Volume XVIII

Foreward

This staff and editor sincerely hope that the 1941 Pleiades excels all others. In this book we give you your pleasures of today and memories for tomorrow—one volume of your four year diary.

We Dedicate

this, the 1941 Pleiades, to one who has worked to give us a band, an orchestra, and a glee club of which we are proud. In his two years at Strathmore he has become a friend and counselor to many a Spartan student. In appreciation of his untiring efforts we dedicate the Pleiades to—Kenneth R. Thienes.

THE PRINCIPAL SPEAKS

The permanent records kept in the safe contain many valuable items concerning each student, but few people will ever have access to them. Of equal importance, and of much more interest, are the records of the classes, organizations and the many school activities. It is a very fitting custom to depict in an attractive book form a record of these activities. The extensive participation by students in school affairs as portrayed in the 1941 Pleiades indicates that we are approaching the ideal of 100% participation.
