The Fun Fest

Royal honors adorn king Norm Shumway and queen Claire Herring as they pose together after the coronation. The royal couple was selected from among 32 candidates. After waiting in suspense, the winners were announced at midnight by the Fun Fest chairman, Dave Wilson.

But it is gaiety that actually reigns as a few Fun Festees pause from their strenuous celebrations for refreshments at the sidewalk cafe.

Only one thin dime,
the tenth part of a dollar!
Take a chance! ---
everybody wins!
--- maybe.

Transformed to a Paris street scene, the barn is all dressed up for the Fun Fest. The splendor of the mural was only temporary though, when after only one day an unpredicted downpour drenched what reflected hours of painstaking work. The artists were Barbara Reyburn, Garrett Kinser, and Forest Harrison.

This year's Fun Fest, with a "Gay Paree" theme, attracted a crowd of 2,500 people and caught Stockton College in a whirl of festive gaiety, capturing the lighthearted spirits of the whole student body.
