

FEATURES

Dear Ollie:
Hi Honey, I sure will miss you next year
(I always will) think you still have gotten "Queen". But you should be my little Queen. Hers is the sweetest, cutest & nicest little bird I ever knew.
As "Fritzie"

Dear Ollie
It's been pretty well known you in the past few years. But I don't know about the next few years
I might not be seeing you very often but you're still pretty good and all that. I'll be glad to see you when you're good looking
So, bye Walter

Having fun is the favorite pastime of this pony and monkey.
That's why they're so well qualified to introduce to you the features.

DRAWING BY JEAN BUCKLEY

Left to Right:

1. Monotonous, isn't it?
2. Grin! Grin! (Freshmen!)
3. Hardwood (The floor)
4. Si! Si! (We're lookin'!)
5. And a huge crowd followed the team—
6. Remember when you were a Freshman!!!
7. Oh well! I wanted a bath anyway!!
8. Bill "La Scrooge" White.

KIDDO

CIRCUS IS HERE

THE BIG SHOW
ONLY-10¢

Top Billings of "41" and "42"

SEPT. 4—Curtain! Lights! Action!

All the season's performers are billing their newest acts as the first curtain goes up on the fall semester. Monday is the premier performance of '41-'42.

SEPT. 8—"Waiting in the outer lobby, please." The show seems a gala affair (not unlike a Roman holiday) as the new actors learn their backstage rules. Boy, it's a swell troupe this year!

SEPT. 9—A-Good! Vacation! Maybe they're running the school on a "work a day, sleep a day" basis. (Yeah, maybe!)

SEPT. 12—"Ah hah! me proud beauty, come here!" Relax, folks, merely the freshmen initiation which gives the Frosh an idea as to the warmth of our welcome, and the color of our lipstick (those "keeds" are O.K.)

SEPT. 17—It is rumored that "Pop" Snyder is teaching Chem. a new way. Do you suppose he's stopped telling stories? Maybe the odors won't be so bad now. (Chuckle.)

SEPT. 19—Congratulations, Stu! You kept the "gang" in hand like a trooper at the first Student Body assembly.

SEPT. 23—Parden me, sugar, but may I see your teeth? (At least we hear that's part of an Eskimo courtship.) I wonder what my girl would do if I asked her that (as if I didn't know!) Oh well—who looks at bicuspidis anyway?

SEPT. 26—Anyway the "Froshes" were good sports!

SEPT. 27—Shhhhhh—(small item, please) Lost—first football game to Nevada City—Shhhhhhhh!

OCT. 2—Spartan and Folsom annual staffs held a "session" here today. What a magnificent exchange of do-nuts and well-worn ideas!

OCT. 10—Super night game with Placer. Wonder "What Makes Sammy Run"?

OCT. 13—Not that I'm superstitious or anything but Deficiency Slips plus Friday the 13th! Hmmm. Oh well, I was going to join the Foreign Legion anyway.

OCT. 17—6-6 first league football score, with Elk Grove, and what fifth columnist said "Fergie" couldn't carry the Mail?

OCT. 21—Talented youth. (Youth displayed its talent here today at National assembly. The music charmed the audience and the sax player charmed the "fems".)

OCT. 23—Six-man football game with Folsom. (Who said game? That was a massacre for us.)

OCT. 24—Please observe smug expressions worn by S. J. coeds after financially successful student body program—Congratulations to you also, Bill—"Elmer" laid them in the aisles!

OCT. 25—Sonnets and odes to our conquering Spartans. We've torpedoed Galt 6-0. Now look who's laughing.

OCT. 27—Deans' meeting. Gee, maybe I shouldn't have rubbed limburger on the heaters.

OCT. 29—Clubs—Clubs—Many clubs. Set your heart on an ace, discover the dues, and feel like the deuce.

NOV. 7—Grab a senorita, fellows, and let's polish hardwood. Good neighbors, good music, good time—the Hop was O.K., Sophs!

NOV. 10—A bowl of Wheaties for breakfast, a Camel after games, an Alka Seltzer before meals, and the Spartan "D" basketball team won the league championship. Someone congratulate the little boys.

NOV. 12—Report cards and attempted suicides were the news today. Well, it's embarrassing, but I'm glad it is over!

NOV. 13—Lost, strayed, or stolen—one chalk-artist. Name: Bob Wood—Finder, please contact W. T. Mooney at S. J. H. S. (The "13th" jinx again.)

NOV. 14—You can take your hair up again, "Hogie." The band was, classically speaking, "in the groove," at the first fall music festival.

NOV. 14—Smile, please (no, no—maybe you'd better not) then relax (heavens, man, haven't you any joints?) Don't glare! (Even if I am.) Oh the joy of taking Annual pictures!

NOV. 17—Pooooor tteachers—heh, heh, institute week.

NOV. 20—Sharpen the ax, mother, the turkey's looking the other way. (Thanksgiving, if you're in doubt.)

NOV. 26—Why are so many prominent (?) upper classmen meeting Jean and Nick at noon? Hmmm?

NOV. 27—Certain Republicans (that party of antique vintage) are A.W.O.L. today for turkey. (Also some Democrats.)

Top Billings of "41" and "42"

- NOV. 28—Hi Jinx time. All the dear men flock to their mothers' closets and you know why! Hula skirts, Indian feathers and wooden shoes (also a sarong), but "darn" the Jinx is a feminine "stag" party.
- DEC. 2—A Syrian youth told us about America—swell place!
- DEC. 5—Shake the moths from your coonskin, your pom-pom, and your blonde; and let's attend the first varsity basketball game of the season. This should be a really big year.
- DEC. 10—Oh goody! Another Annual staff "muddle." This time with Folsom and El Dorado at Folsom. Folsom has a very "attractive" staff (hasn't it, Ash?) P.S.—Teach us how to conga, Tom (we're jealous).
- DEC. 12—"To be, or not to be"—but the Junior Play was. Just a slight hint as to how women "Ever Since Eve" have been getting their man "Ever Since Adam" (right, Bill?).
- DEC. 19—Sorry, kids—blackouts come before dances—even the Junior Prom.
- DEC. 22—This isn't so bad, after all. Christmas vacation—two weeks!—so long, school, Howdy, Santa!!
- JAN. 5.—Up in the dawn to catch the 8:15. Back to school to the old routine—after two weeks "away from it all".
- JAN. 7—Boy! here's a priceless item! Vigilantes (Jake, Tom, Nick, Ash, Jack, Lee, Eddie, Don, Jim, and other equally public-spirited characters) have organized themselves to keep trouble, mind you, out of school! Need I say more?
- JAN. 9—Well, well, well! Worms do turn after all. Folsom beat us in basketball, for the first time in six years—wonderful world!
- JAN. 13—"M-m-my Frans—ahh, shucks!" Rousing campaign speeches were given by future leaders of S. J. H. S.—Some day I think I'll run for something (probably just run).
- JAN. 15—After-dinner speeches or tabletime lullabies were given by the aspiring Socrates of the Public Speaking class at their annual banquet—has anybody a bromo?
- JAN. 21—What's the eighth candle? What's a back drop? Who's Yehudi? Why do you want to be a Thespian anyway? Are you asking me or telling me? P.S.—Thespian initiation.
- JAN. 23—Yeah, Whee, Gleefulness, Pip! Pip! One semester, come, gone, and completed.
- JAN. 27—"La de da"—report cards today. Wait, what am I singing about (Hmmm, maybe Dad will think this 60 is the room temperature.)
- JAN. 30—1-2-(bang)-3—Oh, well, we'd have beat Folsom anyway at the Red Cross benefit game.
- FEB. 5—Folsom has a Thespian troupe and we had a super six hours in the little theater converting actors(?) into thespians (?) (Oh, Freddie, what happened to you when you went out to get that red-head? Are we kidding? P.S.—Good punch, too—hic.)
- FEB. 6—Whata' ya know! Missed it a mile! (Elk Grove speaking.) Nice game. Also nice score.
- FEB. 9—ZZZZZZZZZ Burrrrrr, Ping, Clank, Pip! Gee, Yawnnn, Gotta get up—yawnn, ZZZZZZZZ Yup! zzGet upp . . . ZZZZZ Flash . . . Daylight Saving time becomes national . . . Students are required to go to school one hour earlier!
- FEB. 13th—Honor Scholarship (don't all raise your hands at once) put on a quiet home wedding. The cake looked good! I wonder how it would feel to be a "super moron"?
- FEB. 16—Hay Pancho! De gracado! ay? You talking over me, Senior? Back to nature with Chico and his "Beastly" friends. (don't misinterpret me) Chuckle!
- FEB. 18—Ring-a-ding! Flash!—An unbelievable, unthinkable, unheard of, unimagined thing has been witnessed. Pop Snyder was caught, with his hair (singular) down, teaching Chemistry in Chemistry!?
- FEB. 20—Heard some rousing (meaning the audience did) speeches today, during the assembly for the public speaking contest! In case you hadn't heard (Don ran out of notices) a Mr. D. Bell (esq.) won!
- FEB. 26—IS that your face, or a retread? The B. S. J. "men" have developed a new innovation: Whisker-growing! Have you met Bob "Brigham Young" (Brigham old, just Brigham!) Findley? P.S.—Make 'em blonde!
- MAR. 7—Bang! The starting gun signals the opening of the Spartan track season. Whether it was a stray brunette who got lost on the track, or a carrot tied on their noses, our "men" smashed the meet by a wide margin. (Keep 'em runnin', guys.)

Top Billings of "41" and "42"

- MAR. 13—Ladies and Gents—Right this way, for the most colossal, stupendous, remarkable, daring, extravaganza in the history of our grand old Alma Mater! For a mere five cents, the fifth part of a quarter, which is the fourth part of a dollar, dance, laugh, stuff confetti down your date's neck (Tom!) and enjoy yourself in general!! We want more, Block men!
- MAR. 20—The future Warmerdams and Davis's of S. J. sloshed over Marysville, Roseville and Folsom in the season's second track meet. (Whee! Kid Haas won the 880!)
- MAR. 27—"Bon Voyage—Au revoir—Cheerio and so long, Coaches McArthur and Clover." Anyhow, our school's loss will be our Army and Navy's gain (as Miss Miner forces me to say as she twists my arm!).
- MAR. 30—"Quoth he, with visage sad, yet shy, so the covote curled, with a shriek and died. Because the vintage is old, Schnauzer replied. Et tu, Brute? (P.S.—if you don't understand this, don't worry—we don't either.)
- MAR. 31—Report cards—AAAAAAhhhhhh!? ("See, Mommie, I dood it!")
- APRIL 7—Everybody came weaving out of the auditorium with the "one o'clock jump" still beating in their eardrums, and the memory of those Cal Polly musicians (ummmm!). Let's cut our curls and take up hog-culture, gals!
- APRIL 14—"Ahhh! Senorita—your eyes! They are like ze stars; your lips like ze red, red rose; and your legs—Ob Brother!" Yes, Spanish Club, we want more Pan-American days. (P.S.—Know any good neighbors with a hat?)
- APRIL 15—Camera! Lights! Action! (Hey, Rube, pull in your fangs!) Little Ol' Hollywood comes to San Juan like a tack to an inner tube, as we enjoyed our first Movie Day. Imagine it! Me an actor (I can't).
- APRIL 17—Cab, sir? Yes—a very fine program, sir! Excellent music—superb direction. Here we are, sir—San Juan auditorium. Curtain going up at 8:15 on the Annual Spring Band concert, Maddux Hogin directing.—Oh, thank you, sir . . . good night!
- APRIL 18—Bands, drum majorettes and excitement (drum majorettes) were thoroughly enjoyed by the Spartan track team at the Davis Picnic (lucky bums!). A certain Steve P. is seen sporting some very decorative medals.
- MAY 1—May Day—sweet music—tender flowers—birdies—girlies in straw hats—and Public School Night. Young Johnnie gets a chance to show fond parents what he's been doing in school this year (let's leave her out of this) and tremble to think of it. (Flash! Pop Snyder in market for ice-bag and shotgun.) P.S.—Cheap!
- MAY 2—Ai Yi—Wo-ahwalla woo-woo-woo-Gurtrude! (Indian calling his mate.) Fierce young redskins (up to their shorts) were discovered sneaking madly about at the girls' Play Day this Saturday. (Think I'll buy myself a blanket and sit in on the fun.)
- MAY 4—I stole a furtive glance behind me, and crouching against the wall, inched tortuously down the long dark hall. Suddenly Mr. Mooney appeared around a curve in the passage (he'd been camouflaged) and I sank to my knees in fear—He'd caught me—this was the end! Then before my amazed eyes, he said, "I hope you have a fine time today. But most students do on Senior Cut day—Hurry now, or you'll miss Miss Davis." Clunk . . . I fainted!
- MAY 8—Mothers' Tea—only we don't break the furniture (darn) only we don't have tea (priorities) so we just have mothers. (Pass the sugar, please—Oh, Gosh! No sugar either.)
- MAY 15—That Big Night—That night of nights arrives! Frothy sparkling formals, and sleek "zoot suits" are merged into a gala festivity of frivolity, food, and fun at the annual Junior-Senior banquet. (Congratulations, Queen!)
- MAY 22—With a dazed expression, a drooly new formal and the handsomest man on the campus, I went to the Senior Ball tonight. So many formal affairs I'm beginning to feel like a "woman about town." (Boy! What a sensation!)
- MAY 24—The beginning of the end . . . Baccalaureate . . . Seems like yesterday that I wiped the lipstick off my nose, and asked where the office was. (I know now.) Sniff!
- MAY. 29—Graduation! . . . Flowers, sentimental greetings, and a faint air of nostalgic secrets over the campus. Wonder what the future contains? Anyhow, it's been swell, but now curtains on this act, and let's ring up the next. Bon voyage, Gang! So long, San Juan.

First Row, left to right: 1. Hello, Liz! 2. Oh, fellows, come now! 3. Hi, Kitten! Whats' (who's) knittin'?
Second Row: 1. Going anywhere?—heh, heh. 2. Mama!! 3. Close your big mouth, Bill! 4. A student—Wait! Where did be come from? Third Row: "Froshes" (but definitely). 2. Nothing like a good tree!
 3. Hummm—Not bad (What's held in hand, please?). Fourth Row: 1. Any resemblance to Napoleon is purely coincidental! 2. Campus lovies (if you're blind). 3. Two Posers (no cracks).

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF ...

- Betty Perry read only 30 books a month?
- Miss Porter gave easy tests?
- Jackie McCowan refused a date?
- Donald Dickson was in good with Mr. Mooney?
- Miss Spiers stopped giving homework?
- Bill Motmans disliked the fairer sex?
- Marcheta Farrell didn't gossip?

DIZZY DEFINITIONS

- Banana Peel: Food article that brings the weight down.
- Streamlined Car: When knocked down, you don't know whether you've just been run over or backed into.
- Diplomat: A man who can remember a woman's birthday but not her age.
- Tale: Biggest part of a fish.
- Sentence: Contain two parts—a subject and a predicament.
- Squawker: A baby Indian.
- Gravity: Is such that if there were none of it, we should float away.
- Man: Only animal that can be skinned more than once.
- Woman: Can't always add, but can always distract.
- Bolt: A thing that looks like a stick of hard metal, such as iron, with a square bunch on on one end and a lot of scratching wound around the other end.
- Nut: Similar to a bolt, only just the opposite, being a hole in a little chunk of iron sawed off short with wrinkles around the inside of the hole.

Appreciation

With a happy sigh, we, ye Editor, the Staff, and Miss Miner, bang down the cover on the GREENBACK NOTES of 1942 . . . Finished! Then somebody remembers the appreciation page, so we grab it again and proceed to render appreciations.

1. To us! Naturally we appreciate ourselves first, so let's all take a bow. (Only one, Lee!) Seriously, however, this year's staff has been "on the beam," without a "dead beat" among it; and Miss Miner, we think you've really been a "solid sender"!
2. To you, Pete, formerly known as Mr. Peterson of the Sacramento Bee Engraving Department, who laughed and went with us through those long dark months while GREENBACK NOTES was in the "embryo" stage, and nobody knew what would happen, and shuddered to think of it!
3. To Mr. Francis Knapp of Lederer, Street, and Zeus, who put our book to press in record time, despite war regulations and shortages. (It's nice to have somebody to blame isn't it?)
4. To the excellent photographs in this book and to the man who's responsible for them, Mr. Kee Coleman, who's as necessary to us as a topnotch riveter to Lockheed!
5. To Mr. Herbert Silvius of Silvius and Schoenbackler, who kept coming through with incomparable ideas, and whose anecdotes made the staff a bedlam of riotous laughter.
6. To Barnum and Bailey, for whether they realize it or not, that's where we got our inspirations.
7. To our "Squeegie" that won't squeegie. (Absolutely the only squeegie known carrying a union card.)
8. To those people who paid a nickel deposit on the book, told us to hold it for them at all costs, then transferred to Grant Union! (The dogs.)
9. To Carol, that unrelenting heroine who refused to divulge the identity of the outstanding athlete, as we tramped on her in a dark corner.
10. To the feminine members of the staff who use the Annual Room for a reconditioning parlor. (Muller)
11. To those gay, carefree staff members who bound in and out of classrooms disturbing lecturing faculty members, or who sprawl in the "quad" and emit "sundry" noises at the girls' gym class, we give special consideration. . . . (i.e. Alley-Don)
12. To everybody who turned in dollar ads, and then went about mumbling "I've been robbed" when they didn't get a free book.
13. To our advertisers who have made this book possible.
14. Lastly, to you, friend, for to read thus far, you must be our friend, as we sign off, write finis, and bid adieu to GREENBACK NOTES of 1942.

Signed,

BETTY JANSEN, Editor

STEVE PECK, Business Manager

Dear Allie
It has been fun knowing you as a friend for the short time I had. I hope this will go down for you as a friend.

Dear Allie
