

Dick's Drive-In

After the dance or show it's Dick's Drive-In for a snack or meal that's tops. You'll always find good food and friendly service when you drive in.

End Zone

Between classes on the campus it's an easy place to stop and eat or chat with friends. You can go far and never find better -- that's what all your student friends say about the End Zone.

Bob's Barber Shop

Bob Korinke knows that on the Miracle Mile Bob's Barber Shop has a reputation for tonsorial work that is bound to please.

S. H. Kress & Co.

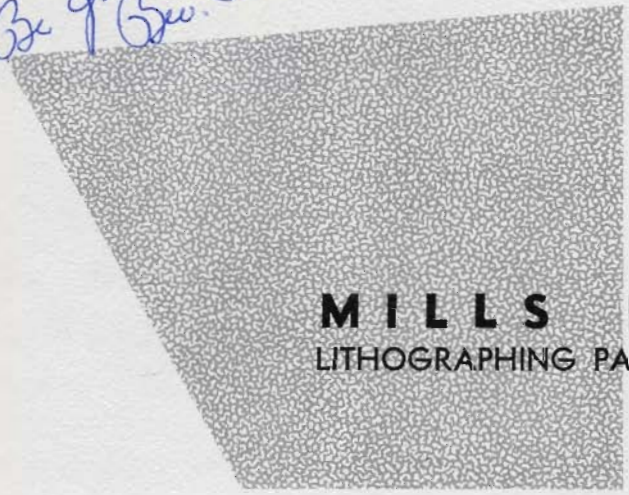

Variety items of all sorts are to be found on the well-stocked shelves of S. H. Kress and Company, located on Main Street.

Newby's Drive Inn

For many years students have always found the "Welcome Mat" out for them at the ever-popular Newby's Drive Inn. Delicious hamburgers a specialty.

Faculty Assembly

Faculty members let their hair down to give a large student audience their impression of Stockton College as a well-coordinated and highly educational institution of superior learning. "President" Arch Brown bewilders a prospective student with a tour around the campus.

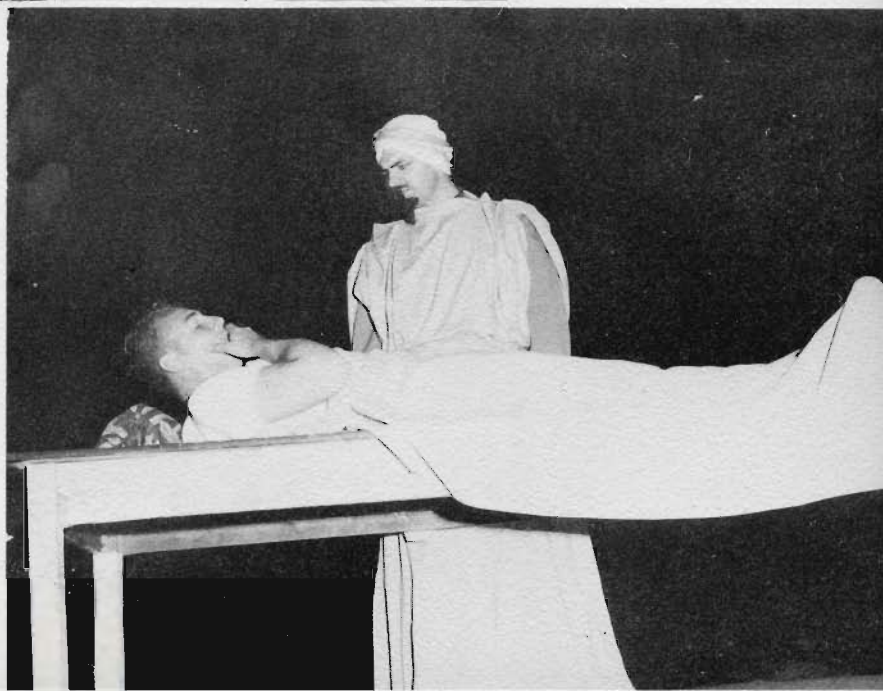

"Zoot" DeMange has impressed Agnes Boberg but he seems to have made no impression whatever on "Curly" Akeson

"Drummer-Boy" Bodley takes a solo on the skins while "Hot-licks" Butters rests at the ivories

Using mental processes alone, "Svengali" Popovich figures out a program for "student" Klapstein

From here it looks like a jam session that took about 20 years to jell!

Is that a look of surprise, pain, or regret, Mr. Clancy?

"Cats" Hoenisch and Bortolazzo live it up a little

Mr. Akeson seems to be asking "Space-pilot" Duke, "Do you understand all you know about this dangerous machine?"

Just a luck claim to a really sweet girl. I consider you one of my closest friends in the whole school. I probably won't be back meet you ~~but~~ so I won't see you much anymore. Well, good luck to a wonderful, very cute & nice girl.

To capture faithfully all the many things this year has meant . . .

- the spirit of friendliness---
- the strength of loyalties---
- the taste of school spirit---
- the joy of achievement---
- the warmth of encouraging words---
- the music of laughter and shouting rooters . . .

you very good friend

 towards a sky that seems to meekly bear me understand the silent growing challenge a think of beauty in a black and ugly world--- a living thing worth knowing--- there is nothing so lovely as a tree and you

K.C. No.

To a good girl who has done alot for the school. Here's hoping you have alot of happiness for really several years. Nothing but the best.
Janet Rose

Best of luck
Herman Daniels

It pains me that I was unable to seduce you into the classroom to seduce you. Kidding aside, it's been a fine honor to know you, with your charm and striking personality.
Best of luck to you always -
