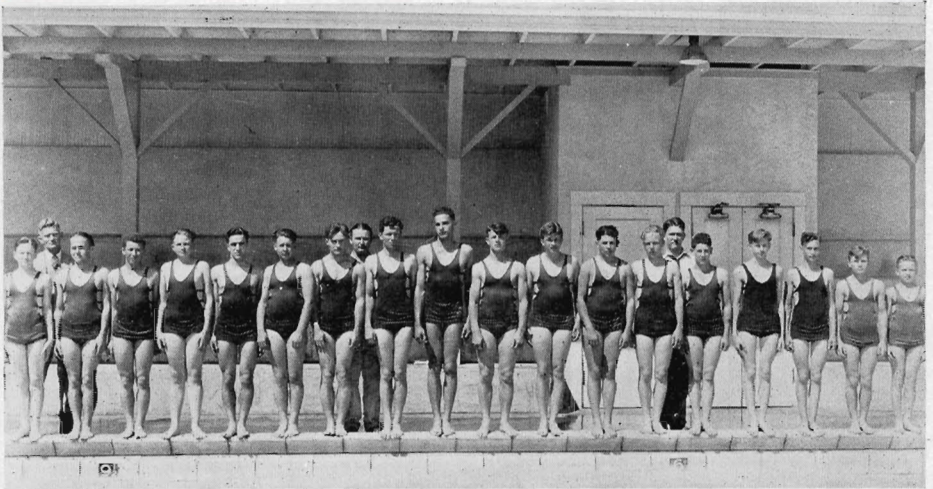

In the sectional meet at Modesto two Lodi men qualified for the state meet. Hatch took first in the mile run in 4:36. Young took first in the high jump at 5 feet, 10½ inches.

At the memorial stadium in Berkeley, Lawrence Hatch ran a fast mile to place third in the fast time of 4:31, one second under record time. The first three men were not a yard apart at the finish. Young and Morrison, a last minute entry, failed to place. Both Hatch and Young received sweaters for making first place in the C. I. F. meet for the northern section.

The members of the class A squad were Hatch, captain, Young, Porter, Morrison, Seiferling, Phipps, Schneider, L. Mettler, Cooper, Tanaka, Matsuhiro, Priebe, Houston, Strobridge, Fry, Engel.

Swimming Team

The swimming squad this year consisted of the following:

McClure, Allington, Brown, Coe, Marshall, Schnabel, Schnake, Pruitt, Davis, Courtney, Filler, Poundstone, Bonora, Adams, Rehn, Stevens, Mondavi, Cencirullo, Wilson, Hellwig.

The meets held this year were with Palo Alto at Palo Alto; with Stockton at Stockton; Sacramento, Roseville, and Stockton at Stockton; C. I. F. Northern Section at Stockton.

Girls' Athletics

Girls' sports are played after school. There are try-outs for the teams, and then the players are picked by the captain and the girls' coach. After the first team is picked out, then the girls that are left, make a second team and maybe a third.

The girls work for "L's" and stars. To make these they must have a certain number of points. If a girl is on the first team, she receives seventy-five points, fifty for the second, twenty-five for the third and ten for the fourth, fifth, and sixth teams. A girl must have attended all practices to get her points. Three hundred points are necessary to secure an "L"; six hundred points, for an "L" and star; nine hundred, for an "L" and two stars, and twelve hundred for an "L" and three stars.

Hockey

Hockey Team

Debrick, Jacobsen, Lytle, Strobel,
Henning, Cella, Atwell, Moore, Taylor, Allington, Van Buskirk.

Hockey has always been a popular sport with the girls, though a few generally come out with skinned shins and other mishaps.

The first game, which was very exciting, was played November 14, between the freshmen and sophomores. The freshmen won 2-1.

The first place for the season, however, went to the mighty juniors: Eunice Allington, Ruth Atwell, Florence Cella, Marie Debrick, Ellen Henning, Martha Jacobsen, Julia Lytle, Grace Moore (capt.), Laura Strobel, Margaret Taylor, Margaret Van Buskirk.

The freshmen made second place: Leona Ackerman, Margaret Blakely, Jean Brixey (capt.), Lois Emde, Robinette Fisher, Erna Gillette, Dorothy Harshner, Dwayne Kinsey, Ila McCoy, Isabel Post, Winifred Wilkinson.

The sophomores captured third place: Betty Ashley, Erna Fetzer, Marie Graffigna, Leone Huber, Edith McKenzie, Clovis Michels, Evelyn Pope (capt.), Gladys Strobel, Margaret E. Thompson, Marcella Thorp.

After the freshmen and junior teams had been organized, a number of girls from each class who were not on either team, combined and formed another team, called the freshman-junior team.

Volley Ball

Junior Volley Ball Team

Strobel, Moore, Cella, Taylor,
Debrick, Bacigalupi, Jacobsen, Holt, Preszler.

Volley ball, first girl's sport of the year, was won by the junior first team. The second place was taken by the freshmen and the third place, by the seniors.

The opening series was between the freshmen and sophomores, two games of which were taken by the freshmen. The score of the first game was 15 for the freshmen and 7 for the sophomores. The score of the second game was freshmen, 15 and sophomores, 9.

The number of junior girls coming out for this sport necessitated having two junior teams.

In the line of victory the teams were as follows:

The victorious junior first team was composed of Marie Bacigalupi, Florence Cella, Marie Debrick, Catherine Holt, Martha Jacobsen (capt.), Grace Moore, Martha Prezler, Laura Strobel, Margaret Taylor.

The freshmen, who took second place, were Leona Ackerman, Zelma Burson, Elizabeth Campbell, Lois Emde (capt.), Robinette Fisher, Erma Gillette, Marjorie Harney, Dwayne Kinsey, Maurine Smith.

The senior team, which took third place, included Margaret Allington, Violet Burghstalher, Mabel Irely, Audrey Kennison, Leona McLachlan, Laura Perrin (capt.), Iola Rouse.

The junior second team consisted of Ruth Beaumont, Marguerite Caple, Florence Fink, Ellen Henning, Dora Lerza, Dovey Myers, Geraldine Overlie, Margaret Van Buskirk, Verna Wardrobe.

Basketball

Senior Basketball Team

Burgstahler, Rouse, Perrin, Rathbun, Allington, Snyder, Strobel, Wencel.

Basketball is the most popular sport with the girls. The freshmen and juniors both had first and second teams, which afforded competition and aroused interest. The seniors placed first. The sophomores came in second and the freshman team surprised the juniors by taking third place. The junior first team took fourth, while the junior second team placed fifth and the freshman second team came in last.

The winning senior team consisted of Margaret Allington, Violet Burgstahler, Iola Rouse, Elinor Snyder, Laura Stroble, Esther Wencel, (captain), Subs.: Laura Perrin, Fern Rathbun.

The sophomores, who also had a strong team were Betty Ashley, Erna Fetzer, Edith McKenzie, Evelyn Pope, Gladys Strobel (captain), Margaret E. Thompson. Subs.: M. Futrell, Evelyn Welty, Marcia Zelter.

The freshman first team, who outclassed the juniors, included Leona Ackerman, Jean Brixey, Elizabeth Campbell, Lois Emde, Ema Gillete, Dorothy Harshner (captain). Subs: Marjorie Harney, Isabel Post.

The junior first team consisted of Ruth Atwell, Dorothy Carr, Martha Jacobsen, Julia Lytel, Grace Moore, Evelyn Roseberry. Subs: Eunice Allington, Ellen Henning, Margaret Van Buskirk.

The junior second and freshman second teams who placed fifth and sixth were: juniors—Marie Bacigalupi, Leah Bamert, Ruth Beaumont, Marguerite Caple, Florence Fink, Doyve Myers. Sub: Geraldine Overlie; freshmen—J. Gordon, Ruth Jacobsen, Dwayne Kinsey, Barbara Newman, Jean Van Buskirk, June Wetzel. Sub: Marian Newfield.

Baseball

Freshman Baseball Team

Gillette, Emde, Harshner, Meirs,
Raber, Kinsey, Ackerman, Debrick, Beitz.

Baseball was another very popular sport this year. It being an outdoor sport played in the spring of the year, many girls came out for it and as all teams proved to be very strong, there was much competition between the classes.

The junior team was cinched to win, but the freshmen decided that they shouldn't and they didn't. The freshmen won first place.

The freshman team was composed of the following girls: Dwayne Kinsey, Kathryn Meir, Lois Emde, Dorothy Harshner, Viola Debrick, Leona Ackerman (captain), Ema Gillette, Violet Bietz, Annie Raber.

The junior team which received second place included Dorothy Carr, Ruth Atwell, Blanche Clifton (captain), Betty Ashley, Gladys Strobel, Marcella Thorp, Edna McKindley, Gladys Schomo, Frances Culbertson.

Tennis

Winners in Doubles and Singles

C. Perrin, McLachlan, Holt, Blakesley, Wilkinson, L. Perrin,
McKenzie, Newfield, Taylor, Lytle, Huber, Jacobsen, Pope.

Tennis has grown more popular each year with the girls of Lodi High School. This year more beginners entered the sport than in former years.

The ladder system was used in each class, for singles and doubles, the top girl competing in the inter-class matches.

Martha Jacobsen won first place in the singles for the juniors and Evelyn Pope placed second for the sophomores. Edith McKenzie and Leone Huber placed first in doubles for the sophomores. For the juniors, Catherine Holt and Margaret Taylor placed second.

On the second team of singles, Elizabeth De Vinny won first and Margaret E. Thompson won second place.

The first team of singles was composed of the following girls: Julia Lytle, Martha Jacobsen, Evelyn Pope, Winifred Wilkinson.

Leona McLachlan, Laura Perrin, Margaret Taylor, Catherine Holt, Edith McKenzie, Leone Huber, Margaret Blakesley, Marian Newfield completed the first team of doubles.

Swimming

The girls' swimming meet in which all classes competed was held May 8. The meet consisted of the plunger, form in strokes, races, dives, and relays.

As swimming is the last sport of the year, more girls came out for this activity than for any other.

The seniors received first place this year with a score of 104.

The juniors came out second, their score being 81.

The girls on the teams were as follows:

Senior: Ida Schauer, Laura Perrin, Margaret Van Buskirk, Cecilia Perrin, Fern Rathbun, Julia Lytle.

Of the girls who received the highest individual scores Ida Schauer received first place; Cecilia Perrin, second; Evelyn Roseberry, third; Blanche Clifton, fourth; and Julia Lytle, fifth.

Edith McKenzie, sophomore, broke the plunging record by making a score of 57. Last year's record was 52.
