

Backstage

Upper right, first row—Thienes, Colliver, Clark, Eiselen, Kessel, Harper, Coblentz, Sakata, Banovitch. Second row—Isaacson, Denton, Bonfield, Ng, Schwartz, Newmiller, Ruff, King, Danska. Third row—McKay, Rossi, Driggs, Konig, Talt, Browne, Merchant, Filippini. Upper left first row—Young, Flaningam, Ritchie, Hardesty, Holliger, Lucas, Hammond. Second row—Korbholz, Blair, Toy, Odell, Alles, Ilgenfritz, De Ferrari, Keppel, Louie. Third row—Foulkes, Alley, Graham, Carlin, Korbholz, Beardsley, Howe. Activity—members ready to leave for day's visit to Sacramento.

C. S. F.

Studio clubs provide stars with fun "after hours" . . . serving as guides for incoming freshmen . . . visiting Sacramento . . . holding the Regional Conference . . . just a few of the activities of the honor scholarship society . . . Miss Sifford, adviser

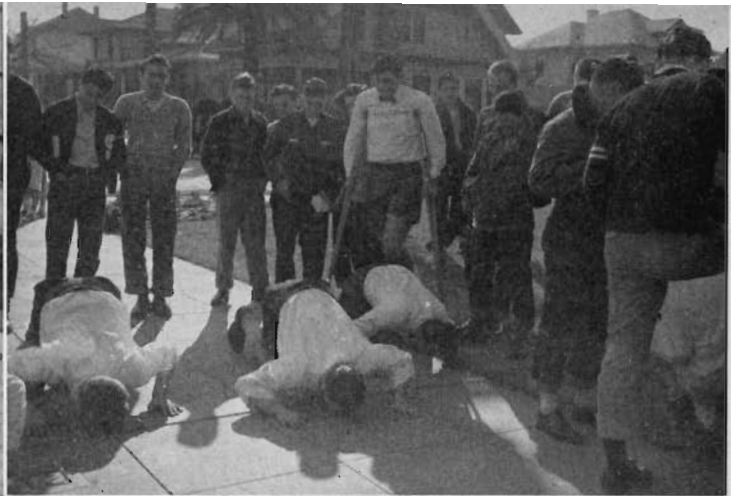

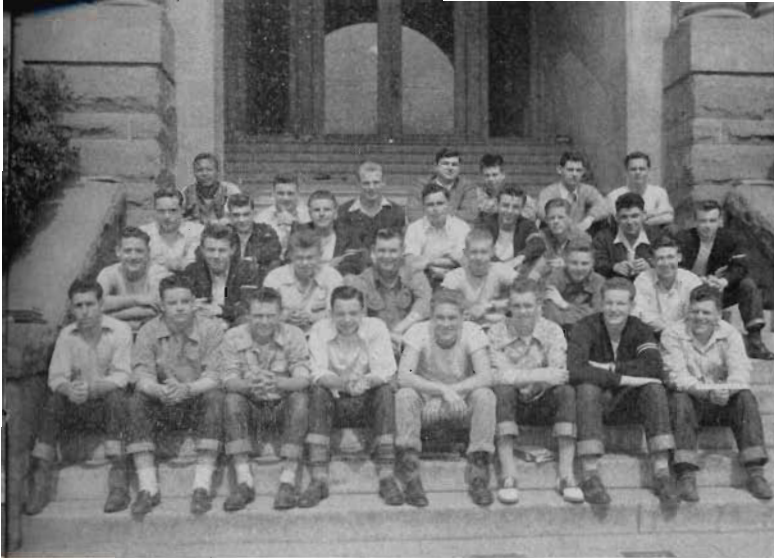

QUILL AND SCROLL

Taking their cue from Mr. Adamson . . . publications' staff members reorganized Quill and Scroll . . . speakers, discussions, and movies . . . covered the various phases of journalism . . . meetings a "madhouse" . . . but fun for all . . . a chicken dinner . . . and a trip through the Stockton Record plant

Lower right, first row—Schediwy, Wheeler, Colliver, and Eiselen. Second row—Isaacson, Talt, Moore, Jordan, Burstein, Brandon, Sollars, and Beardsley. Third row—Thienes, Peters, Howe, Frederickson, and Korbholz. Activities—discussing coming events while the initiates are left with the dishes.

First row—Jenkins, O'Connor, Schmid, Elliott, Wentzel, Herring, Minahen, and Gum. Second row—Beadleston, Wright, Willet, Dean, Kinser, Shepherd, and Waller. Third row—Parsons, Lewis, Krein, Gardner, Carlson, McGillvray, Hakeem, and Bley. Fourth row—Bailey, Brown, Stoner, Dietrich, Kreis, Peirano, and Pecchenino. Activities—nosing in on a Block "S" initiation and members packed in for a meeting.

BLOCK "S"

Athletes and Block "S" holders . . . under the supervision "Mike Garrigan . . . meet every two weeks . . . for business meetings . . . coke and doughnuts . . . or just to "rough-house" in the gym . . . ushers at basketball games . . . in charge of the coke booth at the "Pigskin Squeal" . . . many other activities

OD ENGLISH "S"

An honor group . . . recently reorganized . . . for girls outstanding in Physical Education . . . planned a rousing reception for February freshmen . . . helped wrap Red Cross Christmas packages . . . essentially a service club . . . advised by Mrs. May . . . members receive letters . . . and awards for their work

First row—Price, Gianunzio, Denton, and Douglass. Second row—Britton, Fetzer, Fetsch, and Bonnifield. Third row—Harper, Banovitch, McFarland, and Weberg. Activities—stenciling towels for the Girls' P.E. Department and helping measure seniors for caps and gowns.

ITALIAN CLUB

Has no regular meeting time . . . but usually meets more than once a month during culture periods . . . to study the customs and culture of Italy . . . all Mr. Turkatte's Italian students are members . . . held one party . . . and were planning some picnics . . . before the end of the semester.

First row—R. Passadore, Toore, E. Solari, M. Solari, C. Rossi, Foppiona, Maragliano, Lerma, Balot, Navone. Second row—Delucchi, Leonardini, Lazzareschi, Gibson, Borelli, Bertolina, Carey, Borfiglio, Leandro, Cueno. Third row—Pizzo, Marlow, Gonales, A. DeCicco, D. DeCicco, M. Passadore, Pezzi, Giusto, Nave, Entelise, Gualco, Moresco. Fourth row—Sanquineti, Chiappe, Basalto, A. Rossi, Bava, Callegari, J. Solari, Raggio, Cattaffo, Croci. Activities—scenes from regular meetings.

First row—Blickle, Spradling, Sollars, King, Ruff, Brown, Bostwick, Lucas, Spears, Terry. Second row—Hayden, Denton, Bennetson, Scott, Lewis, Schlichting, Gillam, Johnson, Foreman, Young. Third row—Hein, Selfridge, Dollarhide, Carlin, Parrott, Schultz, Matlin, Borchardt, Dixon. Fourth row—Adams, Dillingham, Thomas, Boren, Fletcher, Bley, Angerina, Oliver, Ferguson. Fifth row—Louie, Sullivan, Tyler, Geiger, Sattler, Patterson, Hargis, Eickoff, Harvey, Aquilar, Sweet, Rasmussen. Right, first row—Spencer, Bertotti, Petersen, Wong, Gelmstedt. Second row—Willis, Morrison, Horst, Grantzow, Noble, Payne, Howell, Geiger, Schriver, Guyle. Third row—Coykendall, visitor, Richert, Stone, Sterne, Forrest, Owens, Toy. Activity—German Club hard at work practicing a skit.

GERMAN CLUB

All German students are members . . . do not meet regularly . . . but classes do Red Cross work . . . sent old clothes to Europe . . . held annual picnic in June . . . several booths at the Fun Fest . . . Miss DeRuchie is in charge

Officers, first row—Violet Toy, fall social chairman; Lily Lee, spring secretary-treasurer; Annie Toy, spring social chairman; Anne Wong, fall secretary-treasurer. Second row—Harold Young, fall president; Ging Wong, spring vice president; David Lee, spring sergeant-at-arms; Ed Toy, spring president. Activities—enjoying an evening of fun at Chinese Recreational Hall.

CHINESE CLUB

Chinese students automatically become members . . . meet once a month at the Recreation Center . . . sponsored by Mrs. West . . . banquet honored incoming freshmen and graduating seniors . . . dances and parties throughout the year

Kneeling—Schediw, Ng, Garibaldi, Jordan, Isaacson, Peters. Seated—Elliott, Thiens, Harrison. Standing, first row—Herring, Walters, Colliver, Neumiller, Eiselen, Banovitch, Duncan, Finkbohner, Warren, A. Beardsley. Second row—Korbholz, Mr. Young, Wentzel, Stoner, Browne, Gardner, Carlin, Brown, Newell, Jenkins, B. Beardsley. Activities—entertainment after a strenuous scavenger hunt and listening to a "hot" debate put on by the C.O.P. debate team.

ROUND TABLE

A group of students interested in local and national affairs . . . meets every other Thursday in the Bungalow . . . programs feature many excellent speakers . . . debates on timely topics . . . scavenger hunt a big success . . . annual spring picnic . . . fortune telling at the Fun Fest . . . counselor is Mr. Young

JUNIOR RED CROSS

In its thirtieth year at Stockton High . . . gave Penny Day donations to worthy causes . . . wrapped overseas gift boxes . . . sewing students made children's garments . . . German classes made over 9000 colorful items for hospitalized service men

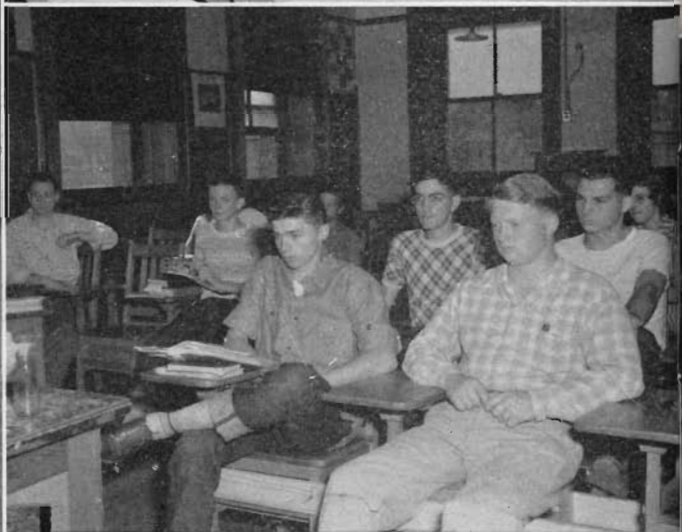

Below, first row—Denton, Harper, Walters, Herring, Peterson, and Kidwell. Second row—Swenson, Taylor, and Bingham. Activities—preparing boxes for overseas and making clothes for needy children.

Above—Ritchey, Brink, Peterson, Newell, and Early. Activities—members discussing an experiment at one of their meetings and crowding into the Biology Library to study slides under the microscope.

SCIENCE CLUB

Meetings for students with scientific interests . . . about every other week . . . reports on individual experiments . . . actual demonstrations . . . supervised by Mr. Rundle . . . members have access to school "labs"

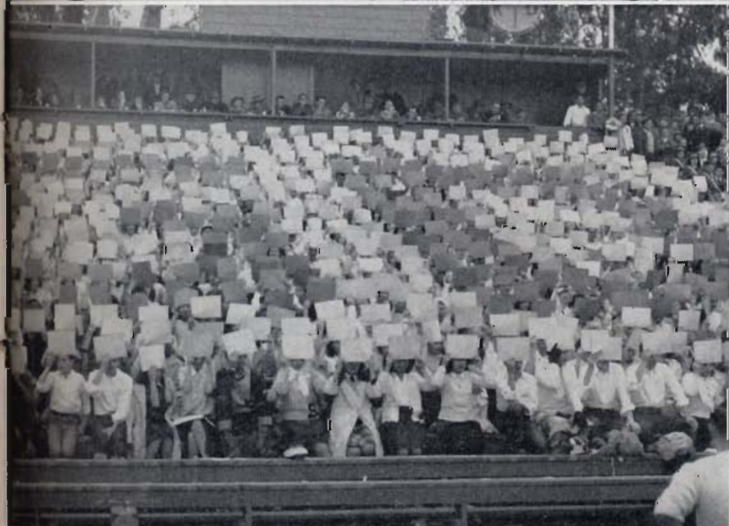

LES CHANTICLER

Les Chanticleer . . . for advanced students . . . business meetings conducted entirely in French during class time . . . members sing French songs . . . listen to reports and records . . . sent packages of food and clothing to France . . . adviser is Miss Lukes

First row—Allec, Ito, Short, Wright, McFarland, Slater, and Rainbol. Second row—Feldman, Gilgert, Anderson, Mosher, Hanson, Woodall, Austin, Walters, Harris, Cloudsley, and Maynard. Third row—Miss Lukes, Konig, Saison, Basalto, King, Doran, Beardsley, Huddleston, and Vaught. Activities—scenes from a meeting held during class time.

First row—Hoots, Sutton, Welton, Waldo, and Stone. Second row—Long, Dow, Rose, Moore, Morrow, von Berg, and Danska. Activities—making pom-poms for Stockton High football fans and one of the card stunts at the Lodi-Stockton game.

SU KAHN

Active during the football season . . . members decorated the goal posts at all home games . . . made Blue and White pom-poms . . . sold rooters' caps . . . junior and senior girls . . . really "behind" our team

Officers—Corky Harrison, fall president; Doris Evans, spring secretary; Barbara Jordan, spring president; Marian Murphy, spring vice president. Absent, Shirlee Salini, fall vice president; Donna Wheeler, fall secretary. Activities—working on Girls' Jinx posters and piecing streamers for the Fun Fest.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Sponsored a fashion show for all girls . . . the Music Department's annual Christmas program . . . and a freshman reception . . . presented another "top notch" Girls' Jinx . . . in charge of the art displays in the Main Hall . . . and ring tossing at the Fun Fest . . . directed by Miss McInnes

First row—Foulkes, Price, Plummer, Ralston, Shultz, Quesenberry, Brown, Curtis. Second row—Stull, Miss Lukes, Krout, Horita, Hill, Wilburn, Jenkins, Hardesty, Farey, Vaught. Activities—holding an election and singing some French songs.

LES POUSSINS

The Little French Club . . . for beginning students . . . meets once a month during class time . . . all discussions and programs are in French . . . under the guidance of Miss Lukes . . . the two French clubs together sponsored a gingerbread booth at the Fun Fest

First row—Rose, Ross, A. Beardsley, B. Beardsley, Bley, and Harris. Second row—Klinger, Korbholz, Pate, Rossi, Wentzel, Songer, and Merchant. Third row—Talt, Stoner, Driggs, Barton, Darrah, Minahen, and Mr. Wentz. Activities—planning the candy booth for the Fun Fest and a glimpse of a regular meeting.

KEY CLUB

Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club . . . and directed by Mr. Wentz . . . a newly formed Stockton High group . . . members were chosen for their abilities as leaders . . . meet every two weeks at noon on the campus . . . planned several projects . . . including a candy booth at the Fun Fest

ACMY

Winners of a "grudge" basketball game with the Rambler Hi-Y . . . snow trip to Peddler's Hill . . . closed dance . . . get-togethers at Borden's Ice Cream plant . . . a barbecue . . . glass breaking booth at Camp Carnival . . . joint meeting with Tri-Orreen . . . waiters at the Hi-Y, Tri-Y Banquet . . . meetings at the homes of members

First row—S. Dietrich, Robinson, Wallis, Angerina, and Schultz. Second row—Parrot, Corson, J. Dietrich, Berg, Baerwald, and Burch.

ARRIBA

Feeling a lack of members . . . Arriba sponsored a Tri-Y membership campaign . . . one of the top four teams in the basketball league . . . interesting meetings every Monday . . . fruit baskets and carols from this group . . . brought pleasure to the Old Folks' Home at Christmas time

First row—Ruiz, Bonnitfield, and Yanes. Second row—Lagorio, Wood, and Hagan.

AVANTE

In charge of decorations for the Senior Aloha Banquet . . . and a fish pond at the Fun Fest . . . members made and sold pom-poms during the football season . . . a candy sale . . . a closed dance . . . and several successful parties . . . meetings every other week at the homes of members

First row—Warren, Owens, Jordan, Freitas, Lamb, Morrow, Filipini, McKay. Second row—Walters, Seemann, Deicke, Neumiller, Colliver, Seifert, Berlin, Garibaldi. Third row—Peters, Thienes, Harris, Fechner, Wheeler, Harper, Bennetsen, Augustine, and Schediwy.

BARRACUDAS

With an active basketball team . . . this newest Hi-Y is already making a name for itself . . . planned to sell coke at the Camp Carnival . . . an up and coming club . . . at regular meetings . . . has outside speakers . . . basketball practice . . . in joint meetings . . . a chance to become better acquainted with the members of other groups

First row—Jordan, Bradfield, Gillespie, Oranges. Second row—White, Brooks, McCollum, Beach, Wells.

BULLDOGS

The nail driving booth at the Fun Fest . . . an interesting trip through the Identification Bureau . . . one of the top basketball teams in the league . . . programs including such prominent speakers as Sheriff Sousa . . . and even occasional movies . . . it all adds up to another active Hi-Y Club . . . plenty to do and fun for everyone

First row—French and Percival. Second row—Gardner, Gallet, Geiger, Cheek.

CHI-Y

Most of the members of this club attend Edison . . . hold meetings every Wednesday evening at the Chinese Christian Center . . . a joint anniversary party with the Dragonettes . . . and a skating party at the Rollatorium . . . two successful social events . . . highlight a year's activities

Raymond Chan, Ted Lee, and Charlie Chan.

CREAMA

Box lunch socials with Verite and Barracuda . . . combination installation and initiation dinner at Tiny's . . . bowling party . . . Christmas baskets sent to a needy family . . . backwards party . . . fortune telling booth at the Camp Carnival . . . hot dog booth at the Fun Fest

First row—Myers, Douglass, Nettles, Lawson, and Wells. Second row—Peterson, McCown, Lisher, Wade, Gwin, and Higday. Third row—Shanks, Barham, Day, Kaplan, Tennison, and Ehlers.

DRAGONETTES

Late in getting started . . . but lots of activities anyway . . . meetings held at the Chinese Recreational Center every Monday night . . . a Valentine dance with Loacius . . . a picnic during the spring semester . . . and a banquet celebrating the first anniversary of Dragonettes . . . held jointly with Chi-Y at Sandall's

First row—M. Hong, A. Toy, G. Lee, and H. Louie. Second row—L. Lee, B. Lowe, P. Wong, and D. Mar.

FERESE

An active group . . . even though it lacked members . . . held a membership drive . . . meetings every Monday at the "Y" . . . planned a candy sale and roller skating parties . . . a Mother and Daughter Banquet . . . on Mothers' Day

First row—Estes, Nagel, Henry, Maragliano, and Stone. Second row—Cheney, Flaningam, Ellis, Valentine, and Young.

LOACIUS

Trips to Lodi Lake every summer . . . an anniversary dinner at "Frenchy's" . . . skating parties . . . a trip to the snow line . . . "Mid-Spring Swing" dance . . . a joint Loacius-Dragonettes dance . . . speakers on different subjects . . . and champions of the 1946 Hi-Y basketball tournament

First row—A. Lee, K. Wong, I. Gin, and S. Louie. Second row—F. Low, R. Wong, R. Mow, D. Mah, and A. Toy.

ORREEN

Formal installation at the Hotel Wolf . . . a closed dance . . . cookie sales . . . picnic for a group of inter-racial children . . . progressive dinner . . . bowling and slumber parties . . . five representatives at the Lake Alpine Conference . . . a Christmas party for small girls at the "Y"

First row—Taylor, Pickering, Marico, Hoskins, and Eddy. Second row—E. Busalacchi, Brooks, E. Busalacchi, and N. Busalacchi. Third row—B. Fetsch, Price, and D. Fetsch.

RAMBLERS

"Grudge fight" basketball game with Acmy . . . hayride . . . guests at a lecture by an F.B.I. agent . . . enchilada dinner . . . penny pitch booth at both the Fun Fest and the Camp Carnival . . . visitors to Morris Chapel and the Catholic Church . . . favorite pastime . . . frequent get-togethers at Borden's Ice Cream Company

First row—Brown, Gum, Elliott, and Connelly. Second row—Mr. Sweet, Gulick, Gardner, and Brown. Third row—Carlin, Stoner, Newell, and Jenkins.

TWIN LIONS

Late in organizing this year . . . meetings were held every Monday evening at the Chinese Christian Center . . . members sponsored a get-together party . . . with two Hi-Y and two Tri-Y groups as their guests . . . always turned out in full force . . . for pot-luck suppers . . . held monthly at the "Y"

First row—D. Fong, W. Moore, T. Mah, and C. Wong. Second row—F. Soo, H. Mar, G. Lan, and Young.

VERITE

Won first place in the preliminary Tri-Y basketball tournament . . . sponsored movies at the Camp Carnival . . . dart game at the Fun Fest . . . held a party for Mexican children . . . slumber and Halloween parties for themselves . . . dinner at Sandall's . . . and afterwards a show

First row—Goreham, Miller, Weborg, Morais, McKee, Britton, Gianunzio. Second row—Armour, Knox, Moore, Madsen, Barkman, Blicke, Denton. Third row—Huber, von Berg, Lipsey, McPherson, Odelberg, Reinike, Smith, Spears, Fetzer, Miss Emelyn Dunn.