

to a real small guy -
I wish you all the luck you can get in the future - the best of luck in everything,
always,
Charlene White

Bew; It has been a pleasure to help a bit receive your "what was coming to you" checks -
Best of luck in whatever you may do. All wishes (VA)

The Best of luck
& good wishes for next semester. Cal.

TO MAKE MONEY for its semester or yearly project was the aim of each campus club; thus, cupcake sales became a common occurrence at Stockton College. These cupcakes provided nourishment for both the club members (who made them) and the non-club members (who bought them). Club officers were elected on a semester or yearly basis.

Club activities reached a climax in the annual Fun Fest at the Civic Auditorium with nearly every campus organization participating.

Clubs

Alpha Gamma Sigma

Members of the Stockton College chapter of Alpha Gamma Sigma were college division students. A 2.0 semester grade point average was needed to obtain membership in the honorary.

Front row: Bill Rotert, Betty Lowry, Sylvia Bradbury, Andrea Tagupa, Carol Rireout, Jim Nicholson; second row: Chuckie Guerard, Julie Wager, Sharon Blanchard, Edie Mae Pickering, Don Kibby, Frank Obien, Ervin Moraigh; third row: Ben Gonzales, Ida Lavagnino, Dorthea Daclan, Rena Bayer, Beverly Larson, Gerry Garden, Rita Franco; Michiko Watanabe, Cathy Crowel; fourth row: Jeri Henderson, Cecile Fox, Barbara Deicke, Jeanette Wong, Kathie Jacobs, Arlene Roza, Joan Silver, Pat Sloneker, Janet McGinley; fifth row: Shelly Onweiler, Peggy Joy, Gayle Goetz, Tom Gondo, David Wood, Chauncey Kepford, Palma Polsinelli, Nadine Graham, Patty Schulthebs, Eleanor Spencer.

Beta Phi Gamma

Beta Phi Gamma, the National Junior College Journalism Honorary, was an active campus organization. Members of the club attended several journalism conferences. Membership was reserved for students who had received a 2.0 minimum grade average in their classes and were outstanding journalism students.

Front row: Bruce Loeb, Ron Kibby, Adrienne Edge, Lynn Willmette; second row: Lindley Thomas, Kathie Jacobs, Bob Gagnon, Gerry Garden, Gen Lawton.

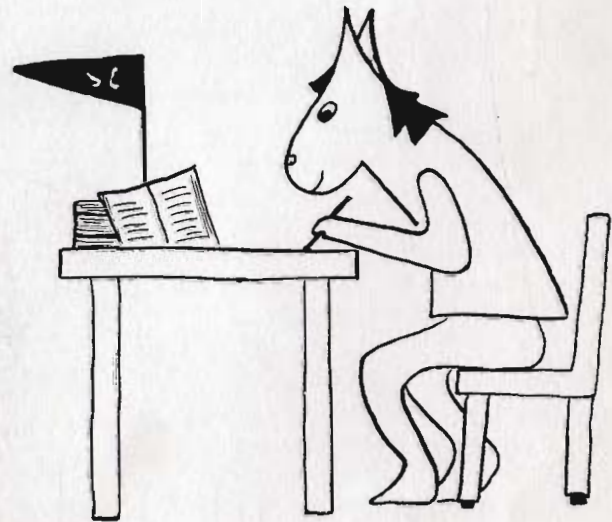

Front row: Denny Howse, Bonnie Culhane, Mary Little, Bill Maasberg, Randy Chapin, Margie Rutherford, Carol Whiteside, Barbara Heikkinen, Sherry Wilcox, Evelyn Bailey, Anne Ramacher, Joyce Jacob, Annette Wong, Annette Player, Betty Jo Balkwill, Rosalind Davis; second row: Victoria Karellis, Pat Iccarri, Elaine Francis, Nancy Montgomery, Carol Meinig, Marilyn Yep, Edith Spafford, Nancy Welch, Ann Davidson, Barbara Heston, Jane Caldwell, Brenda Harris, Cecile Cain, Mary Sorenson, Joyce Wong, Ysuko Fujiishige, Jane Semple; third row: Don McDonald, Bill Hobin, Danny Ciampaglia, Steve Smith, Barbara Gills, Marilyn Sprague, Carolyn Cook, Barbara Shepard, Gwendelyn Cook, Marsha White, Judith Weiss, Helen Webster, Pam Gosting, Gary Reid, Mary McCullough, Ann Higashi, Marjie Mann; fourth row: Gary Bradley, Bill Young, Ronald Yep, Janice Mathena, Linda Hauschildt, Barbara Keeler, Carol Chatham, Virginia Lane, Marianne Yip, Bridger Mitchell, Bandel Bezzrides, Roland Hamburg, Dennis Lindholm, Yasui Yoshiakia, George Bonjoc, Bob Best, Verne Albright, Alicia Lane.

California Scholarship Federation

Membership in the CSF was obtained by a minimum grade average of 2.5 --- a B+ average. The group held as its goal service to the school and community. A major activity of the group was its privilege day field trip each semester. This educational field trip also gave everyone who took part a chance to have fun.

The Stockton College student's participation in a variety of extra-class activities gave the student an opportunity to strengthen his personality and to develop the qualities of leadership.

To help the student attain these qualities the College conducted a carefully planned and coordinated activities program. The program succeeded in its desire to see that almost every student selected an activity which fulfilled his needs and stimulated his social and individual development.

Phi Rho Pi

Phi Rho Pi, a member of the National Forensic Honorary Organization, was made up of speech students who had actively participated in intermural collegiate debate. The group attended many speech tournaments including the Tyro Tournament at Stockton College; the Linfield Tournament at McMenville, Oregon; and the National Tournament at Bakersfield.

Front row: Ernest Merrow, Janet McGinley, Diane Gotelli, Bob Richards, Dick Sickert, second row: Bruce Loeb, Charles Guss, John Fanucchi, Dale Scott.

Xi Omicron

Xi Omicron, an organization for women who retained a 1.8 or better grade average in their thirteenth year, was active in school functions. This organization was one of the three honorary organizations which acted as guides for open house this year.

Front row: Betty Lowry, Jeanette Wong, Susan Chisamore, Sylvia Bradbury, June Bishop; second row: Kathie Jacobs, Palma Polsinelli, Arlene Roza, Carol Churchill, Gloria Chiti, Violet Wong; third row: Carole Curtis, Jean Hisaka, Janice Canclini, Florene Beroldo, Martha Metzler, Carolyn Chiapale, Pat Moresco, Pat Shum.

Bi-Sci

The Bi-Sci Club was designed to interest and encourage students in the study of life science and to call attention to the opportunities for a better understanding of the subject. Monthly meetings were held in which such subjects as drug addiction, sanitation, and fish and game were discussed.

Front row: Colene Jordan, Rita Franco, Beverly Lakson, Rena Bayer, Sonia McKee, Frances Hamonica; second row: Kim Stocking, Rod Motto, Ina Graham, Andrea Tagupa, F. Jew.

French-German

The French-German Club's main objective was to help people all over the world. Packages of clothing were sent to France, Hungary, and Germany. The organization gave scholarships to four students taking French and German languages.

Front row: Karl Minke, Jane Semple, Carol Cook, Gail Winters, Marianne Yep, Suzanne Kezar, Mary Sorenson, Louise Glasscock, Mary Izard, Mary Wallen, Sherry Wilcox, Deanna Rodgers, Rosalind Davis; second row: Dale Honea, Jerry Myers, Mary Fraga, Mary McCullough, Wendy Stein, Nancy Welch, Edith Spafford, Maryann Mangold, Penny Pahl, Beverly Rodgers, George Hurlburt, Gary Bradley, Judy Martin, Jim Emerick; third row: Vern Wall, Ed Ballard, Jim Jamesom, Jock Jenkins, Brian Hagen, Diane Spangler, Gerry Weber, Joanne Gibson, Barbara Hobin, Lavonne Noble, Joan Eaddie, Elaine Frances, Janice Hendren, Marilyn Stanley, Joyce Dorcey; fourth row: Robert Rhinefrank, Eric Heim, Jacques Coudeyre, Bill Young, Bridger Mitchell, Tom Madden, Jack Lepislo, John Weaver, Bandel Bezzerides, Richard Melman, Dennis Lindholm, John Humphreys, Don McDonald, Wareham Seaman, James Quessenberry, Aubrey Moore; fifth row: Bob Gotelli, Yagatoutz Preep, Doug Wisler, Ezra Jen, Don Eldh, Pete Erdman, David Hanway, Sandy Sadowsky, Gene McCoy, Ed Singer, Bill Gritz.

International Understandings

The International Understandings Club served to help students get a clearer picture of world happenings and thus bring about better International relationship.

Front row: Allen Brown, Nancy Welch, Gayle Goetz, Edith Spafford; second row: Omd Bhardwaj, Judy Grogan, Andrea Curtis, Fred McCollough, John Morones; third row: George Hurlburt, Mary Little, Judy Goleman, Dale Scott.

Italian

Front row: Bob Ghio, Vicki Barosso, Stephene Barosso, Rosemary Nelson; second row: Pat Moresco, Bonnie Lowes, Diane Devecchio, Barbara Giaudrone, Judy Goleman; third row: Kiyoe Abe, Bertha Garbiso, Lila Cook, Arlene Brownstein, Richard Santos, Joseph Carley.

The Italian Club was composed of students enrolled in Italian classes. Its main objective was to promote the study of the language. This organization had parties on various occasions.

Los Iberos

Los Iberos, composed of students studying the Spanish language, met to discuss and to participate in Spanish customs. A fifty dollar scholarship was awarded to a 12th year student enrolled in a Spanish class.

Front row: Dorothy DeLong, Deanna Horst, Neverra Lipelt, Joanne Chan, Annette Wong, Lucy Pickthorn, Sandra Murray; second row: Barbara Heston, Jane Caldwell, Carolyn Hyman, Anita Harmeling, Margaret Paddock, Jane Semple, Sharon Bryer, Ellen Burkett; third row: Judie Kenyon, Carol Kuhl, Richard Weston, Sharon Aldridge, Hilda Jones, Eunice Warren, Donna DeClue, Martha Nedrow, Hortenzia Moreno; fourth row: Roger Coffinderfer, Gary Gilbert, Lon Eakes, Kathy Austin, Carmen San Augustin, Christina Nelson, Robin Drury, Marjorie Ives, Brenda Harris, Leann Taussig; fifth row: Mike Northeimer, Jan Hoffman, Binns Melander, John Clow, Pat McClintork, Nancy Newton, Kathy Martin, Phyllis Coon, Carol Meining, Janice Sakerson, Teddie Rosz; sixth row: Barbara Joleti, Lary Brenneise, Joe Sims, Tom Duecker, Norman Anthony, Bettye Boyd, Judi Brown, Judy Dahl, Nancy Duchardt, Ivy Ross, Annette Player, Jean Fong.

Front row: Tom Duecker, Roland Hamburg, Don McDonald;
second row: Joe Sims, Bandel Bezzarides, Dennis Lindholm.

Physical Science

The Physical Science club's main objective was to promote increased interest and knowledge among its members, in the various branches of science and mathematics.

Body and Fender

Front row: Noe Montez, Florentino Cruz, Ivan Harian, Huston Ketcherside, Roy Castellon, Manuel Sanchez, Daniel Soltero; second row: Douglas Kinser, Aster Page, Keith Harlan, Ronnie Alves, Thomas Cunningham, Delbert Baxter, Louie Allan, Willis White; third row: Charles Loosen, Sadao Manabe, Ken Hamamoto, Rudolph Carrasco, Bill Adams, Robert Saragoza, Geraold Seifert, Phil Heinle, Charles Frankas; fourth row: Pete Arana, Harold Huffman, Edith Jimenez, Bob Milton, Gerald McGuire, Fred Williams, Willie Ivy, Eugene Wright, Jason Lewis.

The Body and Fender Club was composed of members interested in technical training for auto repair. Guest speakers in that field were presented to give students a better idea of auto repairing. Field trips were taken to automobile assembly plants.

Electrics

The purpose of the Electrics Club was to promote interest and a broader understanding of electricity. A field trip was taken to the General Electric nuclear plant to see the latest developments in electric power.

Front row: Mike Preston, Sam Hilliker, Ruby Sena, Coy Wright; second row: Bill Noyer, Glenn Blanke, Stanley Beasley, Max Gallegos, Isen Jackson; third row: Bill Southwick, Gerald Giudice, David Graddock, Richard Rallios, Chew Wong, Tom Likong; fourth row: Steve Walker, Jim Freedle.

Front row: William Carder, instructor; Charlie Noriega, Don Velez, John Erpilla, Larry Craig, Leslie C. Davis, instructor; second row: Harvey Hamlow, Roland Waechter, Herman Aavedo, Stewart Clark, Jerry Ding, Curtis Frazier; third row: Bob Nimmo, LeRoy Kramer, Don Fernandez, Richard Bianchi, Kung Jeung, Joe Simard, Dick Kearns, Ed Thomas; fourth row: Arlon Palmer, Carol Robertson.

Mill Cabinet

Mill Cabinet served as an organization for students interested in various forms of carpentry as a career. Safety rules were stressed and enforced with fines. In this way funds were obtained for parties at the end of the semester.

Graphic Arts

The goal of the Graphic Arts Club was to teach students the "ins" and the "outs" of the printing trade. Field trips were taken to Fibreboard and Foto-Art Engraving to observe a few of the many careers available to the members.

Front row: Harold Staggs, Stewart Poulsen, Joe Aquila, Bill Fox, Robert Ramirez; second row: Billy Denison, Arlyn Jacob, Jerry Rhinhart, Janis Strohseheim, Donald Treece, Ralph Alejandro; third row: Guido Mozza, Darryl Smith, Clarence Flores, Jim Creson, Tommy Campbell, Emie Lagrimas, Richard Smith; fourth row: Trinie Fioiz, Richard Ramirez.

Front row: John Clark, Ted Petersen, Ramsay Cowlshawor, Gene Gomas, Bob Keller, Terry Scott; second row: Ivy Earnest, David Harrison, Hing Fong, Michael Gasser, Gerald Harris, Stanley Cain, Al Moznett; third row: Malcolm Mather, Joe Lopez, Ray Leitner, Herb Rogers, Jeffrey Lau, Richard Sowell, Leland Lang, Victor Marquardt.

O'Tooles

The O'Tooles Club consisted of members who gained experience in the field of drafting in the Stockton College classes. A Pot-Luck Dinner was held each month with an expert in some field of drafting and engineering as guest speaker. In this way the members often met their future employers.

Plunging Plumbers

The Plunging Plumbers, a new organization on campus this year, strove to give each member a better understanding of the plumbing field. A field trip was taken to broaden the pre-apprentices' knowledge of plumbing. Money was collected by fines and used for parties at Christmas, Easter and at the end of the semester.

Front row: Gordon Violet, Gordon Cervo, Glen Fouquette; second row: Leo DelCarlo, Gary Hill, Johnny Ferreo, Les Crosby.

Radio Club

The Radio Club, organized to interest students in this field as a career, had as one of its many achievements an amateur radio license.

Front row: Ruben Rodriquez, Claude Sheldon, David Yearicks, Dare Stull, Robert Fonkbshner, Vern Emick, Loren Mounteer; second row: Vaughan Aian, Harry Williams, William Padilla, Peter Serrano, Bob Coleman, Don Matthews, Leslie LaFrankie, Edwin Ballard; third row: Larry Biedinger, Jim Graues, Bill Burres, Tony Reynoso, Bill DuBois, Jesse James, Ron Fiori, Robert Moreno, David Chin, George Washington; fourth row: Clifford Brown, Leon Porter, William Wynn, Lamarr Coffey.

Tin Benders

The Tin Benders drew memberships from students enrolled in the sheet metal classes at Stockton College. Most students in this organization planned a vocation which required working with sheet metals, such as used in heating or ventilating systems.

Front row: Kenneth Smith, Bill Cree, Sid Smith, Jerry Schiefferly; second row: Danny Callahan, Vil Corbin, Aluin Lrion, Dennis Ding, Gaylo Lapitan; third row: Albert Withers, Gilbert Orosco, Bob Haverlock, Jerry Rakono, Ben Andes, Kenny Powell.

Vocational Auto

The Vocational Auto Club consisted of students in the SC Auto Electrics class. Parliamentary procedure and better driving habits of members were stressed. A field trip was taken to the Chevrolet Plant to study the automotive trade. The club also made donations to worthy causes.

Benny

Front row: Bob Cruz, Robert Masuda, Ron Kuehl, Jim McMeechan, John Williams, Gook M. Leow; second row: Tony Wong, Benny Acoba, Roy Wiebe, John Stapp, Don Smith, Fletcher Phillips, Alvis Childress; third row: Johnny Mondari, Jack Sabo, Ronnie Damon, Howard Souza, Jax Jantzen, Tom Loewen, Mike McDonnell.

Woodpeckers

Front row: Ben Nicolas, Alfred Yada, Noah Saffold, Eugene Warren, Richard Alvarez; second row: Walter Smith, Tony Huerta, Jim Mitchell, Chuck Beatty, Waldon Moll, Tino Cuevas; third row: Rudy Quinones, Howard Smith, Larry Trotter, Jack Hauck, Ron Roselli, Ken White, Ken Torre; fourth row: Steve Edens, Gabriel Chavez, Boots Blake, John Padilla, Morris Arttaga, Herbert Rayborne, Johnny Lew.

The Woodpeckers Club, made up of members interested in carpentry as a career, was open to all members of the carpentry classes. Shop laws were enforced by fines which at the end of the semesters were used for parties.

Chess

Chess Club was devoted to the enjoyment of the intellectual game of Chess. Spending many hours in competition with one another, the Club also took on a few brave faculty members. No mention will be made of who won.

Chauncey Kepford, Robert Hoagland, William Coyne

*To Be's.
It's been
I will have I'm around. Remember that night. Remember in English. Benny Acosta*

Guys and Dolls

Guys and Dolls was organized as a student social club. Dancing followed business meetings held once every two weeks on the COP campus.

Front row: Don Schaeffer, sponser; John Vincent, Grace Wilson, Mary Lemon, Jim Stoney; second row: Janica Bowman, Gen Lawton, Lloyd Dillingham, Dale Scott, Scott Stevenson, Pat Shum; third row: Edith Beam, Leilani Herpich, Norma Aamoth.

Key Club

The Key Club, sponsored by the Stockton Kiwanis, was a service organization active in community and school activities this year. The club helped the United Crusade and other worthy organizations.

Front row: Jacques Coudeyre, Dick Park, Art Money, Bob Best, Bob Ross, Ronald Dennis; second row: Denny Howse, Clinton Flint, Allen Waldo, Aubrey Moore, Mickey McClure; third row: Doug Wisler, Bob Nelson, Bill Maasberg, Tak Ogino, Harry Shishido, Ronald Yep; fourth row: Holden Wong, Allen Nagata, Kenneth Nishikawa, Carl Drennan, Chance Wong.

Newman Club

The Newman Club, composed of Catholics and those interested in the Catholic religion, strived to develop a wholesome personality in each member by activities based on social, religious and intellectual values.

Front row: Ann Ulleberg, Shelly Onweiler, Peggy Joy, Florene Beroldo; second row: Andrea Tagupa, Dennis Ahearn, Diane Gotelli, Arlene Roza, Ruby Gallagher; third row: Domenick Crocitto, Richard Smith, Duane Gibson, Chuckie Guerard, Jane Abbott, Carolyn Chiapale, Susan Chisamore; fourth row: Tom Earley, Ralph Asceuci, David Rule, Ron Isetti, Mary Podesta.

Ski Club

The Ski Club took many trips to Dodge Ridge this year and beginners were given free lessons. The group sponsored three half-hour color movies on ski techniques. The organization also sponsored a Christmas tree sale to raise funds for the school's first ski team.

Front row: Cliff Humphrey, Jean Garvey, Omd Bhardwa; second row: Virginia Alexson, John Vincent, Pat Shum, Dennis Honeychurch.

Future Business Leaders of America

Front row: Kathy Little, Miriam Brudernich, Pat Moresco, Pat Smith, Loretta Ragsdale; second row: Marilyn Yep, Bonnie Tom, Jackie Baker, Jane Meads, Gracelyn Travel, Katherine Troutman.

The Future Business Leaders of America was composed of students who planned to enter business as a career. Several members attended the State Convention and speakers from business fields told of the many advantages in their respective occupations.

Future Farmers of America

Front row: Tom Estes, John Arias, Jim Pellegrini, Al Geham, Dave Lagomarsino, George Lindsey, Jim Williams, Don Imel; second row: Wayne Lawrence, Joe Ressel, Jim Holland, Arlen Neckles, Jacob Baer, John Peoples, Jim Porterfield, Rae Drennan, Dave Jordan; third row: Charles Phillips, Pete Lakatsas, Pete Metaxas, Tom Hartsock, Bob Kuster, George Wessitsh, Jerry Cross, Hallie Slater, Joe Elam, Clinton McCarty; fourth row: Norman Comer, Gilbert Prieto, Jim Crowe, Dan Roy, Bill Harmon, Norm Harris, Dale Deshazer, Lauritz Petersen, Art Harris, Steve Melera, Frank Valverde; fifth row: Mike Buckholtz, Larry Holt, Bob Lord, Leon Anderson, Bill Clark, Lyle Smith, Bert Heim, Lyle Burgess, Rich Hoffman, Walt Williams, Vernal Jacob, Terry Epprosen, Don Stover.

San Joaquin Valley is the center of one of the richest agricultural areas of the United States. The Future Farmers of America prepare the farmers of tomorrow to enter directly into their vocation and to enter farm service occupations such as livestock and landscape gardening, pest control, and many others.

Future Nurses of America

Front row: Nan Philipps, Nancy Kawada, Frankie Ridden, Joyce Gehman; second row: Dolores McGill, Lucy Pickthorn, Sumiye Hattori, Judy Mierkey, Jeanette Bennett.

The Future Nurses of America Club, an organization for girls planning to make nursing their profession, went on many field trips. The club visited the San Joaquin Hospital School and the hospital at the Travis Air Base. The group also helped with the San Joaquin Heart Fund Campaign.

Ben,
 He, I can't say much for what I would say would really be a sincere comment about your terrific ability in sports, etc.
 I really enjoyed joking around with you although most of the
 we are much too crazy!
 The best of everything is a great guy!

Best wishes!
 Betty V.

