Dedication

NEVER FORGETTING ALL THEY HAVE DONE FOR US, SOME OF THEM DYING, WE DEDICATE, IN THE MOST HUMBLE WAY POSSIBLE, THIS SECTION OF THE BLUE AND WHITE TO EVERY SERVICE MAN AND WOMAN, HOPING THAT WHAT THEY ARE FIGHTING FOR WILL BE WORTHWHILE. THAT IT WILL BRING TO THE WORLD A WONDERFUL AND EVERLASTING PEACE.

Bill Stevens, Jeane Hicks, Rich Beerman, Bill Ferrill, Ralph Gates, Grover Vandover, Tilio Bregante, Maurice Crawford, Bill Clark, Bob Schlegel, Charles Lutz, Bill Lewis, Don Webster, Donald Raab.

Lest We Forget

So much do we owe these boys who have honored us on the battlefield, it seems only fitting and proper that we, at the very least, give them some recognition.

Those who were killed in action are Charles Maurice Crawford, Germany; William Frances Clark, Bougainville; Charles Lutz; Don Webster, Leyte; Lt. William A. Huston, Burma-China area; Private Earl Wayne Buckley who also had received the Purple Heart, Southwest Pacific; Lt. Robert Preston; Peter Abdallah, Leyte; Aldo Frank, South Pacific.

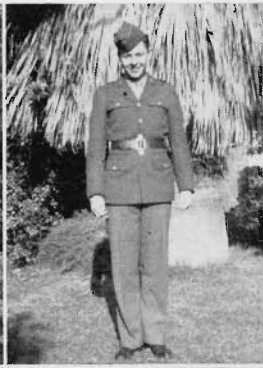

Missing in action are Staff Sgt. Jeane M. Hicks, Germany; Robert O. Schlegel, Lt. William Lewis, Belgium; Donald Lee Raab, Belgium;

Private First Class Peter Spanos, Germany; Lt. Darwin Hamilton, South Pacific; Norman H. Clark, Southwest Pacific; Private First Class Attilio B. Bregante, who also had received the Purple Heart.

Robert W. Penberthy and Lt. Bernard Lewis are both prisoners of the Germans.

Those receiving Purple Hearts are James William Stevens, South Pacific; James Joseph Guerrero; Grover Vandover, Tarawa; Staff Sgt. James B. O'Neil; Sgt. Callen J. Thomas, Aachen; Sgt. Bernard Winkle; on a bombing raid over Germany; Robert E. Bruce, South Pacific; Ralph Gates.
