A Knotty One

Helen—Did I ever show you where I was tattooed?

John—No.

Helen—Well, we can drive around that way.

Too True!

Dorothy Dunne—You seem to like his attentions. Why don't you marry him?

Helen Gilbert—Because I like his attentions.

Righto

Monroe Coblentz (soulfully)—Ah, what is more tempting than a beautiful girl to behold?

Scott Ford—A live one to be held.

☘ ☘ ☘
“It's too deep for me,” said the drowning man as he slowly sank to the bottom.

Expressing It

George H.—What do you do in dramatics?

George M.—I'm the stage coach. What do you do?

George H.—I'm the fast male.

A Bone-head Stunt

Gordon Wallace—What's all the riot in the anatomy room?

Ed Smith—Oh, just the medical studes rolling the bones.

Hard to Suit

Roy Farnsworth—I'll say, old deah, you surely have nerve.

Clerk—Why so?

Roy—That's the same dress suit I rented when I went to see her last night.

Try Arizona

Pharaoh—I need money! Somebody must cough up!

Ameroth—Alas, sire! The coffers are all empty.

"We Thank You"

Couldn't Figure It

Prof. Reed—Carlton, your figures are terrible. Look at that eight, any one would take it for a three.

Carlton Wilcox—But it is a three, sir!

Prof. Reed—A three? I could have sworn it was an eight.

"So I am tolled", said the bell, for it was Sunday morning.

Any Way

Neil Austin—Please bring me the sugar.

Waitress—Plug or fine cut?

Neil A.—Just as you chews.

Too Keen

Susan Catts—How lovely these roses are. There is still some dew on them.

George Pennebaker—I know it, but how the deuce did you know it?

Misled

"I'll show you an old, old tin-type of the family," said she, coyly, leading me into the living room.

"Ah!", thought I, "a sweet, old-fashioned maid! Lovely echo from the romantic past. Hers should be a background of hollyhocks, sweet williams, and lilacs, with soft music of the minuet sounding faintly in the distance."

She led me to the window.

"There's the darn wreck," and she pointed to a flivver at the curb.

Not on His Beat

Policeman (to disturbing banjoist)—
Young man, you must accompany me—

He—Awright, offisher. What'll ya shing?

Food For Thought

Frank R.—Ja try them goose-eggs?

Pete S.—Yeh.

Frank R.—Who'd they taste like?

A Sharp One

Helen Westgate—Got a nail in your tire?

Lawrence Ashley—Naw; ran over a fork in the road.

How Come?

Harvey Zinck—There's something wrong with the present day marriage.

Claude Zent—Wha' zat?

Harvey Z.—The best man doesn't get the bride.

That's Right

Leo Foster—What is the date, please?

Miss Diment—Never mind the date; the exam. is more important.

L. F.—Well, you see, I wanted to have something right.

What Would You Do?

Grocer (trying to get house manager)—Hello, who is speaking?

Sweet Young Thing—Oh, don't tell me; let me guess.

EPILOGUE

The book is finished, the sunbeam is gone; but as the ecstasy of the little sunbeam is not soon forgotten, neither will the good cheer and renewed youth emanating from these memories of our "golden age" soon leave our hearts.
