Fall Student Council

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE STUDENT COUNCIL, governing body of the school, elected by the Associated Students of Stockton High School, meets every Tuesday at three o'clock. The most important activity that the Council undertook was the presentation of a measure which awards the members of the Block "S" a permanent student rate to the games in which Stockton High participates, and which was passed by the Student Body. The bulk of the work on "The Spring Scramble" was done in committees by the council members.

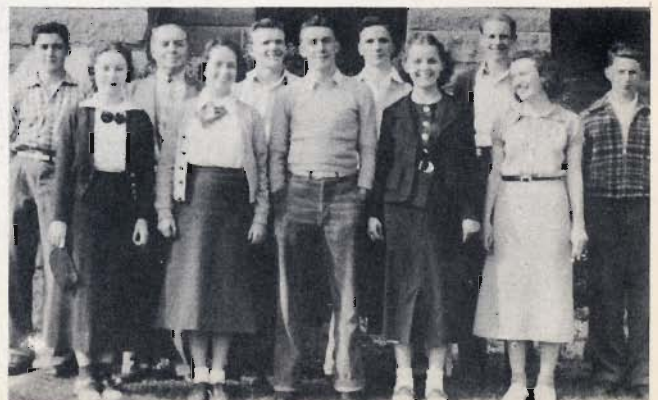

Officers serving for the fall semester were president, Monroe Langdon; first vice-president, Bette Barth; commissioner of welfare, Lewis Ford and Bill Roberts; commissioner of organizations, Manuel Belitsky; commissioner of athletics, Fred Van Dyke; commissioner of publications, N. J. McNair; commissioner of girls' affairs, Helen Caulkins; commissioner of advertising, Marcel Murdock; recorder, Jess Kinser; custodian, George Moehler.

Officers serving during the spring semester were president, Rolla Garretson; first vice-president, Rowena Satterburg; commissioner of organizations, Jack Ditz; commissioner of athletics, Chris Papas; commissioner of publications, Margaret Gallagher; commissioner of girls' affairs, Nickie Ficovich; commissioner of advertising, George Lyons; recorder, Don La Moine; custodian, Boyd Thompson.

Mary Elizabeth Kenyon, chairman of Junior Red Cross, and Janet McGinnis, editor of the Annual both served the two terms.

STUDENT CONTROL

STOCKTON HIGH'S STUDENT CONTROL of 1937 has done much toward attaining its purpose to maintain order. The control is designed to prevent rowdyism in the halls, in rallies, and on the campus, and to report offenders either to Mr. Cave or the Control's heads, Douglas Powell of the Boys' Control and Rowena Satterburg of the Girls. Five demerits are usually the penalty for a second or third rowdyism offense.

Members of the boys' "police force" for spring semester were: Joe Thornton, Merill Quick, Rolla Garretson, Herbert Tout, Wayne Bird, Bill Biddick, Morgan Noble, Wilbur Wright, Americ Salvetti, Abel De Haan, Walter Temme, Don La Moin, Leo Johnson, and Laurance Stephens. Members for fall were Lewis Ford, Commissioner of Welfare; Frank Aniotzbehere, Barre Stephens, Ed Yelland, Bill Roberts, Carroll Austin, Rolla Garretson, George Shima, Leonard Pores, Jake Hoffman, Clarence Engelund, Abel De Haan, Bob Tout, Don La Moine, and Boyd Thompson.

Girls of the Spring semester control were: Patricia McNamara, Nicolina Ficovich, Ann Hodgkins, Virginia Rishwain, Frances Hull, Jeanne Marie Marblestone, Doris Wright, Mervel Hammill, Eleanor Dondero, Jacqueline Judge, Mary Lou Anthony, Bernice Atree, Lucille McIntosh, Helen Furuyam, Margaret Middleton, Lillian Faraclas, and Shirley Phillips. The fall members consisted of: Bette Barth, vice-president of the student body; Virginia Wirth, Priscilla Hatch, Helen Caulkins, Rowena Sattermurg, Ann Hodgkins, Nicholina Ficovich, Alice Jane Gipner, Ruth Ellis, Jean McCloud, and Dora Dahl.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

THE TWENTIETH BIRTHDAY of the Girls' League (born September 21, 1916) was observed at the first meeting of the year with the first president, Mrs. Percy Gallegos, and a later president, Miss Dorothy Quinn, as speakers. Other enjoyable programs were the February installation, Mr. Landrum's talk on the Orient, and Miss Ada Beveridge's dramatic readings.

The League collects no dues, receiving one hundred dollars annually from the Student Body, and all S. H. S. girls are members. Its purpose being the encouragement and financial support of girls' activities, it has donated ten dollars each to the Social Service Club, Old English "S", and for Play Day; the League also sponsored the Masc and Fem Revue with the Guard and Tackle, gave two freshmen parties, and provided a tree, wreaths, and Christmas parties for the whole school. Several girls attended the Girls' League Conference at Hayward in October.

Officers are, Fall, president, Helen Caulkins; vice-president, Fern Dahl; secretary-treasurer, Claudina Houser; Spring, president, Nickolina Ficovich; vice-president, Frances Lancaster; secretary-treasurer, Ruth Ellis.

HONOR SCHOLARSHIP

HONOR SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY is one of the most notable organizations of Stockton High School. The club adviser, Miss Pearl Sifford, with the presidents and other officers, has made this a highly organized group. On the annual privilege day, members enjoy a trip to some point of interest. This year on March eleventh, the members visited Sacramento, where they saw the legislature in session and the Crocker Art Gallery.

One of the highest honors obtainable is the Gold Seal on the graduation diplomas and the life membership pin, given to those who have held membership for three-fourths of their high school career. Several members attained this honor in 1937 at both February and June graduations.

Many business meetings and the distribution of privilege cards have made this an active and successful year.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS has carried out another successful year with Miss Alice Mc Innes as faculty adviser. Several meetings were held at which National Red Cross pictures of the flood disaster were shown and Miss Sheltman spoke about conditions in Louisville, her home town. For the flood relief, $402.96 was collected by the faculty and students.

In addition five hundred Christmas menu covers were made for sailors in the United States fleet. Twenty-four boxes were given to the needy at Christmas time and two hundred and eighty-six Christmas boxes were sent to children in Guam.

Junior Red Cross representatives attended County Council meetings at Stockton and Lodi and took part in making portfolios, a project for all High Schools of this county.

Officers: Mary Kenyon, chairman; Virginia Boalt, vice-chairman; Maxine Pulas, secretary.

SOCIAL SERVICE CLUB

THIS PAST YEAR was a successful one for the Social Service Club. According to custom, the girls gave their annual ten dollars to the Crippled Children's Fund. A needy girl received a vacation at camp from the members, and they made their yearly visit to the Sunshine School.

At Christmas time the girls provided a basket of food for a family. Members also worked in the salvage shop every Saturday, as well as helping to secure clothing for the shop. Each girl visited some invalid child at least once a week to try to cheer him up.

Money for the club's various activities was secured by selling candy at school plays and football games. The club, restricted in membership, consists of only those who are really interested in doing welfare work.

Officers are president, Barbara Falconbury; vice-president, Jane Zitlau; secretary, Ann Hodgkins.

LATIN CLUB

Margaret Gallagher, Arthur Lewis

THE CONVENTUS LATINUS, one of the most active clubs in high school, completed both fall and spring semesters with interesting and educational plays under direction of the club adviser, Miss Lilliam Williams. Other activities were musical numbers, several readings on Roman life, and films on "Ancient Rome". This year was successfully ended with a pageant on the birthday of Rome in April and a final play, "God's Descent".

Officers are president, Robert Ault (graduated in January); vice-president, Dorothy Bartholomew; secretary-treasurer, Betty Carter.

FRENCH CLUB

THE FRENCH CLUB, which is divided into two sections, Miss Heggie having the 9B and 9A students and Miss Lukes the others, is a very active club. Their meetings are conducted in French, and they usually sing songs and play different French games. Once in a while, Miss Lukes gives an educational talk to the students.

Officers are president, Nicholina Fickovich; vice-president, Mervyn Hamlin; secretary-treasurer, Victor Simpson; reporter, Patricia McNara.

SPANISH CLUB

THE SPANISH CLUB, sponsored by Miss Selna, Miss Anderson, and Miss Binsacca, has tried out something new. The club has been divided into three groups: "Las Amapolas", "Los Gauchos", and "Las Cucarachas". The new system is greatly favored because students can be closer together and enjoy themselves much more in the small groups. Meetings held once a month are for the purpose of making the students talk Spanish and learn Spanish culture. Skits are put on. Spanish games are played, and luncheon meetings are held. There are 110 members in the three clubs combined.

GERMAN CLUB

THE GERMAN CLUB originated after the World War for students who wanted to study German. Although it was some time after the club was organized that a class was started, the German class now ranks high in Stockton High School's language department. At present Miss Ellen De Ruchie is in charge of the club, which is composed of students who are studying or have studied German.

Officers are president, Walter Temme; vice-president, Bette Barth; secretary, Aileen Brokaw.

LA PRO-CULTURA ITALIANA

THE PURPOSE OF La Pro-Cultura Italiana is to bring to Italian students some knowledge and appreciation of Italian culture. This club, sponsored by L. J. Vannuccini, teacher of the language, has progressed much in the last few years. One of its main achievements is sponsoring, editing, and writing "Lo Studente Italiano", the Italian club paper. At monthly meetings programs are given by different Italian classes. The club holds Italian Night every June, at which time medals and mentions of honor from the Italian Government are distributed. A hundred-dollar scholarship for college is also offered to the student who has the most outstanding merit. Membership in the club totals about 200.

Officers are president, Dorothy Francesconi; vice-president, Genevieve Mazza; secretary, Albina Aristedi; sergeants-at-arms, Americo Salvetti and Saverio Nogare.

JAPANESE CLUB

THE RAPIDLY GROWING and prospering Japanese Club of more than 325 members, under the efficient sponsorship of Miss Elizabeth Humbargar, achieved many fruitful accomplishments. Carefully planned programs led to successful bazaars and movies, and brought in the necessary money for club expenses and swelled the previously started Scholarship fund. The annual Japanese Students Conference held in Sacramento promoted better friendship and attained constructive expressions of student opinions.

CHINESE CLUB

UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP of H. A. Bradley, mathematics teacher, the Chinese Club completed another successful year. Taking an active part in the Sports Carnival and making a success of the annual social held for in-coming and out-going Chinese students of the high school were the biggest features of the year. Interesting talks on the different parts of the world were given at the various meetings.

Office holders are presidents, Robert Wong and Leslie Low; vice-presidents, Johnny Wong and Nylan Jeung; secretaries, Blossom Ah Tye and Himmie Wong; sergeants-at-arms, Kenneth Jann and Dunn Gong.

FILIPINO CLUB

ALTHOUGH BY FAR THE SMALLEST in the school, the Filipino Club under the sponsorship of Miss Catherine Humbargar is one of the most active. The club includes all Filipino students in the school and serves to bring them together. Their activities this year included a Christmas party in December, and participation in the Spring Scramble and the Pan-Pacific banquet. The most noted speaker this year was the editor of the Stockton-Filipino paper, who spoke on the Philippine Islands after their first year of independence.

Officers are president, Fall, Enocents Godinez, Spring, Joe Beharin; vice-president, Fall, Joe Beharin, Spring, Donnie Blair; secretary-treasurer, Faid Betty Leybley, Spring, Trinidad Godinez; sergeant-at-arms, Fall, Vincent Villamor, and Spring, Felix Contillo.

QUILL AND SCROLL

IN 1928 the first members from Stockton High were admitted to the Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists. The organization's primary motive is to interest students in improving their high school paper. At their meetings, members discuss bad points and ways to improve the Guard and Tackle.

Requirements are threefold: good scholastic standing, a considerable amount of work in newswriting, approval by the adviser of the club, Miss Turner, and good character. These requirements are very high, limiting the membership to ten or twelve a year. On February 22, seven members were formally initiated: Mary Jane Nash, Sophie Brum, George Lyons, Mae Vignolo, Lenore Cottrell, Margaret Gallagher, and Jack Whipple. Other members of the club were Janet McGinnis, Frances Hull, Susumu Ito, Sam Ruvkun, Robert Ault, and Newton Jasper McNair. A second initiation was held on May 26.

PLAYCRAFTERS

THIS YEAR has been the most active one that the Playcrafters have had in a long time. With the coming of the play production classes, Playcrafters have become active and given a rally skit and a three-act comedy, "Three Cornered Moon". Many meetings have been held and a regular constitution of the club has been made. It will not be long before the Stockton High School again has its high dramatic standing of several years ago.

Officers are president, Jack Holmes; vice-president, Rowena Satterberg; secretary-treasurer, Phyllis Grimshaw.

BOY'S SCIENCE CLUB

THE BOYS' SCIENCE CLUB, sponsored by Sanford Sweet and limited to boys who make satisfactory grades in science, had interesting meetings during the year. Mr. Corbett, who talked on polarized light and glass; Mr. Elder, who showed slides on the technology of the moving picture industry; and Mr. Profitt, who talked on commercial laboratories, were some of the interesting speakers who addressed the club.

Officers are president, Abel De Haan; vice-president, Douglas Powell; secretary-treasurer, Ross Berve.

PHILOPHYSEAN CLUB

SOME OF THE subjects discussed this year by the Philophysean (Girls' Science) Club were "Dentifrices and Cosmetics" by Dr. Bawden (C. O. P.); "Various Scientific Features in New York City," by Ellis Elder of our faculty; "The Universe", by Dr. Patton (C. O. P.); "The Value of Chemistry in the Home", by Mr. Profitt, a local chemist; and "Wild Flowers", by Mrs. Abbott, the adviser.

Officers for the year are: president, Nickolina Ficovich; vice-president, Carol Beth Meyers; secretary-treasurer, Claudina Houser.

TRAVEL CLUB

THE INCREASED interest and number of people traveling during vacations prompted Mr. Kerr to form the Travel Club. Its chief aim is to acquaint the members with the important things about travel, such as dress, baggage, passports, and remedies for seasickness. Nineteen persons out of the limited seventy-five members enjoyed a trip to Germany in 1936 to see the Olympic Games. Inspection of the Golden Gate Park and an ocean liner were the main points of interest on the club's last trip to San Francisco.

Officers are president, Duff Chapman; first vice-president, John Dinubilo; second vice-president, Eloise Smith; secretary, Ann Hodgkins; treasurer, Gong Yut.

T-SQUARE CLUB

THE T-SQUARE CLUB, sponsored by H. G. Bissell, is limited to persons taking engineering and architectural drawing. The club makes trips of interest to students in drawing and has interesting speakers discuss matters relating to those subjects. Many of the members have made drawings for the city on the parking problems and traffic accidents in the streets, and four members have made drawings of the port. The club has about 54 members.

T-Square officers are, Big Triangle, Jack Bell; Little Triangle, Francis Banchio; Scaler, Henry Moore; Eraser, Frank Hartley.

PORK PRODUCTION

A NEW AGRICULTURE CLUB was started last semester under the title of Pork Production. Starting with one of the best Hampshire sows on the Pacific Coast, the boys raised and butchered the hogs and sold them in the form of finished products, such as hams, bacons, and sausages. The club is sponsored by J. Mitchell Lewis and is advised by the foremost hog producers of the state.

RIFLE CLUB

STOCKTON HIGH SCHOOL RIFLE CLUB was organized in 1934. It seeks to encourage sportsmanship and to provide instruction in marksmanship, in safety precautions, and in the care of rifles. Students under 19 years of age whose scholarship records are satisfactory are eligible for membership. The club has been officially chartered by the National Rifle Association, and all present members have qualified for medals for accurate shooting.

Officers of the club are president, Hirashi Morita; vice-president, John Randolph; secretary-treasurer, Bradford Setness; club sponsor, Mr. Rogers.

AERONAUTICS CLUB

THE AERONAUTICS CLUB is under the faculty supervision of Ellis Elder. The purpose is to further the interest of the boys in aeronautics. At the meetings, members bring models that they have built, and discuss the various types and designs of airplanes. Military terms are used instead of the usual names given officers of a club.

Irving Wong is the present commander, Captain George Keddle is second in command, and Bayard Hansen is sergeant-at-arms.

DEBATING CLUB

THE SOPHOMORE DEBATING CLUB was organized as the result of a heated controversy between nine girls and four boys over the King Edward-Wallis Simpson situation. The discussion gave birth to the plan for systematic debate, and the club was formed with Ben H. Lewis, English teacher and devoted follower of debating, as its sponsor. To become a member, one must be a sophomore with college recommending grades.

Officers are Louvan Kohler, president; Jacquelyn Judge, vice-president; and Jack Czerny, secretary.

PAN-PACIFIC CLUB

PAN-PACIFIC CLUB is an organization for studying history, culture, and peoples of the Pacific coasts, and for bringing about a better understanding of these peoples and their problems. The club, numbering 100 members, enjoyed a banquet at a Chinese restaurant and invited speakers from China, Japan, and Mexico to talk on various problems of the Pacific. Adviser is J. W. Kerr.

Officers were president, Carrol Colman; vice-president, Bonnie Cowen; secretary, Yoshike Valanabe; treasurer, Tom Hutchison.

TURKEY CLUB

UNDER THE SUPERVISION of J. Mitchell Lewis, twenty-one boys of the Turkey Club completed their sixth successful year of production. The outstanding feature of the season was the sale of four hundred hens for breeding purposes to the best turkey producer in the world. The club lived up to its well earned reputation by producing some of the finest birds on the market.

TRI-Y CLUB

THE TRI-Y CLUB, which meets at the homes of the various members every two weeks, consists of junior and senior girls interested in charitable and social projects. Charity work was done during the Christmas and Easter vacations, and contributions were made toward flood relief. An enjoyable time was had at a snow party at Big Trees in the early part of February.

HI-Y CLUB

THE MOTTO of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community the high standards of Christian character. The main activity this year has been a series of vocational talks by such men as Dean Corson, Prof. Jonte, Dr. Eiselen, and Mr. Wesley G. Young. A basketball league also was organized with the "Katzenjammer Kids" fighting it out with "Dan Dunn's G-Men", and "Flash Gordon's Rockets".

Officers are president, Fall, Jimmie Lyone, and Spring, Bill Biddick; vice-president, Fall, Douglass Powell, and Spring, Jimmie Powell; secretary, Fall, Jack Boquist, and Spring, Irvin Gartner; treasurer, Fall, Bill Biddick, and Spring, Rolla Garretson. Eight committee chairmen were also at work with these leaders.

CAMERA CLUB

THIS YEAR the Camera Club under the sponsorship of J. S. Landrum carried an active program. The object of the club, numbering about thirty and composed mostly of boys, is to learn to take better pictures. Lectures on portraits and on taking, developing, and printing pictures were enjoyed at various meetings. Usually on Saturdays the club made interesting trips to the country to take pictures, which were later criticized by experts. The club has no formal officers.
