Mr. Cave, Dean of Boys

J. C. Cave

- For tolerance, fellowship, profound understanding of student problems, sincerity, and a splendid ability to meet his fellow man on equal footing, regardless of his station in life, we, the students of Stockton High School, gratefully dedicate the 1950 Memories to Mr. J. C. Cave, Dean of Boys, in appreciation of the efforts which he has put forth in order to make this school a better one.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Young, Principal

To the High 10 Graduates go our congratulations and best wishes for future success. These students of Stockton High School have added their mark to the long line of those who have previously upheld a high tradition in student life and educational endeavor. As they leave for further education and then to make their contribution to our American society, we know that memories of Stockton High School days will be one of their prized possessions.

WESLEY C. YOUNG, Principal.
