

The best-stocked candy case in the San Joaquin Valley. Where the teachers enjoy lunching in quiet, friendly seclusion "The Dog House"—quick, outdoor service of foods both solid and sweet.

Steam table lines form quickly at both ends. A student cashier checking each tray on its way. Mountains of buns to satisfy hamburger and hot dog hunger.

GALLEY

OUR school should be proud of the fact that the Stockton High School Cafeteria has been acknowledged as one of the best-equipped cafeterias in the State of California. Managed by Mrs. James Metcalf, the cafeteria serves food and confections to a large percentage of the student body every school day. The students are served in the large dining hall, while a smaller dining room is provided for the teachers who wish to enjoy privacy and quiet during their noon meal. Lunches are served at 11 o'clock, 12 o'clock, and 1 o'clock.

The quantities of food served daily are kept fresh and wholesome in three huge refrigerators, then it is sanitarily prepared in the spacious kitchen which is equipped with a new $500 dishwasher. Most of the help in the kitchen and behind the counters is student labor, with a capable staff of women employed to supervise them.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS . . .

In the making of this edition of the Blue and White a success, many factors were involved. No one person could possibly do this work without the assistance, advice, and time of other people.

Therefore I wish to express my deep appreciation for all those who have contributed to our success.

Mr. Marvin Bonds and Mr. Victor Anderson should be given credit for their help and time spent on helping us layout the book. Their suggestions were invaluable.

Credit is hereby given to all the students who have assisted us—only to mention a few: Beverly Billings, June Stover, Billy Bell, Martha Zeff, ~~Jerry Miller~~, Jenny Abrams, Jacquelyn Judge, Bob Raven.

For our much needed publicity we are indebted to the Guard and Tackle.

Thanks are extended to Geraldine Hammett, Elena Giaconvoni, Mary Fujita, and other faculty members too numerous to mention.

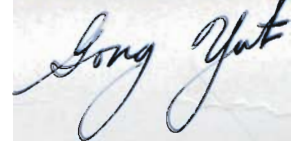

I also extend my sincere wishes to Rosensteel Printing Co., Mr. R. M. Rosensteel, Mr. Frank Dutschke, and to Fred Miramontes for helping us in the mechanical execution of our book.

To Mr. Ray Clarkson and Mr. Talbert Reiman I wish to extend my sincere thanks for the service they have given us in photography.

To each and every member of my staff, I wish to express thanks for your work in the development of this book.

It has been a great pleasure for me in working with such a resourceful and conscientious staff.

GONG YUT, Editor,

STUDENTS:

In order to publish this annual it was necessary to have the cooperation of the town and its merchants. It is through the generosity of these merchants that we are able to give you your yearbook. Therefore The Staff urges its readers to patronize these advertisers in our annual whenever possible.
