Log

Book

38 - 39

The freshmen promoted the adoption of several yells for the student body. The capable officers of our crew were:

- President - - - - - Calvin Kimber
- Vice President - - - - - Bruce Williams
- Secretary - - - - - Patricia Krier
- Treasurer - - - - - Jack Cantrell
- Yell Leaders - - - - - Helen Brown, Art Thrall
- Advisor - - - - - Miss Williams (Mrs. Smith)

39 - 40

As sophomores the class spent the year serving on various committees and clubs:

- President - - - - - Bruce Williams
- Vice President - - - - - Olin Greer
- Secretary - - - - - Wilha Tappe
- Treasurer - - - - - Keith Anderson
- Yell Leader - - - - - Helen Brown
- Advisor - - - - - Miss Mangrum

40 - 41

The Junior Play, "Our Girls," directed by Miss Schmittou, starring Olin Greer, Bruce Williams, and Eugene George as the three enticing girls, was a big success.

Everybody had a grand time skiing, skating, and tobogganing at the junior-senior snow party.

In the junior-senior banquet the theme was built around our modern navy. The banquet was rated as one of the best.

- President - - - - - Bruce Williams
- Vice President - - - - - Harold Sheldon
- Secretary - - - - - Anne Moreno
- Treasurer - - - - - Keith Anderson
- Yell Leaders - - - - - Joe Campus, Helen Brown
- Advisors - - - - - Miss Schmittou, Mr. Thornton

41 - 42

The senior play, "Almost Summer," was another success directed by Mr. Conley.

On that memorable day of June 5, 1942, we received those which we had been working for—our diplomas.

- President - - - - - Keith Anderson
- Vice President - - - - - Olin Greer
- Secretary - - - - - Anne Moreno
- Treasurer - - - - - Eugene George
- Yell Leader - - - - - Junior Stout
- Advisor - - - - - Mr. Conley

Communiques

As I sit here and adjust my glass eye, my true blue eye perks up with a glint as I read of my former inmates of the class of '42 of Strathmore High School. Here are the International Gazette's reports:

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congressman Olin Greer of Missouri collaborated the statement of his secretary, Pauline Stanton, of the deportation of Junior Stout and Bruce Williams to Czechoslovakia, for ditching their afternoon sessions of classes at Sing Sing.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas—Eugene George was placed in the hospital for treatment under the noted physician, Dr. Benjamin Bertorelli. Mr. George had his hands injured after singing 100 verses of "Deep in the Heart of Texas" and converting his hands to pulp by clapping so hard.

SASKATCHEWAN, Alaska. Dorothy Douglas, teacher of inmates of the Alaska State Institution, today married Pasquale Della, former bus driver of the Blue Dog bus lines. The couple was attended by Carl Peterson and Jimmy Lee Billingslea.

BERLIN, Germany—Keith Anderson today escaped from the concentration camp in Berlin. He has written a book on his escapades, titled "Tales of Vienna Horses."

STRATHMORE, California—Hermit Lovell Hampy, who has been in seclusion on Lewis Hill for 14 years, today come out into civilization. He has announced that he will enter his beard in a contest for the longest beards in the world. His present crop exceeds 24 feet.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oklahoma—Lucille Carter today announced her engagement to David Benge, the former violinist in the Philharmonic Symphony. The couple plans on its marriage on July 4. Their home will be made in Tulsa.

MANHATTAN, New York—Ralph Raymond, bouncer in the "42" club, today was sued for damages he inflicted upon Joe (BB eyes) Campus on New Year's Eve, when Raymond reportedly shoved Campus down the coal chute.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina—Ruth and Fred Poulsen, famous team of jugglers, will do their famous egg balancing act today in the Bijou theatre. Their act consists of Ruth holding a raw egg in both her hands, and doing hand springs, while Fred threatens her with an egg beater, held between his teeth, while he walks a slack wire.

CHUNGKING, China—Helen Weisenberger, chief laundress in the Ming Toy laundry, owned and operated by Hideo Sato, today filed suit of divorce against her husband, Calvin Weisenberger. Mrs. Weisenberger, nee Helen Brown, charged Weisenberger with mental cruelty, stating that he insisted on peeling potatoes by placing them in the electric fan.

GREAT LAKES, Michigan—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Songer (the former Carolyn Fick) today announced their purchase of 4 St. Bernards, 5 Irish Setters, and 22 Fox Terriers. They have hopes of crossing the dogs; thus, a Pug and Beagle would make a Pugle; a Newfoundland and a Poodle would make a Newdle.

ZANTE, California—Miss Margaret Johnston, head of the Dramatic Department of Zante Tech, today announced the preview of the play: "The Flute Player's Revenge," which Miss Johnston has directed. Starred in the play are the following: Anne Moreno as Mitzi, the dwarf; Donald Wilkinson as Fiorelli, the flute player, and Evah Mae Orr as Rosie, the flute player's wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, California—Mr. Fred Shimasaki, head of the Japanese Legation, of this city, announced today that his new secretary is to be Miss Toshiko Saito, former student of the University of California.

TORONTO, Canada—Mr. Arthur Thrall, R. A. F. pilot, returned to his home in this city today, for his marriage to Miss Wilha Tappe, the former star of Barnum Bros. circus, Miss Tappe having taken the lead in the trapeze act. Miss Tappe decided to retire from the circus after falling from a 200-foot tower and injuring her right thumb. Mr. Thrall announced he has shot down 2 planes during the five years he has been in the Air Force, but this small amount is probably due to the fact that Mr. Thrall is blind in one eye and can't see out of the other eye. The couple plans on its marriage on November 11.

Well, I guess that's about all the news articles of interest that I can find. I'd better close now.

PATRICIA KRIER.

Corporals

On September 10, 1941, fifty sophomores entered the school, ready to begin another successful year at Strathmore Union High School under the guidance of Coach Shepherd.

The sophomores elected the following class officers: Ben Eisner, president; Lynn Van Hart, vice president; Norma Harrison, secretary; Leonard Flint, treasurer; Arlis Garner, sergeant-at-arms.

The sophomores have taken part in many school activities. They have been outstanding in both girls' and boys' athletics. Outstanding sophomore athletes were Arlis Garner, Ben Eisner, Sam Shimasaki, James Neeley, Jack Dill, George Efseaff, and Lee Smith; Keith Melton served as the athletic manager.

Standing: L. Smith, A. Garner, G. Efseaff, L. Flint, Mr. Shepherd, J. Dill, B. Eisner, J. Neeley, H. Bohannon.

Privates

The freshman class was very progressive in starting the new term under the direction of Mrs. Premo.

The class officers were: president, Helen Songer; vice president, Eynar Poulsen; secretary, Naoma Lee Short; treasurer, Marian Efseaff; yell leader, Arvella Zike; news reporter, Geraldine Garner.

The next exciting event was the class party on November 8, 1941.

Another accomplishment to be proud of was the drive for paper for National Defense.

The assembly program given January 3 was very successful owing to the leadership of Geraldine Garner, Rinko Shimasaki, and Richard Ingersoll.

Standing: D. White, G. Woody, B. Whitlock, J. Taylor, J. Nelson, A. Knutson, J. Fain, D. Stark, E. Craven, W. Jones, Mrs. Premo.
