

Los Iberos

Los Iberos, composed of students taking courses in Spanish, was primarily interested in encouraging the use of the language in everyday speech and extending Latin culture. A $50 scholarship was awarded by the club to a high school division student planning to go on in languages.

Front Row: L to R: Chauncey Kepford, president; Antoinette Turner, vice-president; Gayle Goetz, secretary; Florence Yokoi, Margaret Difenderfer. Row 2: Catherine Crowell, Rena Bayer, Dorothy Delong, Shirley Homolka, Marilyn Martin, Deanna Horst, Brenda Harris, Jane Caldwell, Barbara Heston, Louise Williams, Cecile Cain. Row 3: Arleen Shillingburg, Joan Silver, Joyce Viviano, Yolanda Castellanos, Patricia MacPherson, Sandra Thornton, Annette Player, Judith Lieginger, Ellen Burkett, Franchelle Farrow, Irene Vallecillo, Neverra Lipelt. Row 4: Nan Phipps, Lola Latimer, Judy Gress, Sharon Bryer, Pat Adams, Bonnie Culhane, Ginger Kimball, Patricia Peterson, Irene Gardea, Hortenzia Moreno, Jane Semple. Row 5: Richard Santos, Arthur Money, Donald Kibby, Barbara Kay, Jane Layson, Frances Lamonica, Marcia Adams, Ann Davidson, June Mercado, Jean Fong, Irene Esguerra. Row 6: Danny Ciampaglia, Monte Davis, Henry Reed, Mike Hanlon, Michael Quinn, Toby Stephens, Richard Young, Robert Best, Walter Yourchek, Bob Uyesugi.

Adeline Selna
Los Iberos
Adviser

Alex Turkatte
Italian Adviser

Italian

Italian Club was made up of students in Italian classes and was primarily intended to promote the study of the language. Among activities of the organization for the year were the publishing of a newspaper and a program put on by the members for the Italian population of the city.

Front Row: L to R: Ruben Bacci, president; Beverly Tusso, vice-president; Rita Franco, secretary; Diane Gotelli, treasurer; Carol Lamonica, class chairman. Row 2: Robert Perry, Toni Bonfilio, Marilyn Benjamin, Gloria Chiti, Joanne Reilly, Gretchen Holt, Martha Tassano, Marcella Benavidez, Rosemary Nelson, Sandra Rodgers, Rita Giordano. Row 3: Mary Mouriski, Shirley Freeman, Jessie Robles, Angie Gemignani, Sharon Ludlow, Laverne Vierra, Catherine Lopez, Stella Batres, Gloria Sepulveda, Bertha Garbiso, Vicki Barosso, Michael Hubert. Row 4: LaDonna Knickerbocker, Rosalia DeGregory, Bonnie Lowes, Diane Devecchio, Marilyn Parenti, Betty DePaoli, Virginia Garbiso, Gloria Burrola, Kiyoe Abe, Barbara Giavdrone, Arlene Brownstein, Irene Martinez, Palma Polsinelli. Row 5: Gabriele Porro, Richard Rodgers, Phillip Nemea, Larry Martucci, Bill Mazzocco, Richard Martucci, Richard Santos, Bob Dal Porto, Melvin Cantaloupi, Richard Rishwain, Fred Harden, Frank Guidi.

French-German

French-German club was an organization dedicated to sponsoring goodwill abroad. All money raised by the group was used to send food and clothing packages to needy families in Europe. First prize was awarded to the group for donating the most food and money to the campus Christmas food drive.

Front Row: L to R: Mary Little, Evelyn Perl, Charles Johnson, Ronald Hildebrand, Bruce Bowman, Jim Finucane, Bruce Hyman, Gilbert Mata, Allan Brown, Edith Spafford, Laura Ott, Vanessa Kuhlmann, Michael Thomas, Rosalind Davis, Sharon King. Row 2: Nancy Cronkite, Deanna Crumb, Andrea Curtis, Carolee Webb, Dona Carlson, Sally May, Janet McGinley, Marcia Sider, Beverly Newton, Barbara Heikinen, Marilyn Stanley, Penny Pahl, Frances Garcia, Jane Semple, Mary Wallen. Row 3: Roy Hurlburt, Ronald Wong, Richard Laursen, Patricia Barry, Mabel Hamma, Lou Karim, Wendy Stahley, Eleanor Spencer, Wanda Reel, Carla Jones, Betty Ginbey, Rosalyn Scott, Sharon Olson, Deanna Rogers, Mary McCullough, Katherine Peck, Maryann Mangold. Row 4: Ley Campbell, Don McDonald, Carl Miller, Bill Hobin, Earl Moreno, Robert Beardslee, Gary Carver, John Morones, Miriam Evans, Sonia McKee, Penny Bloom, Karla Schmidt, Joyce Dorsey, Elaine Spangler, Ann Quinn, Chuckie Guerard, Martha Maybeck, Darlene Mills. Row 5: Dennis Lindholm, Karl Minke, Gary Bradley, Walter Bodley, Charles Kohler, Bev Dawson, Kenneth Steele, Richard Melmon, James Marquis, Jeri Henderson, Margo Coolures, Bev Roberts, Judy Booth, Ruth Bollinger, Mary Lou Willette, Pat Sloneker, Judy Martin. Row 6: Robin Neil, John Kawada, Robert Ochoa, Kenneth Bonnett, Frank Compo, Doug Wisler, Bandel Bezerides, William Mackey, Dennis Neu, Keith Sheldon, Eric Heim, Aubrey Moore, Robert Rhinefrank, Bob Gotelli, John Perl, Burke Ferrari, Clifford Harmon, Patrick Burns.

Ellen DeRuchie
French-German
Adviser

Maxim
Popovich
Scits
Adviser

Scits

Scits, Stockton College Intramural Theatrical Society, was organized as a watch organization with the primary function of acting as an adjutant to the drama department's work. Various members of the group were often called upon to help out on the productions put on by the drama classes.

Front Row: L to R: Barbara Alvarez, president; MaryAnn Garcia, secretary; Carl Alvarez, treasurer; Gregory Harris, sergeant-at-arms. Row 2: Eileen Schlepp, Ora Harmon, Pat Phelps, Alison Bruno, Bill Donahue. Row 3: Sue Ryan, Carolyn Brizendine, Darlene Gesswein, Ramona Padilla, William Nunery.

Guys & Dolls

Guys and Dolls was an organization devoted to the promotion of dancing and was made up of students who were interested in dancing. A masquerade and Christmas dance were two of the many dances sponsored by the group. An annual trip to Santa Cruz in the Spring highlighted their group functions.

Front Row: L to R: Robert O'Lear, president; Connie McGraw, secretary; Diana Lillie, treasurer; Gail Diven, sergeant-at-arms; Ronald Rhodes, sergeant-at-arms; Louise Williams, Lynn Willmette, Sylvia Bradbury, Carmen San Agustin, Kathy Matkin, Mary Lemon, William Buettner, Robert Harlan, Janice Pigozzi, Ora Harmon. Row 2: Jean Carlson, Vaness Kuhlmann, Pat Fuller, Judie Kenyon, Marilyn Stanley, Edith Thomas, Betty Lou McCann, Barbara Giardrone, Sharon Stewart, Jolene Calestini, Jane Caldwell, Janet Hartmann, Irene Hubl, Jan Schuh, Bill Rotert, Kathryn Wilson, Joan Malloy, Evelyn Perl. Row 3: Ramona Padilla, Judith Mierkey, Deanna Crumb, Pat Phelps, Bonnie Lowes, Deanna Rogers, Henry Osborne, Cecile Cain, Phyllis Coon, Margaret Difenderfer, Louise Glasscock, Beverly Rodgers, Betty Balkwill, Pat Adams, Geraldine Brown, Gwen Hintzen, Elvira Islas, Diane Hoskins. Row 4: Barbara Wilson, Lorene Pyeatt, Darlene Pyeatt, Dale Scott, Edith Beam, Genevieve Lawton, Pat Shum, Deann Brown, John Vincent, Larry Weigum, Darlene Mills, Myra Bono, Carlita Isaacs, Pat Cohen, Janice Bowman, Joyce Owens, Mary Fraga. Row 5: Harold Long, George Allison, Bobbie Weinstock, Mary Lou Graziani, Tom Miller, Thomas Klein, David Simpson, Bill Sword, Wanda Reel, Sally May, Jeri Henderson, Margo Coolures, Margot Lilly, Marilyn Coil, Yolanda Castellanos. Row 6: Al Francis, Ted Katzakian, Dennis Ahearn, Joanne Weaving, Betty Kiefer, Warren Kibby, Clifford Harmon, Burke Ferrari, Stephen Pereira, Ray Claveran, Frank Reynoso, Barbara Shellcross, Rod Vieira, James Billing, Harold Gianetti, Richard Franch, Grace Wilson, Lee Pope, Sammie Nevarez.

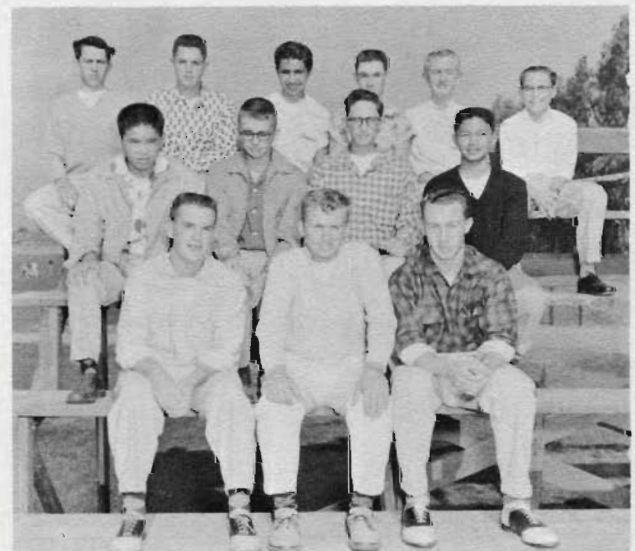

Donald Schaeffer
Guys and Dolls
Adviser

Leon Bush
Chess
Adviser

Chess

Chess club was an organization devoted to building up interest in the game, teaching interested persons how to play the game, and in general to enjoy the game. Competition within the group provided the stimulus for interesting meetings and chess matches during the year.

Front Row: L to R: Jim Finucane, president; Phillip Bingham, secretary; Leroy Johannaber, vice-president. Row 2: Kenji Yoshimura, David Wood, Chauncey Kepford, Benny Woo. Row 3: Bob George, Ramsay Cowlshaw, Robert Hoaglund, Kenneth Ewing, Terry Scott, Ronald Dennis.

Ski

Ski club was made up of students interested in skiing, both experienced and inexperienced. Group members were offered the opportunity of buying used equipment cheaply and going on more ski trips by pooling rides to the snow areas. Dry ski school instruction was given to beginners at the meetings.

Front Row: L to R: Cliff Humphrey, president; Pat Spooner, vice-president; Bruce Hyman, business manager; Janice Bowman, Liz Wentzel, Jeri Henderson, Else Holmsen. Row 2: Duncan McPherson, Hart Weaver, Jerry Rocca, Gerry McCrabb, Michiko Watanabe, Margo Coolures, Bruce Weylandt. Row 3: Jack Hession, Jim Finucane, Dennis Neu, Jim Hankins, Bob Wardlaw, Ley Campbell, Dave Cameron, Mike Price.

Jim Hicks
Ski Adviser

Bernard
Stetson
Camera Adviser

Front Row: L to R: Jaci Williams, president; Ellen Lawseth, secretary-treasurer. Row 2: Bob Gagnon, Mike Thomas, Mike Tucker.

Camera

Camera club was composed of students interested in photography. The principles of photography, with an emphasis on color film, were presented to the group by films and speakers. Demonstrations concerning the proper handling of camera equipment were given by various members of the organization.

Knuckle-Busters

Knuckle-Busters was a club made up of boys planning to enter the auto mechanics trade as a career. The club served to familiarize its members with the actions of democratic government and parliamentary procedure.

Front Row: L to R: Gary Venable, president; Leroy Wheeler, vice-president; Charles Maimone, secretary; Michael Cavanaugh, treasurer; Roy Higashi, fineman; Tadahiro Kamigaki, fineman. Row 2: Corwin Graves, Robert Baglietto, Jeffrey Lau, Vincent Maimone, Joe Estrada. Row 3: John Villapando, Donald Grupe, Teddy Wallace, Dan Thompson, Wayne Peirsol, Sun Chin. Row 4: Leslie Francois, John Williams, Robert Taylor, Jim McMuchan, Thomas Fogarty, Alvin Childress, Charles Kelley. Row 5: Billie Gentry, Ronnie Kuchel, Doyle Hawkins, Ronnie Doman, Roger Wilds, Roy Wiebe, John Stapp.

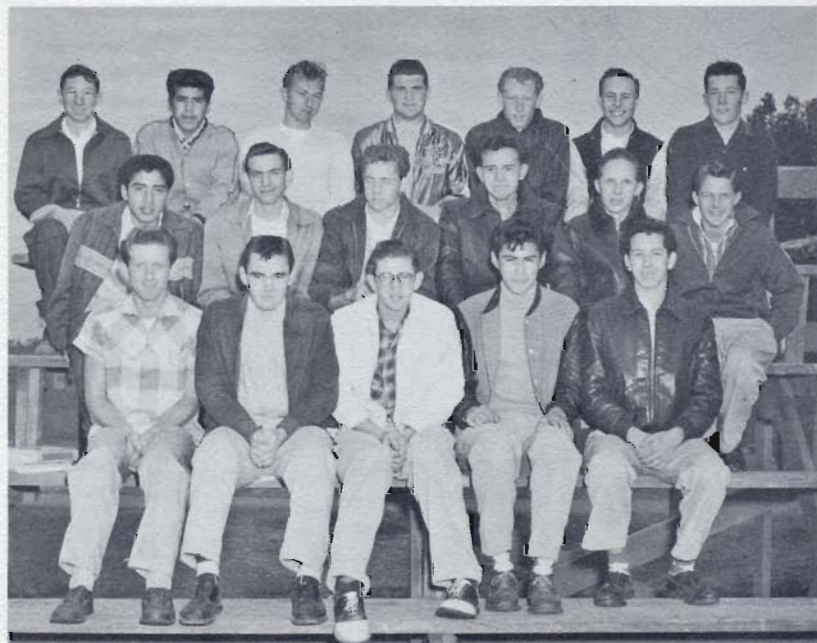

Herman Breeding
Knuckle-Busters
Adviser

Leo Estrada
Mill Cabinet
Adviser

Mill Cabinet

Mill Cabinet was a self-disciplinary club responsible for enforcing safety within their shops and collecting voluntary fines for infractions of their safety rules in their shops. An annual trip to White Pines saw mills in the region highlighted their activities for the year.

Front Row: L to R: Ronald Olvera, president; Wes Day, vice-president; Jim Trantham, secretary-treasurer; Robert Ramirez, fineman; Refugio Piceno, assistant fineman. Row 2: Trinidad Ruiz, James Strohschein, Ronald Vollmer, Harold Staggs, George Granucci, Bill Fox. Row 3: Jerry Remusat, Elias Carranco, Dan Jenkins, John Metrovich, Jerry Kinkead, Warren Kibby, Ralston Potter.

Woodpeckers

Woodpeckers was a club for interested members of the carpentry classes and was established for the purpose of grouping students interested in carpentry together in a social organization. Highlighting the activities of the group was an annual feed in the Spring.

Front Row: L to R: Richard Alvarez, president; Victor Ruiz, vice - president; Nash Crosby, sergeant - at - arms; John Padula, Melvin Reames, Bob Renfro, Kenneth Torre, Dennis Smith. Row 2: Walter Gadbut, Rudy Guinones, Alfred Yada, Leo Agbulos, Ines Rios, Ronald Genuit, Richard Park, Gerald McGuire, Eunice Warren. Row 3: Harold Fisher, Kenneth White, Weldon Hood, Ronnie Rosselli, Jack Hauck, Lonnie Rasberry, Harold Smith, John Stoker, Richard Russell.

John Witsche
Woodpeckers
Adviser

Charles Jones
Vocational Auto
Adviser

Front Row: L to R: Joe Guzman, president; Rex Moquite, vice-president; Frank Fukuhara, secretary-treasurer; Billie Speegle, sergeant-at-arms. Row 2: David Bustamante, Clyde Walther, Arthur Holland, Danrel Baumbach, David White. Row 3: Tony Castellanos, Larry McClary, John Moreno, Donald Torre, Deverald Horton, Anthony Sava.

Vocational Auto

Vocational Auto was a club for the members of the auto mechanics classes. A field trip to the automobile show in San Francisco by private bus was one of the special activities of the organization. Mid-term graduation members were feted at a chili bean feed given by the remaining club members.

Body & Fender

Body and Fender club was a club for the students enrolled in the automobile body and fender course. A field trip to the automobile show in San Francisco and a visit to an automotive enterprise were the main activities of the organization.

Front Row: L to R: Henry Meraz, president; George Nishimoto, vice-president; Ed Armendariz, treasurer; Nobu Tamura, secretary; George McCollum, Henry Molina, Martin Otinino, Floyd Wilson, Russell Stewart. Row 2: Bob Yett, Ken Hamamoto, Ronald White, Ivan Harlan, Jack Carson, David Franks, Houston Ketcherside, Manuel Sanchez, Bill Laughlin. Row 3: John Mondragon, Sadao Manabe, Chan Waanen, Ray Walker, Orvil Norton, Willis Runnels, Roy Castellon, Andrew Gallegos, Jim Henry, Truman McGill. Row 4: Frank Rosa, Charlie Gonzalez, Don Pullen, Eddie Jimenez, Gilbert Fernandez, Gino Cruz, Gene Brew, Albert Krause, Bob Grimm, Lawrence Drace.

Ernest Woodman
Body & Fender
Adviser

Joseph Acosta
Body & Fender
Adviser

Melvin Stewart
Paint Splashers
Adviser

Paint Splashers

Paint Splashers was a club whose purpose was to control activities in the paint shop and maintain friendly relations between the boys in the shop. The organization also was responsible for collecting fines for rules infractions in the work area. The annual all-shop picnic at Oak Park highlighted their social activities.

Front Row: L to R: Roger Benedito, president; Mike McFadden, vice-president. Row 2: Gert Geer, Vernon Wilkinson, Dawayn Roberts, Napoleon Dotson. Row 3: Darrell Medley, Jesse Aguilar, Domingo Paje, Lewis Turner, Mike Rios.

Tinbenders

Tinbenders was a club for students enrolled in the sheet metal classes. The organization had as its main function the disciplining of the sheet metal classes and the enforcement of their shop rules. Money collected from fines for the breach of their rules was used for an end-of-the-year social activity.

Front Row: L to R: Jess Ferrer, president; Kenneth Smith, vice-president; Bob Loureiro, secretary; Benjamin Andes, assistant secretary. Row 2: William Beach, Richard Burrola, Carl Gibson, Walter Raleigh, Donald Ding. Row 3: Barclay Ospital, Gilbert Orosco, William Walton, William Arbogast, Wayne Walters.

J. M. Gorrell
Tinbenders Adviser

Frank Brown
Radio Adviser

John Willette
Radio Adviser

Front Row: L to R: John Schatz, president; Erwin Wiss, vice-president; Dave Garra, secretary; George Young, sergeant-at-arms; Hugh Stockton, sergeant-at-arms; Robert Kinser, reporter; Robert Tanaka, treasurer.
Row 2: Alfred Palermo, Sylvester Aguilar, Eugene Jensen, Jim Graves, David Yearicks, Ralph Rimmer, Gary Wyatt, Jimmy Mershon. Row 3: Daniel Martinez, Archie Thomas, Dean Willis, Luther Miller, Sat Woon, Bob Finkbohner, Tommy Haley, David Tapia, Jerry Chandler. Row 4: Burl Treadwell, Bill Hardin, Floyd Williams, Bob Wip, Bill Hin, Larry Kimball, Michael Price, Ray Wells, Frank Hardy, Don Pennington, Michiko Watanabe.

Radio

Radio club was organized by students in radio and electronics classes. Many of the students in the club were interested in a career in one or the other of these fields, and their meetings gave them a good chance to discuss their future occupations.

Graphic Arts

Graphic Arts was a shop club whose educational object was to acquaint its members with modern printing equipment and steps, through interesting field trips. In the spring, trips were taken to the State Printing Department in Sacramento and to the local Fibreboard plant.

Front Row: L to R: Donald Velez, president; Dean Ritchie, vice-president; Harold Gilchrist, secretary; Walt Marino, treasurer; Robert Beal, Oscar Howell, Elbert Miner. Row 2: Leroy Kramer, Stewart Clark, Dwain Schock, Richard Bianchi, Domaciano Fernandez, Larry Craig, Larry Garibaldi. Row 3: Eddie Wunderlick, James Raridan, Arlon Palmer, John Erpilla, Wesley Massey, Charles Noreiga. Row 4: Ed Thomas, David White, Herman Foreman, MackSpelts, Jerry Null, Bob Greneveld, Bob Self, Douglas Croy.

James Musto
Graphic Arts
Adviser

Tom Milligan
Machine Shop
Adviser

Machine Shop

Machine Shop was a club whose purpose was to develop fellowship among the students in their shop and to encourage them into entering the trade. Group meetings provided the means of getting together the boys who had an interest in machine shop. An annual Christmas luncheon highlighted their social activities.

Front Row: L to R: Robert Eggiman, president; Larry Deaton, vice-president; Michael Huddleston, secretary; Robert Savio, treasurer; Henry Munoz, Richard Franch. Row 2: Charles Hoffman, Ronald Eichler, Ronald Casagrande, Cullen Crews, DeWayne Miller, Ted Abelong. Row 3: Cirpiano Galvez, Ernest Heining, Jess Tatum, Albert Kookan, Herman Herrera, James Wilson, Fred Wells.

Future Farmers of America

Future Farmers of America, Chapter 258 of the national organization, was made up of students enrolled in the agriculture program. As a group they attended field days at other colleges and participated in fairs and contests. The chapter was a member of the Poultry Producers of Central California.

Front Row: L to R: Richard Logemann, president; Aldo Delasso, vice-president; Ernest Winn, secretary; Bill Clark, reporter; Don Belancalana, sentinel. Row 2: Ray Mahnke, Bill Hahn, Chester Matsunaga, Mike Hirata, Anthony Muzio, Richard Hoffman, Frederick Bernazzani, Lyle Burgess. Row 3: Fred Webb, Robert Bellin, Al Williams, Michael Dougherty, John Stark, Melvin Runge, Don Durham, Albert McCarty, John Spaletta, Bert Heim.

Richard David
Future Farmer
Adviser

Bert Young
Electrics
Adviser

Front Row: L to R: Allan George, president; Larry Tupper, vice-president; Gordon Judy, secretary; Jim Bird, treasurer; Ronald Covert, sergeant-at-arms. Row 2: Tony Sanchez, Don Davis, Eddy Mah, Don Hankins, Chew Wong, Jin Lim. Row 3: Frank Fox, Omer Steward, Cary Gardner, Sam Hilliken, William Ford, Mike Preston. Row 4: Tommy Likong, Rudy Sena, Melvin Wood, Paul Hunger, Ray Quitiquit, Ed Remington.

Electrics

Electrics was a shop club organized with the primary object of uniting the students interested in electrics and of acquainting them with parliamentary procedures. A field trip to one of the power plants in Northern California during the year was one of the events in which the group participated.