

Things That Aren't Written In Your Diploma

LIFE is a glorious Future—on Commencement Day. From school or college young men and women come forth equipped through education to take up their chosen work—to win from the world the comforts, happiness, success it offers.

Your diploma, though, does not record the responsibilities, the obligations that are yours. The duties of doing worthwhile work, of "making good" in the field you enter, of setting an example for younger folks to follow—these are implied on Commencement Day.

No matter what line of endeavor you select you'll find a banking connection helpful. Here, too, you'll find a friendly helpfulness and the experience that can be a valuable guide in handling money.

What will you do now?

Have you thought of what you are going to do?

Upon this foundation you must build a technical knowledge for doing some particular thing that the world wants done.

All the professions, all the vocations, all the fields of opportunity demand the services of those trained in modern business methods.

BUSINESS Now, Is One of the Great Professions. No longer can one hope to reach even a mediocre degree of success without a business training.

The Morgans, the Rockefellers, the Fords, the Edisons, the men and women wielding the greatest influence of today are those who control the business of the world.

A Thorough Business Training is Yours in One Short Year.

MR. GAYLORD

Oh, Mr. Gaylord, we sing-a-ling-a-ling
With all our hearts to you;
We hope there'll be some thing-a-ling-a-ling
That we can do for you.
In autumn, winter, spring-a-ling-a-ling
And all the whole year through,
We'll sing-a-ling-a-ling,
And ting-a-ling-a-ling,
And sing-a-ling-a-ling,
VAN YOU.

GEE! SHE'S A WONDERFUL TEAM!

We've got the finest team in the land, Hurray! Hurray!
We'll back them up with a loyal band, Hurray! Hurray!
To St. Helena we lift the cup,
And the student body will back her up,
For St. Helena, gee! she's a wonderful team!

We've got the greatest coach on earth; we have, you bet
He's more than a billion dollars worth, and don't forget
O'Brien surely does know his stuff,
His team's all there, but they're not too rough.
H. E. O'BRIEN, gee! he's a wonderful coach!

We've got the finest principal in all the West;
Let's give three cheers, and shout his praise with all the rest.

Then here's to Gaylord, O'Brien, our boys;
Let's whoop it up with a terrible noise,
For St. Helena, gee! she's a wonderful school!

WHEN THE FLAG GOES BY

Does your heart beat faster ⁱⁿ your eyes grow dim,
When the flag goes by?
Is there something--just the sight of it--that rouses
all your vim,

When the flag goes by?
All its colors are so clear,
All it stands for is so dear,
Don't you want to shout and cheer
When the flag goes by?

CHORUS: When the flag goes by,
When the flag goes by,
Is there something, just the sight of it,
That rouses all your vim,
When the flag goes by?
All its colors are so clear,
All it stands for is so dear,
Don't you want to shout and cheer,
When the flag goes by?

Rouse then, comrades, ev'ry-where, and let each one do his part,

When the flag goes by;
With a wisdom born of courage and a truly loyal heart,
When the flag goes by;

Not for dollars, self or gain; nor for mean ends to attain,

But ideals to retain,
When the flag goes by.
