

THEY WORK HARD IN

BAND

The Stockton High School Band . . . plays at all athletic events . . . rallies . . . programs . . . under direction of Mr. Harold Heisinger . . . participates in the yearly Music Festivals . . . an outstanding musical organization

Front row—Elinor MacKenzie, Meredith Neumiller, Barbara Robertson. Second row—Mr. Heisinger, instructor; Charlsa Craft, Darlene Mall, Darlene Drury, Betty Salzsiedler, Gloria Martin, Melba Christian, Elsie Roberts, Dorothea Yanes, Paul Stovall, Leotamae Crocco, Floyd Gail, Marilyn McMichael, Marian Nicora, Richard Perez, Ray Paular. Third row—Al Pecchenio, Bert Drewes, Jeanne Martin, Ronnie Pearle, Billy Rose, Peggy Pickering, Stanley Jacobs, Janet McOmber, Geneva Southerland, Dorothy Courtney, Max Burton, Joe DiBartolo, John Richey, Bill Patton, Charles Monk. Fourth row—Wade Loveday, Albert Jung, Bud Behrens, Renaldo Ratto, John Bejarano, David Lewis, Paul Sanguinetti, Gene Little, Ray Steele, Cyrus Hickinbotham, Jim Orr, David Somers, James Ensign, Dick Luna. Back row—Ronald Knight, Ray Sisneroz, Peter Santana, Adelbert Patterson, Allan Jones, Paul White, Bill Heryford, Don Little, Bob Conner, Jimmy Riley, Marvin Wigley, Lytton Lewis, James Mullins, James Newman, David Lawson.

SCHOOL ORGANIZATIONS

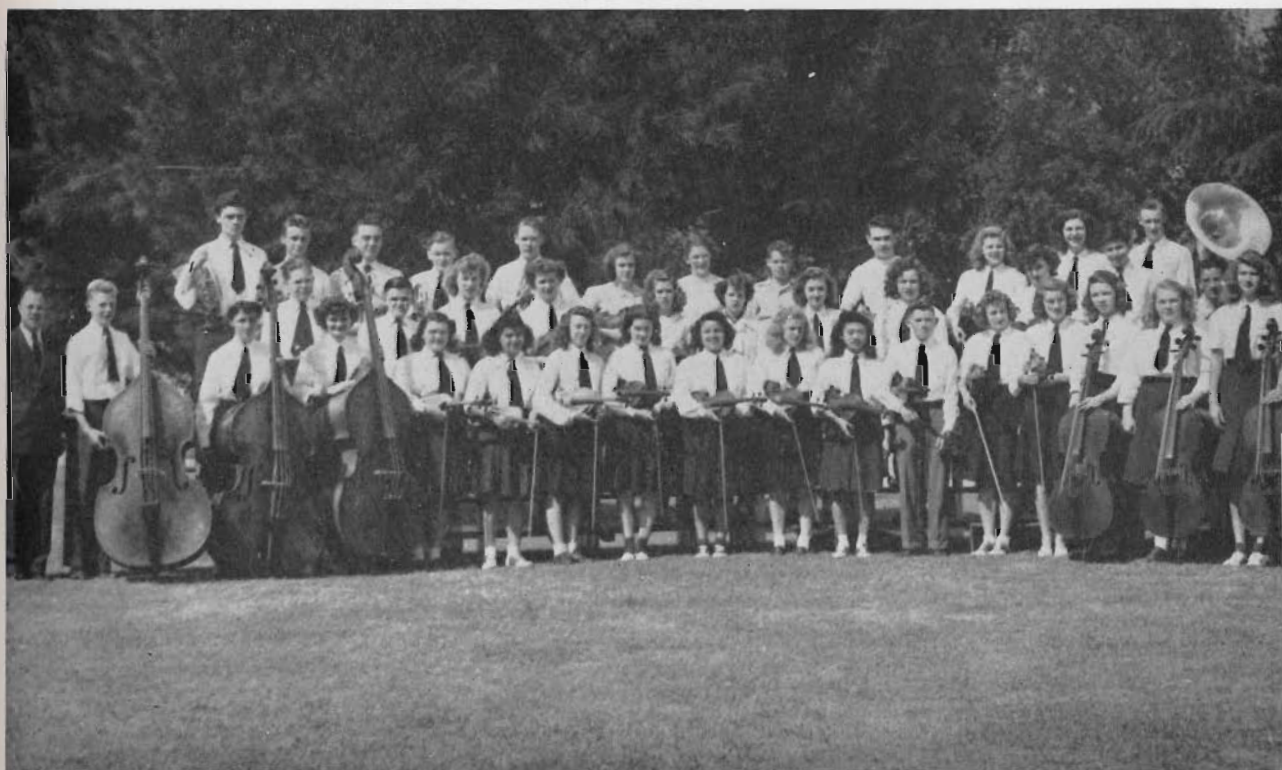

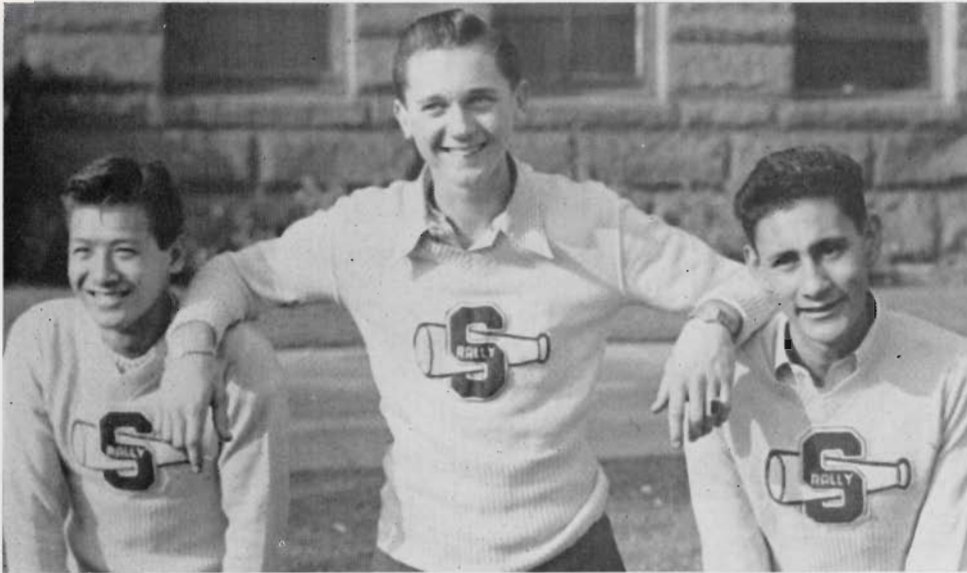

ORCHESTRA

Most certainly an asset to the school . . . the Orchestra . . . directed by Mr. Harold Heisinger . . . played at graduations . . . some members performing at the Music Festivals . . . a few with the Stockton Symphony Orchestra . . . giving concerts . . . pleasing everyone

Front row—Mr. Heisinger, director; Roy Patterson, Edna Vigne, Ethel Pilgrim, Harriett Platt, Jenny Lampitok, Ila Moore, Lois Wilson, Lucy Perez, Betty Williams, Evangeline Godinez, Earl Jennings, Pat Stout, Joan Menking, Natalie Smith, Eleanor Platt, Dolores Wells. Second row—Frank Yorks, Wilbur Lown, Dorothy

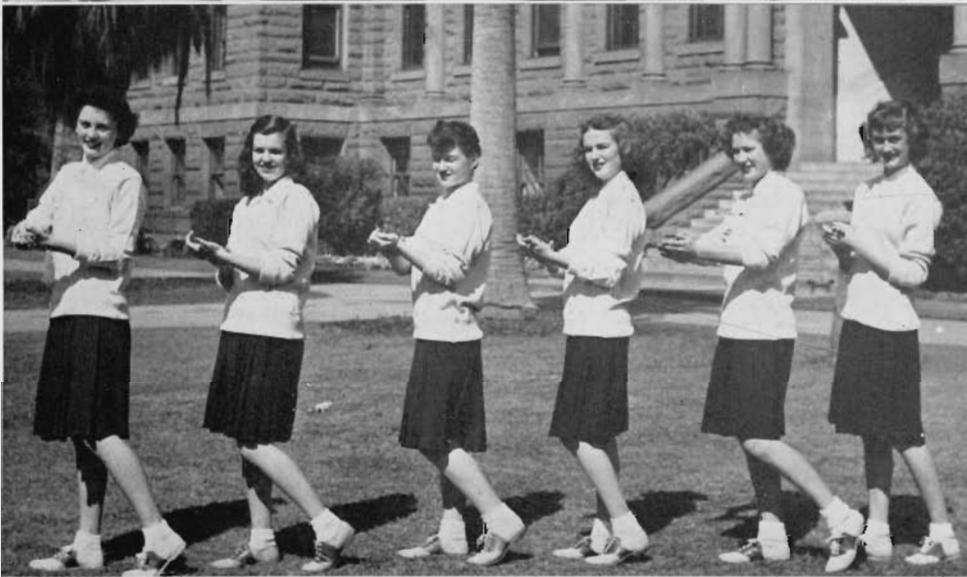

Witt, Irene Huston, Beverly Roessler, Shirley Isaacson, Maxine Osborne, Evelyn Max, Judith Holybee, Sid Carlin, Wayne Workman. Third row—Gary Gray, Bill Storm, Bob Ryland, Alan Merchant, Ernen Torell, Jane Lawson, Alice Eiselen, Tommy Evans, Don Roberts, Lillian Walcott, Betty Salzsiedler, Walter Paullin.

YELL LEADERS

(Top group) Yell Leaders—Elwood Wong, Marvin Wigley, Fernando Miramontes.

SONG LEADERS

(Middle group) Song Leaders—Mary Renard, Sue Bonnar, Pat Nassoi, Pat Smith, Norma Livingston, Claudia VanDyke.

(Bottom group) Rally committee: Front row—Sue Bonnar, Norma Livingston, Carney Campion, Mary Hauser, Shirley Arthur. Back row—Nona Bissell, Bob Minahen, Roland Susich, Don Stites. Absent, Howard Rehnert.

RALLY COMMITTEE

TROUBADOURS

Front row, left to right—Marian Danska, Marguerite Smith, Charlotte Evans, Marian McKelkie, Roberta Young, Una Belle Dagg, Wilma Teslu, Shirley Arthur. Second row—Diane Claussen, Pat Emerson, Pat Ireland, Mary Lou Daniels, Geraldine Hanrahan.

Third row—Paul Barnetch, Joe Padilla, Raymond Christie, Joe Sunseri. Back row—Dan Battalana, Bob Spencer, Mac Winchell, Sanford Sweet, Del King, Ralph Pedersen, Kenny O'Dougherty.

The Troubadours . . . Stockton High's great choral group . . . directed by Mr. Frank Thornton Smith . . . sings at annual Christmas and Easter programs . . . graduations . . . performs for many civic, school, church organizations . . . well-known . . . excellent array of singers

SPRING FESTIVAL

Guard and Tackle

Guard the Best!—Tackle the Rest!

VOLUME XXXI

STOCKTON, CAL., APR. 6, 1946

NUMBER 24

Spring Music Festival to be Presented By San Joaquin Valley Music Group

The San Joaquin Valley Music Group will present its first annual Spring Music Festival in the gymnasium of the Stockton High School on Saturday, April 13, at 8 p.m. The program will include a variety of instrumental and vocal selections. The festival is being presented by the San Joaquin Valley Music Group, an association of music teachers from the Stockton area. The festival is open to all students of the Stockton High School and is a most desirable opportunity for students to display their musical talents. The festival will be held in the gymnasium of the Stockton High School on Saturday, April 13, at 8 p.m. The program will include a variety of instrumental and vocal selections. The festival is being presented by the San Joaquin Valley Music Group, an association of music teachers from the Stockton area. The festival is open to all students of the Stockton High School and is a most desirable opportunity for students to display their musical talents.

Participants include: Bill Storm, second trumpet; Gary Gray, first horn; and Frank Yorks, tympani. Modesto received 18 first chairs, Stockton 12, Sonoma 5, Turlock 4, Lodi 2, Newman, Galt, and Elk Grove 2, and Ripon and Tracy 1. Medals will be given to all first

Club of San Francisco. Dudley was chosen one of the outstanding seniors of last February's graduating class. He has been very active in all Guard and Tackle and Blue and White affairs and has been a member of the Press Club of S.H.S., being presi-

Composition Contest May be Entered By French Students

A contest to encourage the study of French in secondary schools has been announced by the American Association of Teachers of French. The competition will consist of a free composition of 1000 words, a literature review, or description of current events, a science or political aspect of a language. Regulations Give. The contest is open to all students of French in American schools. Entries must be in French and must be submitted by the first of the month. Each composition should be typed on one side of the paper. Full size paper should be used. Attention should be given to the form of the composition and paragraphs. Use freely. The exact number of years of French has completed, as the number of years completed. Contestants to keep copies of their compositions, since the winners will be sent to the

Outstanding Students Leader

Eight of the outstanding students of the Stockton High School, including Don Stites, are members of the National Student Leadership Conference.

ed
rs
S, s 1946, e Bon-
Marian

Photo Contest Open To S.H.S. Students

For the purpose of "aiding youth's preparation in occupational skills and participation in whole-

Each year outstanding students are chosen by members of the faculty and administration upon the basis of scholarship, leadership, activities, and dependability.

Leadership

Don Stites, student body presi-

Razzberry Edition Was 'Big Success'

As you know, the Grunt and Tackle came out last Monday during the 2:15 period and it caused quite a few chuckles among students and teachers.

On the whole the paper was liked

Athletics

An outstanding athlete at high school for four years, Delbert King, former commissioner of athletics, has been president of Quad C, and a member of Block "S", Troubadours, and Round Table. Del plans to attend U.S.C. and become a physical education teacher.

Activities

Delbert King, former associate editor of the Guard and Tackle, was a member of the California (Continued on Page 3)

S.S. Group Discussing Conditions Radio Program

Students of the social science class were participants of the BS American School of the yesterday on the regular program over station KGEM from 2:30 p. m. A panel discussion was held by the students on the topic of "Housing." Quincy radio news commentator, used the subject and spoke the first part of the program. The latter eight minutes were devoted to the discussion in which the students presented their views and ideas about the housing

ered for ifornia ditions of ions will chosen ements hools.

Apples Attended Summer

ts are by
by Me
Canada
School

French and French Literature in an exclusively atmosphere.

courses distributed in ations are A is for a High School for those who are is far and grants for the initial school and inclusion of a dollar donation complete from French.

in Region coveted by in the states of Washington, and Hawaii.

tin, IIA, thought the Grunt and Tackle was swell.

Seniors May Still

Joaquin-Lajaaveras Council, reports Harry B. Hoffman, Council Commodore.

The Sea Scout program is open to boys 15 and above; it provides an excellent opportunity for fun and learn sailing. This is shown to be a record of the hunting Scouts who join much more capability and leadership training as which benefited their country.

At present there are units in Stockton, and sponsors "Vernon Anderson, W. D. Anthony and the American Legion Shipper Bryan Shipper Council: Ship Scouts: Ship 2, Elm is Club; and Ship man, Rotary Club.

The 200 present on the lookout for their competitive, outdoor program, packed with excitement, interest, and a fair amount of labor. Boys headquarters, 144 E. Weber. If enough applicants sign up, there is a possibility of establishing a preliminary training camp to bring them up to First Class Rank in

In a notice on the was announced that the "six weeks of intensicouncil commodore, and his contributions to the building of Sea

blue & white '46

GUARD AND TACKLE STAFF: Left column, top—Pat White, fall editor. Middle—Dave Lema, sports editor, spring; Carol Hanshaw, co-associate editor, spring; Evelyn Guthrey, associate business manager, spring. Bottom—Dudley Igo, associate editor, fall. Right column, top—Sue Brandon, editor, spring; second, Marilyn Clark, Mary Renard, Nona Bissell, columnists. Third picture—Earldwin Long, assistant editor, fall; Betty Lou Weborg, special reporter, fall. Bottom picture—Dee Dee Belinfante, business manager, fall; Wanda Johnson, associate business manager, spring.

BLUE AND WHITE STAFF: Left column, top—Sanford Sweet, sports editor; Charla Lyons, ad photographer. Middle—Marian Simpson, editor. Bottom—Marilyn Roberts, associate business manager; Gary Gray, art editor. Right column: Top—Claudia Van Dyke, business manager; Sue Smith, classes. Middle—Mr. J. W. Adamson, adviser Guard and Tackle and Blue and White. Bottom—Betty Lou Weborg, senior editor; Marilyn McKay, student government. Center—Carney Campion, photographer.

AND PARTICIPATE IN

C. S. F.

(Upper left): C.S.F. fall officers—Mildred McKay, secretary; Phil Pister, president; Carolynne Isaacson, vice-president. (Upper right): C.S.F. spring officers—Nona Bissell, vice-president; Ralph Pedersen, president; Mary Renard, secretary. (Middle left): High scorers, spring—Earldwin Long, Wanda Johnson, Bruce Becker. (Bottom left): High scorers, fall—Lloye Ellis, Roland Jordan, Ronald Kidd, Richard Aulwurm.

The honor society . . . California Scholarship Federation . . . open to students achieving ten grade points . . . many good times had by members . . . skating parties . . . picnics . . . sponsored by Miss Sifford and Miss Elsie Dunn . . . trip to University of California . . . respected, honorable, worthwhile club . . . with high principles and ambitions

A VARIETY OF CLUBS

PRESS CLUB

(Top group) Front row, left to right—Betty Lou Weborg, Dee Dee Belinfante, Nona Bissell, Claudia Van Dyke, Sue Brandon, Dave Lema. Second row—Carney Campion, Lloye Ellis, Pat White, Sue Smith, Charla Lyons, Marian Simpson. Back row—Marianne Paddock, Mary Renard, Dudley Igo, Sanford Sweet, Earldwin Long, Ralph Pedersen.

(Right column): Top, Press Club officers—Carney Campion, vice-president; Dudley Igo, president; Marian Simpson, secretary-treasurer. Middle—Press Club Christmas party, singing carols. Bottom—Dinner at the Press Club Christmas party.

Fun . . . Fun . . . Not a care in the world . . . the Stockton High School Press Club . . . with Mr. J. W. Adamson at the helm . . . goes merrily on its way . . . upholding the higher standards of journalism . . . producing Blue and Whites yearly . . . Guard and Tackles weekly . . . bull sessions daily . . . a group . . . obtaining from life . . . all it offers

Fall officers—Janet Thienes, Sue Bonnar, Una Bell Dagg.

Spring officers—Norma Livingston, Lois Garibaldi, Barbara Jordan, absent.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Sponsors of hilarious Girls' Jinx . . . interesting speakers . . . Girls' League . . . organization of all high school girls . . . aim, to promote unity among girls . . . to furnish helpful advice to tomorrow's adults

Top to bottom, left to right—Talking it over on Senior Rough Day. What are you advertising? Modern transportation to school. Tri-Ferese - Tri-Verite "Silver Snow" dance.

Smile pretty . . . huh? What scared you? Mr. Iturbi is hounded for autographs. Queen of Stockton High, Nona Bissell. COP debate team has heated debate at Round Table meeting . . . and our King, Hal Sconyers.

Interesting speakers . . . heated debates . . . picnics . . . parties . . . scavenger hunts . . . meetings every other Thursday . . . advised by Mr. Young . . . honorable organization . . . Round Table Club . . . a club for civic minded students . . . members suggested by counselors on basis of scholastic ability, personality, and history interests . . . elected into the club by executive committee of club . . . a well-balanced mixture of fun . . . food . . . and valuable well-rounded collection of information concerning civic problems

ROUND TABLE CLUB

Fall officers. Front row—Howard Rehnert, Carney Campion, Don Stites. Back row—Alice Eiselen, Nona Bissell, Marian Simpson.

Spring officers. Front row—Don Stites, Carney Campion. Back row—Alice Eiselen, Marian Simpson, Shirley Arthur.

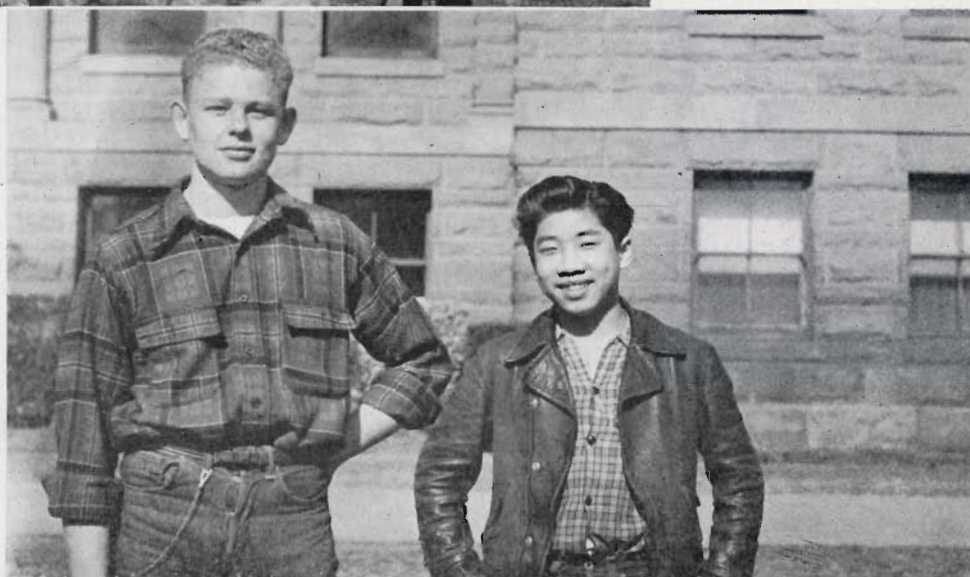

FRENCH CLUB

French Club officers — Pat Nassoii, president; Mary Hauser, vice-president; Alan Talt, club representative; Frances Colliver, secretary-treasurer.

GERMAN CLUB

German Club officers—Earlwin Long, president; Jimmy Choy, secretary.

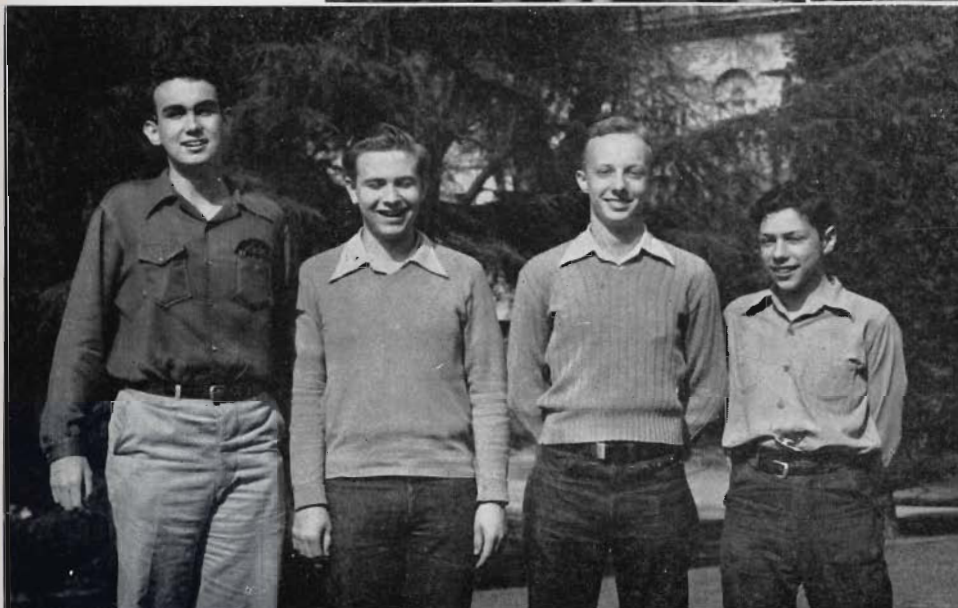

Listening to French records . . . singing French songs . . . observing French holidays . . . eating French food . . . yes, it's the French Club . . . open to students who have taken or who are now in advanced French . . . advised by Miss Lukes . . . sends food and clothing to the needy French people . . . a club that combines a good time with worthwhile activities

Organized late in the year . . . the German Club . . . under the direction of Miss DeRuchie . . . a small group . . . consisting only of German students . . . plans an active social calendar

CHINESE CLUB

(Top) Left—Chinese Club officers, fall: Wing Jew, Esther Lee, Kinman Gong.

(Top) Right—Chinese Club officers, spring: Edward Toy, Violet Toy, Henry Ng, David Wong.

STAMP CLUB

(Bottom group) Stamp Club officers—Alan Talt, Melvin Hoffman, Richard Aulwurm, Albert Phillips.

"Stamp collecting is my hobby" . . . that is about the only qualification for membership into the Stamp Club . . . a group of students . . . banded together for fun and education . . . monthly meetings in bungalow . . . auctions . . . stamp trading . . . parties . . . advised by Mr. Talt . . . trip to big San Francisco auction . . . dart concession at High School Fun Fest . . . three members also members of American Philatelic Society, to which the late Franklin D. Roosevelt once belonged . . . active organization . . . capable leaders

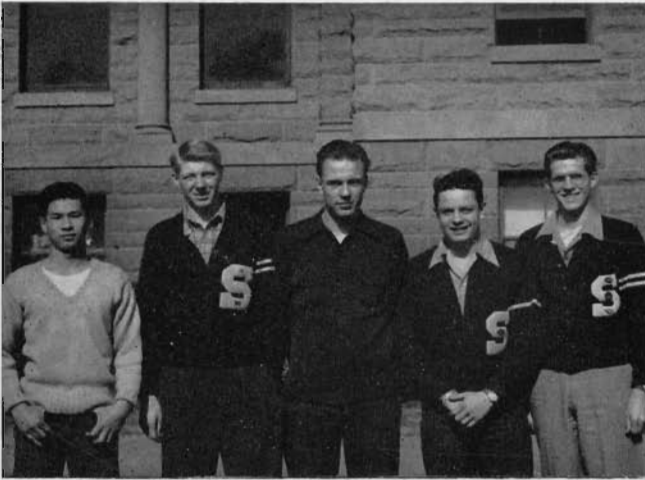

Organization of Chinese students of high school age . . . advised by Miss Elizabeth Humbargar before her transfer to Stockton Junior College . . . barn dance . . . senior banquet . . . initiations . . . three closed dances . . . raffle for Red Cross . . . party for freshman members . . . raffle for Youth Center contribution . . . highlighting a year of enjoyment in service and social events . . . meetings held twice every month at the Chinese Christian Center . . . purpose to create unity among young Chinese people and to be of service to the community and school

BLOCK 'S'

(Left) top group, Block "S" fall officers—Perry Ah Tye, Howard "Mort" Rehnert, Dick Gaedtke, Dick O'Connor, Del King.

(Left) bottom group, Block "S" spring officers, front row—Scott Jenkins, Bob Sanguinetti. Back row—Howard Rehnert, Mel Schmid, Charlie Herring.

The athletic club of Stockton High . . . composed of boys who make letters in any sport . . . genial Mike Garrigan at the head . . . ushers at football and basketball games . . . candy sale at Fun Fest . . . hayride . . . swimming party . . . raffle . . . every week has fun night in the gym . . . the Block "S"

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

(Right) top group, Distributive Education Club officers—Geraldine Morris, Mary Casula.

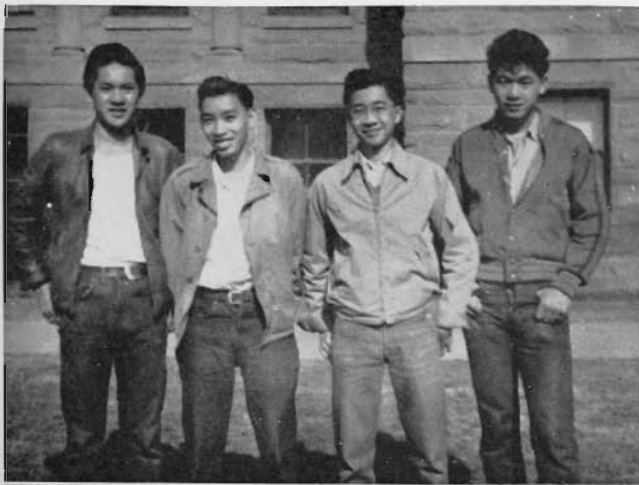

A new club on campus . . . the Distributive Education Club . . . made up of students in Retail and Merchandise Co-op classes . . . Mr. Krebs, adviser . . . closely affiliated with adult and student groups of Berkeley, Tulare and other California cities . . . meetings held during class time on Fridays

GOLF CLUB

Tournaments and more tournaments . . . fun and seriousness . . . coached by "Pop" Ransom . . . aim to promote the game of golf among the beginners . . . carried out by intra-mural tournaments . . . active socially as well as physically . . . an interesting club . . . lots to offer

(Right) bottom group, Golf Club officers, front row—Russ Shepard, Stan Songer. Back row—John Elliott, Peter Brown, Stanley Dinkel.

MENCIUS HI-Y

Champions of Northern California Hi-Y Basketball Tournament . . . coached by Edmund Loy, adviser of the club, and Bill Choy . . . captained by Howard Fong . . . whole team given gold basketballs by YMCA . . . given dinner at Central Methodist Church in Honor of championship . . . active volley ball team organized . . . full social calendar . . . fifth anniversary banquet dance . . . roller skating party . . . picnics . . . coke booth at Camp Carnival . . . sponsors of annual closed carnival . . . annual picnic in Lodi . . . a group of young boys . . . having a good time and upholding Hi-Y standards

Top group—Howard Fong, Jim Mah, Wing Jew, Frank Fong.

Bottom group—Shew Hong, Frank Fong, Wing Jew, Harold Young, Kinman Gong.

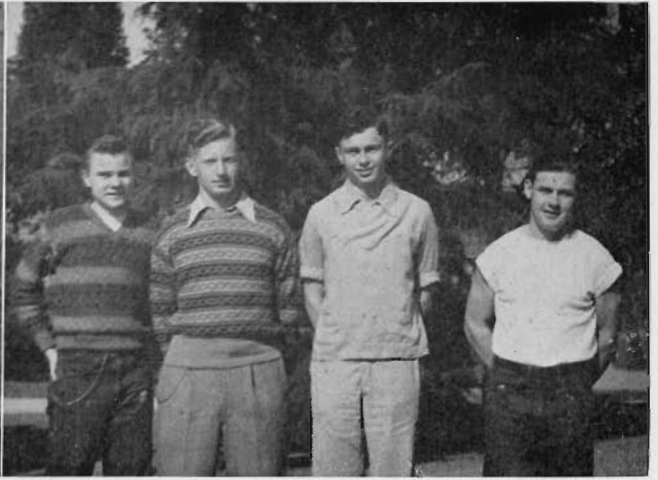

BULLDOG HI-Y

Late start in organizing . . . advised by Sam Clayton . . . presided over by Bud Jones . . . organized basketball team . . . real competition in volleyball . . . already organizers of swell party . . . nail-driving concession at Camp Carnival . . . a little behind in social functions . . . nevertheless, a fine group of boys with real spirit

Top group, fall officers—Rudolph Arnaiz, Preston Garmire.

Bottom group, spring officers, front row—Ray Fisher, Les Geigie; back row—Mauro Sanchez, James Mullins, Rudolph Arnaiz.

RAMBLER HI-Y

Fall officers—Bob Sanguinetti, Jack Gianelli, Williard Cummings, Sanford Sweet, Fred Risso.

Spring officers—Ralph Pedersen, John Elliott, John Gardner, Jim Brown.

Progressive dinner . . . speakers . . . football game with Acmy Hi-Y . . . basketball team . . . volley ball team . . . hayride with Tri-Arriba . . . activities backed by Mr. Sweet, adviser . . . active organization . . . always doing something . . . many able leaders

The very active Quad-C club . . . advised by Fred Wolfum . . . joint party and hay dance with Tri-Avante . . . Marsh Creek picnic . . . basketball and baseball teams . . . BB gun concession at Camp Carnival . . . cake raffle at Fun Fest . . . high spirited group of boys

QUAD C HI-Y

Fall officers—Del King, Dick O'Connor, Jack Miller, Dan Morrow, Don Stites.

Spring officers, front row—Louis Wentzel, Carney Campion, Don Stites. Back row—Dan Morrow, Scott Jenkins, Jack Marks, Del King.

Wing Hong, Kuo Hong, Frank Low.

Ging Wong, Wing Hong, Alvin Lee.

LOACIUS HI-Y

Another Chinese Hi-Y . . . the Loacius club . . . exciting times . . . skating party . . . co-ed party . . . sweater dance . . . banquet at Central Methodist Church . . . basketball and volleyball teams . . . played basketball at Sacramento with Mencius Hi-Y . . . dart throwing at Y Carnival

ACMY HI-Y

Under able counselling of Dick Pedersen . . . Acmy Hi-Y . . . YMCA spelled backwards . . . had a swell time this year . . . progressive dinner . . . closed dance . . . snow trip . . . visit to Sikh Temple . . . barbeque . . . visit to St. John's church . . . organized competitive games night for Acmy members . . . winding up with a dish-breaking concession at the annual Camp Carnival

Acmy officers, front row—Joe Dietrich, Robert Reelhorn, Don Burnham. Back row—Jim Corson, Kirby Robinson, Bernard Berg.

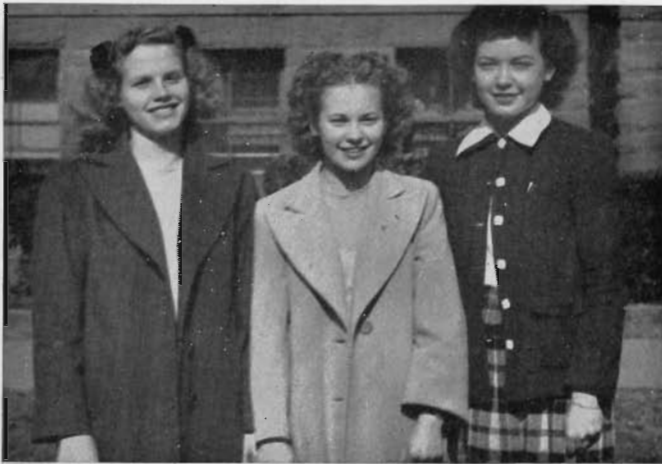

AMECAE TRI-Y

Organization for freshman girls . . . counselled by Mrs. Camp . . . late getting started . . . in on many "Y" activities . . . active while an organization . . . disbanded because of difficulties on meeting dates and other complications

Tri-Amicae officers, front row—Jackie McPherson, Sue Guernsey, Sue Billups. Back row—Beverly Ford, Saralee Ford, Helen McCloud.

FERESE TRI-Y

One of most active Tri-Y clubs . . . initiates carrying books to school in buckets for a week . . . "Huba Huba Hop" . . . successful sport dance . . . Christmas party . . . Rummage Sale . . . Thanksgiving party . . . co-sponsors of "Silver Snow" . . . formal dance . . . ambitious group of girls . . . equally ambitious counselor . . . Mrs. Malspino

Top group, fall officers—Bonita Keiser, Eleanor Crawford, Lynn Behrens.

Second group, spring officers—Joyce Rogers, Betty Lou Weborg, Frances Hinkel, Lynn Behrens.

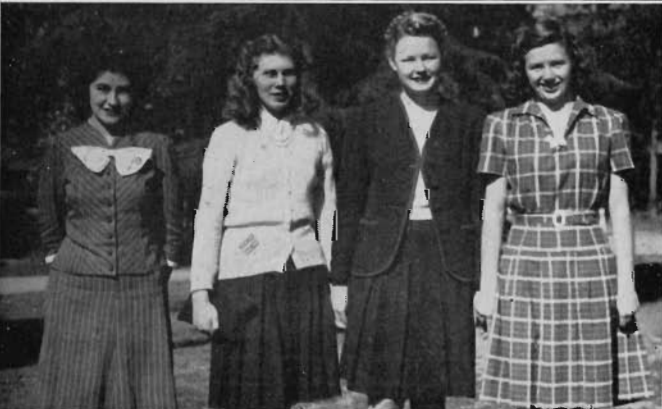

ARRIBA TRI-Y

Two year old club . . . advancing rapidly . . . took in all graduates from Tri-Odaka at Edison High . . . get-acquainted tea . . . buffet dinner . . . initiation . . . joint meeting with Rambler Hi-Y . . . progressive dinner . . . joint party with Ramblers . . . supervised by Helen Grinrod . . . graduate members invited to meeting early in the year to discuss college with other members . . . an interesting variety offered in activities . . . organized volleyball team

Third group, fall officers—Mayblene House, Betty Jean Ritchey, Marjorie Boccoli, Pat Britton, Pat Ohm.

Fourth group, spring officers—Dorothea Yanes, Bobbie House, Gloria Hudson, Dorothy Bonnifield.

OREEN TRI-Y

Another club for underclassmen . . . joint meeting with Tri-Creama, and Tri-Verite to hear Mrs. Newby, beauty specialist, speak . . . gave party to a group of grammar school girls . . . visited Catholic service . . . installation of new officers at Hotel Wolf . . . promising volleyball team . . . Miss Elsie Dunn, counselor . . . always good group at "Y" pot-lucks, parties, and other large gatherings with other "Y" members

Top group, fall officers—Doris Cain, Peggy Pickering, Evelyn Busalacchi.

Second group, spring officers—Peggy Pickering, Norma Busalacchi, Eloise Busalacchi, Beverly Fetsch, Beverly Brooks.

AVANTE TRI-Y

Slumber parties . . . joint barn dance with Quad C . . . doughnut and cider concession at Fun Fest . . . Christmas party for children's home . . . senior dinner . . . formal initiation . . . outstanding basketball team . . . joint meetings with Quad C . . . joint party with Quad C . . . counseled by Mrs. Fred Feary . . . cookie, ice cream, and sucker concession at Camp Carnival . . . responsible for clever decorations at Aloha Banquet in February . . . meetings every two weeks . . . group that likes to combine fun with duties

Third group, fall officers: Front row—Joyce Lewis, Mary Lou Hall, Sue Smith. Back row—Nona Bissell, Norma Livingston, Claudia Van Dyke.

Bottom group, spring officers—Mary Hauser, Nanette Halling, Elsie Mikkelsen, Claudia Van Dyke.

VERITE TRI-Y

The winnah! . . . champs of basketball contest among Tri-Y clubs . . . gold basketballs . . . continuous training . . . real team work . . . highlight of year of fun . . . movie concession at camp carnival . . . joint sponsors of successful dance . . . formals swishing . . . "Silver Snow" . . . Chinese dinner party . . . followed by show . . . Thanksgiving party for Mexican Methodist Church . . . truly a representation of fun which can be had by any "Y" group

Top group: fall officers—Blanche Moore, Grace Knox, Marilyn McPherson.

Second group: spring officers, front row—Floy McKee, Donna Britton. Back row—Jean Madsen, Marilyn McPherson, Nadine Odleberg.

CREAMA TRI-Y

Progressive dinner . . . cookie sales . . . backwards party for new members . . . dance with Rambler Hi-Y . . . highlights of a successful year . . . memories of good times . . . fellowship . . . found in Tri-Creama . . . under supervision of Mrs. Crossley

Third group: fall officers—Betty Tait, Sylvia Kaplan, Damey Meyers.

Bottom group: spring officers, front row—Irene Huston, Dolores Wells. Back row—Joan Menking, Lois Harrison, Shirley Douglas.

Somebody drop a cube of butter?
Mary Huber receives Safety Poster Award.

Shhh . . . On the air . . . Safety program.
Big shots of Safety Week.
. . . and another one is tanked.