MANAGERS

It is not at all unusual to see the athletic managers being the first ones on the field, stadium, or court preceding a game or meet and the last ones to leave. The work of these boys is important and a necessity to the different athletic teams; yet, they never receive recognition for their strenuous work. The largest managing job is held by Bob Laughead, who with four other boys, takes care of all football equipment. Carl Christy and George O'Connor head the track and yell-leader staff respectively.

Another group of "forgotten" men are the yell leaders—George O'Connor, Jake Kramarski, and Skipper Ye. It is through these boys that much of the spirit and color is added to the athletic contest and rallies.

Rated as having one of the most efficient physical instructor staffs of California, Stockton High School is indeed proud of its gym teachers. Pete Lenz, head of the boys' Physical Education Department, and Agnes D. May, head of the girls' P. E. Department, have much to be thanked for. In the boys' department Coach Lenz handles varsity basketball. Pete McCain is in charge of the J. V. Football team; Coach Solomon handles varsity football and golf; W. L. McKay is in charge of the teaching of hygiene, tennis, and intramural sports; Mike Garrigan handles B football and basketball, while "Hap" Evans handles track.

In the girls' department Miss Bliss teaches juniors and is chairman of recreational sports; Miss Harris is hockey and basketball chairman, teaches seniors, and has charge of the G. A. A.; Miss Sheltman is archery chairman and teaches sophomores; Mrs. Sheridan is dance chairman and teaches seniors and juniors; Miss Green teaches high freshman, low freshmen, and specials.

J-V TEAM

*T*HE Junior Varsity eleven, which scrimmages with the varsity whenever called upon to do so, has never been given all its deserved credit. These gridsters constantly learn the Tarzan varsity opponents' defense and offense plays and use the same plays against the Solomon men. Many of the players on the J. V. team will be advanced to the varsity for next semester, for the principal purpose of the squad is to train and develop them for the future major season.

B TEAM

*T*HE "B" football team started off the season beating Vacaville "A" team 58-0. They won seven out of eight games, losing to Lodi. Even though Stockton had a better team than Lodi, we lost because of bad breaks. In two different games we ran an opening kick-off for a touchdown. The "B" team's all-star backfield is composed of Bradley, Sanguinetti, Rogers, and Terinishi. Munoz, center; Sudoko, guard; and Bird, tackle; are the outstanding men on the team. Playing next year are Johnnie Avilla, Richard Beckham, Jack Bird, Lloyd Bomgardner, Lester Covell, Jack Cruz, Basil Lopez, George Markham, Malcolm Minahen, Manuel Munoz, Russell Stokes, George F. Thompson, and Isaac Zarate.

This has been a very cooperative season for the varsity basketball team. Not only have the team players been working together, but the band players have given the team good support. The varsity team won the "Big Four". All important home games have been played at the Civic Auditorium where two schools, St. Mary's and Stockton Hi, play four games on one night for the price of one admission. St. Mary's supplies all guards and ticket takers, and Stockton Block "S" did ushering at no extra expense. There were stunts and music by the band during the half; so it was really a big show. Thomas (in the Sacramento game) and Farrell (in the Lodi game) were two highest point men. Bud Chinchio, Joe Balcao, Fred Ferroggiaro, Bill Farrell, and Fred Clark are lost from the team by graduation. Manager Milton French was a very hard worker for the team. He was always seen before the game, sweeping the floor and doing many other jobs.

HAVING completed one of the most successful seasons in years, the Stockton High 'B' team emerged victorious in fourteen out of fifteen games, thereby becoming champions of the "Big Four" and the Northern Section. The championship playoff with the Placer High School in Auburn was 45-34 in favor of Stockton. The loss of two players, Bruce Bradley and Sanji Teranishi, was indeed a blow to the 'B' team. This is the first time in history they have ever beaten Lodi, Sacramento, and McClatchy. The Stockton 'B' team beat these three teams in both of their games. George O'Con-
