

By back or the crook all be link on to write on this page of your Book
Pearl Parrot

Clubs

Students are offered the opportunity of joining about 40 clubs in Stockton High. The first of these clubs is California Scholarship Federation. A student must maintain a high scholastic average to become a member. Adviser is Miss Brown.

First row: Diane Korboltz, Judy Dickinson, Anne Toy, Ricky Ito, Barbara Pugh, Mildred McKay, Helen Kessel, Beverley Spradling, Janice Hammond. Second row: Roberta Gerloff, Leslie Clark, Joan Wolfe, Beverley Podesto, Harriet Ritchie, Jewell Jacob, Daryl Gray, Sondra Culbertson, Marlene Fetzer, Mary Ng, Pat Holliger, Shirley Lee. Third row: Miss Brown, Helen Castro, June Rich, Diane Foulkes, George Gong, May Passadore, Elaine Marino, Audrey Higday, Harriet Harper, Nancy Denton, Shirley Flaningam, Lilly Blickle, Pat Hardesty. Fourth row: Bill Solomon, Doris Ritchie, Marion Young, Donald Roberts, Harold Caton, Albert Jeung.

Scholarship Federation

Music Club

First row: Marie Stoll, Don Dollarhide, Georgia Ritchie, Paul Stovall, Marcia Coblenz, Jim Stulz, Helen Ridley, Wade Loveday. Second row: Miss Scott, Louise Gardner, Dorothea Yanes, Margaret Chalmers, Marion Young, Susan Potter, Susan Hopkinson, Doris Reed, Delores Yescas, Dot Moore.

A new and up and coming club is the Music Club — sponsored by Miss Scott. For their main activity, the members have been going to San Francisco to hear the San Francisco Symphony with different guest artists as Igor Stravinsky and Artur Schnabel.

During Round Table meetings, the members are entertained by guest speakers who give interesting talks on the welfare of the community and problems in the world today. At the end of each semester, a party is given. The sponsor is Mr. Young.

First row: Judy Dickinson, Pat McFarland, Helen Kessel, Alvin Beardsley, Barbara Price, May Tamura, Eileen Eddy. Second row: Charlotte Duncan, Marilyn Ilgenfritz, Janet Barnes, Judith Alles, Elizabeth Moore, Mary Ng, Shirley Flanigan, Daryl Gray, Nancy Denton. Third row: Albert Jeung, Aldo Rossi, T. S. Barton, Van Sweet, Dick Newell, Jim Mathews, Paul Bramwell, Jim Brown. Fourth row: Mr. Young, Larry Bingham, Peter Brown, Mr. Drury.

Round Table

Quill and Scroll

First row: Alvin Beardsley, Jack Francis, Corneil Dollarhide. Second row: Pat McFarland, Pat Holliger, Helen Kessel, Betty Lucas, Eileen Sears, Marian Danska, Eileen Eddy. Third row: Charlotte Duncan, Lilly Blickle, Carolee Long, Floy McKee, Elizabeth Moore, Lorraine Isaacson, Mary Lee Sullivan, Beverley Fetsch, Barbara Price.

Quill & Scroll is the old standby, for without it we wouldn't have an annual as the members work on the Blue & White and the 'Gat' staff. Seriously, this journalistic club, sponsored by Mr. Adamson, encourages students to take a keener interest in this subject.

One of the newly formed clubs, under the direction of Miss Brown, is a Catholic organization, the Newman. It has given two dances this year — "Twenty-nine Palms" and "It's Gold". Other activities include their annual snow trip to Tahoe — where they were treated like kings.

First row: Pat Brazeau, Judy Dickinson, Pat Holliger, Sally Revillar, Ronnie Peccherino, Albert Rizzo, Lucille Cardona, Jeanette Ossot, Virginia Mercellin. Second row: Eloise Busalacchi, Evelyn Busalacchi, Betty Bellocchio, Jim Mathews, John Cima, Nettie Ramsey, Barbara Galiotto, Rose Passadore, May Passadore, Elaine Marino, Jean Hong, Concetta Balot. Third row: Miss Brown, Geraldine Gall, Barbara Ratto, Jean Work, Earline F'leharty, Ronald Makelke, Dixeen Philips, Victor Moore, Barbara Constantine, Gail Housman, Jackie Ramsey, Marilyn Fields, Joe Escotto, Bonnie Bentz, Norma Busalacchi, Yolanda Valdez, Douglas Hanson, Elizabeth Olivares, Alice Lacey, Anne Rose Fornaciari, Frances Maragliano, Leo Browne, Bob Olcomendy, Pat Val. Fourth row: Ray Olivares, Joe Boggs, Carrol Scott, Joe Hong, Andy Madrid, Alma Giusto, Betty Robustelli, Dan Castleline, Alfred Muller, John Prato, Aldo Rossi, Tom Lacey.

Newman Club

Girls' League

Joanne Tucker, Janice Hammond, Charlotte Duncan, Beverley Fetsch.

This year the Girls' League, to which all girls at S.H.S. belong, decorated the Christmas tree in the main hall, sent candy to former S.H.S. pupils at Bret Hart, gave the "Girls' Jinx", and had several booths at the Fun Fest. These ambitious girls are sponsored by Mrs. May.

Les Chantiers, made up of advanced French students under the direction of Miss Lukes, sent packages to France and also sent Care Packages. During the meetings members learn more about the cultural life of France.

Les Chantier

First row: Patricia Plummer, Carleene Schultz, Billie Ralston, Lee Fletcher, Marilyn Tough, Shirley Wright. Second row: Pat Hardesty, Virginia Quesenberry, Dorothy Daykin, Carol Faight, Lorraine Isaacson, Dorothy Littleton, Marilyn Gilgert. Third row: Victor Moore, Joe Fuentes, Carole Cloudsley, Diane Foulkes, Raymond Louie, Byron Abrew, Barbara Price.

Jr. Red Cross

First row: Gloria Lewis, Joanne Peterson. Second row: Albert Muller, Doug Taylor, Harry Bingham.

The Junior Red Cross, sponsored by Miss McInnes, has done much good for needy people. Garden seeds and clothes, made by the sewing classes, were sent to Europe. They also sponsored the movies at the Fun Fest.

Miss Selna's Spanish Club has been extremely busy giving Christmas plays, marching in the Freedom Train Parade, and having numerous Parties.

First row: Anita Montanez, Lucille Cardona, Marilyn Britton, Anne Waite, Ruth Martin, June Payne, Doreen Ponton, Dot Moore, Cordelia Sanchez, Ruth Jobe, Valeria Ferrero, Yolanda Valdez, Betty Lou Eby. Second row: Donna Ellis, Shyrl Feaver, Kenneth Beebe, Kay Poor, Arlene Morgan, Dolores Peirano, Marlene Vollbrecht, Beverley Roessler, Helen McLeod, Geraldine Gall, Elizabeth Moore, Ulanell Jewett. Third row: Roy Jackson, Bob Eisten, Alvin Beardsley, Richard Lowe, Jim Mathews, Joe Escotto, Valeda Foster, Ed Merlo, Dawn Schmidt, Dennis Holdren, Nancy Potter, Miss Selna, Dolores Estrada, Irene Storer, Lanora Dunlap, Joe DeLucchi, Claire Wright, Keith Estes, Connie Patterson, Verlyne Daniels, Gladys Janeway, Lorretta King.

Spanish

Italian Club

First row: Betty Canessa, Rosalie Settlemoir, Mary Lou Celsi, Rose Marie Cuchine, Mabel Fugua, Carolyn Coldani. Second row: Elsie Bertaina, Marjorie Torre, Ethel Perachino, Nadelyn Dremalas, Aline Croce, Lorraine Pimentel, Louise Gardner, Marguerite Pilati, Betty Devlin. Third row: Jackie Barbieri, Victor Leonardini, Dan Casteline, Elrene Molinari, Joe Delucchi, Eugene Garibaldi.

In the Italian Club, parties were given several times this year for the enjoyment of the members. Their activities consisted in marching in the Freedom Train Parade and giving canned milk to the Friendship Train. The sponsor is Mr. Turkatte.

Mrs. Anderson's Spanish Club is made up of her different Spanish classes and is just getting started. The meetings are conducted in each separate class.

First row: Barbara Curnow, Dorothy Eggiman, Sally Sparks, Barbara Gale, Pat Craig, Nancy Hoyt, Elda Brecht, Pat Cochran. Second row: Arla Mae Nagel, Claire Holmes, Thelma Martin, Marilyn Neeley, Beth Barrows, Carol Collins, Diana Dawson. Third row: Barbara Liversedge, Roberta Gerloff, Teddy Bingham, Hal Caton, Lester Spring, Mrs. Anderson, Ruth Ann Russell, Anne Uebele, Mary Ann Blair, Marian Hoskins, Marilyn Clarke.

Clubs

German Club

First row: Virginia Myall, Nancy Matthews, Fredericia Grantzou, Eileen Sears, Betty Lucas, Floy McKee, Joanne Peterson, Lorraine Bertotti. Second row: Cornell Dollarhide, Pat Payne, Louella Horst, Marjorie Gelmstedt, Lilly Blickle, Nancy Lee Denton, George Fletcher.

The German Club, which is composed of Miss DeRuchie's German classes, sent many packages over to Germany and made Christmas cards for the sick.

First row: Dolores Estrada, Daryl Gray, Donna Britton, Beverley Fetsch, Annie Pearl Williams. Second row: Ruth Ann Russel, Eleanor Pratt, Wanda Schlicking, Helen Shaeffer, Mary Johnson, Ima Jean McCown, Mrs. May, Helen Keppel, Audrey Higday.

Old English "S"

Old English "S" is a service group in which girls with at least a B average in gym are eligible. They help Miss McInnes at graduation time by measuring and tagging gowns. Also at this time, they give a breakfast for their graduating members. The sponsor is Mrs. May.

Key Club

The Key Club, which is sponsored by Kiwanis, is a service organization. Members are chosen for their scholastic work and leadership. These boys have given several closed dances. This organization is advised by Mr. Wentz.

First row: Albert Jeung, James Darrah, Alvin Beardsley, Larry Bingham. Second row: Mr. Wentz, Harold Caton, Rickie Scott, John Cima, Paul Bramwell, Roy Patterson, Alan Croft.

First row: De Lorice Drendel, Carmen Hillburg, Marlene Fetzer, Gwen Robertson, Marjorie Gelmstedt, Ann Uebele. Second row: David Ziegler, Ralph Tadlock, Jerry Olson, Gerald Menford, James Barnett, Nick Moecher, Jerry Moore. Third row: Art Ballinger, Noel Berry, David Kass, Chester Wright, John Roses, Mr. Spafford.

Audio Visual

Members of the Audio Visual take an interest in the different equipment pertaining to radio and movie projects. There is always one member in S 12 to help the teacher. Movies are shown during lunch time. Advisor is Mr. Spafford.

Kennel Club

Members of the Kennel Club learn all the fine points of dog raising from kennel owners. This includes training, feeding, and caring for animals. In May the members gave a dog show which was a great success.

Richard Golding, Pat DeKas, Mr. Lewis, Jackie Nichols, Buddy Allen

Radio Club

Learning about and making radio receivers interest the members of the Amateur Radio Club. Members have enjoyed a dinner and a trip through KGDM radio station. This group is advised by Mr. Rundle.

First row: Judy Davis, Lillian Hewitt, Gwen Robertson, Clarence Nevis. Second row: Visitor, George Avery, Nick Kaps, Visitor, Mr. Rundle, Gilbert Brink.

First row: Norene Netz, Eslun Chin. Second row: Alice Puag Martha Chin, Clara Baird.

Les Poussins

Les Poussins means the chicks, since the members are Miss Lukes' beginning French students. The meetings are held once a month during class time. Pupils learn more about French culture such as art and music.

Su Kahn girls again this year decorated the goal posts at the home football games, and added to their job the decorating of home basketball games. This club is sponsored by Miss Sheltman.

First row: Joan von Berg, Elizabeth Moore, Betty Waldo, Roberta Welton, Anne Waite.
 Second row: Kathryn Corrough, Anne Corrough, Carolee Long, Marian Danska, Betty Devlin.

Su Kahn

Art Club

First row: Ken Shimasaki, Janet Feldman, Yvonne Emerson, Barbara Clegg, Dolores Black, Carole Love, Barbara Massey, Don Dragoo. Second row: Ronald Pecchenino, Joe Hong, Jeannette Banks, Mary Lou Kertson, Carol Smith, Carleen Schweitzer, Manuel Rose, Violet Pound, Carolyn Troy. Third row: June Pyne, Cecilia Sanchez, Diane Foulkes, Judy Daris, Janet Bevenley, Les Hart.

The Art Club has been kept in a whirl of activity by the ever demanding events. This is a school service club which does most of the posters for rallies. Along with work, the members enjoy social events. This club is under the direction of Miss Hoenish.

Members of the newly formed Ski Club have enjoyed ski trips, ski movies, and speakers who explain equipment and matters pertaining to this subject. Sponsor is Mrs. Wilkins.

First row: Lorraine Isaacson, Donna Bramwell, Scoop Tyler, Chuck Sikora. Second row: Mary Lou Hunt, "Twitter" Baysinger, Mildred Harper, Jean Work, Marilyn Gilgert, Chick Sayles, Bud Sweet, George Gilgert, Richard Goodman.

Ski Club

Chinese Club

First row: Anne Toy, Mary Hong, June Wong. Second row: Pat Wong, Myra Lan, Ailee Lee, Helen Louie.

At the meetings of the Chinese Club, members planned the International Dance held in April. Their special project was learning various Latin dance steps. Advisor is Miss West.

Acmy

Acmy Hi-Y has been busy sending packages overseas, going on snow trips, marching in the Freedom Train Parade, and giving a dance.

First row: Sam Dietrich, Bill Dutart, Albert Globus, Buel Cash. Second row: Bob Trotter, Jim Bonnar, Bob De Ment, Bill Lucas.

Arriba

Members of Arriba Tri-Y are entertained at their meetings by guest speakers. Also, the girls have given money to the World Youth Fund by having a cookie and candy sale.

First row: Eloise Daniels, Ardyth Davis, Marilyn Clarke, Donna Ellis, Jeanne Hicethorne. Second row: Dorothy Bonnifield, Dolores Stevens, Noreen George, Betty June Richichi, Jean Cruse, Sally Lyons, Erma Wilson.

Barracuda

This year the activities of Barracuda Hi-Y have been very interesting. First a business meeting is held one week, then movies are shown them, and then the next week a party is held. During the meetings, they listen to guest speakers.

First row: Bob McCollum, John Bahnsen, Ted Kuchenriter. Second row: Ken Boone, Ted Jordan, Don Bradfield, Jim Kenhore.

Avante

Membership drives, candy sales, suppers, contributing to the World Youth Fund, and playing basketball and volley ball has kept the girls of Avante busy. This year they won the basketball championship with outstanding players.

First row: Diane Korbholz, Miriam Sage, Mary Ann Blair, Janice Nicholson, Carol Tingley, Elaine Rose, Sue Guernsey. Second row: Marge Lewallen, Barbara Jordan, Melissa Van Noate, Sally Sutton, Jackie Heryford, Nancy Levy, Betty Waldo. Third row: Mildred McKay, Mary Schuler, Sara Lee Ford, Donna Bramwell, Aurene Baysinger, Wanda Todresic, Joyce Dow, Sue Billups.

Dragonette

The girls of Dragonettes have had a social year. During this year they gave a picnic, a Christmas and a valentine dance, and a skating party.

First row: Dorothy Mar, Dorothy Louie, Mary Hong, Anne Toy, Betty Low. Second row: Georgette Lee, Pat Wong, Lily Lee, Helen Louie.

Chi-Y

Chi-Y has had many outside interests, namely a skating party, a carnival and an anniversary party this spring. They won the A division in the 'Y' basketball league.

Ted Lee, Charlie Chan, John Low

Tri-Ferese

An unusual thing about Ferese Tri-Y is that every member is an officer. This club is full of volleyball players. These girls are considered the most musical, having won the gaval for such at the Y's Amature Night.

First row: Arla Mae Nagle, Ruth Russell, Gerry Tholke, Donna Alberti. Second row: Josie Ducato, Joan Wolfe, Myra Lowe, Mary Bonzo.

Spartan

Spartan Hi-Y which is an Edison High club, won the Senior boy's Basketball League at the Y. They have also had a private dance and given to the World Youth Fund.

First row: Phil Silver, Roy Vaught, Virgil Kroll, Kenneth Gorley, Jack Johnson, Fred Freeo. Second row: Joe Gallegas, Ed Miramontes, Billy Owen, Joe Walker, Olin Jones.

Rambler

Members of Rambler Hi-Y had the privilege of going on a tour through radio station KXOB. Among the various entertainment at their meetings, they enjoyed listening to guest speakers. Also, a few meetings were held jointly with Tri-Avante.

First row: Francis Gum, Peter Brown, Van Sweet. Second row: Jim Brown, Dick Newell, T. S. Barton.

Creama

Janie Guntrup, Juanita Nettles, and Daryl Gray, members of Tri-Creama, were chosen from their club to speak over the "Put and Take" radio show. The members held a formal dinner at Sandal's for the purpose of initiating.

First row: Judy Zent, Enid Kilburn, Nadine Lasley, Jean McCowen, Leslie Thayer, Marilyn Tough, Jean Roberts. Second row: Joyce Ehlers, Grace Aboud, Barbara Stockdale, Donna Odell. Third row: Anna Rose Fornaciara, Joyce Nostrand, Junetta Buchholz, Nadine Close, Joanne Peterson, Juanita Nettles, Mickey Lisher, Dorothy Littleton, La Retta Wood.

Nema

A new and promising Y club is Tri-Nema. Considering that this club was formed last March, the girls have been quite active. They have given a few dances and worked on the paper drive. These girls are entertained by guest speakers at their meetings.

First row: Lorraine Phillips, Doyce Mason, Donna Retz, Jean McConnell. Second row: Glenna Hays, Datha North, Marian Hamilton, Rita Raley. Third row: Theda Cutts, Joyce Hirshfield, Marilyn Ringel, Edna Reed.

Lower left hand corner: Section of Student Freedom Train Parade showing language students in native dress depicting freedom of speech. Lower right hand side: Old English "S" girls enjoying a breakfast in the Bungalow.

Orreen

The girls of Orreen gave an installation dinner at Lucas' for incoming officers and had a closed hayride, Chinese feed, closed dance, and a slumber party.

First row: Dolores Fetsch, Barbara Price, Beverley Fetsch. Second row: Marian Hoskins, Eileen Eddy, Shirley Flaningam.

Twin Lions

During the meetings of Twin Lions Hi-Y, a series of panel discussions were given. Two or three members would give a report on the topic of the week. These boys have taken an active part in basketball. A party for the Youth Council was given by them.

Tung Mah, Gilbert Lan, Richard Lowe, Wilson Young

Verite

The Y girls of Verite gave a party for the Mexican children at Christmas and helped raise money to send children to Y camps by running a projector at the "Camp Carnival." They also had a booth at the Fun Fest.

First row: Floy McKee, Betty June Spears, Patsy Armistead, Lynn Crawford, Lilly Blickle. Second row: Selma McKee, Nancy Denton, Eloise Jones, Alma Jean Smith, Verna Gianunzio, Dana Crawford, Charlotte Duncan. Third row: Donna Britton, Virginia Duncan, Barbara Duncan, Dorothy Dollarhide, Barbara Dix, Miss Dunne, Marilynn Britton.

Lower left hand picture: Gordon Fergusson, Rolland Dixon, Betty June Spears, members of German Club, are shown wrapping parcels for overseas. Lower right hand picture: Guard & Tackle and Blue & White staff members lead the section devoted to Freedom of the Press in the Freedom Train Parade.

