Tang Lou Schmid was about to go down fighting as two members of the opposing team closed in on him.

Establishing a record of 9 wins and 1 loss, the Mustangs again captured the Big 8 Conference title. Their only loss occurred at the hands of Fresno JC by a 14-0 score in a non-league game. As the season progressed, the Tangs developed into a smooth running machine, with Lew Schmid and Fred Almendarez providing the fireworks.

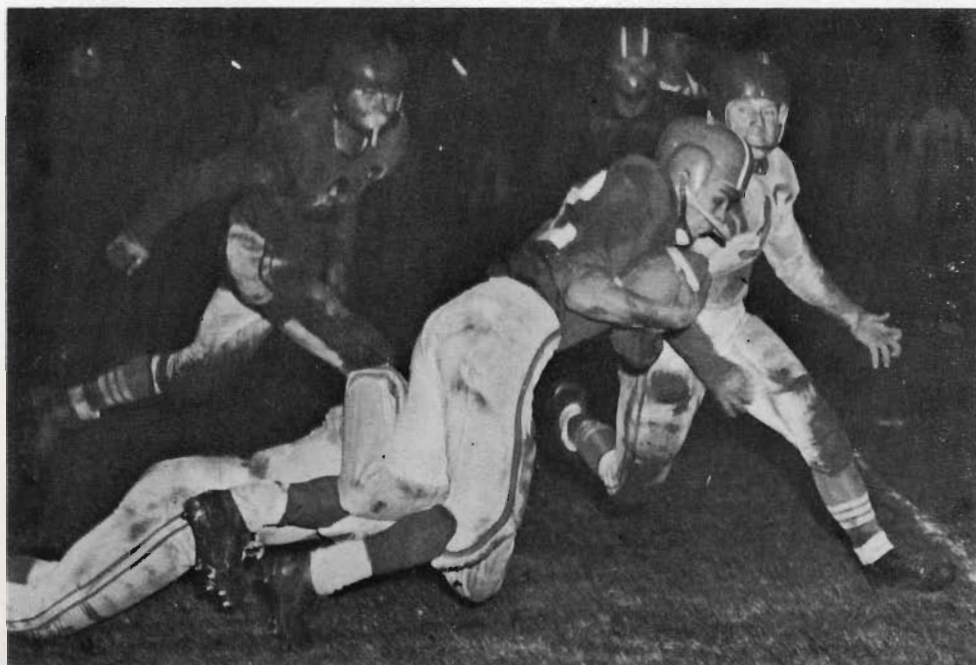

Although graduation took away key linemen from last year's championship team, they were replaced by Ken Castles, Carl Kammer, Doug Purl, Joy Gritts, Jim Curtin and Jim Coveney. The backs made the ground game work with the running of Leroy Weiland, Marshall Dragmanovich, Gary Giovannoni, and the able signal calling of Earl Moreno.

The Tangs scored a total of 234 points to the opponents' 99. Their season was climaxed by an invitation to play Orange Coast in the Potato Bowl.

Freddie Almendarez lunged for the touchdown as a couple of frantic Downey High School boys attempted to stop him.

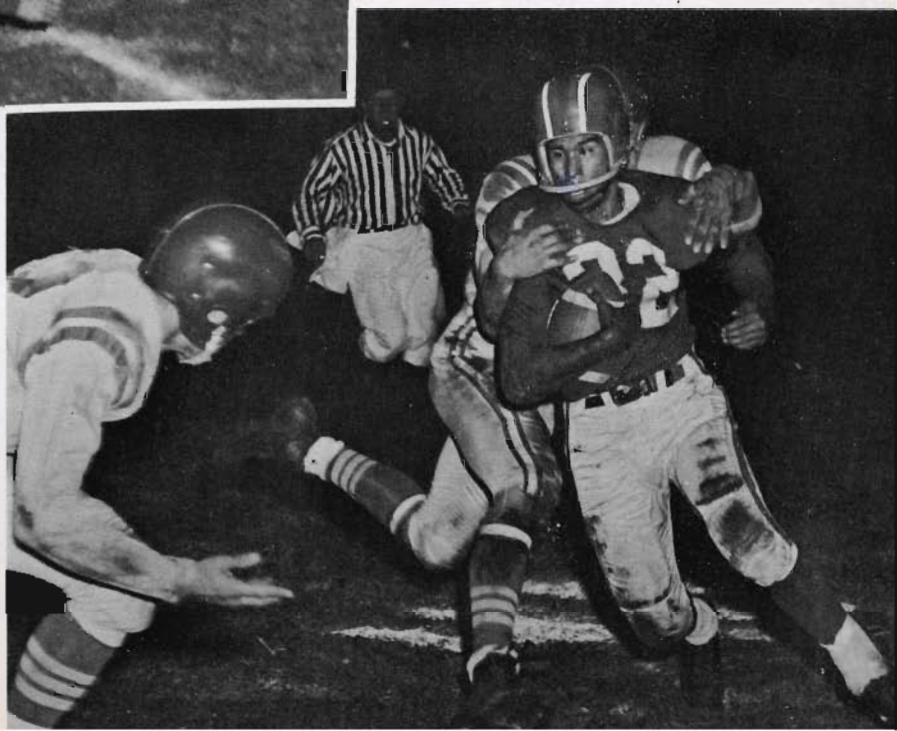

Ten of the eleven Tang players closed in on a helpless City College of San Francisco ball carrier.

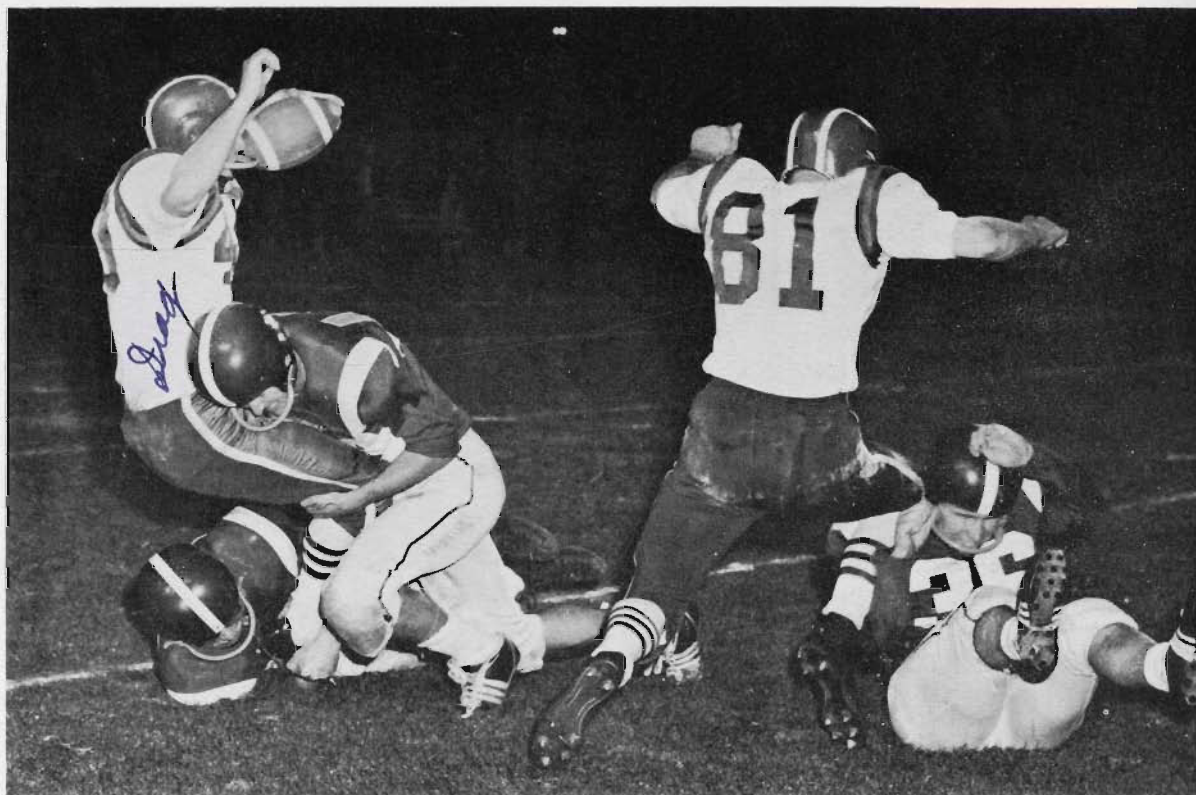

A Mustang interference runner leaped a would-be Santa Ana blocker as SC's Marshall Dragmanovich made a large gain.

There was a trapped look in Tang Freddie Almendez's eyes as he found himself surrounded by Modesto players.

A Tang run was stopped with dramatic suddenness by two Orange Coast men doing an expert over and under tackle.

To complete their season of success the Mustangs accepted an invitation to play in the Potato Bowl in Bakersfield, against Orange Coast Junior College. On the eve of the game, both teams were guests at the annual banquet and were presented with jackets.

Showing a strong defense, both teams battled on even terms, until the closing minutes of the first half when the Tangs scored two quick touchdowns. In the second half the superior Tang line opened up and when the final gun sounded, the score read 20-12 for the Tangs.

As an Orange Coast photographer sadly looked on SC's Dave Veercamp crossed the goal line for the Mustang's second TD of the night.

Finding themselves in the latter part of the season, after a mediocre first half, the Stockton College Basketeers ended their season with a 5 won 9 lost record. With only Brent Grimm and Joe Handy returning, the Tangs centered their attack around Eddie Davidson, 6' 4"; Ken Hense, 6' 1", and Byrl Bowerman, 6' 5". The title was captured by City College of San Francisco.

Wilson Johnson's giant reach aced the ball out of the hands of a Sierra Jr. College player.

Eddie Davidson and Dixie Frazier grappled with a Sierra player for that "almighty ball."

Dixie Frazier reached high to seize a rebound from the hands of a Sacramento netman.

Mary Almazon made a frantic attempt to snag a rebound in a game against the championship CCSF team.
