Ben (Daddy),

What a crazy mixed-up friendship we had. There will forever remain within my memories your everlasting personality, and never-ending smile, especially those pearly white teeth, which you certainly must be proud of.

Well daddy, although you did choose Rita Moreno for my mother, I'm glad you decided upon Andy, I like her much better, she suits you.

Have fun this summer, and don't do anything I wouldn't.

May God Bless you, and grant you your every wish.

May your life be filled with joy, happiness and, of course, Andrea.

Loads of Love,
Phyl

FROM THE YELLING, pushing throngs that attended SC's Colt and Mustang football games to the small but enthusiastic groups which follow the Tang water polo games, almost everyone at Stockton College was connected with sports.

Nearly 12 percent of the school participated directly in team sports. Approximately 54 percent of the school paid for sports through Student Association Cards. Hundreds of students supported the teams by attendance at games and rallies. Sports affected many other people and organizations; the Rally Committee, the Athletic Publicity Office and the song and cheer leaders, to mention a few.

All and all, sports were the concern of the entire campus.

To Ben - best of luck
always in everything
I hope see you next year - watch you well

The Sacramento High School man seemed to be letting out some sort of wild cry as he was tackled by a Colt player.

The Colts wound up their last season with a record of 4 wins and 5 losses. They had the ability, but injuries to Bob Peters, John Kroyer, and Jim Quessenberry hampered them. Losing their first four games, they went on to win four out of their last five. The Colts had an effective passing game with Phil Swimley at the controls. Their running game was centered around Curt Frazier and Girman Arbet. The Colts went out in a blaze of glory as they downed Lodi 12-7 in the final minutes of the traditional game. It was the first Stockton win over the Flames in nine years.

Colt Girman Arbet is brought down by a Lodi High School man's smooth tackle.

Colt Bob Peters goes down under the onslaught of two Lodi High School players.

The Flames' team man seemed more interested in the camera than Stockton's Bob Freeman.

Curtis Frazier bit the dust as seven Lodi Flames closed in.

With a rookie ball club to start the season, the SC Colts had a big job ahead of them. But under the coaching of Carl Peregoy the Colts finished with a 9 won 5 loss record---good enough for third place in the league standings.

The scoring and rebounding was in the hands of Al Gross and Tom Tisdale, with Phil Swimley and Dennis Willens helping out.

Tom Tisdale appeared to be holding up the roof as he jumped high for a rebound.

Al Gross stooped to recover the ball while the referee called a foul on one of his SC teammates.

Colt "B" Basketball

Kneeling: Steve Curnow, Vernon Washington, Bob Freeman, Marvin Young, Curtis Frazier, Bill Sanford; standing: Bill Jacobs, coach; Newt Armstrong, Jose Rodriguez, Mike Cleland, Charlie Horn, Trinidad Ruiz.

Under the able coaching of Bill Jacobs the Stockton College B team ended their season with a four win, ten loss record to net themselves eighth place. Winning both of the Lodi games was their biggest conquest. Standouts for the Ponies were Bob Freeman and Jose Rodriguez.

Colt Track

With a small but mighty squad, the Colt trackmen battled right down to the wire, but lost the title to the McClatchy Lions. Coach Bill Gott had one of the strongest teams in the league. He had such men as broad jumper Bob Peters, sprinters Leon Moore and Bob Purify, hurdlers Clyde Williams and Fred Mayfield, and 880 man Ed Remington.

On your mark. Get set. A sprint gets under way in Stockton's Big Four Meet, in which all of the Stockton high schools participated.

SC's top relay team! Bob Purify, Leon Moore, Jack Brown, Clyde Williams.

A Franklin High man does a high-step to clear a fallen hurdle.

Stockton Relays

"Dynamite comes in small packages." This saying was lived up to by nine Colt cindermen as they captured the Eighth Annual Stockton Relays. Standouts were the Colt relay team of Bob Purify, Clyde Williams, Jack Brown, and Leon Moore. A stand-out was broad jumper Bob Peters who took first with a leap of 22' 1".

One of SC's top relayers, Bob Purify, crosses the finish line as Mike Garrigan and the official timer looked on, stop watches in hand.

Fred Mayfield hurled himself into the sand pit during the broad jump event.
