

True to Form

Mildred Mason—Oh, mother, how grand it is to be alive! The world is too good for anything. Why isn't every one happy?

Mother—Who is he this time?

"I don't mind being shot, but I do hate to be made game of," quoth the sea gull, as the hunter mistook him for a wild duck.

"I don't like your heart action," said the medical examiner. "You've had some trouble with angina pectoris."

Bart Lauffer: "You're partly right, Doc; only that hain't her name."

Bright Boy

Vazeille—I sure knocked 'em dead in that last chemistry ex.

Sherid—Whatja git?

Bruce—Zero.

Joe Deitrich—What is a football mustache?

Phil Baxter—One with eleven on each side.

Dutton Buck—I s'pose when you brought those papers over from the city, you came over on the paper boat?

"Goodlookin" Gersbacher—No, you sap, I met a fairy over there, and came home on the fairy boat.

"Oh how blue I am," mourned the poet, Coblentz, as his fountain pen spattered ink all over him.

Santini—What were you doing, lumbering along the street last night?

Arbios—Bringing home some wood alcohol.

Bruce—I'm gonna live in the Canary Islands.

Dot P.—Why?

Bruce—Living is so cheep there.

Mr. Iliff—What are the exports of Virginia?

Bonehead Gavigan—Tobacco and live stock.

Mr. Iliff—Live stock? What kinds of live stock?

B. Gavigan—Camels, sir.

Kin Ya Blame Ma?

Brookie—Ma won't let me use the machine any more.

Eddie—Why?

Brookie—I forgot to clean the hairpins out of it last night.

"Oh, this foul, foul world!" moaned Wallace Rohrbacher, as each chicken passed him on the street.

The shimmi is a classical interpretation of a cold night.

He Might Have Been a Ghost

A man applied for a position in a mine. When asked where he worked before, he answered, "I worked at Coffin Mine on Funeral Range in Death Valley with the Graveyard shift."

"Hired;" replied the supervisor, "shovel coal in the furnace."

"Lend me your powder puff," Mr. Garrison said to some girls just before posing for his picture for the Annual.

"I thought you always carried one with you," answered one of the girls.

Mrs. Minta (speaking to the History of Arts class): "What are you to think when you see cupids and garlands in sculpture?"

Class: "Love and romance."

Mrs. Minta: "Girls, girls! Why the Renaissance Period, of course!"
