Throughout their four years many honors were added to the name of the February class. Back in 1936 they entered Stockton High as green freshmen; on the night of February 1, 1940, they marched across the auditorium stage as confident seniors. They had gained laurels in sports, having such illustrious members as Wesley Forster, Ralph Wright, and Harold Cates. They had outstanding scholars in Emil Reghitto and Buelah Ong. Edith White and Bob Adams came through with musical distinction. As student body president and class president, there were Jim McCarty and Bill Dorcey to put enthusiasm into the class.

June

June is the month of weddings and graduations. This spring Stockton High had one of the largest graduating classes in the school's history. Yet this group was not known only for its numbers. There were those who stood out from the crowd. In scholarship Eva Marie Genuit, Eleanor Powell, and John Peri led the list. Jack Herrero and John Malloy gained recognition on the gridiron. School leadership was effectively shown by Luana Forkner and Francis Mackey. Daniel Lee and Douglass Hanner made a place for themselves in art and music. This June is the time of the graduation of a grand class.

1—Our girls swing it out at the Senior Extravaganza. 2—Spring is here and so are senior garbs — Remember? 3—Jack Herrero and Henry Foppiano digging up dirt— as usual. 4—Traveling salesman? No, just Noel Prince. 5—One more plaque is added to the row by Class President Bill Dorcey. 6—Whew! I'll bet you're glad that's over, Paul.
