YELL LEADERS

The student body has yelled, and yelled itself to victory many times, under the able leadership of Mel Rider, Pat Wells, and Angelo D'Amico, three of the best yell leaders who ever yelled in Stockton High. They have contributed several new yells to the students' category and have, by way of adding a little excitement and pep, accompanied these new yells and many of the old ones, by clever and original stunts.

Although S. H. S. has boasted good yell leaders in years gone by, and will boast good ones in years to come, the class of '18 doubts if there ever has or ever will be any, like those famous three that led old S. H. S. to many victories during the year 1917-18.
