Football at Night

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS of the Lodi Union High School installed a system of lights on the athletic field. The system includes strong and powerful lights in bath tub like reflectors which are placed in pairs on eight separate tall telephone poles. These light up the field so well that it is as light as day if not lighter. The turnout to the first game was very large, and the crowds did not tire of the novelty of night football games. The condition proved to be ideal for the players.

A squad of seven block "L" gridders and fifteen circle "L" veterans besides twenty-five other aspirants for grid positions and honors answered the first call of the new football coach, Barney Hagen, for the football season of 1930. The first squad was led by the very capable Leon Mettler. Captain Mettler, as usual, played outstanding football the entire season. He, as well as Engel, the center, again won a position on several of the potential sectional teams. Other outstanding players of the season were Moore and Mondavi at fullback, Shaw and Blewett at tackle, and Hori at end.

The Turlock—Lodi game was a poor exhibition of football playing. Both teams showed the lack of that extra finish that comes after much practice. After an exhibition of interchange of punts the final score stood 19—0 in favor of the Lodi team.

The squad journeyed to San Jose, October 4, to meet the San Jose team in the first game to be played between these two teams. Since the day was very warm, the game was slow. An interesting incident of the game was Blewett's being knocked a little silly and refusing to come out of the game. The Garden City team defeated the Lodi team but the Flames are awaiting the time when San Jose will come to Lodi.

The Woodland—Lodi game was an exhibition of good football.

Because of the fact that a few Sacramento boys broke the rules of the California Interscholastic Federation by burning an "S" on the lawn of the Lodi Union High School, the C. I. F. required Sacramento to forfeit the Lodi—Sacramento game. The Sacramento High School deserves the very highest commendation for the excellent sportsmanship which they displayed in handling this situation.

First Football Team

The Oakdale game gave the Flames a bad scare. The visiting team was a constant threat and put up a good battle. The final score was 0—0.

The Modesto game upset Flame hopes. Captain Mettler suffered a severe cramp in the leg, but he stayed in the game using a most peculiar crouch in the line. The Flames were quenched in no uncertain manner.

This year seemed to be a jinx year for all football teams and Lodi was no exception. The prospects were about even for the Stockton game, but the Lodi players went into it with the sting of defeat from Modesto still strong in their minds. This was to no effect, however, against the Tarzans, Lodi's traditional enemies. The blue squad dominated the game all the way through. The old tradition that the Flames have never been defeated on the Flame field and that the Tarzans have never scored on the Flame field was broken. The Flames seemed to lack that old "fighting Flame" spirit so well known in local football.

The schedule and scores for the season were:

September 27—	Turlock at Lodi	Lodi, 19—	Turlock, 0.
October 4—	San Jose at San Jose	Lodi, 0—	San Jose, 7.
October 11—	Woodland at Lodi	Lodi, 13—	Woodland, 7.

Second Football Team

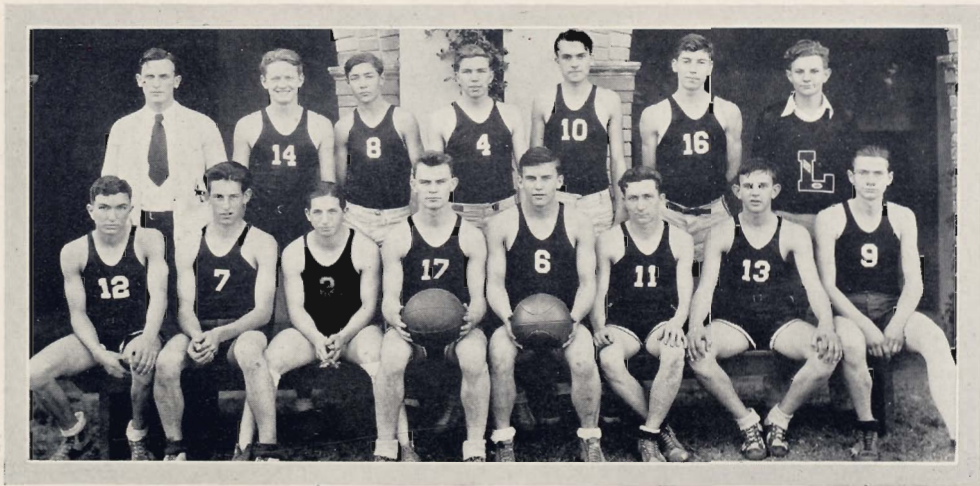

Under the excellent management of Coach "Biff" Hoffman, the Flamelets made a very good showing although they lost many of their games. The Eldoradans were a little too much for them. Lodi lost both games with them. The Flamelets tied their first game with Stockton and lost their next. The Tracy game ended in a tie, and Galt came in on the bad end.

The squad consisted of the following:

Cooper	Berner	Zimmerman
Hiesler	Daly	Gilbeau
Jauch	Sato	Porter
Loeffelbein	Stouder	Sanguinetti
Schmiedt	Holmes	Thiel
Runnels	Tanaka	Kohler
Bender	Knee	Eproson
Vix	Wolf	Seibel (manager)
Cencirulo	Hoff

The schedule of games was:

September 27—Turlock at Turlock	Lodi, 19— Turlock, 19
October 11—Tracy at Tracy	Lodi, 19— Tracy, 19
October 18—Stockton at Stockton	Lodi, 12— Stockton, 12
November 1—Stockton at Lodi	Lodi, 0— Stockton, 18
November 7—El Dorado at Lodi	Lodi, 6— El Dorado, 7
November 21—El Dorado at Placerville	Lodi, 0— El Dorado, 12

First Basketball Team

ALTHOUGH the Flame basketball team for the year of 1930-'31 started on the way to a championship by winning five straight games of their schedule, they slowed up and lost almost all of their later games; but still in the defeat, the old "fighting Flame" spirit was evident.

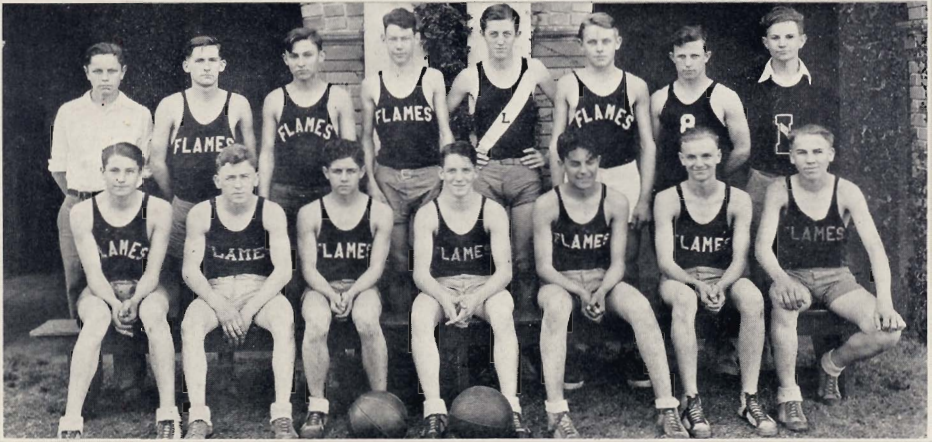

The only recognition the team got was that Gatzert and Seiferling were listed on the second sectional team. Gatzert and Engel were elected co-captains for the season.

The following were members of the squad:

L. Engel	D. Engel	Doherty	Bredy
Gatzert	R. Hieb	Berryman	Daly
Hintz	Seiferling	Okazaki	Hawley
Troutner	Fry	H. Hieb	Heisler

The record of the first squad was:

December 19—Oakdale at Lodi	Lodi, 24—Oakdale, 23
December 20—St. Mary's at Pacific	Lodi, 8—St. Mary's, 25
January 2—Galt at Lodi	Lodi, 27—Galt, 16
January 9—Sacramento at Lodi	Lodi, 25—Sacramento, 21
January 10—Oakdale at Oakdale	Lodi, 13—Oakdale, 11

Second Basketball Team

THE SECOND basketball team did not show up well in the competition this year, but the training these boys received is what is going to build up the teams of next year. Thiel, Allwardt, and Troutner played exceptionally well.

The members of the squad were:

Allwardt	Schnable	Koehler
Thiel	Troutner	Lind
Zimmerman	Graffigna	Ferdun
	Allen
	Ehrhardt (manager)

Their schedule of games was:

January	9—	Lodi,	19—	Sacramento at Lodi	Sacramento,	34
January	10—	Lodi,	10—	Oakdale at Lodi	Oakdale,	23
January	16—	Lodi,	10—	Modesto at Modesto	Modesto,	30
January	17—	Lodi,	32—	St. Mary's at Lodi	St. Mary's,	9
January	24—	Lodi,	19—	Stockton at Lodi	Stockton,	36
January	30—	Lodi,	2—	Sacramento at Sacramento	Sacramento,	20
February	6—	Lodi,	16—	Modesto at Lodi	Modesto,	42
February	13—	Lodi,	19—	Stockton at Lodi	Stockton,	37
February	14—	Lodi,	12—	Turlock at Lodi	Turlock,	19

Two other teams of lighter weight were organized. They were called the Ponies and Tokays, and were coached by Mettler and Pucheu respectively. They both placed first in their city leagues. These four teams gave all boys a chance to take part in basketball competition, and thus developed better spirit and material for the inter-class and scholastic games.

Class "A" Track

SPIKES and track suits were handed out to returning veterans and new aspirants for track honors exceptionally early this year. The squad held light workouts while the basketball season was still in progress.

At the first meeting of the season, at an invitational meet at Roseville, Lodi placed second in the scale of competition. In the meet with Stockton, the Flames came out on the short end of the score, 87—43. The Tigers of the College of the Pacific ate up the Flames in no uncertain manner by taking all the first places and a majority of minor places. At the Davis and Sacramento meets the Flames came away down in the list of winners. The only meet the Flames won was with Oakdale. This meet was a very poor exhibition as neither team had all of their regulars with them.

At the sub-sectional meet held in Modesto May 9, Schneider took second place in the 880. Cooper took fourth in throwing the javelin. Hopkins and Thomas tied with five others for third place. The relay team placed fourth. The total of these points gave Lodi a fifth place.

Those who placed at Modesto went to Sacramento to the Northern Sectional Meet. Schneider took third in the 880 earning the right to compete in the state meet at Visalia.

Outstanding track men on the team were:

Cooper, who improved from 152 feet to 168 feet in throwing the javelin. We look forward to great results next year.

Seiferling, who was the strongest 100 yard dash man and 220 yard sprint man.

The team was composed of:

Sieferling	Mettler	Menzel
Houston	Priebe	Hopkins
Botts	Caufield	Heisler
Schneider	Porter	Perrin
Thomas	Al Cooper	Hieb
Matsuhiro	E. Cooper	Ehrhardt, manager
	Jacobsen

A. Ehrhardt, G. Moran, E. Allwardt, T. Stotz—A. Thiel, B. Hagen, B. Crete, J. Mentz, T. Kaba, V. Tancreto.

Class "B" Track

THE CLASS "B" squad was outfitted at the same time as the others. The turn-out was very poor.

At the Roseville invitational meet, Thiel placed in the football throw; Mentz in the hurdles; Koehler, in the 100 yard and 220 yard sprints, and Stotz in the 660.

In the Davis relays Mentz won the junior discus with a throw of 111 feet. He was the only Class "B" man to place.

The less said the better about the Stockton meet. The blue squad swamped the Flames.

As the Oakdale meet was held on a picnic day, there was a poor turn-out of Class "B" men. The score was 81—31 in favor of Oakdale.

At the Modesto sub-sectional meet, Thiel placed second in the football throw.

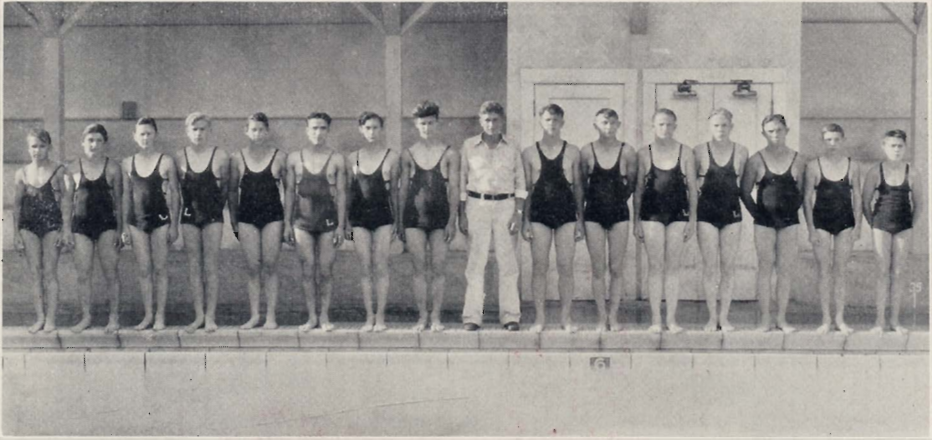

At the Northern Sectional meet in Sacramento, Thiel placed fourth in the football throw earning the right to compete in the state meet at Visalia.

Swimming

Lodi's aim is "every pupil a swimmer." The fine big swimming pool on the school grounds is in use throughout the school year. Every period in the school day finds an enthusiastic class not only learning to swim but also enjoying the learning. The boys' teams enter inter-scholastic competition.

Volley Ball

ACCORDING to the opening sign-up for volley ball, new interest has developed in this sport. Formerly volley ball was one of the weakest sports of the year. However, the fact that sixty girls signed up this season tends to abolish past records.

The seniors easily took first place, while the freshman first team climbed to second place. The juniors came in third, with the freshman second team following close to take fourth place. The sophomores got off with a bad start and had to be satisfied with fifth place. The players were:

Seniors: Martha Jacobsen (captain), Grace Moore, Margaret Taylor, Ruth Atwell, Catherine Holt, Ruth Beaumont, Julia Lytle, Ellen Henning, Marie Bacigalupi. Subs: Marguerite Caple, Dora Leza, Verna Wardrobe, Geraldine Overlie.

Juniors: Erna Fetzer (captain), El Bonita Bull, Evelyn Pope, Gladys Strobel, Clovis Michels, Marie Veit, Edith McKenzie, Betty Jean Ashley, Margaret Thompson. Subs: Leone Huber, Emma Lou Polenske, Gladys Schomo.

Sophomores: Dorothy Harshner (captain), Florence Barsotti, Lois Emde, Winifred Wilkinson, Joyce Gordon, Robinette Fisher, Katherine Meier, Cleola Schotz, Dwayne Kinsey. Subs: June Kern, Mary Rathbun, Hazel Baron, Marjorie Declusin, Mildred Mitchell.

Freshman First Team: Dorothy Perry (captain), Violet Beitz, Nellie Barsotti, Marion Petersen, Frances Williams, Pauline Marshall, Rose Sheridan, Vira Jane Clow.

Freshman Second Team: Genevieve Welty, Helen Taylor, Helen Bredy, Patsy Cole, Addine Handel, Virginia Granlees, Pauline Webb.

Tanaka, DeWeber, Jacobsen, Clifton, Lytle, Henning—Lerza, Cella, Van Buskirk, Atwell, Moore (captain), Gordon, Beaumont, Carr, Caple.

Hockey

HOCKEY is beginning to rival some of the more popular sports. This year fifty-four girls helped in making the hockey season a success.

After several weeks of practice, the freshmen defeated the sophomores by a score of 3—1. On November 19, the seniors defeated the juniors, the score being 9—2. The seniors likewise swept aside the remaining opposition by overwhelming the freshmen with a score of 7—0. The juniors upset the sophomores by a score of 5—0, and on November 21, the juniors sent the freshmen down to a 6—0 defeat.

The results gave the seniors first place; juniors second; freshmen third; and sophomores fourth. The players were:

Seniors—Dorothy Carr, Dora Lerza, Martha Jacobsen, Florence Cella, Margaret Van Buskirk, Ellen Henning, Grace Moore (captain), Julia Lytle, Ruth Atwell, Ruth Beaumont, Marguerite Caple. Subs: Annabell Tanaka, Blanche Clifton, Joyce De Webber, Ralphine Gordon, Uvon Marchant.

Juniors—Gladys Schomo, Emma Lou Polenske, Evelyn Pope, Edith McKenzie, Marcella Thorp, Betty Jean Ashley, Gladys Strobel, Erna Fetzer, El Bonita Bull, Margaret Thompson (captain), Marie Veit.

Sophomores—Robinette Fisher (captain), June Kern, Winifred Wilkinson, Ila McCoy, Cleola Schotz, Marjorie Harney, Isabel Post, Marjorie Declusin, Mary Rathbun, Mildred Mitchell.

Freshmen—Pauline Webb, Dorothy Palmateer, Nellie Barsotti, Dorothy Perry, Patsy Cole, Violet Beitz (captain), Josephine Gannon, Genevieve Welty, Frances Williams, Marion Petersen, Helen Godfrey. Subs: Pauline Marshall, Helen Taylor, Addine Handel, Vira Jane Clow, Katie Ehnisz.

Atwell (captain), Holt, Irey, Moore, Roseberry, DeVinny, Jacobsen—Lytle, Henning.

Basketball

THE SENIORS continued their smashing drive by taking first place in both first and second team competition in basketball.

After a very interesting season of practice, in which many girls participated, the teams were finally chosen and real work began.

In first team competition, the seniors defeated the juniors and sophomores, thereby winning first place. The juniors overcame the sophomores and freshmen to attain second place. The sophomores defeated the freshmen for third, and the freshmen were thus reduced to fourth.

In second team competition, the seniors won first place, the sophomores second, and the freshmen third. The players were as follows:

Senior First—Forwards: Ruth Atwell (captain), Dorothy Irey, Julia Lytle (sub.); centers: Catherine Holt, Evelyn Roseberry, Ellen Henning (sub.); guards: Martha Jacobsen, Elizabeth DeVinny, Grace Moore (sub.).

Senior Second—Forwards: Dorothy Carr, Ralphine Gordon; centers: Ruth Beaumont, Marguerite Caple; guards: Margaret Van Buskirk, Verna Wardrobe, Uvon Marchant.

Freshman First—Forwards: Nellie Barsotti (captain), Annie Raber, Josephine Gannan (sub.); centers: Marion Peterson, Hazel Wittmier; guards: Helen Taylor, Violet Beitz.

Freshman Second—Forwards: Pauline Marshall, Josephine Gannon; centers: Rose Sheridan, Frances Williams; guards: Helen Godfrey, Myra Bohnet.

Baseball 1931

THE EXCITEMENT and enthusiasm were very evident from the time the first baseball practice was held, until the final game had been played. Each player on every team was behind her captain in her efforts to win first place.

Although during practice the sophomores seemed to have the edge on the freshmen, in the first game, April 9, the freshmen won with a score of 30—19.

The seniors did their duty by defeating the juniors 32—6 on April 13.

Even though both of these games were very interesting, the most exciting game of the season was played on April 14 between the seniors and freshmen, when the seniors, after dragging behind for three innings, finally woke up and pulled ahead, to win by a score of 17—14.

On April 15, the sophomores defeated the juniors 7—6. However, they were unable to attain second place, because they were again defeated by the freshmen on April 16, by a score of 17—20.

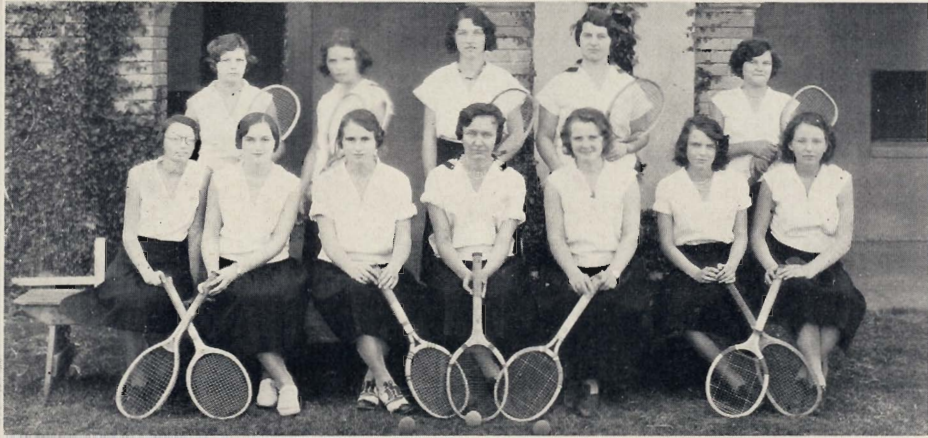

Results gave the seniors first place, the freshmen second place, the sophomores third place, and the juniors fourth place. The players were as follows:

Seniors: Grace Moore, Dorothy Irey, Dorothy Carr, Julia Lytle, Blanche Clifton, Ellen Henning, Verna Wardrobe, Elizabeth DeVinny (captain), Marguerite Caple.
Subs: Ruth Beaumont, Annabelle Tanaka.

Juniors: El Bonita Bull (captain), Gladys Strobel, Erna Fetzer, Evelyn Pope, Cleola Schotz, Gladys Schomo, De Lores Handel, Zelma Burson, Emma Lou Polenske.

Sophomores: Florence Barsotti (captain), Katherine Meier, Lois Emde, Dorothy Harshner, Marjorie Harney, Ruth Jacobsen, Tillie Rabusin, Annie Raber, Dwayne Kinsey. Subs.: June Wetzel, Esther Clifton, Rosa Davis, Mary Rathbun.

Freshmen: Katie Ehnisz, Nellie Barsotti, Marion Peterson (captain), Vira Jane Clow, Dorothy Perry, Mary Piazza, Frances Williams, Helen Libhart, Mary Tancreto. Subs.: Marian Monroe.

Welty, Cole, Huber, McKenzie, Marshall, Godfrey, Fisher, Taylor, Holt, Jacobsen, Taylor, Wilkinson.

Tennis 1931

THE TENNIS ladder system, which was first used in 1929, was again used this year. Those who won first and second places in their class competition were allowed to play in inter-class competition.

The final results gave Martha Jacobsen (senior) first place, Winifred Wilkinson (sophomore) second place, Helen Godfrey (freshman) third place, and Robinette Fisher (junior) fourth place in singles.

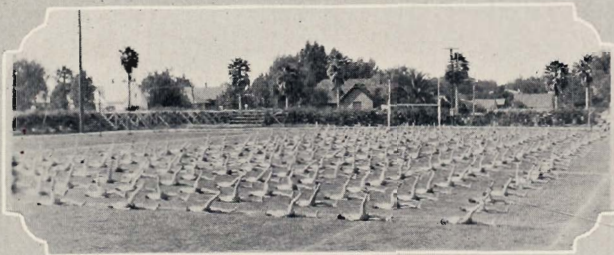

In doubles, Catherine Holt and Margaret Taylor (seniors) won first place, Helen Taylor and Pauline Marshall (freshmen) second place, Leone Huber and Edith McKenzie (juniors) third place, Genevieve Welty and Patsy Cole (sophomores) fourth place.

The Year, A Success

THE GIRLS' athletic program was this year a huge success both from the standpoint of the coach, Miss Stella Haglund, and of the athletic manager, Grace Moore, and from the standpoint of the girls as well.

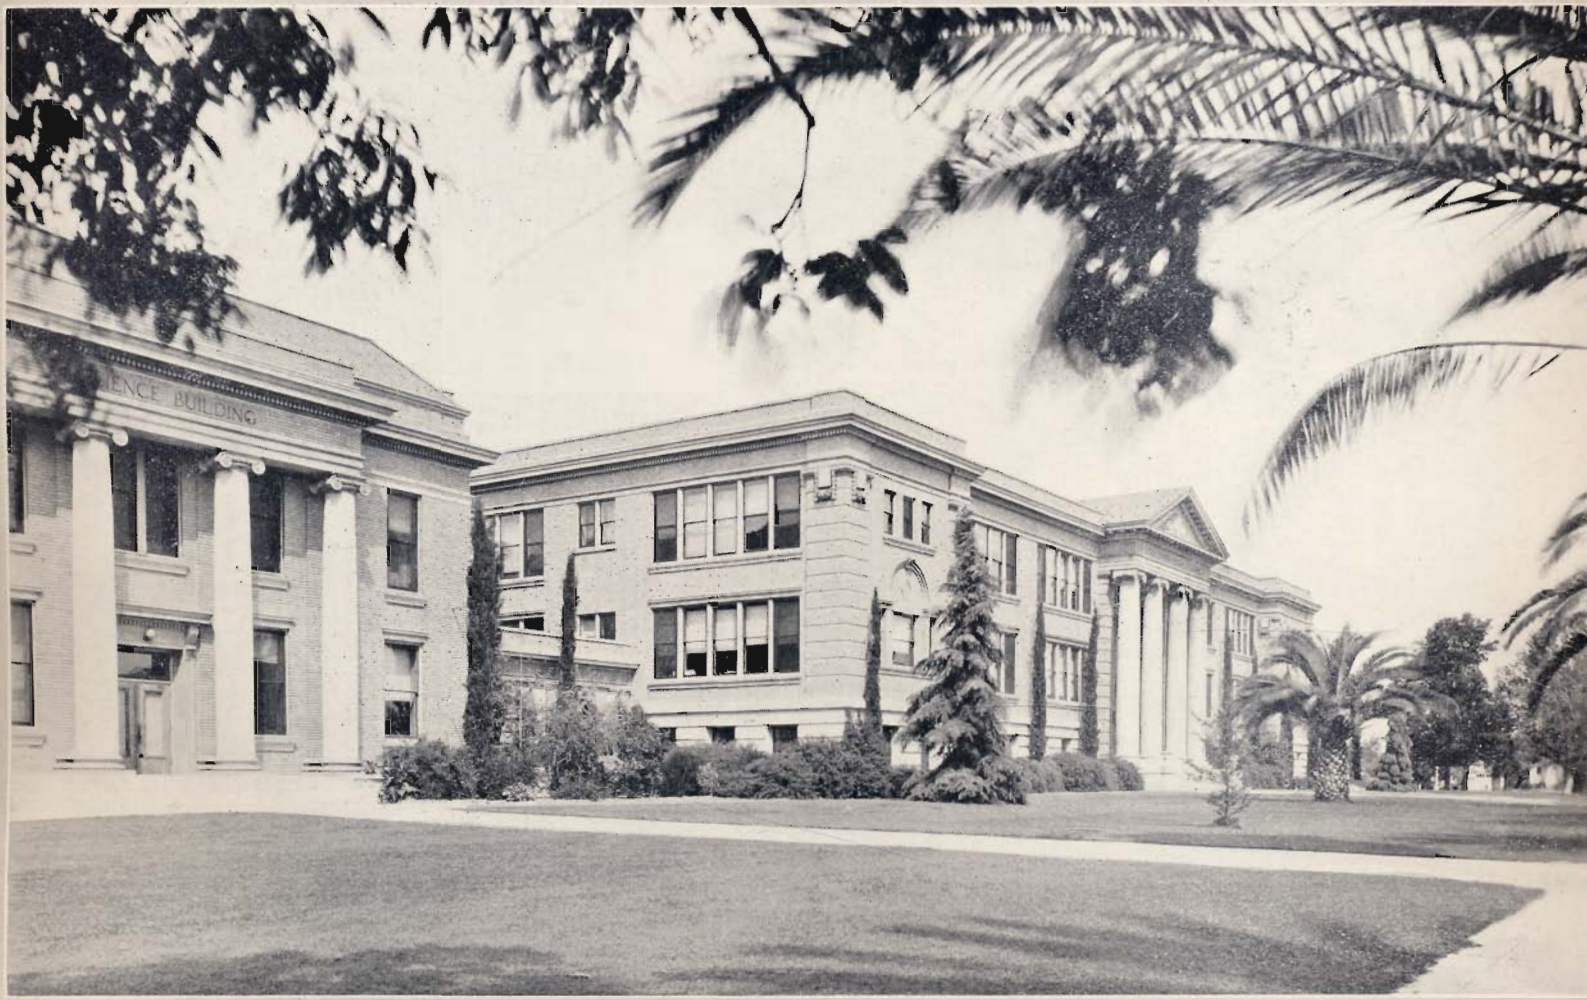

At the beginning of the year, the seniors, who have worked and played together for four years, decided that they wanted to win all events. Needless to say, they were victorious and have to their credit, first places in volley ball, hockey, basketball two first places, baseall, and tennis. The seniors depart from Lodi Union High School, feeling that they have accomplished an unusual feat.

Besides following the regular sport program this year, the girls participated in the Field Day program May 1. Their part consisted of marching, and folk dancing. A large crowd witnessed the exhibition.
