The Camellia City

*How far into the past go hearty roots !
A Man of God, returning from the East,
Brought shining shrubs to gladden Western folk—
Camellias yet recall this gracious priest.
The waxen purity of petaled wreaths
Is balm to eyes too close to troubled Earth,
While glossy leaves of laurel-shape and shade
Suggest earned crowns of heritage and worth.
Let spirits lift in gay response to see
Camellias blooming near the gold-touched waters
As Duty, ever green with challenges,
Calls to the answering hearts of loyal Daughters.*

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands:
one Nation under God, indivisible,
with liberty and justice for all.

The Star-Spangled Banner

By Francis Scott Key

Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does the star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and war's desolation.
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a Nation—
Then conquer we must when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

The American's Creed

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect Union one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I, therefore, believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its Flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

—William Tyler Page
