THREE

ORGANIZATIONS

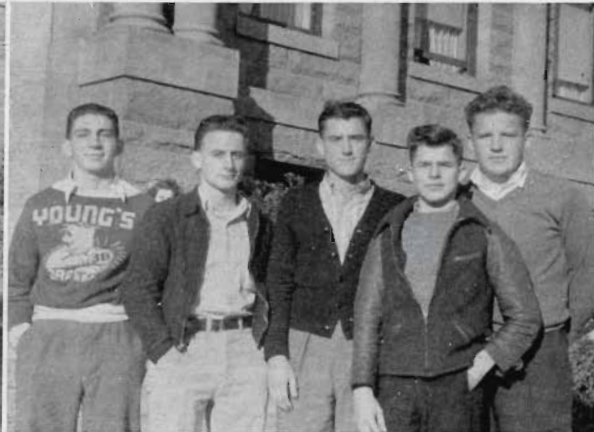

Answering the call of fellowship, we gather together in our respective clubs and organizations, each different in form but all with a common purpose.

SOCIAL UNITS

V. P. (Fall) Helen Flanagan, Sec. (Spr.) Janice McCloud, Pres. (Fall) Eloise Smith, Pres. (Spr.) Bernice Altree, Sec. (Fall) Margaret Middleton, Sec. (Spr.) Dorothy Gomer.

V. P. (Fall) Irving Witt, Sec. (Spr.) Jack Moore, Pres. (Fall) Morgan Noble, Pres. (Spr.) Allen Breed, V. P. (Spr.) Clifford Victorin.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

The Girls' League is mainly for the purpose of uniting all the girls of the student body into one large family. Many unusual programs were presented to the girls, some which were very amusing and interesting. Girl students and faculty members praise this organization for its ability in holding the girls together in Stockton High School.

TRI-Y

These girls are very popular among the students of the school because of their ability in running their club. Several families were supplied of necessities during the year. Character building is the idea of this club. Speeches on character and idealism were enjoyed by each girl throughout the entire year.

V. P. Eleanor Clark, Pres. Mary Elizabeth Kenyon.

HI-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the community high ideals of Christian living" is the slogan for the wide awake Hi-Y Club of the Stockton High School. It is composed of thirty-three high school seniors. There are four members of the high school as faculty advisers besides Mr. Wood of the Y. M. C. A., who is the director.

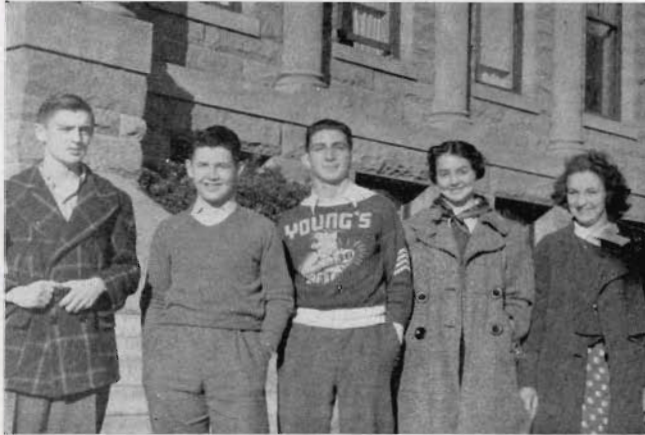

JUNIOR RED CROSS

This is the oldest Junior Red Cross Chapter in California, having started as a knitting club in October, 1917. Since the war, it has aided in the establishment of libraries, playgrounds, and clinics in Europe and sent Christmas boxes abroad to aid in creating International friendship. Christmas boxes have also been distributed locally.

Sec. Bernice Altree, Chairman Aileen Brokaw.

SOCIAL UNITS

Fall—Sec. Ed Stewart, V. P. Arthur Lewis, Pres. Irving Witt, Spring—Pres. Louvan Kohler, Sec. Jeanne Dagg.

Sec. Betty Lee Mathews, Pres. Marvel Hammill, V. P. Aileen Brokaw.

TENNIS

Sports were not forgotten by the student body this past year. The Tennis club found a name for itself among the top of the list of organizations. Tennis games were frequently held and the tennis tournament ladder for singles and doubles was the main function of the year. The entire group claims its club as the best. Miss Mitchell is the club sponsor.

AERONAUTICS

Guided by Mr. Elder, the Aeronautics club has shown its worth to the school by keeping the interest of its members so consistently alive that the meetings are always a source of fun and information. By starting early, these boys will have an advantage over others who are interested in aviation but did not become members of the club.

LATIN

Meeting under the direction of Miss Williams, the Latin club has been one of the most active in the school. By putting on informal skits, the members are given opportunities to demonstrate their acting ability. This club also has the distinction of having had some of the smartest students in school as members.

PHILOPHYSEAN

Girls enjoy science as much as boys and this was proven by the Philophysean club this past year. Speakers and movies entertained the girls at monthly meetings, besides many trips and outings. One has to make the grade average in order to become a member of this organization. It is quite an honor to belong to this group.

Sec. Janice McCloud, Pres. Lawrence Stefani.

Pres. Frank Egbert, Sec. George Keddie.

SOCIAL UNITS

Sec. Eleanor Clark, Pres. Eileen Bolter, V. P. Mary Elizabeth Kenyon.

Sec. Barbara Baxley, Pres. Don LaMoine, V. P. Eloise Smith.

SOCIAL SERVICE

Devoting itself to the helping of others, the Social Service club has had an illustrious past, and, to all appearances, will continue to make a name for itself as one of the more successful clubs of Stockton High. It is to be said to Miss Quinn's credit that she has always had the club foremost in her mind.

ETIQUETTE

Manners are something every student should have and this is being emphasized by the newly organized Etiquette club. The proper time, place, and manners are demonstrated by these boys and girls. This club will go far in its field, it is believed.

Pres. Melvin Serventi, Sec. Emily Passadore.

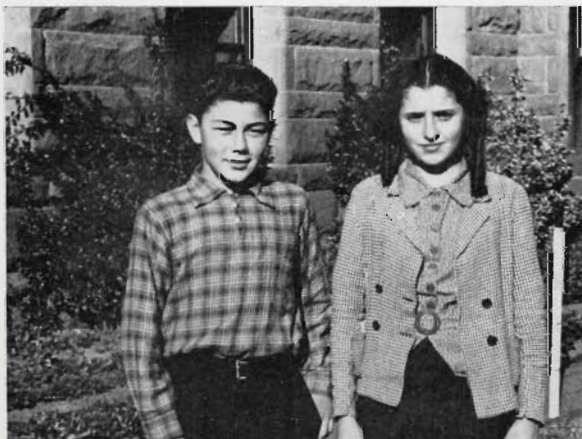

PLAYCRAFTERS

A group of talented students made the Playcrafters better than ever before. With "producing excellent dramas and entertaining novelities" as their aim, they went far in their field. The acting ability was a huge success, but the stage crew was equally as important. Together they made the school proud to know their club was high in school life.

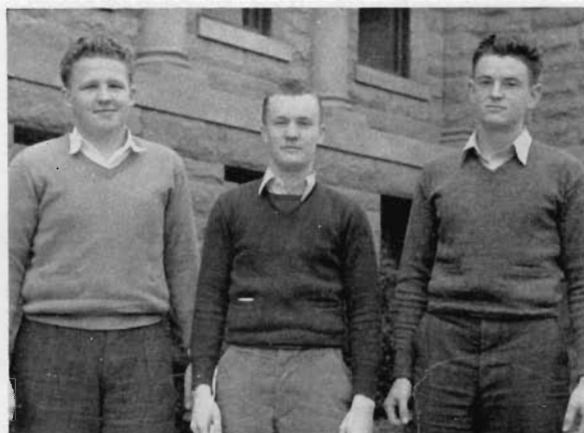

GERMAN

Under the able direction of Miss DeRuchie, the German Club has shown its value to the school. Composed of German language students, the club has given students many hours of enjoyment and pleasure. Besides giving the members something to break the routine school hours, it gave them something of educational value.

Custodian Anna Jean Martin, Sec. Adelia Roth, Pres. Betty Haney.

SOCIAL UNITS

V. P. Clifford Victorin, Pres. Ross Berve, Sec. Ed White.

Treas. Mildred Jann, V. P. David Fong, Pres. Jimmie Wong, Entertainment Chairman Dung Fong, Sec. Peggy Wong, Sgt.-at-arms Albert Lee.

BOYS' SCIENCE

The Boys' Science Club meets once a month. It is composed of pupils who have had a year of science or are taking science at the present time. Meetings are always educational. New scientific inventions are discussed or a movie shown. Mr. Sweet, chemistry teacher, is the sponsor of the club.

CHINESE

In this club much was done to promote new ideas for the school. Chinese students found a place in S. H. S., through this organization. A banquet was held at the end of the semester. With candy sales and Chinese charity, this club ended up with a very successful year.

JAPANESE

Another nationality club ended its year with flying colors. This was one of the most active in the school with parties, banquets, and many candy sales. The annual Japanese club conference was also held. Basketball games were of unusual interest to the entire group as was the oratorical contest. Miss E. Humbarger was the club sponsor.

FILIPINO

The Filipino, like all other nationality clubs, is for the Filipinos only. Social parties and other gatherings took up most of the school year. The monthly meetings had very interesting programs on the progress of the Islands. These students enjoyed this club immensely and all are looking forward to next year.

SPANISH

There are three Spanish clubs in Stockton High, Los Gouchos, headed by Miss Anderson; Las Amapolas, headed by Miss Selna; and Las Cucarachas, headed by Miss Binsacca. The fundamental purpose of these organizations is to expedite the speaking of Spanish. Picnics, parties, and all kinds of get-togethers make up the social program.

PAN PACIFIC

Under the able hand of Mr. Kerr, the Pan Pacific and Travel clubs enjoyed a very pleasant year. Banquets were frequently held for all the members. These clubs are the products of an enthusiastic membership. Outstanding speakers were a part of the regular programs with members alternating. From past performances, these clubs will have a happy future ahead of them.

V. P. Jean McCloud, Sgt.-at-Arms Robert McKeegan, Sec. Janice McCloud, Treas. (Selna) Lois Long, Sec. (Selna) Mary L. deArrieta, Pres. (Selna) Bob Strong.

FRENCH

This year something new was started in the French club. The advanced students were put into one club called the Les Mousquetaires and the beginning students' club was called the Les Cadets. French playlets and entertainment was had at the monthly meetings. This language group ranks high with the other school activities in S. H. S.

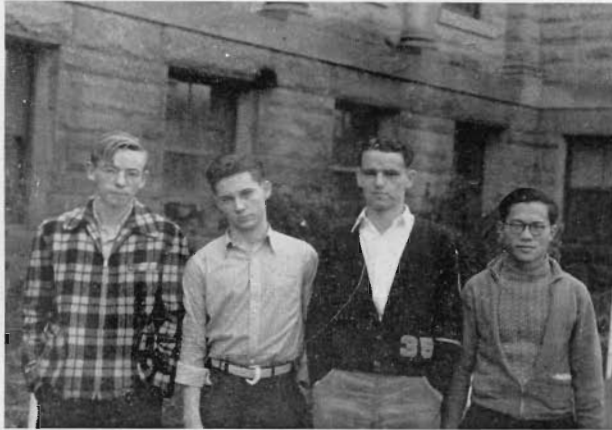

DEBATING

A new, but very interesting organization was formed and has proven to be a huge success. The correct way of debating was taught to each student. Several debates were held and seemed to be very enjoyable. This club was organized by the sophomore students and is under the leadership of Ben H. Lewis.

Sec. (Adv.) Haruko Morita, V. P. (Adv.) Claire Happell, Sec. Mardel Housh, Pres. Evans Perkins, Pres. (Adv.) Bernard Etcheverry.

SOCIAL UNITS

V. P. (Fall) Dick Stevens, Pres. (Spr.) Walter Black, Sec.
(Fall) Wendell Bundy, Sec. (Spr.) Gong Yut.

"T" SQUARE

The club consists of the advanced members of architectural and engineering drawing classes. It is sponsored by Mr. Bissell, drawing instructor. The club has a membership of about 40 boys and girls. Meetings are held once a month with a speaker from some department of city planning. The purpose of these meetings is to show students what has been accomplished by architects and engineers.

PORK PRODUCTION

The young farmers are present here at Stockton High School, also, and they show their skill through the Pork Production club. These boys made several trips to various kinds of farms in order to learn the good and bad points of farming. Improvements and new experiments were tried and proved to be most helpful for these future agriculturists.

Sec. John Giambastiani, Pres. Paul Parker, V. P. Rinaldo Gotelli.

Sec. Alice Murana, Pres. Gong Yut.

CAMERA

Besides a picture contest, the Camera club had many interesting projects in the developing of pictures. The "dark room" process was also studied by each student. At the general meetings, speakers gave valuable information on types of cameras, uses, and the operation of them. Mr. Landrum is the sponsor of this club.

ITALIAN

Listed among the most popular clubs in the school, the Italian club has Mr. Vannuccini as its sponsor, and in him they have one of the most active sponsors in the school. The plays put on by the club are always exceedingly popular. A paper printed in Italian is also published by the students.

Sgt.-at-arms Roland Mazzera, Sec. Margaret Caldero, Pres. Saverio Nogare, Sgt.-at-arms Jack Licciardi.
