Women's Sports Association

The Women's Sports Association of Stockton College is an organized girls' club which promoted good sportsmanship, leadership, and friendship. Headed by President Diane Custer, the girls participated in eleven "sports days" at various high schools and junior colleges in Northern California. In the Spring, the two groups combined to become one.

Managers

Sports managers for W.S.A. were Mary Ellen Castillo, Lacy Dickerson, Sylvia Peirano, and Margaret Cheney. Not pictured was Florence Reed, hockey manager.
