

SACRAMENTO COUNTY

Area, 987.66 square miles; nearly as large as Rhode Island.

Population about 50,000.

Assessed valuation, 1904, $36,184,197.

Climate equable; summer nights cool. No sunstroke, snow nor blizzard.

Rail and Transportation facilities, River, Steam and Electric.

Expended on roads, 1904, $84,904. All roads and bridges free.

Average rainfall, 20 inches.

No recorded failure of crops.

Contains the noted Flame Tokay Grape District.

The home of the Bartlett Pear and the French Prune.

No problem of irrigation; water readily accessible from never failing streams and subterranean supply.

Soil of unexcelled fertility, on which anything that can be grown from Maine to Florida can be successfully produced.

Flourishing orchards and vineyards, with and without irrigation.

Contains the second largest vineyard in the world.

The only district in the State that ships berries in full carload lots.

Has the largest thoroughbred breeding farm in the world.

One of the largest producers of hops of any county in the United States.

Ships to the East and Europe the great bulk of the green deciduous fruits of California.

The home of the Olive and the Fig.

Fruit and vegetables marketed every month.

Unexcelled educational facilities.

Ideal place for diversified farming on small holdings.

The second county in the State for the production of poultry and eggs.

Sacramento County presents unusual attractions to the intelligent, industrious and prudent homeseeker who wishes to engage in diversified farming on a small holding. Here he will find an equable climate, a fertile soil, independent irrigation facilities, a ready market, exceptional educational and social advantages, commercial and industrial opportunities, combined with an opportunity to purchase desirable land at a reasonable price. It is the fact that lands adapted for the establishment of permanent livelihood under the most favoring conditions may be secured on terms both reasonable and convenient.

Two Electric Power Lines from American and Yuba Rivers afford unlimited energy; the ideal place for manufacturing.

SACRAMENTO PARLOR, No. 3

BY CLARENCE M. HUNT, P. S.

Pursuant to a notice published in the Sacramento papers, March 22, 1878, the Sacramento Branch of the Native Sons of the Golden West, met at Knickerbocker Hall, now part of Weinstock & Lubin's store, Fourth street, K and L, Matt Coffey, the present Chief of Police of this city, acting as Temporary President, and C. E. Parker, now deceased, as Temporary Secretary. Up to November 12, 1878, the organization had not assumed the title of "Parlor," but from then on it has been known as Sacramento Parlor, No. 3, N. S. G. W. On this date a proposition from California Parlor, No. 1, and Oakland Parlor, No. 2, was indorsed, looking to the organization of a Grand Parlor, and H. C. Chipman, H. W. Taylor, H. Kohler, W. Nixon and B. O'Neil were elected representatives from the Parlor. Sacramento Parlor can, therefore, be classed as one of the moving spirits in the organization of the Native Sons of the Golden West, and is honored by having the names of two of its oldest members—the late H. C. Chipman and Hon. Frank D. Ryan—among the list of seven Directors who incorporated the Order June 8, 1880, and who were later distinguished by becoming Past Grand Presidents of the Grand Parlor of Native Sons.

From a mere handful of patriotic Native Sons, Sacramento Parlor has grown to be a Parlor of 380 members, and has a treasury of $16,000. It has among its members men occupying some of the highest offices in the gift of the people; men of high professional standing; men at the top-most rounds of the various trades and mercantile pursuits; and has none but men of sterling worth and upright character on its roll of membership. The Parlor has ever responded to the call of charity, and has always been to the front in movements looking to the preservation of our State's historic landmarks. The idea of restoring Sutter's Fort emanated from the meeting-room of Sacramento Parlor, and it and its members were large contributors to the fund that made possible the purchase of this famous landmark from the heirs of General Sutter, and its subsequent presentation to the State of California.

Sacramento Parlor has among its cherished possession two charters—the first granted in 1878 by the mother Parlor, California, No. 1, of San Francisco, and the second granted in 1880 by the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West. Of the twenty-three original charter members of the Parlor but two remain—Matt Coffey of this city and Fred Kidder of Sparks, Nevada.

Following are the Past Presidents of Sacramento Parlor, No. 3, from its organization in 1878, up to July 31, 1905: Benjamin O'Neil, E. B. Carson, H. C. Chipman, H. W. Taylor, F. B. Houston, F. D. Ryan, J. T. Stafford, E. F. Cohen, H. W. Klays, R. T. Devlin, George H. Clark, Jas. Riley, Theo. G. Eilers, J. W. Barrett, E. H. Kraus, J. P. Giamelli, H. O. Tubbs, W. A. Gett, C. A. Root, J. M. Henderson, Jr., C. W. Mier, H. K. Johnson, Jos. B. Leonard, W. Welch, F. M. Bronner, S. T. Smith, H. P. Brown, Abe Moose, E. J. Weldon, S. F. Ennis, E. J. Gregory, J. W. Haley, A. E. Miller, W. H. Sanders, J. A. Keefe, F. N. Renchler, T. A. Cody, J. W. Keating, W. J. Fetherston, C. M. Hunt, J. M. Robbins, R. T. Cohn, G. A. Burns, C. D. Crowell, C. G. Battelle, R. G. Potter, W. A. White, G. S. Wheeler, F. D. Valentine, F. E. Michel, Jr., and W. J. Weisman.

The present officers of the Parlor are: Junior Past President, W. J. Weisman; President, James S. Hanrahan; First Vice-President, Samuel Pope, Jr.; Second Vice-President, E. M. Lynch; Third Vice-President, A. J. Delano; Recording Secretary, Clarence M. Hunt; Financial Secretary, Abe Moose; Treasurer, S. I. Hopkins; Trustees—C. A. Root, Dr. A. H. Hawley, T. W. McAuliffe; Marshal, J. F. Didion; Inside Sentinel, E. W. Messner; Outside Sentinel, C. F. Dosch; Surgeons, Drs. A. M. Henderson, W. J. Hanna, F. Krull, E. M. Wilder.
