Stockton High School,

Nineteen Twenty.

CLASS SONG

Tripping away, joyous and gay,
Without a care—
Laughing and bright, with hearts so light,
Onward we go—
Standing the test, seeking the best,
Reaching our goal—
Always be true, to white and blue.
We love you,
Old Stockton High; we bid good-bye
To one and all.

Courses we've run, prizes we've won,
Teachers and friends
Dear to our heart, now we must part,
Eager to go—
But with the thought of all we leave behind.
We bid farewell to high school
And days that have gone by,
Which we shall call forever
Dear days of Stockton High.

In years to come, where'er we roam
Memories sweet—
Calling to mind days left behind,
Sacred to all.
Living once more days as of yore,
Sweet days of youth;
Calling anew, "Always be true to you,
Our dear old Stockton High,
Our dear old Stockton High."

—Agnes Henry, '20.
