

7

*Blue
and White*

1940

Blue and White

STOCKTON, CALIFORNIA

BLUE

*School this year of Our Lord ni
May Moore; Business Manag*

AND WHITE

This book of students...what they like and what they do not like, what they do and when they do it, how they live and how they study... is published by the Associated Students of Stockton High ineteen hundred forty: Editor, Edna ers, Burt Fish, Ruth Schaeneman.

Foreword

This yearbook is published for you students of Stockton High School with the hope that it will furnish you many hours of pleasure and entertainment. Although it is impossible to catch every phase of student activity and organization, the staff has attempted to present the high-spots of school life. We hope that many youthful memories will be recalled as you look through these pages . . . The Editor

Contents

Introduction . . . . .	1-13
Administration . . . . .	14-19
Classes . . . . .	22-65
Activities . . . . .	68-83
Sports . . . . .	86-108

EDITH WHITE

—To Edie: Your smile, your sweet voice, your beautiful music, your brilliance, and the touch of your hand — they will always be to us the memory of a lovely soul.

In Memoriam

To Our Parents:

To our parents, long-suffering souls,
This book we dedicate;
This little token of esteem
May show them how they rate.

Perhaps we never show our folks
Just how we really feel---
But home means much more to us
Than just a bed and meal.

So we dedicate this book
To you, dear Mom and Dad.
For we know that you're the cause
Of all the best we've had.

Dedication

Campus Views

Campus Views

Campus Views

Campus Views

