

At Smith and Lang, Barbara Creecy and Marlene Bacon smilingly model the newest in spring cottons. Smith and Lang is another of Stockton's fine clothing centers.

Margaret Gerst and Nancy Buechner are convinced that helping a man shop is a woman's privilege. They are aiding Ray Stanley and Jack Richards to choose from Dunlap's wide selection of fine merchandise.

Some of the most beautiful and chic apparel in Stockton is to be found at the Peggy Irene Sportswear Shop at David Levinson. Nadine Lagoris and Pat Hunter try on the newest in spring sportswear.

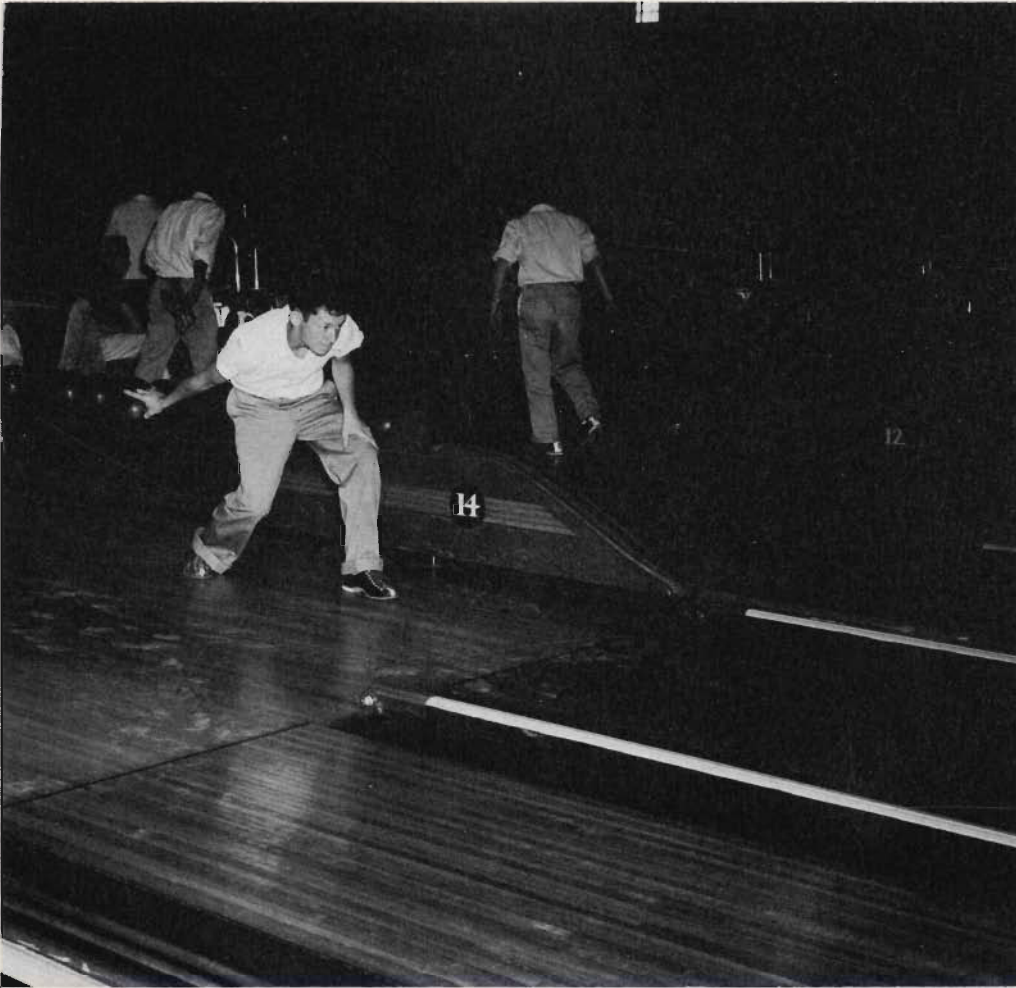

The courteous assistance given Mary Ann Irvine by Phil Hardyman is typical of the friendly atmosphere at the Freitas Music Company. Whether you are a bop or a classics fan, you are sure to find just what you want at Freitas.

Webb's Bakery and Delicatessen specializes in friendly service as well as in excellent baked goods. Wedding and birthday cakes are only two of the examples of their fine delicacies.

Stockton College men (and women, too) know that the Campus Barber Shop gives fast, expert hair cuts for students hurrying to that next class, as well as more leisurely hair cuts to those with more time. The friendly atmosphere makes every moment enjoyable.

A crowd of college students may nearly always be seen enjoying themselves at the El Dorado Bowl, "Stockton's newest recreation center."

For the latest in magazines, newspapers, or novelties, visit the Pacific News Stand on the Avenue.

The Miracle Drive-In is one of the favorite spots of college students, both afternoon and evening. The Miracle's fast service and attractive car hops bring customers back again and again.

Genial Dean DeCarli exhibits the strength he acquired from drinking delicious milk from the Happyholme Dairy. Happyholme milk is high in both taste quality and nutrition.

At Threlfalls, Frank Harvey and Bob Morrison exhibit the neat, clean-cut clothes which give every man a well-groomed look.

Dear Claire
Never forget the happy and interesting hours spent in the Collegian office.
Marilyn Hirsch

Marilyn Hirsch and Meta Chappuis are browsing through new magazines at the Harding Way News Stand --- one of the centers in Stockton for the latest in magazines, papers and miscellaneous articles.

For the finest quality in printing, visit the MILLS PRESS for your dance bids, programs or pamphlets. An example of their careful and conscientious work is this year's El Recuerdo, lithographed by Stockton's most modern and up-to-date printing plant.

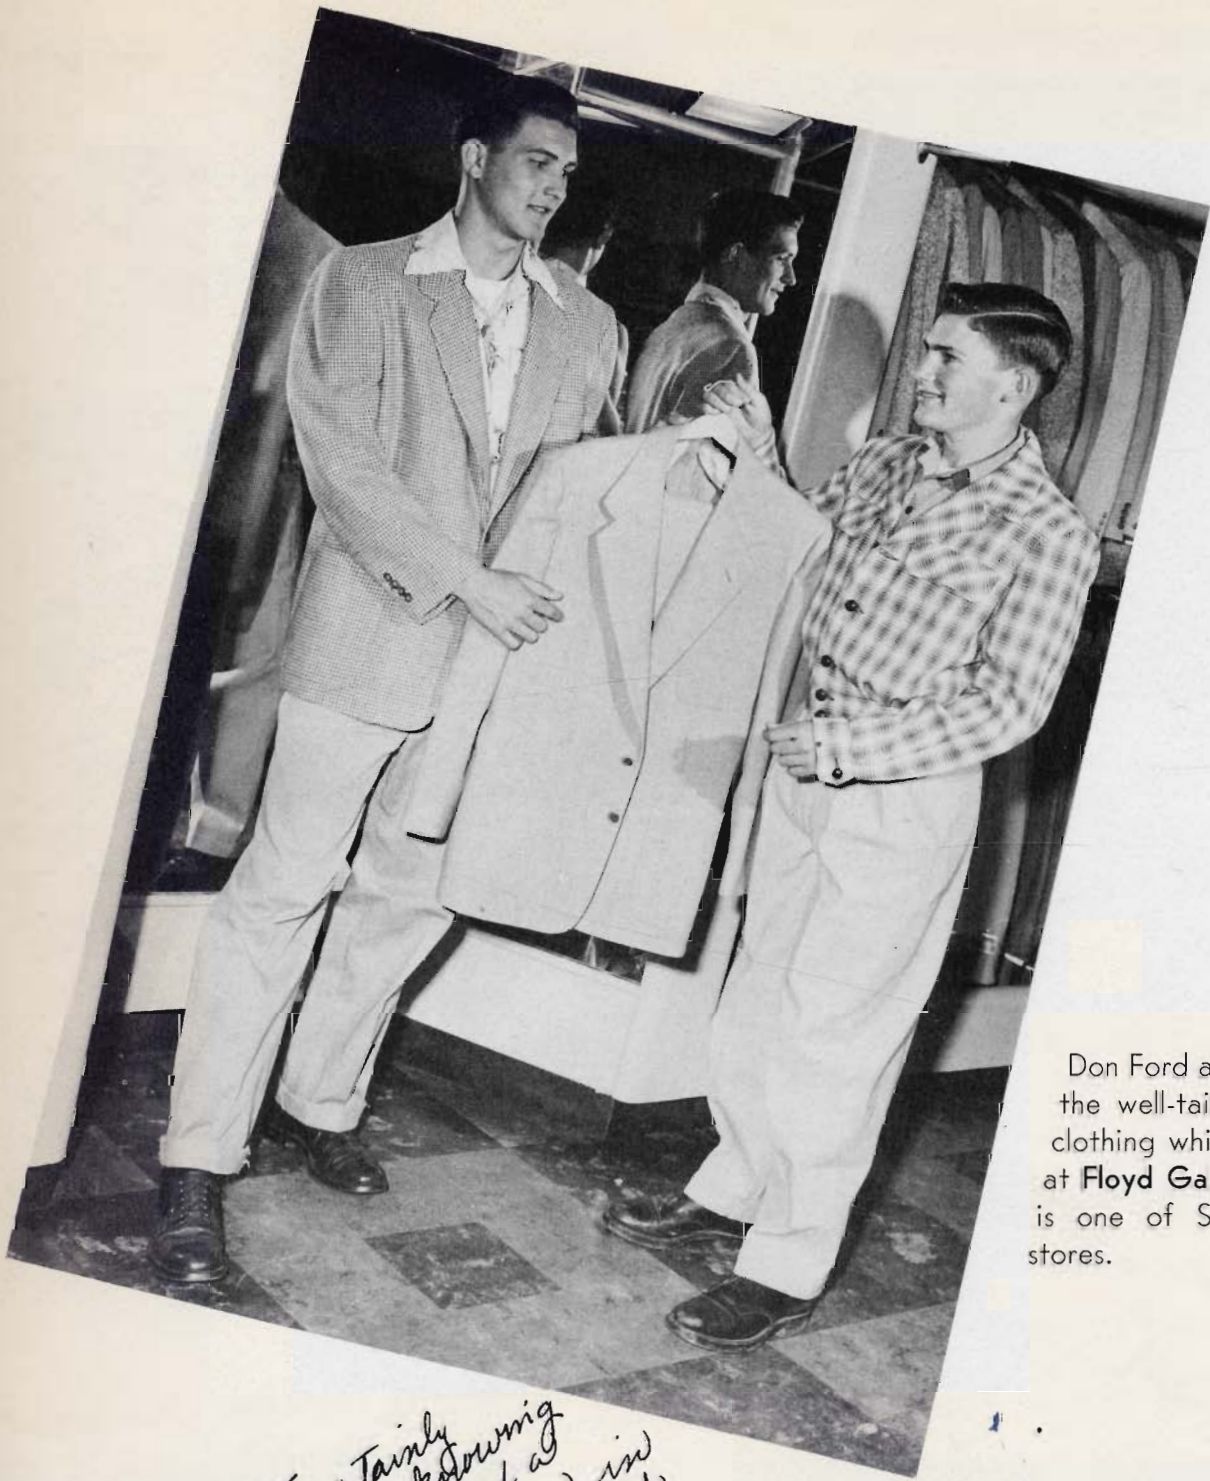

Joel Evans and Harry Cobb admire the fine selection of cameras at Reiman's Camera Shop. Reiman's carry a complete line of the best photographic equipment.

The End Zone is a favorite spot of the college crowd for lunch or for coffee between classes. Thor and his attractive wife are always ready to help you.

Many college students enjoy themselves at lunchtime and other times at Kern's Burger Junction. The mouth-watering food and smiling service are a custom at Kern's.

Don Ford and Dwight Doerr model the well-tailored and comfortable clothing which is always on display at Floyd Gall and Sons. Floyd Gall is one of Stockton's finest men's stores.
